Join Johnny Baptist while he discusses the empirical events across the world leading up to World War III, the trickery and deceit of the New World Order, and the bizarre weirdness of the fallen angelic UFO phenomenon as we plunge head first into the forthcoming apocalypse and the Seven Seals of Revelation (chapter 6). Tonight we are blessed to have sister Rachel Baxter join us to discuss a series of powerful words she received from the Lord in the last several weeks. For more information see Rachel's web site here: <http://www.scrollandfigleaf.com/the-u.s..html>

Pressing Through

We never saw anything like this!

—Mark 2:12

Scripture reading: Mark 2:1–17

*I*f anything stirs me in my life, it is words such as these: “We never saw anything like this!” These words were spoken following the healing of a paralyzed man. His four friends removed a portion of the roof in order to “let down the bed on which the paralytic was lying” (Mark 2:4). Jesus healed the man, and “immediately he arose, took up the bed, and went out in the presence of them all” (v. 12).

It is an ideal thing to get people to believe that when they ask, they will receive (Matt. 21:22). But how could it be otherwise? It must be so when God says it. Now we have a beautiful word brought before us in the case of this paralyzed man, helpless and so weak that he could not help himself get to Jesus. Four men, whose hearts were full of compassion, carried the man to the house, but the house was full. Oh, I can see that house today as it was filled, jammed, and crammed. There was no room, even by the door. It was crowded inside and out.

Something should happen all the time to cause people to say, “We never saw anything like that.” God is dissatisfied with stationary conditions. He opens the storehouse of the Most High, “the unsearchable riches of Christ” (Eph. 3:8), to us. God wants to move us into this divine position so that we are completely new creations (2 Cor. 5:17). You know that “the flesh profits nothing” (John 6:63). Paul says in Romans that “the carnal mind is enmity against God; for it is not subject to the law of God, nor indeed can be” (Rom. 8:7). As we cease to live in the old life and come to know the resurrection power of the Lord, we enter a place of rest, faith, joy, peace, blessing, and life everlasting. Glory to God!

May the Lord give us a new vision of Himself and fresh touches of divine life. May His presence shake off all that remains of the old life and bring us fully into His newness of life. May He reveal to us the greatness of His will concerning us, for there is no one who loves us like He does. Yes, beloved, there is no love like His, no compassion like His. He is filled with compassion and never fails to take those who will fully obey Him into the Promised Land.

Thought for today: So many people stop at the doorway when God in His great plan is inviting them into His treasury.

GREAT QUOTES from TOZER

"Trust God in the dark until the light returns." - AW Tozer

"I am convinced that many evangelicals are not truly and soundly converted. Among the evangelicals it is entirely possible to come into membership, to ooze in by osmosis, to leak through the cells of the church and never know what it means to be born of the Spirit and washed in the blood. A great deal that passes for the deeper life is nothing more or less than basic Christianity."

- AW Tozer

"Our most pressing obligation is to do all in our power to obtain a revival that will result in a reformed, revitalized, purified church."

- AW Tozer

"Though the cross of Christ has been beautified by the poet and the artist, the avid seeker after God is likely to find it the same savage implement of destruction it was in the days of old. The way of the cross is still the pain-wracked path to spiritual power and fruitfulness. So do not seek to hide from it. Do not accept an easy way. Do not allow yourself to be patted to sleep in a comfortable church, void of power and barren of fruit. Do not paint the cross nor deck it with flowers. Take it for what it is, as it is, and you will find it the rugged way to death and life. Let it slay you utterly." - AW Tozer

"The Holy Spirit did not come to make them of one accord, He came because they were of one accord. ... It is not the music that tunes your piano, it's the tuned piano that makes your music."

- AW Tozer

"Sin is a poisonous weed that throws the whole nature out of order. The inner life disintegrates; the flesh lusts after forbidden pleasures; the moral judgment is distorted so that often good appears evil and evil good; time is chosen over eternity, earth over heaven and death over life." - AW Tozer

A CALL TO ARMS, A CALL TO ARMS

Sound the Alarm yes Sound the Alarm
A Call to Arms yes a Call to Arms
For years the Watchmen have warned of things yet far away
Now the alarm is sounding for that which is upon us today.

Destruction upon destruction for the whole land is spoiled
The people have become foolish and in evil are embroiled.
O my soul the sound of trumpet the alarm of war
What vials have been opened; what from them will be poured?

Blow the trumpet in Zion and sound an alarm in My Holy Mountain
The works of the nations have been seen and the sins of the people counted.
Let the priests and the ministers of the Lord now weep
We did not keep His statutes and now the tares are more than the wheat.

Many believe we have now won a great battle and have folded their hands to sleep
But we have not as yet even entered into battle but beware the war upon us creeps.
America has but chosen a man for office and how he leads we are yet to see
And too many deluded by their bondage believe their chains make them free.

America has awakened briefly before, only to hit the Snooze and return to our sleep
Thinking there is peace and safety when there is no safety and there is no peace.
We have ignored the promise of blessing and curse for those that divide God's land
America is leading the charge with 70 nations to implement their coveted two state-plan.

Now is the time to put on the raiment proper for the conflict
Time to put on the whole armor that Yahuah provided us with Knowing the weapons of our warfare are not carnal or hidden in the shadows
But mighty through God to the pulling down of strongholds.

Strongholds that have been built for centuries
Ruled and protected by powers and principalities
Possessing many different modalities using multiple personalities
Commonalities, nationalities and political formalities to insure their finality.

That finality being known by many different names
But ignored by many and those who exposed it are shamed.
Called conspiracy theorist if you expose the New World Order
And while we sleep the enemy marches ever forward.

Some say we have received a reprieve at this moment
I say we have an opportunity and if we squander it we will lament.
For too long we have been found wanting when in the balance we were weighed
It is time to fold our hands, not to sleep but to fervently pray.

Many terrible things are ready to be released upon mankind

How you fair will depend upon with whom you are aligned,
In the midst of the darkness will burn Revival's Fire
To seek a Great Awakening is that to which we must aspire.

The Fire will light the way for those who have called upon the Living God for sight
It will be a Refiner's Fire but those unprepared and unrepentant will face an awful plight.
Those things the Watchmen warned about haven't gone away
That is why the bells are ringing and the alarm goes out today.

This is a call to those who claim His Name for revival for repentance and to pray
The enemy hasn't given up rather they are gearing up to escalate the fray.
Sound the Alarm yes Sound the Alarm
This is a Call to Arms, a Call to Arms.

The land before us has been like Eden the beautiful garden
But behind us it will be desolate if our hearts remain hardened.
We cannot claim that our hearts are not granite and hard as stone
When the unborn babes cry out from where their discarded bodies were thrown.

We cannot claim we are not stiff necked when Truth is trampled in our streets
We cannot claim our consciences are not seared when artists and leaders hold spirit feasts.
Destruction upon destruction is cried; for spoiled is the whole land
It is time for tearing down for building up and upon our knees to take our stand.

What blessings or what cursing lie before the people today?
Has not life or death been set before us as the Scriptures say?
Choose life that both thou and thy seed may live.
No greater warning, or opportunity, could Yahuah give.

Let him who has an ear hear and answer the Spirit's call
The Principalities and Powers are inciting a terrible squall
It is time to Sound the Alarm yes Sound the Alarm
Do you hear the Call to Arms, the Call to Arms?

“Not called!' did you say?

'Not heard the call,' I think you should say.

Put your ear down to the Bible, and hear Him bid you go and pull sinners out of the fire of sin. Put your ear down to the burdened, agonized heart of humanity, and listen to its pitiful wail for help. Go stand by the gates of hell, and hear the damned entreat you to go to their father's house and bid their brothers and sisters and servants and masters not to come there. Then look Christ in the face — whose mercy you have professed to obey — and tell Him whether you will join heart and soul and body and circumstances in the march to publish His mercy to the world.”

The chief danger that confronts the coming century will be religion without the Holy Ghost, Christianity without Christ, forgiveness without repentance, salvation without regeneration, politics without God, heaven without hell.

"A Prayer for Spiritual Revival":

Disturb us, Lord, to dare more boldly, To venture on wider seas Where storms will show your mastery;
Where losing sight of land, We shall find the stars.
We ask You to push back The horizons of our hopes; And to push into the future In strength, courage, hope, and love. Because we have dreamed too little, When we arrived safely Because we sailed too close to the shore. Disturb us, Lord, when With the abundance of things we possess We have lost our thirst For the waters of life; Having fallen in love with life, We have ceased to dream of eternity And in our efforts to build a new earth, We have allowed our vision Of the new Heaven to dim.

MARTIAL LAW – PDD 51- Congressman Threatened by Marshal Law

Legislation signed on May 9, 2007, declares that in the event of a “catastrophic event”, the President can take total control over the government and the country, bypassing all other levels of government at the state, federal, local, territorial and tribal levels, and thus ensuring total unprecedented dictatorial power.

The National Security and Homeland Security Presidential Directive, which also places the Secretary of Homeland Security in charge of domestic “security”, was signed earlier without the approval or oversight of Congress and seemingly supercedes the National Emergency Act which allows the president to declare a national emergency but also requires that Congress have the authority to “modify, rescind, or render dormant” such emergency authority if it believes the president has acted inappropriately.

An Obama executive order that creates a council of state governors who will work with the feds to expand military involvement in domestic security, together with PDD 51, a Bush era executive order that gives the President dictatorial power in times of national emergency, eliminate the last roadblocks to declaring martial law in the United States.

The new order, which is entitled Establishment of the Council of Governors (PDF), creates a body of ten state governors directly appointed by Obama who will work with the federal government to help advance the “synchronization and integration of State and Federal military activities in the United States”.

The governors will liaise with officials from Northcom, Homeland Security, the National Guard as well as DoD officials from the Pentagon “in order to strengthen further the partnership between the Federal Government and State governments,” according to the executive order.

The executive order combines seamlessly with Presidential Decision Directive 51 to hand Obama dictator status in times of declared, and not necessarily genuine, national emergency.

In May 2007, former President George W. Bush sparked much alarm by openly declaring himself to be a dictator in the event of a national emergency under provisions that effectively nullify the U.S. constitution, but such an infrastructure has been in place for over 70 years and this merely represented a re-authorization of martial law powers.

Legislation signed on May 9, 2007, declares that in the event of a “catastrophic event”, the President can take total control over the government and the country, bypassing all other levels of government at the state, federal, local, territorial and tribal levels, and thus ensuring total unprecedented dictatorial power.

The National Security and Homeland Security Presidential Directive, which also places the Secretary of Homeland Security in charge of domestic “security”, was signed earlier without the approval or oversight of Congress and seemingly supercedes the National Emergency Act which allows the president to declare a national emergency but also requires that Congress have the authority to “modify, rescind, or render dormant” such emergency authority if it believes the president has acted inappropriately.

Journalist Jerome Corsi, who studied the directive, also states that it makes no reference to Congress and “its language appears to negate any requirement that the president submit to Congress a determination that a national emergency exists.”

In July 2007, Congressman Peter DeFazio (D – OR) was asked by his constituents to see what was contained within the classified portion of the White House’s plan for operating the government after a terrorist attack.

Since DeFazio also sits on the Homeland Security Committee and has clearance to view classified material, the request would have appeared to be routine, but the Congressman was unceremoniously denied all access to view the documents, and the White House wouldn’t even give an excuse as to why he was barred.

“I just can’t believe they’re going to deny a member of Congress the right of reviewing how they plan to conduct the government of the United States after a significant terrorist attack,” DeFazio told the Oregonian.

[efoods]“We’re talking about the continuity of the government of the United States of America,” DeFazio says. “I would think that would be relevant to any member of Congress, let alone a member of the Homeland Security Committee.”

“Maybe the people who think there’s a conspiracy out there are right,” DeFazio concluded.

These new powers have now been handed over to President Obama, allowing him, along with a body of councillors personally selected by him, to declare martial law without there necessarily being a genuine national emergency, greasing the skids for U.S. troops and National Guard to conduct domestic policing of the American people.

In October 2008, Northcom, a Unified Combatant Command of the United States military based out of Peterson AFB, Colorado Springs, was assigned the 3rd Infantry Division’s 1st Brigade Combat Team returning from Iraq. An alarming September 8 Army Times report which was later denied after it sparked controversy stated that the troops would be used by Northcom to deal with “civil unrest and crowd control” in the aftermath of a national emergency.

The Obama executive order states that governors will help advise the feds on National Guard, homeland defense, and civil support activities.

The fact that the order further blurs the lines between state and federal power, as well as greasing the skids for more military involvement in domestic affairs has stoked fears that Obama may be laying the groundwork for his promised “national civilian security force”.

Conservatives and libertarians responded to the announcement by expressing their suspicion that Obama is preparing to give governors their marching orders in targeting “anti-government” types that have long been characterized as a terrorist threat by the feds in numerous reports stretching back over a decade.

“There is a definite purpose to this,” wrote one commenter on the popular Free Republic website, “The initial steps toward a domestic “Civilian Security Force” in each state, as called for by the fascisti during the campaign. It will be coordinated at the state level, under the authority of DHS and DoD and assorted agencies. The provision will be made for it to be “federalized” in an emergency, as is the National Guard.”

“This is a concrete step toward eliminating the independent authority and dissolving the sovereignty of the several States. It lays the groundwork for the end of the United States as a Republic,” she adds.

Others warn that Obama could be preparing to cancel elections under the justification of a national emergency, a fear that was often expressed when Bush was in office but one that never materialized.

However, the executive order clearly represents another assault on Posse Comitatus, the 1878 law that bars the military from exercising domestic police powers, which was temporarily annulled by the 2006 John Warner National Defense Authorization Act before parts of it were later repealed.

AJ knew early on that Trump would be the right man for this historic period.

At first he was behind Ted Cruz because he liked a lot of his rhetoric, but Trump has excelled past expectations only 2 days in.

Trump intends to destroy the world of globalism and he will also order big pharma companies to not just treat cancer, but to give us the cures.

Revolutionary technologies will finally reach the common man under Trump, life extension technology and other advancements similar to those featured in the film Elysium.

The biggest secret of Trump is that he intends to turn loose all these disruptive technologies and let our partners have them, Russia and others.

Remarks by President Obama and U.N. Secretary-General-Designate Antonio Guterres Before Meeting

Oval Office

11:13 A.M. EST

PRESIDENT OBAMA: It is a great pleasure for me to be able to welcome the Secretary-General-Designate Guterres to the Oval Office. He will be assuming a post that obviously has enormous influence and impact around the world. The good news is that he has an extraordinary reputation as someone who has led multilateral organizations at the highest level and has done so in ways that everybody recognizes he's been extraordinarily effective.

Most recently his work with the U.N. High Commission on Refugees has been applauded for its effectiveness, its efficiency, and his ability to really concretely help people who are in extraordinary need. And the fact that I think all of us were pleasantly surprised by how quickly a consensus was achieved around Mr. Guterres's designation signifies the respect in which he's held all around the world.

From the perspective of the United States, the U.N. is a critical partner in almost everything that we do. It is a linchpin of the post-World War II order, and through Democratic and Republican administrations, our partnership with the United Nations has allowed us to help resolve conflicts, to provide development assistance where it's sorely needed, to tackle big transnational challenges like refugee flows or, more recently, like climate change. And at a time when those challenges are mounting and there's great uncertainty around the world, having an effective partner in the United Nations Secretary General will be critically important.

So this meeting gives us an opportunity to share ideas about where the Secretary-General-Designate intends to take the U.N. and how the United States can work effectively with him.

I've emphasized to current Secretary General Ban Ki-moon how important the United States considers the U.N. but also how important it is, we believe, to make sure that the U.N. operates efficiently, that money is well-spent, that we're doing everything we can to initiate the kinds of effective management practices that Mr. Guterres is known for, so that when we all have to pinching pennies and being concerned about the needs around the world outstripping our resources, that the work we do in the U.N. is effective, concrete -- that it's not just a forum for talking, but it's also a forum for doing.

And I have great confidence that our soon-to-be Secretary General will be able to be an extraordinarily effective leader of that organization. And the United States looks forward to working with him.

So, congratulations and good luck.

SECRETARY-GENERAL-DESIGNATE GUTERRES: Well, thank you very much, Mr. President. My visit also is to express my total commitment to work closely with the United States, with the present administration, also with the next administration.

We live in a dangerous world. We are all aware of that. We have seen a multiplication of conflicts. Old conflicts seem never to die. And it's true the international community has lost a lot of its capacity to prevent and to solve conflicts. On the other hand, the globalization that has been an extremely important driver of economic growth, the reduction of poverty in many parts of the world has also left people behind. And this has been the cause of unrest and instability in many parts of the world.

And the human rights agenda that is so dear to us all, we also see many difficulties in relation to it, when national sovereignty sometimes tends to make it difficult for human rights to be effective and to be promoted.

Now, in all these areas, I believe that the leadership of the United States is absolutely crucial. And in all these areas, I believe that we need a U.N. that is more effective, more cost-effective, more able to serve the people with a very strong reform-minded approach. And the U.S. has always been a driver for reforming the U.N., and I'm deeply committed to pursue that objective to make sure that the U.N. can be a positive partner in the efforts that the U.S. is leading.

THE PRESIDENT: Thank you again. Congratulations.

"THINGS ARE NOT AS THEY SEEM"

1/22/17

For there shall arise false christs and false prophets and shall show great signs and wonders, insomuch that, if it were possible, they shall deceive the very elect. (and leaders) Matt. 24:24

Behold, I send you forth as sheep in the midst of wolves: be ye therefore wise as serpents, and harmless as doves. Matt. 10:16
(I realize that there are differing views on these things, but I ask that we listen to what the Holy Spirit is saying at this time, and not be swayed by our own opinions. We need to be on our guard like at no other time in history. It is so easy to be deceived. Keep your eyes open. Amen.)

Several times now the Lord has said this to me:

"Things are not as they seem. There are lies spreading everywhere. You will be left defenseless America, for you are not prepared and ready for what is coming. Everything has been set-up for show, and this man in office now, will do as he pleases. Be careful to not follow the crowd. For I have said that if possible, the very elect could be deceived.

There are things being arranged; there are adjustments being made. One can go through all of the motions to "seem right," but in the end it becomes a self-serving principle.

I say that the enemy has clouded many of your vision. I say, be as wise as a serpent. Don't follow the crowd but follow after Me. "

Stephen A. Hanson

AND

This just out!

The Great Deception Strong Delusion

The Master is coming! The Master is coming with healing in his wings, pouring out a blessing on those who have prayed. A Reward for his faithful, and just punishment for those disobedient. Ample warning has been given to amend your ways and your doings. Great deception sweeps the nations. Men following men instead of God. Men asking ungodly men for answers to Godly questions, seeking wisdom and knowledge from men having none. Why do you labor, following men who preach false doctrine and lies? You have been sent the Holy Spirit as teacher and guide. You need no other. You have lost your way, floundering in the darkness of deception. Those who do not open their eyes and ears to my ways will perish for lack of knowledge. No Earthly man can save you or teach you my ways. Behold I AM Coming on a cloud with thunder and lightening.

Donald Trump's Presidential Term Will be Cut Short

JANUARY 25, 2017 1:05 AM BY KEVIN MIRASI 15 COMMENTS

The LORD made me know that Donald Trump's Presidential term will be cut Short; by an episode (an occurrence) of sort. That's why Barack Obama will essentially have been the last U.S.A President to have served his full term.

Donald Trump is in (has been put in), to usher in The Latter Rain of Revival in The United States of America. This (The Latter Rain of Revival) will be Short-lived though; just like the Morning Dew.

The LORD will use him (Donald Trump) to extend mercy (for a short-time) upon the U.S.A.; but eventually the judgements of The LORD will strike the U.S.A. The LORD will protect and shield His own.

It is like a "stop-gap" measure to allow for mercy upon the United States of America; for a short time. Blessed are those who embrace the mercy extended to them, at this late hour by the LORD God Almighty; and return to Him by repenting for the forgiveness of their sins through the blood of The LORD Jesus Christ, and thereby walk in righteousness, holiness, truth and complete surrender to the LORD Jesus Christ in preparing the way for the coming of the LORD Jesus Christ.

Barack Obama (together with Pope Francis) will still emerge as the global leader; as the world will look upon him to be their "Savior" in the midst of turmoil, chaos, divisions, crisis and uncertainties.

The true, real Messiah (Savior) is the LORD Jesus Christ the Messiah. Put your trust and hope ONLY in Him; AT ALL TIMES.

SHALOM!!!

Hamas warns Trump against moving embassy to Jerusalem

Spokesperson tells Al Jazeera move would add 'oil to the fire' and insists Palestinians will not abandon the city.

Many believe the US consulate building in Jerusalem, which serves both American citizens and visa-seeking Palestinians, could be the site of the US Embassy in Jerusalem [EPA]

Hamas spokesman Osama Hamdan has warned US President Donald Trump not to add "more oil on the fire" by moving the US embassy in Israel from Tel Aviv to Jerusalem.

Hamdan's comments came in response to promises made by Trump and his administration to make the move - a decision that would effectively recognise Jerusalem as Israel's capital. The eastern sector of Jerusalem was occupied in 1967 in an act that was not recognised by any other country in the world.

Trump's press secretary said last week that the new administration was in "the beginning stages" of discussing a possible relocation.

"[Trump] has to make a choice whether he wants to create peace in the region or he wants to add more oil on the fire," Hamdan said in an interview with Al Jazeera's UpFront.

WASHINGTON — President Donald Trump and Vice President Mike Pence attended the traditional National Prayer Service at the Washington National Cathedral on Saturday, which featured representatives from various religions, including Islam, Sikhism and Buddhism.

The gathering featured a variety of music and speakers, with prayers in the name of Jesus and songs such as “How Great Thou Art” by Marlana VanHoose and “We’ve Come This Far By Faith” by Liberty University Praise interspersed with prayers and readings from a rabbi, an imam, a Hindu priest and others.

The event was opened by Mariann Edgar Budde, the female bishop of the Episcopal Diocese of Washington.

“As we mark this moment of political transition, let us all draw strength and courage from the sacred texts and songs ... from the many traditions of our land,” Budde declared.

Pope warns against Hitler-like leaders coming to power on wave of populism

Pope Francis warned against populist leaders, saying that Germany came to elect one in 1933, and ended up with Adolf Hitler as its dictator.

Crises provoke fear, alarm. In my opinion, the most common example of European populism is Germany in 1933... A people that was immersed in a crisis, that looked for its identity until this charismatic leader came and promised to give their identity back, and he gave them a distorted identity, and we all know what happened," he said in an interview with the Spanish newspaper El Pais.

Hitler did not steal power," the Pope said. "He was elected by his people and then he destroyed his people."

"In times of crisis, we lack judgment, and that is a constant reference for me... That is why I always try to say: talk among yourselves, talk to one another," he added.

Pope Francis was talking to the newspaper as Donald Trump was sworn in as the new US president in Washington, DC. Some critics say Trump has authoritarian leanings.

The Pope said he would not jump to conclusions on Trump, and will observe his actions before passing judgment.

"We will see how he acts, what he does, and then I will have an opinion. But being afraid or rejoicing beforehand because of something that might happen is, in my view, quite unwise. It would be like prophets predicting calamities," he said.

Trump taking office spells end to world order of 20th century – German FM Steinmeier

The world order of the 20th century "is over for good" now that Donald Trump has taken office, while times of uncertainty and turbulence lie ahead, German Foreign Minister Frank-Walter Steinmeier said in an op-ed for Bild magazine.

"As always when power changes hands, there are uncertainties, doubts and questions about the course the new leadership will take," Steinmeier wrote in an opinion piece for Bild's Sunday edition.

We will not impose our way of life, but we will shine for others to follow – Trump

"But in these times of a new global disorder it is about more, and there is a lot at stake today – with the election of Donald Trump the old world of the 20th century is over for good," Steinmeier stated. The op-ed comes shortly after Trump was sworn in as 45th US president.

Steinmeier wrote that he is committed to Berlin's vision regarding free trade, fighting extremism and terrorism, as well as maintaining trust in transatlantic relations, but added that "turbulent times" lie ahead.

The 60-year-old Social Democrat is highly respected at in Germany where he is regarded as a balanced and open-minded politician. In November last year, German Chancellor Angela Merkel announced that her ruling coalition will back Steinmeier as Germany's president.

The announcement effectively paves the way for Steinmeier to be elected by the Federal Convention – which includes members of the Bundestag and the same number of delegates from parliaments of German states – on February 12 to the largely ceremonial post now held by Joachim Gauck.

The top German diplomat has recently emerged as a vocal critic of US President Donald Trump. When the US election campaign was in full swing, Steinmeier branded the tycoon-turned-politician "a hate preacher," stressing that he and the European far-right "make politics with fear."

Anonymous, the loose collective of online hackers, issued an ominous warning to President-elect Donald Trump ahead of his inauguration, telling the billionaire he's going to "regret" the next four years.

On Twitter, the group put out a call to action to its followers, urging them to expose any potential compromising information they can find about the soon-to-be new leader of the free world.

The group tweeted at Trump, repeating unsubstantiated allegations that he has "financial and personal ties with Russian mobsters, child traffickers, and money launderers."

"This isn't the 80's any longer, information doesn't vanish, it is all out there. You are going to regret the next 4 years. @realDonaldTrump," reads a tweet from @YourAnonCentral, an account used to disseminate information amongst the hacker group.

Trump, a usually trigger-happy tweeter, seems to be ignoring the threats for now.

Trump has long been in Anonymous' crosshairs, with the group declaring war on him last year when he was a candidate for President of the United States.

Related: Trump Information 'Leaked' by Anonymous Has Been Online for a While

In March, private information about Trump was "leaked" by hackers claiming to be a part of Anonymous, including a cell phone and social security number. However, it was later proven that information wasn't new and had been floating around online for some time.

Pt 1 Listen! The Lion Roars! The birds take flight. You can see the beasts of the earth running.

Look at the sky-it's clear. Shhhhhh. Listen! I hear thunder. I know-How can there be thunder? the sky is clear.

I know, but it looks strange. Something's not right. I have a peculiar feeling. Look over there-it looks like it's Lightning. I think we should go inside-it's lightning and thundering to the east.

I'm going to put the news on to see if something is going on. The newsman says "the lightning and thunder can be Heard and seen all over the world. The lightning is causing fires everywhere."

What's that? It looks like airplanes. I don't know, but I can hear sirens. No, there is something else! Yes, I hear it.

It sounds like a trumpet blowing. Did you hear that???? The news says the government has ordered our planes up. They are tracking something on the radar. Let's go down the street and look at the national guard armory. I can see the trucks coming up the road. I think we Should go over to the store now. The local news just cut in and said the schools are all being let out early. All the national Guard units are on alert. I'm going to stop at the bank first. Hurry up so we can get back before the kids come home.

Pt 2

We'd better hurry! The place looks jammed already. Put the news on. I can't. The tv stations are all off the air.

I'll try the radio. There's nothing. It's off the air too. I think I know what's going on. Let's get what we need and get home.

Look! None of the street lights are working. We will have to take the back roads. See if your cell phone works. No-it's dead.

I can feel the earth shaking. Remember that earthquake we had? The doors were moving and the pictures. I think this is What the Bible calls "the end of time" when Jesus returns, or The Day of the Lord. They say it will be a regular day.

No one knows when, but the signs are all available to see for those with eyes, and those with ears can hear the warnings.

I guess God gave warnings like He did in the time of Noah, and no one listened. They all laughed at the warnings.

God (?) made fun of it until it started to rain. Guess what? I think it's raining.

Barb adds:

That's very intriguing. It's a glimpse. It's going to be a regular day. The Second Coming of Christ- no one is going to expect it,

Just like the Day of Noah. Everyone was just going about their regular business...

You know time is short when I'm getting a prophecy like this about The Day of the Lord and the Second Coming of Jesus.

Isa 13:1-16

The burden against Babylon which Isaiah the son of Amoz saw.

2 "Lift up a banner on the high mountain,
Raise your voice to them; Wave your hand,
that they may enter the gates of the nobles.

3 I have commanded My sanctified ones; I have also called My mighty ones for My anger — Those who rejoice in My exaltation."

4 The noise of a multitude in the mountains,
Like that of many people! A tumultuous noise of the kingdoms of nations gathered together! The Lord of hosts musters The army for battle. 5 They come from a far country, From the end of heaven — The Lord and His weapons of indignation, To destroy the whole land.

6 Wail, for the day of the Lord is at hand! It will come as destruction from the Almighty.

7 Therefore all hands will be limp, Every man's heart will melt, 8 And they will be afraid. Pangs and sorrows will take hold of them; They will be in pain as a woman in childbirth; They will be amazed at one another; Their faces will be like flames.

9 Behold, the day of the Lord comes, Cruel, with both wrath and fierce anger, To lay the land desolate; And He will destroy its sinners from it. 10 For the stars of heaven and their constellations Will not give their light; The sun will be darkened in its going forth, And the moon will not cause its light to shine.

11 "I will punish the world for its evil, And the wicked for their iniquity; I will halt the arrogance of the proud, And will lay low the haughtiness of the terrible. 12 I will make a mortal more rare than fine gold, A man more than the golden wedge of Ophir. 13 Therefore I will shake the heavens, And the earth will move out of her place, In the wrath of the Lord of hosts And in the day of His fierce anger. 14 It shall be as the hunted gazelle, And as a sheep that no man takes up; Every man will turn to his own people, And everyone will flee to his own land. 15 Everyone who is found will be thrust through, And everyone who is captured will fall by the sword. 16 Their children also will be dashed to pieces before their eyes; Their houses will be plundered And their wives ravished.

Thanks Robbie [REDACTED]

This stuff lines up with the warnings we have cued up. There are some things in [REDACTED] testimony that requires us to "take pause" and shelf so be careful with [REDACTED] and also some others out there, and don't forget the Stanley Frodsham warning prophecy that explains "many" seemingly very good anointed prophets will be tricked by deciding spirits and lead many astray. This is why I like to measure each ones story against all the other prophets to make sure the whole thing lines up with,

- A) the Bible, and
- B) the other prophets

Also of the prophets claims to have recieved prophetic information (information about the future) from a Bible patriarch this is a huge warning. Only God's prophets and "Angels" give prophecies Our Father never uses dead people (like Mary, Joseph, Abraham, etc.) to give prophecies as this would be similar to the witch of endor event that God forbid with Saul etc. God only uses Angels and prophets of the Lord, never dead people. Just a good rule of thumb

Also (to be helpful) any time someone says that "America will recover" this is incorrect and we need to treat this as a red flag. .

Love the 2019 confirmation.

GOD BLESS YOU

One way to look at it is this.

The Oil throughout the Bible is a reference to "the Holy Spirit". So if you are overflowing with the Holy Spirit as the Wise Virgins are, you are overflowing with the fruits of the Spirit.

Gal 5:22

22 But the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, longsuffering, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, 23 gentleness, self-control. Against such there is no law.

But in order to really get this, you need to see that the Wise Virgins we SO FULL of this oil (Spirit) they had vessels to hold the "extra oil".

Mat 25

4 but the wise took oil in their vessels with their lamps.

Now to REALLY get this I would look up (with the dictionary) every word and meditate on the deeper meaning of those behaviors and how they need to become who we are so they are automatic. So we "are" those words, not just trying to be them. So they are a matter of the heart.

This is what makes us become wise. This is what makes is Jesus on earth. This is the essence of our transformation from the flesh to the Spirit.

Praise God

. I hope this is helpful God bless you

Yes brother. Always please remember that the devil hijacks everything from our Father God. The more it belongs to God the more He hijacks and contorts it so the sheep will say "that's of the devil" and run away.

11:11 is our Father's way to signal to us. He is calling our attention to our soon departure our soon rapture our soon ascension to heaven. The new Agers don't ascend brother, they "descend". See? It's OUR signal not theirs

The ancient Chaldeans also saw 11:11 as a sign of very very bad dark times. Well that's also true. Since once we ascend, Jacobs Trouble (the Great Tribulation) pummels the earth.

So we have to see past the deception, know who really ascends and who doesn't, and then we can "take back" our Father's spiritual provisions for our use as they were originally intended.

God bless you

John,

Hope you are well brother and having a great Saturday! I just wanted to tell you something that's been happening to me all week and ask you your opinion on it.

I'm seeing 11:11 every single day now. It's really getting crazy brother it's like I'm automatically prompted to look at the clock every single time. It happens in the morning and at night if I'm awake. It's really weird. I heard you mention something about it on a show recently and wanted to know your thoughts. All my research is kind of getting into New Age.

However, to make it even more wild one time I saw it and was researching it and I prayed to God and asked what it means. I was then prompted to look at Jeremiah 11:11

Jeremiah 11:11 KJV

[11] Therefore thus saith the Lord , Behold, I will bring evil upon them, which they shall not be able to escape; and though they shall cry unto me, I will not hearken unto them.

So all the research I was doing was bringing me to New Age type responses and made it out to be something positive then I'm brought to this verse.

Any thoughts?

11:11 CONFIRMATION

It is the glory of God to conceal a matter, but the glory of kings is to search out a matter(Proverbs 25:2).

When we search out a matter that is a spiritual mystery to us, we must rely upon the Holy Spirit to unravel or untie the full message that has been sent. For years I used to see the numbers 11-11 on a continual basis, to a point where it seemed like it was being supernaturally impressed before me. Whenever I randomly happened to look at a clock it would say 11:11. Over time the Holy Spirit explained to me that He was using this particular set of numbers to confirm to me that I was walking in His plan for my life and all was well. Those numbers would pop in the most unexpected places and bring an outward confirmation to an inward leading that I felt was of the Lord. The Lord was working to give me a double witness both inwardly by His Holy Spirit and outwardly through these numbers that I was in His perfect will.

My friend Wade Taylor, who has now gone on to heaven, used to have the continual experience of finding a penny every time he was at a specific place where the Lord wanted Him to be. At times we would eat at a restaurant and talk about the goodness of God and discuss certain spiritual topics that we both enjoyed. Once finished with our meal and before getting up to leave, Wade would look on the floor and pick up a lost penny. He would smile and say, "I always find a penny when I am where the Lord wants me to be."

Ya know what's really fascinating Terri, is that in Pastor Sori Parks' visit to heaven and vision, he was shown that NASA comes forward to tell the whole world that "Aliens" too the people who were actually raptured.

I find this amazing. I wonder if this is "counter intelligence" being used by "the Devil" to trick the entire general population of the world about a program that doesn't really exist so that when they announce this after the rapture, everyone will say OHHH YEAH PROJECT BLUE BEAM

It will be quite interesting to see how this all unfolds. My "guess" is that we will be at the marriage supper by then LOL

Quote:

After a huge globally publicized deliverance of a possessed woman in the Philippines, on international radio, the demons came back into the woman a day or two later:

This is a quote of what happened next:

. I ordered the demons to tell me why they had returned. They spoke in English through her lips, "She has not asked us to go. She wants us. It is only you who desires for us to leave." Again I demanded that they leave her. Clarita told me they were gone through the window. I explained to her why they returned and told her to tell them to leave and never return. She did. Then, I led her in prayer, pleading the blood of Jesus against them. It was about noon. Clarita was weak from the ordeal. I told the prison officials to let her rest and to give her food. As I was leaving, I said, "Clarita, I am sure these devils will return again. After I am gone, they will come. Then you must order them to leave without my being present to help you. You must say, 'Go, in Jesus' name,' and they will obey." With that, I left the prison compound.

Food For Thought
by George Davis

In 1949 the communist revolution marked the end of all missionary efforts in China. All foreign missionaries were expelled. After the communist takeover the Chinese government bitterly attacked the Church in China, driving it underground.

For 25 years China was closed to any outside "Christian" influences. Little information filtered through the tight-knit bamboo curtain. All remaining Christian leaders were rounded up wholesale and were either imprisoned or killed outright. Everything that was considered "Christian" was destroyed, church building, bibles, hymnals, everything. For 25 years a holocaust far exceeding that, inflicted on the Jews by Nazi Germany, ensued. It is estimated that about 27 million died during this purging.

In 1978 Deng Xiaoping came into power and China opened her borders once again. The western world stood in breathless anticipation. What would they find in the aftermath of such a horrible slaughter? Missionaries from around the world stood ready, poised in anxious intrepidity. Would there even be one surviving believer? Nothing could have possibly prepared them for what they were about to see!

After 25 years of horrendous persecution the missionaries returned to find that the church in China had not been obliterated, as many had feared, but that they had grown in number from the estimated one million believers before the 1949 revolution, to about 30 million. The contrast was amazing! What had caused such unprecedented growth? How could this be? Not only had they grown numerically but they had grown spiritually. The tales of their devotion to Christ are nothing short of inspirational. Most bewildering is the fact that this unparalleled growth occurred without the aid of any of those things that are thought to be essential in denominational churches today. Without the aid of professional pastors/priests, church buildings, bibles, Sunday-school materials, homilies, hymnals and mass gatherings, the Church in China has grown numerically and spiritually to be the most victorious expression of Christ's Church on the earth today. By all accounts, nothing like it has existed since the early Church. The very gates of hell could not prevail against her!

Makes you think doesn't it?

ALBERT PIKE WORLD WAR THREE

"The Third World War must be fomented by taking advantage of the differences caused by the "agentur" of the "Illuminati" between the political Zionists and the leaders of Islamic World. The war must be conducted in such a way that Islam (the Moslem Arabic World) and political Zionism (the State of Israel) mutually destroy each other. Meanwhile the other nations, once more divided on this issue will be constrained to fight to the point of complete physical, moral, spiritual and economical exhaustion...We shall unleash the Nihilists and the atheists, and we shall provoke a formidable social cataclysm which in all its horror will show clearly to the nations the effect of absolute atheism, origin of savagery and of the most bloody turmoil. Then everywhere, the citizens, obliged to defend themselves against the world minority of revolutionaries, will exterminate those destroyers of civilization, and the multitude, disillusioned with Christianity, whose deistic spirits will from that moment be without compass or direction, anxious for an ideal, but without knowing where to render its adoration, will receive the true light through the universal manifestation of the pure doctrine of Lucifer, brought finally out in the public view. This manifestation will result from the general reactionary movement which will follow the destruction of Christianity and atheism, both conquered and exterminated at the same time."

- A Second Century Letter to Diognetus

He writes “Christians are distinguished from other men neither by country, nor language”, living in such places “as the lot of each of them has determined, and following the customs of the natives in respect to clothing, food, and the rest of their ordinary conduct, they display to us their wonderful and confessedly striking method of life. They dwell in their own countries, but simply as sojourners. As citizens, they share in all things with others, and yet endure all things as if foreigners. Every foreign land is to them as their native country, and every land of their birth as a land of strangers.... They pass their days on earth, but they are citizens of heaven. They obey the prescribed laws, and at the same time surpass the laws by their lives... they are reviled and bless”. Then, speaking of God, he says, He, “who is almighty, the Creator of all things,... has sent from heaven, and placed among men, Him who is the truth, and the holy and incomprehensible Word, and has firmly established Him in their hearts.

A Pastor's Mansion

I saw a very gorgeous mansion, then a certain man was coming out, I knew he had been a pastor on earth. In heaven, they told me, the reason why he had a large and beautiful mansion in heaven, was primarily his giving & helping the needy and the poor, and his praying. These provided materials for his mansion in heaven.

They also explained to me, That different works we do on earth carry different weights in heaven, what God values and esteem high is very much different from what people think, they told me, the works we do that are unnoticed, behind the scenes, that people don't know about and unappreciated are the works that God values more, the works we do out of a pure heart and selfless love, they have great reward in heaven. Then I saw it as GOD sees, what is really important to God, that we must not look for appreciating & reward from men but God, also God values what we do in private than what we do in public.

I looked over the City, the bright lights, the golden doors of mansions facing east, the majestic palace, the mansions and houses, the transparent streets of gold, the chariots travelling around, the children playing, saints talking and walking, the gardens, I said "Wow, Heaven is so wonderful". I didn't want to come back but I knew it was my time to go.

LINK ANGELS

It was during that last visit to California that one of the incidents happened that started me on the road to accepting Christ, started me questioning Satan's claim to being more powerful than God. The high priest gathered a number of us together and told us that there was a family nearby who had been interfering with Satan. They had been converting a number of the cult members to the enemy, Jesus Christ, and were making a nuisance of themselves. Satan had given the order for them all to be killed. The high priest told us that we were all to go together in our spirit bodies (astral project), and kill them. So, we sat down in a circle with our candles in front of us and consciously left our bodies going in our spirits to the house to destroy these people. I was not at all enthusiastic about the project, but had no choice. If I had disobeyed I would have been killed.

Much to our surprise, as we arrived at the edge of this family's property, we could go no further. The whole area was surrounded by huge angels. The angels stood side by side holding hands. They were dressed in long white robes and stood so close together that their shoulders touched. They had no armor or weapons. Nobody could get through them, no matter how we tried. Any kind of weapon used merely bounced off of them doing them no harm. They laughed at us at first, daring us to come ahead and try to get through them. The other cult members got more and more furious with each passing moment. Suddenly their countenances changed and the fierce look from their eyes made all of us fall backwards onto the ground. A very humbling experience, I might add!

I will never forget — as I sat on the ground looking up at them, one of the angels looked directly into my eyes and said to me in the most loving voice I had ever heard, "Won't you please accept Jesus as your Lord? If you pursue the course you are taking you will be destroyed. Satan really hates you, but Jesus loves you so much that He died for you. Please consider turning your life over to Jesus." That was the end of the battle for me. I refused to try any longer to get through. I was very shaken. The others tried for awhile longer, but none succeeded. I doubt the family ever knew of the battle going on outside their house. They were completely protected! We called this particular type of special angels "link angels." Absolutely nothing can get through them. I was secretly thankful that we did not get through and the link angels had given me much to think about.

INTENSIFIED PREVAILING PRAYER

Intensified prevailing prayer is God's ordained law and method for implementing His redemptive plan in this age till Jesus returns. It is the highest, holiest, and mightiest effort of which a child of God is capable. It is God's chosen way to bring heaven's power, heaven's resources, and heaven's angels into action on earth.

Spurgeon says, "He who knows how to overcome with God in prayer has heaven and earth at his disposal." 1 Intensified prayer is clothed with the might of God Himself.

“Not called!' did you say?

'Not heard the call,' I think you should say.

Put your ear down to the Bible, and hear Him bid you go and pull sinners out of the fire of sin. Put your ear down to the burdened, agonized heart of humanity, and listen to its pitiful wail for help. Go stand by the gates of hell, and hear the damned entreat you to go to their father's house and bid their brothers and sisters and servants and masters not to come there. Then look Christ in the face — whose mercy you have professed to obey — and tell Him whether you will join heart and soul and body and circumstances in the march to publish His mercy to the world.”

Humility in Daily Life

00- Humility by Andrew Murray – Tribulation Now

(6 minutes)

If someone says, 'I love God,' but hates a Christian brother or sister, that person is a liar; for if we don't love people we can see, how can we love God, whom we have not seen? (1 John 4:20) Here's a sobering thought:

God measures our love for Him by the love we show our brothers and sisters in every day fellowship with them. It is a serious thing to realize that our love for God just isn't genuine if it fails the test of daily life with our fellow human beings. The same thing is true with humility. It is easy to think we humble ourselves before God. But humility before people is the only real proof that our humility before God is more than just a figment of our imagination. It is the only true evidence that humility has made a home in our hearts and become our nature. How can we know that we, like Christ, have made ourselves of no reputation? By the reality check of daily life. When in God's presence humility has become more than just a feeling we have when we think about Him or pray, but instead the very Spirit of our lives, it will show itself in the way we treat our brothers and sisters.

OSWALD CHAMBERS

My Unstoppable Determination for His Holiness. “Whether it means life or death—it makes no difference!” (see 1:21). Paul was determined that nothing would stop him from doing exactly what God wanted. But before we choose to follow God’s will, a crisis must develop in our lives. This happens because we tend to be unresponsive to God’s gentler nudges. He brings us to the place where He asks us to be our utmost for Him and we begin to debate. He then providentially produces a crisis where we have to decide—for or against. That moment becomes a great crossroads in our lives. If a crisis has come to you on any front, surrender your will to Jesus absolutely and irrevocably. E

OSWALD CHAMBERS

Will You Go Without Knowing?

Will You Go Out Without Knowing?

"He went out, not knowing where he was going" (Hebrews 11:8).

Have you ever "gone out" in this way? If so, there is no logical answer possible when anyone asks you what you are doing. One of the most difficult questions to answer in Christian work is, "What do you expect to do?" You don't know what you are going to do. The only thing you know is that God knows what He is doing. Continually examine your attitude toward God to see if you are willing to "go out" in every area of your life, trusting in God entirely. It is this attitude that keeps you in constant wonder, because you don't know what God is going to do next. Each morning as you wake, there is a new opportunity to "go out," building your confidence in God. ". . . do not worry about your life . . . nor about the body . . ." (Luke 12:22). In other words, don't worry about the things that concerned you before you did "go out."

Have you been asking God what He is going to do? He will never tell you. God does not tell you what He is going to do—He reveals to you who He is. Do you believe in a miracle-working God, and will you "go out" in complete surrender to Him until you are not surprised one iota by anything He does?

Believe God is always the God you know Him to be when you are nearest to Him. Then think how unnecessary and disrespectful worry is! Let the attitude of your life be a continual willingness to "go out" in dependence upon God, and your life will have a sacred and inexpressible charm about it that is very satisfying to Jesus. You must learn to "go out" through your convictions, creeds, or experiences until you come to the point in your faith where there is nothing between yourself and God.

YOU ARE SECONDS FROM THE FINISH LINE

My beloved brothers and sisters, do not be deceived by the enemy of your souls. You must know, I hope by now, that Satan is the absolute master of deception, a master magician, a grand illusionist. It says in the end that even the Elect would be deceived if that were possible. I believe he has done just that to many, if not most, in the body of Christ.

Hear what the Spirit has to say : "You Are Seconds From The Finish Line, but many of you have decided to take a break along the race thinking you will still make it to the end in time. It takes focus and endurance to finish, not looking to the right or to the left. It grieves Me to know that many will be left behind because they were not willing to be filled with the Holy Spirit (keeping their lamps filled with oil) and as a result ending up injured on the sideline unable to finish the race. You need to repent, fast and seek My Face."

Now is your salvation nearer than ever before.
Our Lord is at the door. Let Him say to you, enter in thou good and faithful servant.

Hebrews 12:1-2

1 Therefore we also, since we are surrounded by so great a cloud of witnesses, let us lay aside every weight, and the sin which so easily ensnares us, and let us run with endurance the race that is set before us, 2 looking into Jesus, the author and finisher of our faith, who for the joy that was set before Him endured the cross, despising the shame, and has sat down at the right hand of the throne of God.

"I AM Entrusting You With the Lives of Many."

JANUARY 20, 2017 4:33 PM BY DIANA WILLIAM 12 COMMENTS

I received the following word from the Lord in the early morning hours of January 18, 2017. Please pray for interpretation.

After spending time in prayer and study that morning, I still felt there was something more the Lord wanted to tell me. So I sat silently in His presence for a while before eventually getting up to prepare for the day. I'd just entered another room when the Lord began to speak:

"Proclaim MY Righteousness!

The birth pains will soon begin.

During the pains, I AM your focal point.

Keep your eyes focused ONLY on Me!

After each, you must draw ever closer to Me.

Seek My will in preparation for the next.

I will keep you perfectly aligned for what's coming.

Do not be concerned about anything – just look to Me.

Other people's lives will depend on your focus. I AM entrusting you with the lives of many."

I began to tremble and fell to my knees as the seriousness of what the Lord had said hit me full force.

Interpretation:

I felt a sense of urgency to post this immediately; but something within me felt hesitant, so I waited for permission. It was almost mid-day when the Lord gave the answer:

"This Word is not for the many, but the few!"

This word is for a very small group of people. Many lives will depend on their ability to focus on the Great I AM when the calamities begin. This group is being entrusted with the lives of many!

I am to say no more. Again, please pray for interpretation and further revelation.

“Everything Has Been Set in Motion and There is No Stopping It!”

JANUARY 17, 2017 3:01 AM BY DIANA PULLIAM 16 COMMENTS

<https://z3news.com/w/everything-set-motion-no-stopping/>

On January 12th, during an intimate prayer meeting, I received a Word from the Lord. This morning, I was shown it wasn't just for our little group. We were praying earnestly for the lost in our families, the nation, and the world in general. We prayed for “whatever it takes” to be done in their lives for an awakening to occur. Then we began to shift our prayers toward major events happening all over the world, such as the 70-nation meeting in Paris, and the presidential inauguration just ahead. But something happened, and our prayers came to an abrupt halt.

Suddenly, we could go no further in “our” petitions. The understanding rose simultaneously within our spirits; our will and wishes needed to be realigned. A deep yearning came over us. We earnestly desired ONLY HIS perfect will be done – no matter what it looked like. Since we didn’t know specifically how to pray from there, we began praying in the Spirit.

After praying in the Spirit several minutes, we all began to cry out for His Holy, Righteous Judgments to fall upon this Earth! Words of praise and thanksgiving began to pour from our lips, as we looked joyfully toward the coming harvest, which will come as a result of His judgments.

A quietness then came over the group. We each sat down, continuing to pray in soft whispers. It was then I heard the Lord speaking, so I opened my mouth, giving utterance as He spoke the following:

“Everything has been set in motion, and there is no stopping it!”

“The darkness is settling all around, but My Light will rise upon you; and will be seen upon you. Others will be drawn towards the Light – many who are now standing in darkness.”

“My Spirit will go forth, will blow across the Earth. This has already begun. I will manifest Myself with signs and mighty wonders. These manifestations will be more than you can even imagine.”

Saints, the Word I received had such a sense of finality. The reason my prayer group wasn't able to pray with our human understanding was because everything's already been set in motion, and will not be stopped. The Lord didn't want us praying against His will. After praying in the Spirit, instead of voicing our wimpy requests, all of us were crying out for His Righteous Judgments to come! We felt no fear of what's coming, only complete and total trust in the judgments of our God. Psalms 19:9-10 says, "... The judgments of the LORD are true and righteous altogether. More to be desired are they than gold..." So, why would we fear the judgments of God?

He's so loving and gentle with His people, giving us a Word that brought such comfort and peace to our hearts that night. Yes, He confirmed it's judgment time. But instead of shaking in fear, we're to focus on what HE is DOING. The Word tells us, "You will keep in perfect peace, he whose mind is stayed on You, because he trusts in You" (Isaiah 26:3).

Look at what happens as darkness settles around us. His LIGHT will RISE UPON US! Many now in darkness will be drawn towards that Light! His Spirit will blow across the Earth, and Jesus will manifest Himself through mighty signs and wonders!

Pay attention Saints! The Lord is answering our prayers!!! We knew this day was coming. Now it's night-time to rise and shine!

MONDAY, JANUARY 16, 2017

"A great wind will soon blow across this nation, separating wheat from tares. The narrow road, not chosen by many, will be filled with My redeemed, those who have counted the cost yet continue to follow where I lead. The wide road will be strewn with bodies of the fallen, those who chose to set their own agenda and make their own way prosperous.

Deception, great deception has come upon this nation. Judgment comes swiftly. You have been blinded; you have slept, you have not watched, waited and prayed. As with Peter, James and John you could not watch one hour.

'When he opened the fifth seal, I saw under the altar the souls of those who had been slain because of the word of God and the testimony they had maintained. They called out in a loud voice, "How long, Sovereign LORD, holy and true, until You judge the inhabitants of the earth and avenge our blood?" Revelation 6:9-10

The upcoming weeks will see much consternation as evil forces move into position. Disillusioned, defeated millions will search for answers, a quick fix to regain their balance; all the while refusing to seek Me they watch in pained silence the destruction of their dreams and plans. Hope crumbles like a house whose foundation was built on shifting sand but not on a sure foundation. They will not know nor will they recognize the time of their visitation, continuing to search for answers millions will remain disillusioned, defeated and lost.

'Hope deferred make the heart sick.' Proverbs 13:12

The evil one has planned this day since the beginning of time and now, all his plans, his schemes will begin to be manifest. Remnant, are you ready? Do have the faith to believe for what you cannot see? Do you have the strength to stand when all around you is only evil? Do you truly believe that with God all things are possible? Mark 10:27

Evil has invaded your land, your government. Man has sold his soul for fortune and fame. Neither Barack Hussein Obama nor Donald Trump know the truth. Crafty, cunning men of great prowess, both have a part in the evil being perpetrated against this country. Both have a part to play in the entrapment and enslavement of America; groomed, guided, beguiled, chosen from the foundation of the world for such a time as this. Pawns are being moved into position, the stage is set, the actors are in place and soon the greatest performance in the history of mankind will begin. Again I ask, are you ready?

'Like the noise of chariots on the tops of mountains shall they leap, like the noise of a flame of fire that devoureth the stubble, as a strong people set in battle array. Before their face the people shall be much pained: all faces shall gather blackness. Joel 2:5-6'

20

'The anger of the LORD will not turn back until He fully accomplishes the purposes of His heart. In days to come you will understand it clearly. Jeremiah 23:20''

As I was looking back at my journal of previous words God has given me, I saw a pattern of several things. The following words are in part to show this:

4/18/16 – “I give you a vision today of tomorrow. The bomb will hit, the chaos will begin, and the disaster will be the road to salvation for many. I told you to be ready; I told you disaster would bring them. Preparation must take place.”

9/12/16 – “This hour so volatile, it is on the verge of collapse around the world. The need is going to be overwhelming. I need those that will not get overwhelmed, but will be prepared for this.”

9/26/16 – “Many will suffer; many will die. I too hate these days of destruction coming upon the earth. I too hate that man turns against man. But delays are done and now the next phase has arrived to speak to those that will hear as Satan rears his ugly head and destroys so many.”

I asked, “Has the second horse been released?”

He replied, “Yes.”

10/4/16 – “There will be an explosion to the east. Terror will strike again.”

10/15/16 – “The hour has arrived to begin to see signs of the coming days of hate rise up. This is just the beginning of what is to come. Nation will rise against nation. There is no turning back the clock. It has arrived. The seal is broken, and the rider of the horse is released to bring war. Pray My child, pray, for the days ahead are hard to see. Feelings of hopelessness and helplessness will continue to rise. People will die from fear alone. I say to you and all My children do not fear, for to be absent from the body is to be present with Me.”

10/18/16 – Dream: My husband and I saw a mushroom cloud forming over the city. We were running out of time before the nuclear rays hit us.

10/25/16 – “The writing is upon the wall. This land that I have cried to has closed their eyes and have closed their ears. What is said is said. What is done is done.”

10/26/16 – “You know what lies ahead. I will not, and cannot change the times, for these are the imminent days spoken of throughout the ages. I will protect; I will hide in My secret places those that I use in these final days. What President you have does not change the times and seasons. Understand this My children, the position of a man or woman does not change the times and seasons. Disaster strikes and all chaos breaks loose. Your job for this time is to prepare for chaos and be ready for disaster. My job is to unfold what has been written and what will be. This is not an election like any other. Win or lose, lose or win, it is not over.”

11/3/16 – “This nation is going to be wounded for quite some time, but it will not die. I have heard the cries of My people in this land, and it is great, I have heard. But I cannot turn My eye any longer on this iniquity...”

11/27/16 – Dream: I was looking out my arcadia door and saw a huge cloud from the ground way up into the sky. It was smaller at the base and expanded out. It was huge. I called to my husband, who was in the bedroom, to come and look at it. I felt like a bomb had gone off and we were seeing the cloud from it. I did not hear anything or feel any explosion. I just felt in my dream this was from a bomb.

1/3/17 – “When all seems well, terror will strike. There are appointed times, and they will come to pass..... The appointed times do not change. The latter times are upon you. Remember, when you hear the talk of peace, peace, peace, look to the left because man will put forth their own desires through their God, Satan..... The sudden terror will still come. The beginning of the end of days; the days that are written of by Daniel are upon you. Do not believe peace can come for turmoil boils beneath.”

1/5/17 – “The time of preparation is not over. Do not get discouraged or live in despair, but continue this path. [I keep seeing and hearing, a bomb] This will set in motion what must be. The bomb will come from the east. It will not be on American soil. It shall be set off to begin war. The angel of war is at hand directing, and guiding those that will listen. Evil is still in place, and much is being done behind closed doors. Know this, that Obama’s hand is upon this and he deliberates with those who desire this to be. Trump and all his cabinet are there to fight for you. I have set in place those that will see beyond the deception to the truth. Watch the hour, because it is near; watch the nations as they come together and then divide. Sides are being taken and war is coming soon; War that you will feel here in the United State; war that every nation will come to know. Keep your eyes on Israel and who sides with them. Your nation will be divided not only on principles, but on land. States will come together, and sides will be chosen. Look for this. I have told you so. Preparation, bomb, war, and the times and seasons will not change. These talks of splitting Israel into two nations are not going to work out to bring peace. This is God’s land as stated in Joel 3:1-2.

1 For behold, in those days and at that time, when I bring back the captives of Judah and Jerusalem,

2 I will also gather all nations, and bring them down to the Valley of Jehoshaphat; and I will enter into judgment with them there on account of My people, My heritage Israel, whom they have scattered among the nations; they have also divided up My land. (Joel 3:1-2) [NKJV]

God calls this His land. There is no nation, or nations united, strong enough to come against God!!

Pray for Israel, and pray for the United States in these days of uncertainty!!

Are you prepared? Physically, emotionally, and spiritually are you prepared? The Lord has been speaking through many prophets of the signs of the times; this should not come to the believer as a surprise. The Lord is faithful to inform us if we are listening.

Sue sent me this...she rarely emails me and even more rarely sends Words from someone else, but she sent me and a few others this Word. This gentleman is a missionary in Kenya...found that on his FB page. Here is the Word: (my highlights bolded)

<https://www.facebook.com/JeffreyKyleStewart/posts/10202716271904599>

The Lord Jesus says:

You are a privileged generation.

You are a generation that makes Me immensely proud.

For it is THIS generation that will walk in FAR more revelation than any previous generation.

It is THIS generation that will walk in FAR more anointing than any previous generation.

The END of a thing is better than the beginning. (Eccl 7:8)

The Days of the Church that you are about to see will far exceed its beginning days recorded in the Book of Acts.

You look in awe at the things I did in the Book of Acts.

You look in awe at the power the Church in the Book of Acts walked in.

I tell you that what My Church is about to walk in shall cause the Church in Acts to be pale in comparison.

The Church you are about to see will walk in far more love, far more unity, and far more anointing than the early church ever imagined.

My prayer for the church to be ONE, even as I and the Father are one, in John 17 will be answered in your generation, just as every prayer I pray is answered. Yes, many of you will see this and rejoice. As will I. What is impossible for man is easily possible for My Father. My People WILL BE ONE just as My Father and I are one. Just as it is in Heaven.

From this unity will flow unified prayer as you have never seen. Just as I honored such prayer with a mighty outpouring of My Spirit in Acts 2:2 and Acts 4:31, I shall honor these unified prayers with a great outpouring that will shake cities as I shook Jerusalem.

The Great Commission will be fulfilled in this generation.

You will see this and rejoice.

My people will walk in such anointing, that:

One will enter a town and every demon will flee. Even demons in people who are possessed will not be able to remain. (sorry, this is my favorite line :)

this is my favorite line :)

Another will walk in such anointing that he will enter a hospital, AND EVERY sick person in that hospital shall be healed.

When I turned water into wine, the master of the banquet said that he normally served the best wine first, but at that wedding, he saved the best wine for last.

I tell you, I have saved the BEST DAYS OF THE CHURCH FOR LAST.

I have saved the GREATEST MIRACLES for last, too.

The miracles you saw in the days of Moses, as great as they were, even the splitting of the Red Sea, shall pale in comparison to what you are ABOUT to see.

The miracles you saw in the Days of Joshua, as great as they were, even the stopping of the Sun and the Moon in the sky, shall look SMALL in comparison to what I am ABOUT to do.

Before I return, every person on earth WILL KNOW that the Gospel is true. They may not all accept it, but they will be WITHOUT excuse. (this is what He will show during the 3 DoD IMO)

I am IMMENSELY proud of you.

You are a HIGHLY HONORED generation.

Men from the past longed to see what you will see.

You are the final runners in the relay race.

You are My "A" Team.

Those who came before you are trusting you with the baton.

I am confident you will complete the race before you.

You will make Me proud.

You were created for this day and this time. You will see the Church be what I meant for her to be. You will see this and rejoice. As will I.

Angel of Death: “Woe to the Inhabitants of the Earth”

JANUARY 14, 2017 7:28 AM BY RACHEL BAXTER 93 COMMENTS

I've been holding onto this seeking the Lord for more understanding. I am feeling such a pressure in the spiritual realm. I'm on edge, though I am asking the Lord for peace.

After midnight on January 7th, 2017, I became so hot while sleeping that I was awakened. I opened my eyes to see what I believe was the "Angel of Death" standing before me in the corner of my bedroom. I heard the Angel say to me, "Woe to the inhabitants of the earth."

I felt the strong presence of the Lord. Holy Spirit then said "You have been called to see that which is coming upon the earth."

I felt the strong presence of the Lord. Holy Spirit then said "You have been called to see that which is coming upon the earth."

My eyes were so heavy I couldn't keep them open. I agreed to this in my mind, but was so tired I fell back asleep. I was awakened again just before 3 am, again so hot I was physically uncomfortable. As I was waking up, an image came before me like it was being projected from a spotlight. It was of two coins, each with the silhouette of a face (like the look of nickels), coming together from the left and right to meet in the middle, and then the shape of a V came down from the top to touch them. It wasn't just a V, but I immediately thought the V shape was like an upside-down pyramid. I didn't understand until I was fully awake that this pyramid represented the pyramid with the all-seeing eye that we see on the dollar bills, but it was turned upside down.

I was so thirsty I got up to get a drink. I checked the temperature in our house and found it was normal, so I knew the heat I was feeling was supernatural. I went back to bed.

I heard the Lord instruct me to go back to sleep. This surprised me because usually when I am awakened like this He instructs me to write what He has to say.

I closed my eyes to go back to sleep, but my head was swimming with things of this world. Then I felt a presence touch me, which made me jump a little and caused me to roll over to face the side of my bed, but I still felt the supernatural presence. Eventually, my heart settled down and I heard this instruction, "Go up."

At first, I thought I was to get up to go to my closet to write, but then it was like I was seeing a closed vision of two girls standing together. The first appeared to be a young teenager and the second was 8 or 9 years old. The older girl was leading the younger girl. I watched them walk to a large door around a corner. When they opened the door I became one of them, the younger I think.

I entered this great, magnificent hall. It was expansive and ornate with gold lining on the walls. Everything glowed with a brightness. At first I saw a flowing staircase downward that led to an open cavern with windows. I walked down to the windows to look out and saw this hall must be located in the heavenlies because outside the windows was the deep blue color of outer space and round looking planets off in the distance.

Then my attention was drawn back into the hall. I walked back up the steps and looked up to see a podium perched atop another high spiraling open staircase. It reminded me of a lectern in a church. My eyes were then drawn upward and to the left to an even higher podium facing me. Behind it, I saw a creature that first looked like a lion (without a mane) whose head was down and facing away so that I was seeing its left profile. It then raised its head up and swung it to the left and it was as if it transformed into an eagle. The head of the eagle could then be seen looking out over the great hall. I thought the eagle was going to begin to speak, but then the vision ended.

“War is Coming. It Is At Your Doorstep”

DECEMBER 28, 2016 12:23 PM BY RACHEL BAXTER 77 COMMENTS

I received the following word from the Lord at 10:00 pm on December 26 2016.

“War is coming. It is at your doorstep. War will rage not just across the seas, but war will touch brother and brother. Brace yourself firmly under my wing. (Psalm 91). It is the only way.

Jesus is coming again in body. He has already come in spirit and in truth. No lie will stand. Lies coming into the light – this is what will cause war – war of nations and war of brothers. THE DECEITFUL ONE will come out of the darkness into the light. He will be shown for who he really is, and yet people, even My people, My children, will be deceived. They will choose him for the false promises he makes of security and peace.

Do not think this is far off. It is a mistake to go on living as if nothing has changed. Everything has changed. Everything.

You are no longer children of darkness, but you have been made as children of light. You must see the lateness of the hour and prepare your hearts. Righteousness is not for My sake, but for yours. I did not give the commandments for My sake, but to save you from sin. If you live in sin, if you accept even one sin, you turn away from righteousness and the truth is not in you. You must partner with only truth. Take off your sinful nature. Turn away from the flesh to live by the spirit. This is the only way to truly live in the days ahead. Flesh leads to death. Spirit leads to life eternal.

There is nothing new under the sun. I have said that it would be as in the days of Noah, and that is “where” you are living. Again, do not be deceived. Look and see the depravity. My creation is no longer My own. It is changed and has been made impure.

I Looked Up and Saw Fighter Jets Filling the Skies”

JANUARY 5, 2017 12:06 AM BY MARTY BREEDEN

Last night, I dreamed a close friend of mine, who is an airline pilot, escorted me and my family to a very tall high-rise building. We entered the building and went up to a high level. The building had many large glass windows, so we had a stunning view overlooking a huge city, filled with people, residential houses, and businesses.

As we looked at the city below, we suddenly heard a weather report warning of tomados approaching. We looked down upon the city and saw a large tomodo forming. As we watched, it grew into a full blown massive tomodo. Then there was another and another and yet another!!!

I counted at least 4-5 simultaneous tomados, all massive in size and all wiping out everything in their path. One odd thing was they ran together in one accord and did not get ahead or behind the others. They looked like a working wall of tomados, yet spinning independently of one another.

I knew this city was in huge trouble because it was very flat and the destruction was swift and absolute. Just as I was about to take cover with my family, I suddenly saw very large fireballs coming down from the sky with huge smoke trails behind them. When they hit, they totally bumed up everything, almost vaporizing their targets.

I could not tell if the fireballs were natural or man-made. I could not tell if they were meteors or missiles, but it really didn't matter because the destruction was the same.

Then the power went out in the building, which caused mass panic because there appeared to be nowhere to run and hide from this onslaught of destruction. I ran with my daughter to a corner of the room trying to shield her from the what was coming.

I heard bullets ring out. I'm a Cop, so I know the sound of gunfire. It put holes in the walls behind us. It was that close, yet we were not harmed.

As I covered my daughter, hiding her eyes from watching, I waited for the sounds of destruction to pass. When it finally got quiet, I went down below to see what was happening on the ground.

The landscape was totally destroyed. Buildings were leveled. Dust and smoke filled the air. What had been a hustling, bustling beautiful city just moments prior, was now a desolate ruinous heap.

Everywhere I looked, I saw people running, looking for loved ones, food, protection, and yes, something to defend themselves. I cannot describe with words the stark terror, confusion, and bewildered looks on their faces. One man in particular, well dressed and well groomed previously, was in shock and weeping. He wanted to ask questions, but seemed unable to speak as he staggered around. The panic I saw in the people was beyond anything I'd ever witnessed. It was beyond comprehension.

I walked through the city until I could no longer stand to see the pain. I began making my way back to my own family, but as I did, I looked up and saw fighter jets filling the skies. I could not tell if they were friend or foe because of the smoke, dust, and fog caused by the destruction.

Then I awoke!

“The Bomb Will Come from the East, Not on American Soil”

JANUARY 6, 2017 12:33 AM BY SHERRY GORSLIN 1 COMMENT

I received the following word from the Lord on January 5, 2017:

“The time of preparation is not over. Do not get discouraged or live in despair, but continue this path. I need you to continue this path. Today you trust Me, and hear My voice, for tomorrow you know not what comes.”

As I was praying I kept seeing and hearing a bomb. Then I heard this:

“This will set in motion what must be. The bomb will come from the east. It will not be on American soil. It shall be set off to begin war. The angel of war is at hand, directing and guiding those that will listen. Evil is still in place, and much is being done behind closed doors.

Keep your eyes on Israel and who sides with them. Your nation will be divided, not only on principles, but on land. States will come together, and sides will be chosen. Look for this. I have told you so.”

Prophetic Dream Warns of 9.5 Earthquake in United States

DECEMBER 9, 2016 11:52 AM BY ELIZABETH MARIE 85 COMMENTS

In November 2016, I dreamed I was with a bunch a people and somehow I knew we were in the southern part of the U.S.A. We were all standing outside, almost frozen with fear as we waited.

There had been a HUGE earthquake in the north and we were all filled with dread knowing we were about to feel its effects. It seemed like we were to be the last location that was going feel it coming. I told everyone to hang on.

Then, all of a sudden, while waiting for this earthquake to happen, I had a vision within the dream. I saw an outline map of America. I didn't see the state lines, but only the outline of the U.S. Then, the map zoomed to where the earthquake started and I saw a black dot pulsating on the epicenter. The dot was in the upper part of the middle of the country, however, I wasn't sure of which state. It seemed higher than the New Madrid fault. Then I saw '9.5' indicating the level on the Richter Scale. I was not given any dates or timing.

Interpretation:

I believe this dream has a couple of interpretations—dual meanings:

I believe this earthquake might have to do with the New Madrid fault and a massive earthquake occurring that will shake the whole country. A few days after the dream, I saw the U.N. voted for a two-state solution in Israel. The LORD then reminded me of this dream and I knew it was related. So, I believe this has something to do with the division of Israel. Whoever divides HIS land will come in harms- way according to Scripture.

I believe this is about a great divide coming (and has already begun) in the U.S., as we see the lines between good and evil become more and more distinct. This earthquake could unleash more civil unrest in our nation, our communities, as well as within our own families. JESUS said a house divided cannot stand (Mark3:25). I believe that also applies to a nation.

NOTE:

The largest earthquake ever recorded was in 1960—a 9.5 in Chile.

Scripture References:

"I will also gather all nations, and bring them down to the Valley of Jehoshaphat; and I will enter into judgment with them there on account of My people, My heritage Israel, whom they have scattered among the nations; they have also divided up My land." (Joel 3:2)

“Soon My Spirit Will Flood the Earth Like a Huge Ocean Wave”

DECEMBER 19, 2016 5:15 PM BY KEVIN BARRETT 9 COMMENTS

In my time with the Lord, He said these words to me: “Son, tell My people to seek Me like never before.”

Word from the Lord:

“My people, you are on the threshold of a new era. So many things are about to suddenly change, in both your nation and your individual lives.

For I am preparing and setting the stage for My end-time events. Some of you will be greatly used in these events and My kingdom ministries, yet many others shall only be dismayed. Yet, I tell you now; it does not have to be this way. For if you would render your hearts unto Me, and lay down your lives at My feet, then I shall do a quick work within you.

However, for those who refuse to lay everything down, I give you this warning; soon My Spirit will flood the earth like a huge ocean wave. And if you are not walking in My will, your life as you know it shall come crashing down.

Howbeit, for those walking in My will, this coming wave of My Spirit shall lift you up and carry you to the fullness of your destiny in Christ, so long as you continue walking with Me and endure to the end.

So then, listen well to Me this day when I say repent and repent quickly. For if you are walking in sin and rebellion when this wave comes, it may be your demise when it hits you. Oh, it is not I who shall do this to you, yet you will be snared by your own doings.

But for those walking in obedience when this wave comes; I say get ready to be swept off your feet and into My Spirit. For I shall carry you far above the woes of this world.

Now, this does not mean that you shall be without trials and testings. Yet, My peace which passes all understanding shall carry you. And I shall always make a way for you to fulfill My will and purposes in the earth realm.

Oh, My dearest little ones, My heart is thrilled regarding the days that are ahead. For even though there will be many calamities and woes, there shall also be the greatest move of My Spirit this world has ever experienced. And many souls shall enter into My kingdom in these last days. So then, prepare your hearts before Me and allow My Spirit to make the right adjustments in your attitudes and thinking. And if you give all to Me and allow Me to do this work in you, you shall be thrilled beyond what you have ever imagined. Oh, how I love you all with an everlasting love. And it thrills Me to thrill the hearts of My people. So then, lay everything at My feet and seek Me in your prayer closets. Surely, I will answer you, for I am waiting...”

Food For Thought
by George Davis

In 1949 the communist revolution marked the end of all missionary efforts in China. All foreign missionaries were expelled. After the communist takeover the Chinese government bitterly attacked the Church in China, driving it underground.

For 25 years China was closed to any outside "Christian" influences. Little information filtered through the tight-knit bamboo curtain. All remaining Christian leaders were rounded up wholesale and were either imprisoned or killed outright. Everything that was considered "Christian" was destroyed, church building, bibles, hymnals, everything. For 25 years a holocaust far exceeding that, inflicted on the Jews by Nazi Germany, ensued. It is estimated that about 27 million died during this purging.

In 1978 Deng Xiaoping came into power and China opened her borders once again. The western world stood in breathless anticipation. What would they find in the aftermath of such a horrible slaughter? Missionaries from around the world stood ready, poised in anxious intrepidity. Would there even be one surviving believer? Nothing could have possibly prepared them for what they were about to see!

After 25 years of horrendous persecution the missionaries returned to find that the church in China had not been obliterated, as many had feared, but that they had grown in number from the estimated one million believers before the 1949 revolution, to about 30 million. The contrast was amazing! What had caused such unprecedented growth? How could this be? Not only had they grown numerically but they had grown spiritually. The tales of their devotion to Christ are nothing short of inspirational. Most bewildering is the fact that this unparalleled growth occurred without the aid of any of those things that are thought to be essential in denominational churches today. Without the aid of professional pastors/priests, church buildings, bibles, Sunday-school materials, homilies, hymnals and mass gatherings, the Church in China has grown numerically and spiritually to be the most victorious expression of Christ's Church on the earth today. By all accounts, nothing like it has existed since the early Church. The very gates of hell could not prevail against her!

Makes you think doesn't it?

New Anti-Vampire Soap Claims to Keep Bloodsuckers at Bay

0 Comments | January 21, 2017 | Brett Tingley

Vampires probably think they're pretty clever. They used to have to slink around in the dark of night, transfiguring into icky bats and flying through windows in order to drink the lifeblood of their human prey. Now, they've convinced people to line up and voluntarily give their blood away to seemingly benevolent organizations. I know what they're really up to, though. Those vampires won't get a drop of my blood.

Bloodmobile? More like vamp-mobile.

BROLLY GOOD China is controlling the weather and will soon make it rain over an area twice the size of FRANCE

CHINA is going to make it rain.

Its government has created a technology that can cause a downpour over an area almost twice the size of France.

China is spending £138million on the new initiative to solve the drought in its northwestern provinces, according to the South China Morning Post.

It's sending airplanes to spray chemicals like dry ice and silver iodide across the sky to create more rainfall in a technique called cloud seeding.

The China Meteorological Administration expects rainfall and snow to be increased over 960,000 sq km as a result.

What is killing entire galaxies across the Universe?

By Strange Sounds - Jan 22, 2017

It's the big astrophysical whodunnit.

Across the Universe, galaxies are being killed and the question scientists want answered is, what's killing them?

Out there in the depths of space there are entire galaxies being killed off in a manner that is utterly perplexing scientists.

A new research published on Jan. 17th by an international team of researchers working at the Center for Radio Astronomy Research (ICRAR) seeks to answer that question.

The study reveals that a phenomenon called ram-pressure stripping is more prevalent than previously thought, driving gas from galaxies and sending them to an early death by depriving them of the material to make new stars.

The study of 11,000 galaxies shows their gas—the lifeblood for star formation—is being violently stripped away on a widespread scale throughout the local Universe.

Astronomer Predicts Piece of Planet X to Hit Earth in February

3 Comments | January 24, 2017 | Paul Seaburn

NASA astronomers reported earlier this year that a large mysterious object, which they named 2016 WF9, that has both the characteristics of an asteroid and a comet is heading towards Earth but will pass our planet harmlessly sometime in late February.

NASA is lying through its teeth. It is not conceivable that they do not know the truth. We have seen the data! The object they call WF9 left the Nibiru system in October when Nibiru began spinning counter clockwise around the sun. Since then, NASA has known it will hit Earth. But they are only telling people now.

That dire revelation and prediction comes from Russian-born astronomer Dr. Dyomin Damir Zakharovich, whose "data" indicates that 2016 WF9 was once a part of Planet X, or Nibiru as he calls it, that became an asteroid orbiting the yet-unproven planet, which Zakharovich agrees with others is actually orbiting not our Sun but its binary brown dwarf twin, which is swinging Planet X rapidly towards our solar system and Earth in particular, with a collision expected in October 2017.

Anomalous radiation “clouds” at aviation altitudes discovered: Dose rates of cosmic radiation normally absorbed by air travelers can double or more

by Strange Sounds - Jan 21, 2017

Radiation “clouds” at aviation altitudes have been recently discovered by scientists.

When airplanes fly through these clouds, dose rates of cosmic radiation normally absorbed by air travelers can double or more.

via Space Weather

The fact that air travelers absorb radiation is not news. Researchers have long known that cosmic rays crashing into Earth's atmosphere create a spray of secondary particles such as neutrons, protons, electrons, X-rays and gamma-rays that penetrate aircraft. 100,000 mile frequent flyers absorb as much radiation as 20 chest X-rays—and even a single flight across the USA can expose a traveler to more radiation than a dental X-ray.

Conventional wisdom says that dose rates should vary smoothly with latitude and longitude and the height of the aircraft. Any changes as a plane navigates airspace should be gradual.

Tobiska and colleagues have found something quite different: Sometimes dose rates skyrocket for no apparent reason. They have flown radiation sensors onboard 264 research flights at altitudes as high as 17.3km (56,700 ft) from 2013 to 2017. On at least six occasions, the sensors have recorded surges in ionizing radiation that scientists interpreted as analogous to localized clouds. Quite a surprise!

Giant earth crack discovered in the Arizona desert

By Strange Sounds - Jan 25, 2017

A massive, two-mile-long, earth fissure in the desert landscape was just charted by the Arizona Geological Survey.

This fissure formed between March 2013 and December 2014. This one is more than half a mile longer than other fissures in the area. The fissure may have grown because of the heavy rains in fall of 2014.

After South Africa, a new massive fissure was discovered in Arizona.

Huge cracks are fairly common in central Arizona, with a cluster of fissures around Eloy, and in Cochise, La Paz, Maricopa, Pima and Pinal Counties.

But the latest discovery, featured above in the video, is more than half a mile longer than other fissures in the area.

Torrential rains leave hundreds stranded in Chile

Around 350 Chileans have been cut off following a spell of intense rainfall which caused floods and mudslides.

Landslides left cars and roads completely buried in thick mud and clay [Reuters]

Torrential downpours in northern Chile have caused floods and mudslides, leaving hundreds of people in the country's Atacama region isolated.

Chile's National Emergency Office said on Tuesday that 350 people were cut off from the town of Chollay, to the commune of Alto del Carmen and inland.

Local media reported that the Chollay River had burst its banks, causing mudslides in the ravines of Canuto and Zorra Muerta. Forty families are located in the Quebrada Colpe sector and five families in the La Pampa sector.

The landslides prevented emergency workers from accessing the areas worst affected, where cars and roads were completely buried by thick mud and clay.

A red alert has been declared for the region, and the drinking water supply has been interrupted for the whole town of Chollay.

Colorado's count of earthquakes has risen to 12 since the first in a series occurred Thursday night.

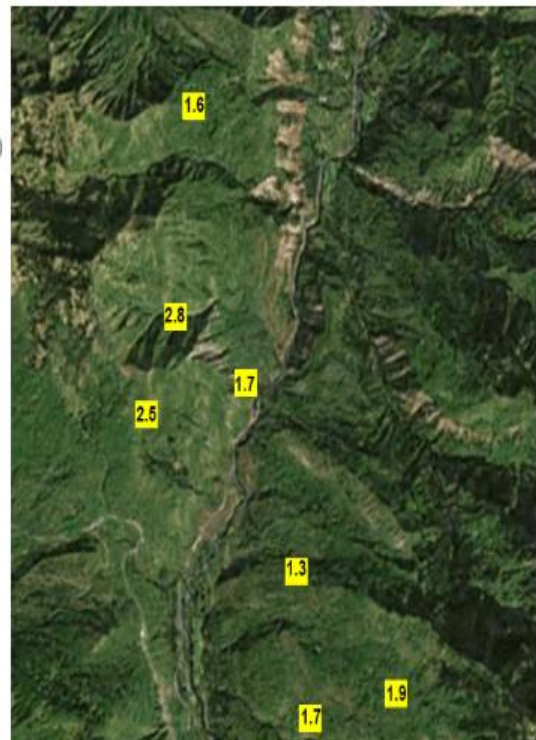

The United States Geological Survey reports eleven quakes have occurred in the mountains of southeast Pitkin and northern Gunnison counties, northwest of the town of Marble, registering 2.8 or less on the Richter Scale. The twelfth occurring just south of Las Animas County in New Mexico in an area with frequent earthquakes some link to hydraulic fracturing (frequently referred to as "fracking") for oil and natural gas production.

No reports of damage have been received.

According to the US Geological Survey, there is evidence that some central and eastern North America earthquakes have been triggered or caused by human activities that have altered the stress conditions in earth's crust sufficiently to induce faulting.

Activities that have induced felt earthquakes in some geologic environments have included impoundment of water behind dams, injection of fluid into the earth's crust, extraction of fluid or gas, and removal of rock in mining or quarrying operations.

Even within areas with many human-induced earthquakes, however, the activity that seems to induce seismicity at one location may be taking place at many other locations without inducing felt earthquakes.

In 1990, a group of Soviet scientists moved to Leonard, Oklahoma. They came as watchdogs, to ensure that the United States obeyed the nuclear Threshold Test Ban Treaty and did not secretly explode atomic bombs below ground. The Soviets needed a profoundly quiet place to observe vibrations in the region, because tremors might confuse their measurements. And in the United States, there were few places as seismically tranquil as Oklahoma.

Just over 25 years later, on Sept. 3, 2016, Oklahoma experienced its strongest earthquake on record — a magnitude 5.8. This was followed by a 5.0 temblor on Nov. 6, which rattled Cushing, Oklahoma and prompted the city to close its schools. These days, noticeable quakes of 3.0 magnitude or higher on the Richter scale happen regularly in the Sooner State. In 2015, Oklahomans experienced 890 of these earthquakes. "It's really a remarkable phenomenon," says Jeremy Boak, director of the Oklahoma Geological Survey.

But despite what you may have heard, fracking is not to blame — though it's not exactly guiltless, either.

What is fracking, and why isn't it causing Oklahoma's seismic surge?

"Fracking is an old technology," says Boak. "One of the earliest frack jobs was done in 1947, in Oklahoma."

Since then, the technology has improved, and today it is in heavy use: As of Oct. 2016, there were 112,839 hydraulically fractured oil wells registered in the United States. The U.S. economy has benefited from this "fracking revolution," which produced 725,000 jobs during the Great Recession of 2007-2009.

Wealthy Americans are preparing for a possible US collapse or revolt by the poor and buying properties in New Zealand, The New Yorker magazine reported.

According to writer Evan Osnos, preppers from Silicon Valley and New York are getting ready for the “crackup of civilization.”

One American hedge-fund manager who owns two New Zealand homes told Osnos he expected at least a decade of political turmoil in the United States. PayPal co-founder and Facebook investor Peter Thiel also owns property there, and has described New Zealand as “utopia.”

Osnos said it’s unclear exactly how many wealthy Americans are buying property in New Zealand with the apocalypse in mind, while many just want a holiday home there. However, the amount of land they have purchased in the last few years has increased dramatically, he added.

Statistics showed foreigners had bought over 3500 square kilometers of New Zealand in the first ten months of 2016, which is over four times as much as they did in the same period in 2010.

Beijing has deployed advanced Dongfeng-41 ICBMs in Heilongjiang Province, which borders Russia, according to reports based on images, possibly leaked to coincide with Donald Trump's inauguration as US president.

UPDATE: In a statement to RIA Novosti, the Chinese Foreign Ministry called media reports on China's deployment of ballistic missiles to the Russian border "speculations and crude guesses."

"Pictures of China's Dongfeng-41 ballistic missile were exposed on Chinese mainland websites," the Global Times said citing reports in "some Hong Kong and Taiwan media." Russian news agencies identified one of them as the Apple Daily, a Hong Kong-based tabloid-style resource.

"It was revealed that the pictures were taken in Heilongjiang Province. Military analysts believe that this is perhaps the second Dongfeng-41 strategic missile brigade and it should be deployed in northeastern China," the report in the Chinese daily adds. The Global Times works under the auspices of the People's Daily, the official newspaper of the Chinese Communist Party, though the former tends to be more controversial.

Women lead unprecedented worldwide mass protests against Trump

Protesters out in droves for Women's March on Washington

02:06

By Scott Malone and Ginger Gibson | WASHINGTON

Hundreds of thousands of women filled the streets of major American cities to lead an unprecedented wave of international protests against President Donald Trump, mocking and denouncing the new U.S. leader the day after his inauguration.

Women activists, outraged by Trump's campaign rhetoric and behavior they found to be especially misogynistic, spearheaded scores of marches in the United States and sympathy rallies around the world on Saturday.

Organizers said they drew nearly 5 million protesters in all, far surpassing crowd expectations.

The demonstrations also highlighted strong discontent over Trump's comments and policy positions toward a wide range of groups, including Mexican immigrants, Muslims, the disabled and environmentalists.

In contrast to the heated, often shrill tone of the presidential campaign, and the grim imagery of "American carnage" Trump evoked in his inaugural address, the mood during Saturday's protests was largely upbeat, even festive.

Chanting such slogans as, "We need a real leader, not a creepy tweeter," and "Hey-hey, ho-ho, Donald Trump has got to go," many marchers wore knitted pink cat-eared "pussy hats" in a reference to Trump's boast, in a 2005 video made public weeks before the election, about grabbing women by the genitals.

German Press: "That Was No Presidential Speech; That Was A Declaration Of War"

by Tyler Durden

1.1K
SHARES

Following yesterday's openly confrontational, deliberately protectionist presidential address by president Trump, which in various circles has been dubbed the "American carnage" speech for obvious reasons, some of Obama's closest foreign friends are scrambling to find a role in a world that has drastically changed in less than 24 hours. One of them is the foreign leader whom Obama spoke to last before vacating the White House, German Chancellor Angela Merkel, who vowed on Saturday to seek compromises on issues like trade and military spending with Trump, adding she would work on preserving the important relationship between Europe and the United States.

"He made his convictions clear in his inauguration speech," Merkel said in remarks broadcast live, a day after Trump vowed to put 'America first'.

Speaking at a news conference in the south-western town of Schoental, Merkel - and finding herself in a world where many of her "established" friends have been swept away by the tide of "populist anger" - suddenly struck a more conciliatory tone toward Trump than Vice Chancellor Sigmar Gabriel, who on Friday said Germany should prepare for a rough ride under the new U.S. president.

"I say two things with regards to this (speech): first, I believe firmly that it is best for all of us if we work together based on rules, common values and joint action in the international economic system, in the international trade system, and make our contributions to the military alliances," Merkel said. Judging by Trump's fiery sermon, he disagrees.

"And second, the trans-Atlantic relationship will not be less important in the coming years than it was in past years. And I will work on that. Even when there are different opinions, compromises and solutions can be best found when we exchange ideas with respect," added Merkel

The conservative German leader, who is seeking a fourth term and enjoyed a close relationship with former president Barack Obama, is seen by liberals across the Atlantic as a voice of reason that counterbalances rising populist parties in Europe. That voice, however, has rising problems at home, where her approval rating has tumbled over the past year due to her immigration policies, where "radical" views such as those espoused by Trump are gaining traction.

As Reuters notes, relations with the United States, Germany's biggest trading partner, are likely to be a hot topic in electioneering in coming months leading to a general election in September. And in the aftermath of the Trump speech, which defined Trump's "negotiating baseline", Merkel will have no choice but admit weakness in accepting compromises with a man who has criticized her decision in 2015 to throw open Germany's borders to asylum seekers fleeing wars and conflicts, and has said he believes other countries will leave the EU after Britain and that the NATO military alliance was obsolete.

Yet while Merkel may be hoping for a fresh start with the new US president, her domestic institutions and media will be far less forgiving to any indication of weakness from the chancellor.

The best example of this, so far, is an article penned this morning by Gabor Steingart, chief in chief of Handelsblatt, Germany's leading economic newspaper, who burned all compromise bridges when he said that "that was no presidential speech; that was a veritable declaration of war."

The United States and NATO have deployed additional forces and military equipment to Central and Eastern European nations, as well as the Baltic states, citing security concerns as the reason, but the largest buildup in the bloc's history is not aimed at protecting NATO's eastern flank, Professor Janusz Niedzwiedzki told Sputnik.

"Let's be honest, it is not about protecting eastern borders of the European Union or NATO's eastern flank, whatever you call it. In reality this is another deployment of military equipment closer to the Russian border," he said.

Niedzwiedzki, press secretary of the head of the Warsaw University of Technology, mentioned two possible implications of NATO's latest move. Russia could well respond by enhancing its military forces deployed to Kaliningrad. Moscow will also put more effort into resolving the Ukrainian conflict to its own advantage.

Last week, approximately 4,000 US soldiers, as well as hundreds of armored vehicles and more than 80 main battle tanks arrived in Germany as part of Operation Atlantic Resolve. This program is aimed at ensuring Washington's European allies that the US is committed to protecting them from Moscow, although Russian officials have repeatedly said that the country does not pose a threat to any of its neighbors or any nation in the world.

Polish Prime Minister Beata Szydlo welcomed US troops on Saturday, saying that they "represent the best, the greatest army in the world." Niedzwiedzki observed that this greeting could point to how biased Polish elites are and said that the Poles were not uniform in their stance on NATO's latest deployment.

Suicide blast kills dozens at army base in Mali's Gao

Dozens dead in car-bomb attack at camp housing government soldiers and rival armed groups in northern city of Gao.

Dozens of people have been killed in a car bombing at a military camp in the northern city of Gao in Mali.

The area houses government soldiers and rival armed groups who conduct mixed patrols under a UN-brokered peace deal aimed at curbing violence in the region.

Wednesday morning's explosion hit the Joint Operational Mechanism base in Gao, which was seized by armed groups in 2012 before French forces drove them out a year later.

Specifically, former rebels from the Tuareg-led CMA movement were preparing to go on a joint patrol with pro-government militia members, under the terms of the 2015 agreement, when the attackers struck.

Some of these sudden, unexplained illnesses caused flights to be grounded or even hazmat teams to be called to the scenes of the quarantined airliners. Some initial investigations claimed that de-icing fluids or some other foreign material in the cabin might be the culprit, but according to San Jose Fire Department Captain Mitch Matlow, conflicting conclusions have been drawn:

“At this point, we still don’t know exactly what the material is. We’re getting conflicting reports and because of that we’re not prepared to say it was one thing or another. But we are working to identify it.”

While these cases are highly disturbing for flight attendants and other airline professionals, the show must go on, as they say. With millions of people depending on commercial airliners every day, it’s not like flights can stop until a cause is found. However, a new report issued by Bloomberg News has identified a potential source of this mystery: flight attendants’ new uniforms.

Transmitted through mosquitoes, more than three million people in Kenya are at risk of a disease that some believe is the result of witchcraft.

Elephantiasis affects mostly poor communities where sanitation levels are low and mosquito breeding is rampant.

After an initial inadequate response, the government has now launched a huge campaign to tackle neglected tropical diseases in coastal areas.

"I used to be a fisherman but I can no longer do that. To earn a living I have to do menial labour and it's very difficult," Katoi Kaviha told Al Jazeera in Marikibuni village.

The disease has enlarged Kaviha's feet to such an extent that he is now unable to walk.

Devastating new strain of Avian Influenza hit's Nigerian poultry industry affecting over 3.5 million birds: New strain very pathogenic more devastating!

Photo FaceToFaceAfrica

A devastating new strain of Avian Influenza has hit the poultry industry with over 3.5 million birds affected currently, the Minister of Agriculture, Audu Ogbeh has revealed.

Ogbeh spoke yesterday in Abuja during a meeting with commissioners of livestock, state directors of veterinary services and major stakeholders in the poultry industry.

According to the minister, the new strain is very pathogenic and more devastating to poultry species. He said the new virus, H5N8, which was discovered in Kano State would further add to the burdens of the strain, H5N1 that is currently circulating in about 26 states of the federation. Ogbeh lamented that the disease which is trans-boundary in nature has caused some of the country's neighbours to propose a ban on chicken and poultry products from Nigeria.

City quarantines hundreds of cats amid bird flu outbreak

By Gabriela Barkho

January 12, 2017 | 12:38pm

This is a cat-astrophe!

A rare strain of bird flu has swept through the Big Apple's animal shelters — and city officials have locked up about 500 felines in a quarantine facility to stop the outbreak.

So far, 386 of the purring patients have tested positive for the H7N2 virus — the first time the disease has even been found in cats, officials said.

Two of the cats have died, along with the original host: a Bronx shelter adoptee named Alfred, who became sick in October.

SEE ALSO

Tiny kitty named Alfred is patient zero in bird-flu outbreak

But workers have no plans to put down any of the sick cats and instead will treat them for the virus, which has baffled the medical staff.

It was unclear how Alfred caught H7N2, which remains contagious for up to three weeks, officials said.

Even though it is considered only slightly transmittable to humans, workers are taking no chances — wearing hazmat suits whenever they are in the room with the furballs.

The cats were rounded up from shelters in all corners of the city over the last two months and taken to a makeshift facility in an industrial section of Long Island City, Queens, set up by the ASPCA.

US woman dies of infection resistant to all 26 available antibiotics

On January 13, 2017, health officials said a US woman died in September 2016 from an infection that is resistant to all 26 available antibiotics (AFP Photo/Frederic Brown)

Miami (AFP) - A US woman has died from an infection that was resistant to all 26 available antibiotics, health officials said this week, raising new concerns about the rise of dangerous superbugs.

The woman, who was in her 70s, died in Nevada in September, and had recently been hospitalized in India with fractured leg bones, the US Centers for Disease Control and Prevention reported.

The cause of death was sepsis, following infection from a rare bacteria known as carbapenem-resistant Enterobacteriaceae (CRE), which is resistant to all antibiotics available in the United States.

The specific strain of CRE, known as Klebsiella pneumoniae, was isolated from one of her wounds in August.

Tests were negative for the mor-1 gene -- a great concern to health experts because it makes bacteria resistant to the antibiotic of last resort, colistin.

It was unclear how the woman's infection acquired resistance.

Experts said she had been treated repeatedly in India during the last two years for a femur fracture and hip problems, most recently in June 2016.

The report, which is produced annually by Open Doors USA, found that persecution of Christians rose globally for the third year in a row, reaching “unprecedented levels” in countries located in South and Southeast Asia, among other locations.

“Christians throughout the world continue to risk imprisonment, loss of home and assets, torture, beheadings, rape and even death as a result of their faith,” the report stated.

The World Watch List (WWL) ranks the 50 countries across the globe where persecution of Christians is most severe.

In 25 years of chronicling and ranking the political and societal restrictions on religious freedom experienced by Christians worldwide, Open Doors researchers identified 2016 as the “worst year yet.”

The report corroborated an earlier study from the Turin-based Center for Studies on New Religions (CESNUR), which found that during the year 2016, some 90,000 Christians were killed for their faith around the world.

Thirty Chinese Police Surround House Church, Order Congregants to Stop Worshiping

New religious rules scheduled to be adopted in China on Oct. 7, 2016, will negatively affect the church's open community there, warn Catholics. In addition, the rules will place hefty financial fines on unapproved religious activities and severely hamper local residents' interaction with foreign supporters, say opponents. CNS photo/Wu Hong Chinese authorities surrounded a house church in Beijing before raiding the building and ordering congregants to stop meeting - or face legal action.

According to China Aid, an international non-profit Christian human rights organization committed to promoting religious freedom and rule of law in China, the Shengai Fellowship Family Church in Beijing had organized a gathering on Oct. 7 in the home of Xu Yonghai, an elder in the church.

After receiving word of the gathering, police raided and terminated the meeting. More than thirty police officers guarded the building and demanded the gathering be cancelled.

'He Died a True Christian': Syrian Woman Tells Story of Son Who Died Refusing to Deny Faith in Christ

A Syrian woman recently shared the heartwrenching story of the death of her 18-year-old son, who was shot and killed by ISIS-aligned militants after he refused to deny his faith in Christ.

Alice Assaf of Adra al-Ummaliya near Damascus told her story to Dr. Yvette Elbayadi Isaac of the American human rights group Roads of Success, which posted the interview online.

Over two years ago, Assaf was informed by a neighbor that the militants had entered the city and were killing Christians. She sought a way of escape, but never felt safe enough to do so, since "passersby were systematically killed."

Assaf and her children took refuge at a neighbor's house, where they began hearing of the atrocities that were being committed in the city.

"We heard that the militants grabbed six strong men working at the bakery and burned them alive in the oven," she recalled. "After that, they caught some 250 kids and kneaded them like dough in the bakery dough machine."

She said that the oldest child was four years old.

Dozens of Chinese Christians Beaten, Detained By Authorities As Persecution Rages On

By LEAH MARIEANN KLETT (NEWS@GOSPELHERALD.COM) Oct 27, 2016 10:53 AM EDT

China Aid's "Chinese Government Persecution of Christians and Churches in China" report found there has been a 4.74 increase in persecution in 2016 compared to last year. Reuters

Dozens of Christians were detained and beaten by authorities in China's central Henan province as the Communist government tightens its grip on believers in the country.

According to persecution watchdog China Aid, witnesses said police officers from the Nanle County Public Security Bureau beat a local Christian on September 25, then detained and beat 20 more believers for their beliefs and arrested them all.

Zhang Mingxuan, a pastor and president of the Chinese House Church Alliance, condemned the actions of the Nanle police and called on the international community to unite in prayer for those persecuted in China.

"It is against the national constitution and laws for house church believers to be beaten by Nanle County Public Security Bureau," he said. "A lot of problems have been caused because they [the public security bureau personnel] control, attack and persecute Christianity in Henan. I hope the international community will pray for them."

UN RESOLUTION: TEMPLE MOUNT AND KOTEL ARE MUSLIM, ISRAEL TO BLAME FOR VIOLENCE

By Adam Eliyahu Berkowitz October 14, 2016 , 11:05 am

On Thursday, the day after Yom Kippur when God judges all of creation, the United Nation Educational, Scientific and Cultural Organization (UNESCO) passed its resolution on “Occupied Palestine” in Paris, listing all of Judaism’s holiest sites as Islamic, while blaming Israel for the violence in the region.

Times of Israel published the entire text of the resolution. Some of the more egregious points are:

-It refers to the holy sites in Arabic, “Al-Aqsa Mosque/Al-Haram Al-Sharif and its surroundings”. The Temple Mount is noted to be “a Muslim holy site of worship and as an integral part of a world cultural heritage site”.

Johnnie Moore, a Christian author and humanitarian, is slamming President Barack Obama and Democratic presidential nominee Hillary Clinton for their action — or inaction — when it comes to the Christians currently facing "genocide" in the Middle East.

In an interview with Newsmax TV earlier this week, Moore told host J.D. Hayworth that members of the Obama administration have "sat on their hands" during the brutal killings and displacement of Christians in the region as the Islamic State continues to seize land.

Syrian refugees walk on their way back to the Syrian city of Jarabulus on September 7, 2016 at Karkamis crossing gate, in the southern region of Kilis. (BULENT KILIC/AFP/Getty Images)

"If you support Christians who have been the recipients of genocide in the Middle East," Moore said, "you're called 'Islamophobic,' and it's just incomprehensible."

Moore, who authored the book "Defying ISIS: Preserving Christianity in the Place of Its Birth and in Your Own Backyard," went on to tell Hayworth that both Obama and Clinton are responsible for the "systematic dismantling of religious freedom in this country, and they have sat on their hands while hundreds of thousands, if not millions and millions, of Christians have been displaced and killed."

To that end, Moore offered a new phrase to describe Obama's administration, accusing the president of "Christophobia." Moore, who said he has spent considerable amounts of time working with Muslim refugees, said he and others have been called "Islamophobic" for simply "speaking up for Christians."

ISIS TORTURES 11-YEAR-OLD IN FRONT OF HIS CHRISTIAN MISSIONARY FATHER, CRUCIFIES THEM FOR NOT CONVERTING TO ISLAM

More incredible horrors from the evil Islamist terrorists of ISIS.

From Christian Aid Mission:

“ At several steps on their path to death by beheading and crucifixion last month, 11 indigenous Christian workers near Aleppo, Syria had the option to leave the area and live. The 12-year-old son of a ministry team leader also could have spared his life by denying Christ.

The indigenous missionaries were not required to stay at their ministry base in a village near Aleppo, Syria; rather, the ministry director who trained them had entreated them to leave. As the Islamic State (ISIS), other rebel groups and Syrian government forces turned Aleppo into a war zone of carnage and destruction, ISIS took over several outlying villages. The Syrian ministry workers in those villages chose to stay in order to provide aid in the name of Christ to survivors.

“I asked them to leave, but I gave them the freedom to choose,” said the ministry director, his voice tremulous as he recalled their horrific deaths. “As their leader, I should have insisted that they leave.”

They stayed because they believed they were called to share Christ with those caught in the crossfire, he said.

From Christian Aid Mission:

At several steps on their path to death by beheading and crucifixion last month, 11 indigenous Christian workers near Aleppo, Syria had the option to leave the area and live. The 12-year-old son of a ministry team leader also could have spared his life by denying Christ.

The indigenous missionaries were not required to stay at their ministry base in a village near Aleppo, Syria; rather, the ministry director who trained them had entreated them to leave. As the Islamic State (ISIS), other rebel groups and Syrian government forces turned Aleppo into a war zone of carnage and destruction, ISIS took over several outlying villages. The Syrian ministry workers in those villages chose to stay in order to provide aid in the name of Christ to survivors.

“I asked them to leave, but I gave them the freedom to choose,” said the ministry director, his voice tremulous as he recalled their horrific deaths. “As their leader, I should have insisted that they leave.”

They stayed because they believed they were called to share Christ with those caught in the crossfire, he said.

And then they became captives of ISIS. Relatives relate what happened.

The relatives said ISIS militants on Aug. 7 captured the Christian workers in a village whose name is withheld for security reasons. On Aug. 28, the militants asked if they had renounced Islam for Christianity. When the Christians said that they had, the rebels asked if they wanted to return to Islam. The Christians said they would never renounce Christ.

The 41-year-old team leader, his young son and two ministry members in their 20s were questioned at one village site where ISIS militants had summoned a crowd. The team leader presided over nine house churches he had helped to establish. His son was two months away from his 13th birthday.

In front of the team leader and relatives in the crowd, the Islamic extremists cut off the fingertips of the boy and severely beat him, telling his father they would stop the torture only if he, the father, returned to Islam. When the team leader refused, relatives said, the ISIS militants also tortured and beat him and the two other ministry workers. The three men and the boy then met their deaths in crucifixion.

“All were badly brutalized and then crucified,” the ministry leader said. “They were left on their crosses for two days. No one was allowed to remove them.”

The martyrs died beside signs the ISIS militants had put up identifying them as “infidels.”

Somehow people want us to believe that these evil monsters would have been boy scouts if George W. Bush hadn't invaded Iraq. And of course, it has absolutely nothing to do with Islam, right?

Unfortunately, other horrors were recounted as well. These perpetrated on Christian women.

Eight other ministry team members, including two women, were taken to another site in the village that day (Aug. 28) and were asked the same questions before a crowd. The women, ages 29 and 33, tried to tell the ISIS militants they were only sharing the peace and love of Christ and asked what they had done wrong to deserve the abuse. The Islamic extremists then publicly raped the women, who continued to pray during the ordeal, leading the ISIS militants to beat them all the more furiously.

As the two women and the six men knelt before they were beheaded, they were all praying.

“Villagers said some were praying in the name of Jesus, others said some were praying the Lord's prayer, and others said some of them lifted their heads to commend their spirits to Jesus,” the ministry director said. “One of the women looked up and seemed to be almost smiling as she said, ‘Jesus!’”

After they were beheaded, their bodies were hung on crosses, the ministry director said, his voice breaking. He had trained all of the workers for their evangelistic ministry, and he had baptized the team leader and some of the others.

This is what is happening in the Middle East right now.

And instead of doing anything about it, Obama is sitting back and letting Turkey's Erdogan attack his enemies among the Kurds in Syria, and letting Putin attack the enemies of his pal Assad. We're not even leading from behind anymore, we're just ceding ground to Satanic evil every day.
