The Ancient Text of Atom & Eua w Zen Garcia

Join Kenneth, John and Cathy in the chat room while they discuss the most pressing apocalyptic headlines and prophetic warnings of the approach of the Great Tribulation. Tonight we are blessed to have brother Zen Garcia discuss with the listeners excerpts from the newly discovered text entitled "Atom and Eua" which was written prior to the ancient Sumerian texts dispelling the false notion that the Sumerian texts describe the Adam and Eve of the Holy Bible.

God Bless You - See you there!

CROSSING THRESHOLDS

We are standing at the threshold of yet another year
Wondering what is coming and if it should be feared.
Will there be prosperity or the loss of things held dear,
Will there be a celebration or a torrential river of tears?

Tears of the hungry, the orphans and the widows made
From the insatiable appetite of evil that is never stayed.
We are approaching now the threshold of a future age
The remaining Watchmen cry, while time turns yet another page

Still the masses reject the warnings and few will now be saved

The road into tomorrow has been built and with blood it has been paved.

The voice of truth is being silenced and our freedom has been sold

While the guilty revel in their victories with bloodstains on their clothes.

We are moving across the threshold of another generation

Who will be bridled with our sin because we gave into temptation.

The coming generations will see the world we left them, and of us implore

“Was Truth exchanged for comforts and what trinkets were our futures traded for?”

"If sinners be damned, at least let them leap to Hell over our dead bodies. And if they perish, let them perish with our arms wrapped about their knees, imploring them to stay. If Hell must be filled, let it be filled in the teeth of our exertions, and let not one go unwarned and unprayed for. "

“Since I entered politics, I have chiefly had men's views confided to me privately. Some of the biggest men in the United States, in the field of commerce and manufacture, are afraid of something. They know that there is a power somewhere so organized, so subtle, so watchful, so interlocked, so complete, so pervasive, that they better not speak above their breath when they speak in condemnation of it.

JESUS CALLING OR SMITH WIGGLESWORTH

December 28

God Is All You Need

I take pleasure in infirmities, in reproaches, in needs, in persecutions, in distresses, for Christ' sake. For when I am weak, then I am strong.

—2 Corinthians 12:10

Scripture reading: 2 Corinthians 12:1–10

When God comes into your life, you will find Him to be enough. As Israel came forth, the sun rose upon him, and he had power over all the things of the world and over Esau. Esau met him, but there was no fight now; there was reconciliation. They kissed each other. How true it is that "when a man's ways please the LORD, He makes even his enemies to be at peace with him" (Prov. 16:7). The material things did not count for much after the night of revelation. Who brought about the change? God did.

Can you hold on to God as Jacob did? You certainly can if you are sincere, dependent, broken, and weak. It is when you are weak that you are strong. But if you are self-righteous, if you are proud, if you are high-minded, if you are puffed up in your own mind, you can receive nothing from Him. If you become lukewarm instead of being on fire for God, you can become a disappointment to Him. And He says, "I will vomit you out of My mouth" (Rev. 3:16).

But there is a place of holiness, a place of meekness, a place of faith, where you can call to God, "I will not let You go unless You bless me!" (Gen. 32:26). And in response, He will bless you "exceedingly abundantly above all that [you] ask or think" (Eph. 3:20).

Sometimes we are tempted to think that He has left us. Oh, no. He has promised never to leave us or forsake us (Deut. 31:6). He had promised not to leave Jacob, and He did not break His promise. He has promised not to leave us, and He will not fail. Jacob held on until the blessing came. We can do the same.

If God does not help us, we are no good for this world's need; we are no longer salt, we lose our savor. But as we spend time alone with God, and cry to Him to bless us, He re-salts us. He re-empowers us, but He brings us to brokenness and moves us into the orbit of His own perfect will.

Oh, the blessedness of being brought into a life of dependence upon the power of the Holy Spirit. Henceforth, we know that we are nothing without Him; we are absolutely dependent upon Him. I am absolutely nothing without the power and anointing of the Holy Spirit. Oh, for a life of absolute dependence! It is through a life of dependence that there is a life of power. If you are not there, get alone with God. If you must, spend a whole night alone with God, and let Him change and transform you. Never let Him go until He blesses you, until He makes you an Israel, a prince with God.

Thought for today: It is those who have seen the face of God and have been broken by Him who can meet the forces of the Enemy and break down the bulwarks of Satan's kingdom.

Ps 31:19

Oh, how great is Your goodness,
Which You have laid up for those who fear You, Which You have prepared for those who trust in You In the presence of the sons of men!

NKJV

Ps 11:5

5 The Lord tests the righteous,
But the wicked and the one who loves violence His soul hates.

NKJV

Ps 33:18-19

Behold, the eye of the Lord is on those who fear Him,
On those who hope in His mercy,
19 To deliver their soul from death,
And to keep them alive in famine.

NKJV

Ps 34:15

The eyes of the Lord are on the righteous,
And His ears are open to their cry.

NKJV

Ps 34:9

Oh, fear the Lord, you His saints!
There is no want to those who fear Him.

NKJV

Ps 34:17-18

17 The righteous cry out, and the Lord hears,
And delivers them out of all their troubles.
18 The Lord is near to those who have a broken heart,
And saves such as have a contrite spirit.

PLAY – The Rapture – (Are We There Yet) Final

Humility in Daily Life

00- Humility by Andrew Murray – Tribulation Now

(6 minutes)

If someone says, 'I love God,' but hates a Christian brother or sister, that person is a liar; for if we don't love people we can see, how can we love God, whom we have not seen? (1 John 4:20) Here's a sobering thought:

God measures our love for Him by the love we show our brothers and sisters in every day fellowship with them. It is a serious thing to realize that our love for God just isn't genuine if it fails the test of daily life with our fellow human beings. The same thing is true with humility. It is easy to think we humble ourselves before God. But humility before people is the only real proof that our humility before God is more than just a figment of our imagination. It is the only true evidence that humility has made a home in our hearts and become our nature. How can we know that we, like Christ, have made ourselves of no reputation? By the reality check of daily life. When in God's presence humility has become more than just a feeling we have when we think about Him or pray, but instead the very Spirit of our lives, it will show itself in the way we treat our brothers and sisters.

This lesson is crucial. The only humility that really belongs to us is not what we try to show before God in prayer, but what we carry with us and live out when we get up off our knees. The insignificance of daily life is the test of eternity. It proves what Spirit really possesses us. It is in our unguarded moments when we show who we really are. To know the humble man, you have to follow him around and watch his daily life.

Isn't that lesson exactly what Jesus taught? His great teachings about humility came when He saw the disciples arguing about who was greatest or the Pharisees competing for the place of honor at banquets and in synagogues. He taught again after He had given them an example by washing their feet. Humility before God is nothing if it isn't proved by humility before men. Paul of course taught the same practical lesson. To the Romans, he wrote: "Love each other with genuine affection and take delight in honoring each other...Live in harmony with each other. Don't try to act important, but enjoy the company of ordinary people. And don't think you know it all!"(Romans 12:10,16). To the Corinthians, he said: "Love is not jealous or boastful or proud or rude. Love does not demand its own way" (1 Corinthians 13:4-5). There is no love except what grows from the root of humility! To the Galatians, Paul wrote:

"For you have been called to freedom...freedom to serve one another in love...Let us not become conceited, or irritate one another, or be jealous of one another" (Galatians 5:13,26). To the Ephesians, right after those three wonderful chapters about living in Heavenly Realms, he said, "Be humble and gentle. Be patient with each other" (Ephesians 4:2). "And further, you will submit to one another out of reverence for Christ" (Ephesians 5:21). To the Philippians, Paul wrote: "Make me truly happy by agreeing wholeheartedly with each other, loving one another, and working together with one heart and purpose. Don't be selfish; don't live to make a good impression on others. Be humble, thinking of others as better than yourself...Your attitude should be the same as that Christ Jesus had...He made Himself nothing; He took the humble position of a slave and appeared in human form. And in human form He obediently humbled Himself even further by dying a criminal's death on the cross" (Philippians 2:3, 5, 7-8).

BE NICE TO EACHOTHER

Col 3:12-15

12 Therefore, as the elect of God, holy and beloved, put on tender mercies, kindness, humility, meekness, longsuffering; 13 bearing with one another, and forgiving one another, if anyone has a complaint against another; even as Christ forgave you, so you also must do. 14 But above all these things put on love, which is the bond of perfection.

John 9:31-32

NKJV

Col 3:2-3

Let your mind on things above, not on things on the earth.
3 For you died, and your life is hidden with Christ in God.

NKJV

James 4:4

Adulterers and adulteresses! Do you not know that friendship with the world is enmity with God? Whoever therefore wants to be a friend of the world makes himself an enemy of God.

1 John 3:7-9

7 Little children, let no one deceive you. He who practices righteousness is righteous, just as He is righteous. 8 He who sins is of the devil, for the devil has sinned from the beginning. For this purpose the Son of God was manifested, that He might destroy the works of the devil. 9 Whoever has been born of God does not sin, for His seed remains in him; and he cannot sin, because he has been born of God.

Ps 111:10

0 The fear of the Lord is the beginning of wisdom;

NKJV

Acts 5:32

32 And we are His witnesses to these things, and so also is the Holy Spirit whom God has given to those who obey Him."

NKJV

Psalms 31 : 19

"The Blessing of God's Abundant Goodness":

19 Oh how great is thy goodness, which thou hast laid up for them that fear thee; which thou hast wrought for them that trust in thee before the sons of men!

John 14:12

12 “Most assuredly, I say to you, he who believes in Me, the works that I do he will do also; and greater works than these he will do, because I go to My Father. 13 And whatever you ask in My name, that I will do, that the Father may be glorified in the Son.

2 Cor 10:4-5

For the weapons of our warfare are not carnal but mighty in God for pulling down strongholds, 5 casting down arguments and every high thing that exalts itself against the knowledge of God, bringing every thought into captivity to the obedience of Christ,

1 Cor 13:1-7

Though I speak with the tongues of men and of angels, but have not love, I have become sounding brass or a clanging cymbal. 2 And though I have the gift of prophecy, and understand all mysteries and all knowledge, and though I have all faith, so that I could remove mountains, but have not love, I am nothing. 3 And though I bestow all my goods to feed the poor, and though I give my body to be burned, but have not love, it profits me nothing.

4 Love suffers long and is kind; love does not envy; love does not parade itself, is not puffed up; 5 does not behave rudely, does not seek its own, is not provoked, thinks no evil; 6 does not rejoice in iniquity, but rejoices in the truth; 7 bears all things, believes all things, hopes all things, endures all things.

NKJV1

Peter 3:13-17

13 And who is he who will harm you if you become followers of what is good? 14 But even if you should suffer for righteousness' sake, you are blessed. "And do not be afraid of their threats, nor be troubled." 15 But sanctify the Lord God in your hearts, and always be ready to give a defense to everyone who asks you a reason for the hope that is in you, with meekness and fear; 16 having a good conscience, that when they defame you as evildoers, those who revile your good conduct in Christ may be ashamed. 17 For it is better, if it is the will of God, to suffer for doing good than for doing evil.

NKJV

James 4:11

11 Do not speak evil of one another, brethren. He who speaks evil of a brother and judges his brother, speaks evil of the law and judges the law.

Gal 5:22-26

22 But the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, longsuffering, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, 23 gentleness, self-control. Against such there is no law. 24 And those who are Christ's have crucified the flesh with its passions and desires. 25 If we live in the Spirit, let us also walk in the Spirit. 26 Let us not become conceited, provoking one another, envying one another.

NKJV

Eph 5:8-11

43 "For a good tree does not bear bad fruit, nor does a bad tree bear good fruit. 44 For every tree is known by its own fruit. For men do not gather figs from

27 The spirit of a man is the lamp of the Lord,
Searching all the inner depths of his heart.

Andrew Murray - Humility

“Humility is perfect quietness of heart. It is to expect nothing, to wonder at nothing that is done to me, to feel nothing done against me. It is to be at rest when nobody praises me, and when I am blamed or despised. It is to have a blessed home in the Lord, where I can go in and shut the door, and kneel to my Father in secret, and am at peace as in a deep sea of calmness, when all around and above is trouble.”

GODLY WARNING PLEASE DISCERN

A real quick word to the wise heart, any of these prophecies and prophets could prove to be wrong or become incorrect at any time. There are also "non-prophetic" sources added to this document to add additional information for your discernment.

We All See Through the Mirror Dimly

1 Cor 13:12

For now we see in a mirror, dimly, but then face to face. Now I know in part, but then I shall know just as I also am known.

Tracking visions, dreams, and prophecies is always very challenging. Remember the devil seeks whom he may devour so we must always seek Jesus first, and trust in God alone, not "man".

If you decide to track the prophetic information from any of these sources, please watch and pray and remember that we must discern and measure all things against the Bible.

Deut 18:22

Please Commit the Verse to Memory

When a prophet speaks in the name of the Lord, if the thing does not happen or come to pass, that is the thing which the Lord has not spoken; the prophet has spoken it presumptuously; you shall not be afraid of him.

THE VOICE OF THE VICTORIOUS CHRIST
by David Wilkerson
[May 19, 1931 – April 27, 2011]

WE MUST LISTEN TO GOD'S PROPHECIES
OR FACE RUIN / DESTRUCTION

When God said, "Once more I shake not the earth only, but also heaven" (Hebrews 12:26), He was saying, in essence, "I shook the earth at Mount Sinai. But when I speak in these last days, My voice will shake both the natural and spiritual worlds. The status quo will tremble; nothing will remain as it is. Whatever is called religious—all that is of Christ or the Church—will be shaken by the voice of My Son speaking from heaven."

God had warned Israel that all who refuse to listen to His prophet would be brought to account: "And it shall come to pass, that whosoever will not hearken unto my words which he shall speak in my name, I will require it of him" (Deuteronomy 18:19). He was saying, "I'm going to pursue every disobedience—and you'll account for it all."

Scripture reveals that those who ignored the words of God's prophets fell into ruin. They became withered and bitter, dying without any joy or peace.

See that ye refuse not him that speaketh. For if they escaped not who refused him that spake on earth, much more shall not we escape, if we turn away from him that speaketh from heaven" (Hebrews 12:25).

Beloved, neither will we escape God's wrath—either as a nation or as individuals. And right now Jesus' voice is shaking every nation, causing institutions, leaders and economies to tremble. He is saying to the wind and the elements, "Blow upon the earth." He is saying to the clouds, "Withhold rain." He is saying to the economies of the world, "All greed—be judged."

God is also commanding, "Prisons, shake. Governments, shake. Financial systems, shake. Schools, shake. Military forces, shake. Courts and legislatures, shake. Everything on earth, shake until there is no foundation left but the Lord."

It is not the devil who is shaking everything. The whole world is being shaken by the voice of the victorious Christ. The Man in glory has risen in power upon His throne and He is speaking a word to shake all things.

The Bride's Glorified Bodies

Transcript: "Warning to the Bride - 278pikelk 05/14/14 I'm going to be obedient and put this message up. Lord led to Revelation 22, I will not leave you blind to what comes." My daughter, share this message with those who have ears to hear. Catastrophic events warned of by many of My messengers are coming to your once great nation and world soon. Not one will be shielded from seeing the destruction. Destruction will come from the elements: fire and water primarily, but you will also experience earthquakes and volcanoes throughout your earth. Outer space will begin colliding with your once great nation and the world like nothing you've ever witnessed in the past. Things will never go back to what you perceive as normal. Once these things start, the end of the earth as you've known it will have begun. Disasters that have taken place in the past and recent past will not hold a candle to what is coming, My Children. You will only have your memories of what once was. There will be three days of darkness where My Bride will be transformed into her new, incorruptible body. During this time she will be visible to others, but they will clearly see the changes taking place in My Bride. People will look on and off as My Bride puts on the new and discards the old. She will be given a new flesh, that is not flesh as you would recognize it as flesh: an incorruptible flesh. She will be given heightened awareness into the spiritual realm. She will be one in thought with the entirety of My Bride, and they will come together to receive their garments and their duties. There are many who will remain on this earth who My Bride will be in charge of turning towards their Creator. There will be an evil and a good. There will be evil and good hearts, and the good hearts will truly know their Father and will be able to see that MY Bride is of Me and that the others are imposters. My Bride are spirit-filled believers that have emptied their flesh of this world and fully surrendered to Me. They are My warriors for this time and will be warring for the hearts and minds left on this earth. To either eventually turn to Me, or to take the mark of the beast. My Bride is very important and will lead many Home to Me. When they see the impostors - when people see the impostors - they will think that they are part of My Bride, but people with Me will quickly figure out the Truth. Warn people! The "people of light" are truly dark and they are put on this earth to be nothing but deceivers. There are very many believers who have never received My Holy Spirit or who have received My Holy Spirit but have quelled Him to where He has never been able to bring them along on their journey towards Me. There are many who believe in Me, but who have become entangled in false teachings and doctrines of men. They will not want to believe that this is the end. My Bride will have to educate them. There are millions and millions of people who know OF Me, but aren't seeking to know Me. My Bride will introduce her Groom. The job of the Bride will not be easy, but she will be equipped with her new and glorious body, filled with My supernatural Light and Love. The impostors - though children of light - will be filled with darkness sent to confuse and mislead humans, choosing Satan as their father, instead of their actual Father Creator. These impostors will be arriving on the scene soon. Most of the people of the world are completely unaware of all that is to come and will be totally taken by surprise. Just remember Children, that there is NO man good. Do not be deceived. Come to Me in prayer for all of your questions. The deceivers will try to place an impostor in front of you that is so real, if you did not know My Word you would be fooled. But many WILL be fooled. I must use My Bride to convince those that know of Me and just don't KNOW Me OR My Word not to fall for this great deception. My Children, I love you so! My Bride must know she will remain protected until she reveals herself in her new, uncorrupted body. My Bride needs to be aware of what is coming. I have chosen some very unlikely vessels to be My Bride. Do not doubt your worthiness, My Bride. Because NO one is worthy, but by the blood of the Lamb. Prepare for battle, My Bride." <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=Hpx3wp0cwqE>

The Vision of the 12 Houses

(by C. Alan Martin 1971)

C. Alan Martin had a vision back in 1971 prophetically depicting 12 presidents of the United States. The “LAST” President was unknown to him even after updating the information in the late 90’s. We know today that the “LAST” President would have been Barack Obama. This is what the prophecy says about this 12th House or President.

House 12 President: ?

This is the last house that I saw in this vision of the night. After this house was a dirt path that lead toward a collection of boulders arraigned in a semi circle which reminded me of a place where a trial was held and judgment rendered. In another dream which took place during the millennial age, I was standing among these rock looking at the ruins of a world rocked by the (great) tribulation. In the ruins of these boulders I found a witch doll. I knew immediately that one (sic) of the reasons that the USA was judged was because she had gone after the occult and witchcraft.

Across from the path after house #12 was a new row of houses stretching off into the distance. These I believe are the rulers of the land that Jesus will set up during the millennium.

In the vision of the night (after I saw the star fall to the earth)

[Note: Could this be the Puerto Rico Comet event?]

I heard a voice say “Look to the east”. I began to turn and fully expected to see Jesus coming in the clouds. As I turned I saw the clouds part and I saw the blood moon and the dark sun.

[Note: This is the Sixth Seal Rev 6:12-17]

Both of these are symbolic of judgment being levied on a nation and the fall of a nation. I continued turning to the east and saw the ancient army approaching from the east through the yards of all the houses of the presidents.

[Note: This is Russia and China moving / conquering from the East to West and USA, Gog/Magog Ezekiel 38, 39]

It was then that I ran down to join this army in the yard of the house of Nixon. This was 1971, the year I was saved. Immediately the scene changed and I was in the middle of a city in gray ruins. I saw a man emerge from what I perceived to be a “temple fortress” who was dressed in a diplomatic suit and carrying a briefcase. A voice said “He claims to be God, but is of devil”.

[Note: This is Obama, the Antichrist]

Then the dream ended.

PASTOR TD HALE DREAMS

The TD Hale Dream Locks these Events to 2016

Moreover we have the prophetic dream given to pastor TD Hale in December of 2011 showing the nuclear destruction of the United States WHILE Obama is in the Office of the President. Here is a LINK to the dreams in text format. Hale not only saw the destruction of the US (burnt from end to end, totally destroyed) but he also saw the aftermath with people hiding from the FEMA police and soldiers. He also saw the FEMA prison camps in operation and saw the "trains" (FEMA Trains) at those facilities used to transport the victims to their fate.

Here is the audio clip from the TruNews Show.

Please Note: It is crucially important to note, with the exception of the Obama Presidency timeline, the TD Hale dream matches the testimony of many other Godly sources including:

- AA Alan's Vision from 1954
- Dimitru Duduman's Visitation from 1983
- Henry Gruver's Vision from the late 80's

THE THIRD SECRET OF FATIMA

Evidently, according to this author (below), Father Malachi Martin reported that the Third Secret of Fatima was ultimately the Rev 6:12-14 “pole shift” and the First Trumpet CME (solar flare). The most amazing part is that this is reportedly to happen

POLE SHIFT
Before

Revelation 6:14
;and every mountain and island was moved out of its place.

by 2017 Fatima author Father Malachi Martin has said that “the Third Secret is your worst nightmare, multiplied exponentially.”

(<http://www.tldm.org/News10/MalachiMartinBelievedInBayside.htm>) In an interview with Art Bell in 1997, he explained that “I was shown the Text of the third secret in February 1960. I cooled my heels in the corridor outside the Holy Father's apartments, while my Boss, Cardinal Bea, was inside debating with the Holy Father (Pope John XXIII), and with a other group of other bishops and priests, and two young Portuguese seminarians, who translated the letter, a single page, written in Portuguese..... on the content of the Third Secret, Sister Lucy one day replied: 'It's in the Gospel, and in the Apocalypse, read them.' We even know that one day Lucy indicated Chapters 8, 13 of the Apocalypse.

<http://garabandalnews.verblog.com/2014/01/fatima-3rd-secret-and-facts.html>)

Father Martin said of the fulfillment of the Third Secret that these events are “not 200 years away, it is not 50 years away, it is not 20 years away...” He expressed the view that major portions of end times events would be underway before the centennial of the Marian apparitions (before May 13, 2017.)

Multiple Blood Moon Tetrad High Holy Days

While solar and lunar eclipses are common occurrences and for the most part have no great prophetic significance, when they fall on the biblical Feast days, we should pay close attention. In Revelation 6:12, the Bible declares that the sun will become black as sackcloth of hair, and the moon as red as blood. Most scholars believe this important end-times sign is speaking of solar and lunar eclipses. The significance of a total solar eclipse or total lunar eclipse, if it happened on one of God's Feast days would be a powerful message. Knowing this, be advised there are four total blood moons coming, back to back, right in a row, all falling on Feast days. Equally incredible is how within the very same timeframe, two solar eclipses are scheduled to arrive. Read that again and let the significance of these comments sink in. Prophetically speaking, we are talking about the equivalent of six grand-slam homeruns in a row—a mathematical improbability that stands out against the randomness of natural cycles and strongly suggests a miraculous sign or “omen” of intelligent design is coming. Of significance to this book is how these “grand slams” are set to unfold between the years 2012-2016, specifically 2014 and 2015.

Psalms 47:1 As Painted on The Back of a three-wheeled motor taxi in the Filipino city of Tagbilaran.

Taxi drivers working in the small Filipino tourist island city of Tagbilaran are required by law to have a Bible verse painted on the back of their three-wheeled motorcycle cabs, and any driver that is caught without a scripture is liable to be fined or have their license revoked.

CBN News reports that in an attempt to reduce crime rate in the island of Bohol's provincial capital city, the Bohol provincial government passed into law, over 22 years ago, the requirement for drivers of the city's most efficient mode of public transportation, three-wheeled motorized tricycle taxis that seat as many as four to seven riders, to have scripture verses on the back.

Update: Treasury Says Survival Kits for 'Emergency Preparedness'

Survival kits being ordered for every major bank in the U.S.

Workers put together emergency preparedness kit / AP

December 18, 2014 5:00 am

A spokesperson for the Treasury Department told the Washington Free Beacon that survival kits being ordered for government workers at every major bank in the United States are for "emergency preparedness."

As the Free Beacon previously reported, the Office of the Comptroller of the Currency (OCC), which conducts on-site reviews of banks throughout the country, is ordering survival kits for each of its employees. The kits include everything from 50 water purification tablets to solar blankets.

Stephanie Collins, a spokesperson for the OCC, told the Free Beacon that the government orders the kits for potential terrorist attacks.

"After September 11, 2001, emergency preparedness was ramped up to include providing simple survival kits throughout the government to employees working in large office buildings or other potential target areas," she said in a statement. "As the solicitation mentioned, the kits must also include a 'reusable solar blanket' 52 by 84 inches long, a 2,400-calorie food bar, '50 water purification tablets,' a 'dust mask,' 'one-size fits all poncho with hood,' a rechargeable lantern with built-in radio, and an 'Air-Aid emergency mask' for protection against airborne viruses."

"The solicitation is to replace aging kits and provide kits at additional location out of a preponderance of caution," Collins added.

Once the government finds a bidder, each of OCC's 3,814 employees will receive a survival kit, which will come in a fanny-pack or backpack that can fit all of the items, including a 33-piece personal first aid kit with "decongestant tablets," a variety of bandages, and medicines.

The Treasury Department extended the deadline for proposals until Dec. 22, and is planning on spending up to $200,000.

U.S. SUPREME COURT RULES 8-1 THAT CITIZENS HAVE NO PROTECTION AGAINST FOURTH AMENDMENT VIOLATIONS BY POLICE OFFICERS IGNORANT OF THE LAW

Warn against allowing government agents to “benefit” from their mistakes

by THE RUTHERFORD INSTITUTE | DECEMBER 28, 2014

In a blow to the constitutional rights of citizens, the U.S. Supreme Court ruled 8-1 in Heien v. State of North Carolina that police officers are permitted to violate American citizens' Fourth Amendment rights if the violation results from a “reasonable” mistake about the law on the part of police.

Acting contrary to the venerable principle that “ignorance of the law is no excuse,” the Court ruled that evidence obtained by police during a traffic stop that was not legally justified can be used to prosecute the person if police were reasonably mistaken that the person had violated the law. The Rutherford Institute had asked the U.S. Supreme Court to hold law enforcement officials accountable to knowing and abiding by the rule of law. Justice Sonia Sotomayor, the Court's lone dissenter, warned that the court's ruling “means further eroding the Fourth Amendment's protection of civil liberties in a context where that protection has already been worn down.”

The Rutherford Institute's amicus brief in Heien v. North Carolina is available at www.rutherford.org.

“By refusing to hold police accountable to knowing and abiding by the rule of law, the Supreme Court has given government officials a green light to routinely violate the law,” said John W. Whitehead, president of The Rutherford Institute and author of the award-winning book A Government of Wolves: The Emerging American Police State. “This case may have started out with an improper traffic stop, but where it will end—given the turbulence of our age, with its police overreach, military training drills on American soil, domestic surveillance, SWAT team raids, asset forfeiture, wrongful convictions, and corporate corruption—is not hard to predict. This ruling is what I would call a one-way, nonrefundable ticket to the police state.”

A fragment from a glass bracelet inscribed with a seven-branched menorah from the Second Temple was discovered during Hanukka at an excavation in the Mount Carmel National Park, the Antiquities Authority announced Tuesday.

According to a statement from the Antiquities Authority, excavations took place there in recent weeks prior to the construction of a water reservoir for the city of Yokne'am, at the initiative of national water company Mekorot.

The dig exposed an industrial region and refuse pits that were part of a large settlement in the late Roman and early Byzantine periods, during the end of the fourth century CE and beginning of the fifth, the authority said.

AirAsia Indonesia flight QZ8501 to Singapore missing

Security protects relatives of the missing, reports Karishma Vaswani from Changi Airport

An AirAsia Indonesia airliner flying from Indonesia to Singapore with 162 people on board has gone missing.

Flight QZ8501 lost contact with air traffic control at 06:24 local time (23:24 GMT Saturday) over the Java Sea.

The plane, an Airbus A320-200, disappeared midway into the flight of more than two hours from the city of Surabaya. No distress call was made.

Bad weather was reported in the area, and an air search operation has now been suspended for the night.

Planes from Indonesia and Singapore had been scouring an area of sea between Kalimantan (Borneo) and Java. Some boats were reported to be continuing to search as night fell.

Did Nigerian Pastor's 'Prophecy' Predict the Disappearance of Malaysian Airlines Flight MH370 Months Ago?

As the mystery surrounding Malaysian Airlines Flight MH370 continues, Emmanuel TV, an African TV outlet, is claiming that its founder, Nigerian Pastor T.B. Joshua, prophesied the disappearance during a 2013 sermon.

A video uploaded March 8 by the Christian network features alludes to the claim that the pastor foresaw the event — and then connects the dots between Joshua's July 2013 sermon and news reports surrounding the missing jetliner.

"On Sunday, the 28th of July, 2013, Prophet T.B. Joshua gave a prophetic message concerning an Asian nation — warning them of an incident, involving a large aircraft, carrying over 200 people, developing a fault soon after take off. He subsequently prayed for the nation," a description of the clip reads.

Students from an international school in east China city Zhujiaji pray for the passengers onboard Malaysia Airlines flight MH370 by lighting candles on March 10, 2014 in Zhujiaji, China. (ChinaFotoPress/Getty Images)

The video opens with Joshua sharing the purported prophecy, explaining that an aircraft will experience major problems as a result of human error, the Christian Post reported.

"This is an Asian country. I will not mention the country but God showed me the country," he said. "What is the cause of this? It was just about to take off and the fault started. It means they can discover it on the tarmac."

The preacher said that human impatience led to a dangerous oversight, then told his audience that he would possibly write a letter to the embassy of the unnamed country to tell officials to check all airlines as a preventative measure before they leave the tarmac.

"But it is going to be huge almost 200 people inside," Joshua added of the airplane.

INDONESIA VERIFIES REPORTS ON AIRASIA PLANE'S EMERGENCY LANDING

A relative of a missing passenger has reportedly received a text message from an unknown sender, stating that the plane made an emergency landing and all passengers are alive

by SPUTNIK | DECEMBER 28, 2014  276  91  0

The Indonesian Ministry of Transportation is currently verifying information claiming that the missing AirAsia aircraft has made an emergency landing in the eastern part of the Belitung island in the Java Sea, the ministry's representative said Sunday.

"We at the [crisis] center [in Jakarta] have not received such information yet. According to some data, our colleagues in Surabaya have learned it. We are currently checking this," the ministry's representative J. A. Barata told Detik.com.

According to Detik.com, a relative of a missing passenger received a text message from an unknown sender, stating that the plane made an emergency landing and all passengers were alive.

AirAsia flight QZ8501 en route from Surabaya, Indonesia to Singapore, lost contact with air traffic control at 07:24 a.m. local time (00:24 GMT) and went missing.

The Presumed Crash of AirAsia Flight QZ8501 Is Nothing Like MH370

It's been a rough year for Kuala Lumpur-based airlines, but AirAsia's response to the loss of an airliner over the Java Sea has been miles ahead of Malaysia Airlines.

<http://www.thedailybeast.com/articles/2014/12/28/the-presumed-crash-of-airasia-flight-qz8501-is-nothing-like-mh370.html>

The latest disappearance is another huge aviation blow for Malaysia, where both Malaysia Airlines and AirAsia are based. The two carriers are headquartered in Kuala Lumpur but have vastly different profiles and operating philosophies. The difference was emphasized immediately after QZ8501 went missing. In marked contrast to the shambling and sometimes contradictory performance of Malaysia Airlines officials when MH370 apparently fell out of the sky, AirAsia rushed out the news, providing as much information as it had available. AirAsia's website has a large headline at the top right, "Updates on AirAsia flight QZ8501," with the flight number in larger type. A click sends a user to a statement, a list of passenger nationalities, emergency call center numbers, and other information.

It's a problem that has rescuers overwhelmed - hundreds of sea turtles are washing ashore on Cape Cod, and scientists probably won't be able to save them all from certain death.

When they wash up on beaches, the turtles are already close to dying, Business Insider writes. They're limp and struggling to move due to their extremely low body temperatures, the report says.

Of the seven species of turtles that wash ashore in New England, six are endangered, according to the New York Times. So a team of volunteers stroll the beaches and rescue any turtles they find in an effort to rehabilitate and relocate them to warmer climates - the only option they have to keep the protected reptiles alive.

Cold claims 12 more lives in UP, toll 92

TNN | Dec 25, 2014, 02:07AM IST

LUCKNOW: Extreme cold coupled with accidents in dense fog claimed 12 more lives in the 24 hours leading to Wednesday evening, taking the death toll due to the harsh winter to 92 in the state since December 1.

The state government sanctioned Rs 1.63 crore for 75 districts in UP, around Rs 3.45 lakh for each district, for night shelters, bonfires and blankets for the poor and street dwellers. Out of this money, each tehsil in the state will get Rs 50,000. Relief commissioner Leena Jauhari said the amount released on Wednesday was in addition to the Rs 17.98 lakh released on November 12, 2014 for providing relief from the cold wave.

The maximum temperature at most places in the state was 4-10 degrees below normal and the minimum was 3-5 degrees below normal. Muzaffarnagar was the coldest in the state with a minimum temperature 2.4 degree Celsius followed by Lucknow with 2.5 degree Celsius and Shahjahanur 3.6 degree Celsius.

Four lost flamingos fly NORTH for the winter and turn up in Siberia

Chilly: One flamingo was spotted ambling along the snowy bank of the Usa River in Mezhdurechensk, Kemerovo region

It could be a severe case of bird-brain, or strange weather patterns causing confusion, but at the moment scientists remain baffled about instances of flamingos flying north to bitterly cold Siberia for the winter, instead of south.

Four flamingos recently touched down in various parts of Siberia, to the astonishment of locals, in temperatures as low as -30C.

One landed in the Evenkia district of vast Krasnoyarsk region, which is just 310 miles south of the Arctic circle.

A strange place to be for a bird common in Africa, southern Europe and south Asia that likes warm climates.

It landed near Petr Sidorkin, a hunter who, luckily for the unusual visitor, wasn't in the mood for targeting exotic birds, the Siberian Times reported.

Russia has seen many harsh winters – but even here, drivers don't welcome wintry roads. Heavy snow and hail turned part of a highway running from Moscow to Rostov into a parking lot. Cars were reportedly buried under snow upon stopping for just a minute.

Though the Rostov Region Traffic Authority told local media that the problem area covers only a two to three kilometer stretch of the M4 – Russia's only nationwide expressway – witnesses say the devastating traffic jam covers tens of kilometers and has lasted for several days.

Oklahoma earthquakes: USGS continues to look at increase

There have been more than 500 magnitude 3.0 or greater earthquakes in Oklahoma this year, up significantly from 109 in 2013 and just 35 in 2012, according to U.S. Geological Survey officials.

As of Monday, there were 549 of the higher magnitude quakes in 2014, with 19 being magnitude 4.0 or greater.

USGS officials focused on magnitude 3.0 or greater quakes because the smaller the magnitude, the more potential there is for missing an event, USGS Geophysicist Robert Williams said.

The USGS is looking into the increase in earthquakes, mostly occurring in central and north-central Oklahoma, he said.

“Starting probably in 2009, we started to notice the jump in earthquakes, even though it was small back then, relative to 2014,” Williams said.

A new scientific group focused on studying induced seismicity has been formed. There probably are six to 10 researchers working on the issue, with about four or five working full time now, according to Williams.

“This group, along with others from academia, have published a number of papers — eight or so papers in the last couple of years in peer review journals — that point toward water in disposal wells injected deep under ground as contributing to the cause of earthquakes in Oklahoma.”

A USGS statement released in May, in collaboration with the Oklahoma Geological Survey, indicated the likelihood of injection wells contributing to the seismicity and noted a higher chance of earthquakes, Williams said.

“Because, the more small earthquakes you have generally leads to the occurrence of more large earthquakes,” he said. “So the possibility of a damaging earthquake is higher in the last couple years.”

As part of its continued monitoring of the situation, the USGS has deployed a few more seismographs in the region, according to Williams.

“We’re monitoring the situation, trying to understand what’s going on,” he said. “We’ve also been funding researchers outside of the USGS to study the problem over the last three years or so.”

Unknown Deadly Virus In Kansas

Description:

A brand new virus has been found in southeast Kansas. After becoming infected with it, the patient has died and researchers do not know for sure where it came from. When the patient first showed up at the doctor's office, they thought that he might have some kind of tick-borne virus. His symptoms were similar and they wanted to test his illness to verify what he had. He had a fever, fatigue, and changes in his blood count. Other symptoms included muscle aches, damage to the blood platelets, and elevated liver enzymes. One other symptom, which is not present with the similar Heartland disease, was that he also had a lack of a desire to eat anything - anorexia. They tested for ehrlichiosis and also for the new Heartland virus disease, which was discovered in 2012. The tests turned up negative, and the doctors soon realized they had not seen the disease before. The patient somehow contracted the virus during this past summer. The new disease is now called the Bourbon virus, which is named after the county the patient lived in - Bourbon County. The Department of Health and Environment in Kansas and the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC) have analyzed the virus and confirm that it is new. So far, there are no other confirmed cases of the same illness. Since the Bourbon virus is so new, there are not any vaccines or established treatments for it yet. The only patient has died. Another unknown in this case is that doctors are not sure how the patient got the virus. While it is similar to other tick-borne diseases, it is not actually known for certain if it came from a tick, or from some other kind of insect. One more unknown is that the researchers are not sure if the virus actually killed the patient, or if it led to conditions that ultimately killed the patient. More research will need to be performed - when there are more patients. The genome for the virus has been analyzed. It was concluded that there are no viruses like it in the entire Western hemisphere, but there are similar ones in the East. It has taken six weeks to identify this much about it. The doctor that performed this analysis, Dana Hawkins, said that the viruses that are similar rarely ever cause illness in people or animals. Because the Bourbon virus is a virus and not a bacteria, it means that treatment options are limited. Antibiotics cannot be used in this case, because they are ineffective against viruses. Being that there has only been one case so far, it is unknown as to whether or not this virus exists in other parts of the United States. When possible, ticks will be collected in various places and then tested for this particular illness. People are generally safe over the winter from most illnesses caused by ticks. They are not around during the cold months, and so bites are highly unlikely. In the warmer months, safeguards can be taken such as wearing long-sleeve shirts and pants when going outdoors. Other precautions that offer a good amount of protection in the warmer months are to use an insect repellent and avoid walking in high grass. It is also advised not to allow children to sleep next to dogs.

Kansas says new virus found after resident's death

TOPEKA, Kan. (AP) — A new virus thought to be carried by ticks or other insects has been discovered following the death of a southeast Kansas resident during the summer, public health officials said Monday.

The new virus is called Bourbon virus, after Bourbon County, home of the patient who died. The Kansas Department of Health and Environment said the patient's symptoms, including fever and fatigue, were similar to symptoms from other tick-borne diseases.

The Kansas health department said testing by the federal Centers for Disease Control and Prevention confirmed that the patient had a virus not previously identified. Health department spokeswoman Aimee Rosenow said it's still not clear how much the Bourbon virus contributed to the patient's death.

"This was the first known instance and the only confirmed case," Rosenow said. "This is a new virus, and we are still learning."

The health department declined to identify the victim of the virus or provide details about the case, saying it was protecting the privacy of the patient and family members.

The department said there's no specific vaccine or treatment for the disease from the Bourbon virus but described the risk as "minimal" during the winter, given health officials' belief that it is transmitted through tick or insect bites.

The health agency also suggested the same precautions outdoors for avoiding other tick- and insect-borne illnesses. Those include using insect repellent, wearing long sleeves and pants, and avoiding wooded and busy areas with high grass or leaf litter.

Researchers studying Ebola in a highly secure laboratory mistakenly allowed potentially lethal samples of the virus to be handled in a much less secure laboratory at the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention in Atlanta, agency officials said Wednesday.

One technician in the second laboratory may have been exposed to the virus and about a dozen other people have been assessed after entering the facility unaware that potentially hazardous samples of Ebola had been handled there.

BEIJING: China today said it has developed a vaccine to combat the spread of deadly Ebola virus that has killed more than 7,000 people in three West African countries, and the test of the drug on humans would begin this month.

Defence Ministry spokesman Yang Yujun told reporters that the vaccine has been developed by a research team at the Academy of Military Medical Sciences, one of the top research units of China's People's Liberation Army.

(Scientists are racing to...)

"The vaccine has recently passed appraisal by state and military authorities and will begin clinical tests in December," said Yang.

He said the China-developed Ebola vaccine was the third in the world to have been put into clinical tests in the world. It is also the world's first 2014-genetic mutation Ebola vaccine.

Yang said that since September, the Chinese military has sent some 300 medical personnel and specialists to Sierra Leone and Liberia in eastern Africa to help control the epidemic.

Scientists around the world are racing to develop Ebola vaccines after the world's worst outbreak of the virus, which has killed more than 7,000 people in the worst-hit countries of Sierra Leone, Liberia and Guinea in West Africa.

Yang said the Chinese medical teams have worked closely with the World Health Organisation, Doctors Without Borders, local governments and the UN peacekeeping mission in Liberia to jointly combat the spread of the deadly disease.

WHO: EBOLA EPIDEMIC KILLS NEARLY 8,000 IN WEST AFRICA

Virus rages throughout Africa despite media silence

by PRESSTV | DECEMBER 26, 2014  28  31  0

The Ebola epidemic fatalities in West Africa have reached approximately 8,000, the World Health Organization (WHO) says.

The WHO said on Friday that out of 19,695 recorded cases of Ebola infection 7,693 had died in West Africa.

This is while the figures released on December 22 showed 7,518 fatalities out of 19,340 infections in Sierra Leone, Liberia and Guinea, WHO added.

The disease has taken at least 7,708 peoples' lives around the globe including eight in Nigeria, which was declared free of Ebola in October, six in Mali, and one in the United States, the organization said.

There were no deaths in Spain and Senegal, which have both been declared Ebola-free; however, one infection case was reported in each country, according to the world body.

The WHO said Sierra Leone as the country with the most infections has overtaken Liberia.

Liberia, which was known as the hardest-hit country, recorded 7,862 cases and 3,384 deaths on December 20, showing a clear decrease in transmission, the WHO said.

The outbreak started a year ago in Guinea, where the tally counted 2,630 Ebola cases and 1,654 deaths as of December 24.

Ebola is one of the deadliest viruses known to man. It is a form of hemorrhagic fever with diarrhea, vomiting, as well as internal and external bleeding as its symptoms.

The virus spreads through direct contact with the bodily fluids of an infected person. Those who care for the Ebola-infected patients or handle their bodies are particularly exposed and endangered.

According to the WHO, as of December 24, a total of 666 healthcare workers were infected by the virus, 366 of whom died.

(NaturalNews) The economic condition in Russia is continuing to deteriorate due to a combination of factors, as the country's financial institutions try to intervene in order to head off a full-fledged monetary collapse.

As reported by Britain's The Telegraph newspaper, a former Russian finance minister is warning that the country faces a "full-blown economic crisis," and is now forced to take emergency economic measures. One of them includes the Russian central bank injecting billions of rubles' worth of liquidity into failing banks (bailing them out with public money, if you will).

The Telegraph went on to describe the origins of the current crisis:

The economy has been battered by a wave of sanctions as a result of tensions over Ukraine, geopolitical uncertainty, and falling oil prices.

Alexei Kudrin, a former finance minister and once considered an ally of President Vladimir Putin, said: "Today I can say that we have entered or are currently entering a full-blown economic crisis. Next year we will feel it in full force."

Other totalitarian states have also established themselves with reigns of terror. And there is another model they are following as well.

2:191-193: "And slay them wherever you come upon them, and expel them from where they expelled you; persecution is more grievous than slaying. But fight them not by the Holy Mosque until they should fight you there; then, if they fight you, slay them — such is the recompense of unbelievers, but if they give over, surely Allah is All-forgiving, All-compassionate. Fight them, till there is no persecution and the religion is Allah's; then if they give over, there shall be no enmity save for evildoers."

4:89: "They wish that you should disbelieve as they disbelieve, and then you would be equal; therefore take not to yourselves friends of them, until they emigrate in the way of Allah; then, if they turn their backs, take them, and slay them wherever you find them; take not to yourselves any one of them as friend or helper."

9:5: "Then, when the sacred months are drawn away, slay the idolaters wherever you find them, and take them, and confine them, and lie in wait for them at every place of ambush. But if they repent, and perform the prayer, and pay the alms, then let them go their way; Allah is All-forgiving, All-compassionate."

Russia's newest RS-26 missile system, dubbed the 'anti-missile defense killer', will join the ranks of the country's defenses in less than two years, Russia's Strategic Missile Force commander said.

"We are continuing the test program for RS-26 and plan to finish it next year, with the missile to be put on combat duty in 2016," Lt. Gen. Sergey Karakayev is cited as saying by RIA Novosti.

Currently, there is hardly any information available about the new missile system because it was developed in secrecy.

China's leader is telling the People's Liberation Army to prepare for war

Preparing for what? (REUTERS/Stringer)

Over the last several months, Chinese leader Xi Jinping and the Chinese Communist Party have repeatedly exhorted the People's Liberation Army to "be ready to win a war." Xi has repeatedly called for greater military modernization, increased training, and enhanced overall readiness of the Chinese army, navy, and air force.

These repeated calls have alarmed China's neighbors from New Delhi to Washington. The question on everyone's mind: what is all this preparation for?

Is the Chinese leadership preparing for something? Are they gearing up for a military operation, or merely the option to carry one out? Or is there a more innocent explanation for all of this?

One credible explanation is that the Chinese leadership is pushing military readiness as part of the ongoing, national anti-corruption drive. Military anti-corruption efforts have been highlighted by the arrest and imminent court martial of Xu Caihou, a former high level military officer. Xu faces charges of embezzlement, bribery, misuse of state funds, and abuse of power, and is thought to have made at least $5.9 million by selling officer promotions.

New Russian military doctrine says NATO top threat

Dec 26, 11:24 AM (ET)

MOSCOW (AP) — President Vladimir Putin has signed a new military doctrine that describes NATO's military buildup near the Russian borders as the top military threat amid Russia-West tensions over Ukraine.

The document released by the Kremlin on Friday maintains the provisions of the previous, 2010 edition of the military doctrine regarding the use of nuclear weapons. It says Russia could use nuclear weapons in retaliation to the use of nuclear or other weapons of mass destruction against it or its allies, and also in case of aggression involving conventional weapons that "threatens the very existence" of the Russian state.

For the first time, the new doctrine says that Russia could use precision weapons "as part of strategic deterrent measures." The document doesn't spell out conditions for their use.

Russia tests 10-warhead ballistic missile

World Bulletin / News Desk

Russian Defense Ministry announced the successful test of the RS-24 "Yars" ballistic missile on Friday.

"Test warheads hit their targets in the Kura testing range on the Kamchatka peninsula with pinpoint accuracy," said Col. Igor Yegorov a spokesman for the ministry. The missile was launched at 11:02 Moscow time on Friday, Yegorov said.

"The adoption of the RS-24 ICBM with multiple re-entry warheads has increased the combat capabilities of the Strategic Missile Forces assault group to overcome missile defense systems, thus strengthening the nuclear deterrent of Russian strategic nuclear forces," Col. Yegorov said. The RS-24 carries up to ten independently targetable warheads.

Russia's strategic nuclear forces are actively rearming with the new RS-24 "Yars" missile, which replaces two older models that have been in use for more than 50 years.

The ballistic missile uses solid fuel and has a range of 7,500 miles. It can be launched either from a silo or from a road-mobile launcher.

China tests multiple warhead missile, increases nuclear threat to U.S.

BEIJING (Christian Examiner) -- U.S. defense officials claimed last week that China has conducted a long-range flight test of a missile that could reach anywhere in the United States.

According to Investor's Business Daily, China's Dec. 13 test marks the third time the country tested the DF-41 weapon. However, it is the first test of a multiple independently targetable re-entry vehicle (MIRV), an advanced nuclear missile with the ability to carry multiple warheads and ups the ante on China's threat to the U.S.

The IBD revealed a statement from a report produced for Congress by the U.S.-China Economic and Security Review Commission claiming "The DF-4, which could be deployed as early as 2015, may carry up to 10 MIRVs, and have a range as far as 7,456 miles, allowing it to target the entire continental United States."

"China could use MIRVs to deliver nuclear warheads on major U.S. cities and military facilities as a means of overwhelming (existing) U.S. ballistic missile defenses," the report added.

China's multiple warhead weapons were developed using both illegal transfers of technology and information given to the nation during the Clinton's administration.

The IBD detailed information from the National Air and Space Intelligence Center (NASIC) dated back to Dec. 10, 1996, calling China's MIRV technology an offshoot of a "smart dispenser" for launching multiple satellites. The report indicated the dispenser was developed by China for Motorola to launch the company's Iridium communications satellites.

The Ancient Text of Atom & Eua w Zen Garcia

Join Kenneth, John and Cathy in the chat room while they discuss the most pressing apocalyptic headlines and prophetic warnings of the approach of the Great Tribulation. Tonight we are blessed to have brother Zen Garcia discuss with the listeners excerpts from the newly discovered text entitled "Atom and Eua" which was written prior to the ancient Sumerian texts dispelling the false notion that the Sumerian texts describe the Adam and Eve of the Holy Bible.

God Bless You - See you there!
