Wake Up Samson, The Barber is Coming! with Terri Hill

Join Kenneth, John and Cathy in the chat room while they discuss the warning signs possibly related to January 5th, and the Efraine Rodriguez Puerto Rico comet prophecy, the related apocalyptic news, and welcome back to the program sister Terri Hill. Tonight Terri will be sharing with us a really fascinating and powerful message about the story of Samson, his behaviors and how they relate to the believers of today and what we can do about it to be right with Jesus.

God Bless You - See you there!

"If sinners be damned, at least let them leap to Hell over our dead bodies. And if they perish, let them perish with our arms wrapped about their knees, imploring them to stay. If Hell must be filled, let it be filled in the teeth of our exertions, and let not one go unwarned and unprayed for. "

DOERS OF THE WORD

Many have ears which are open to hear;
They listen intently, they come and draw near.

Faithful assemblers observe and they look.
They quote the words well; they have studied the Book.

They are gathering knowledge and filling their minds
With high aspirations for some future time.

They instruct and profess the Word time and again,
And much revelation has been given to them.

They lift up their hands and go through the motions;
They are committed to reading their daily devotions.

They meditate carefully, their confessions are sound;
They fill up the church when the preacher's in town.

They are living their lives in the light of God's favor,
Detached from the lost who cry out for a Saviour.

The afflicted and dying surround you and me,
But many contend it's not "their ministry".

Love reaches out and responds to the need,
And the proof of your faith will be shown by your deeds.

Are you helping the needy you meet through the day?
Is your faith being lived in a practical way?

Do you visit the sick and respond to their pleas?
Are you giving in secret when no one else sees?

Are you feeding the hungry who reach out to you?
Is your faith bearing fruit in the works that you do?

Do the prisoners, widows and orphans know you?
You are hearing the Word, are you doing it, too?

Are you making disciples and live what you teach?
Actions speak louder than words that you preach.

You can sing of His goodness and praise Who He is,
But doing the Word demonstrates you are His.

How long will this depravity last?
Will any for atonement ask?
One day soon we'll hear a trumpet blast
Our redemption now is coming fast

The clouds will be rolled back like a scroll
A rider descends through a gaping hole
The world will analyze this situation
As prophecy unfolds its revelations

Society and nature are now in turmoil
Religions and nations are in war embroiled
I am looking to the eastern sky
Because my redemption is drawing nigh.

The birth pains have moved into full blown labor
We need to daily proclaim our Savior
Banish any thoughts of fear
Because our redemption is almost here.

Like a thief in the night to the unaware
It’s time for the bride to be prepared
The One whose name is Faithful and True
Says “Behold for I am coming soon!”

GREAT QUOTES

“Not called!' did you say?

'Not heard the call,' I think you should say.

Put your ear down to the Bible, and hear Him bid you go and pull sinners out of the fire of sin. Put your ear down to the burdened, agonized heart of humanity, and listen to its pitiful wail for help. Go stand by the gates of hell, and hear the damned entreat you to go to their father's house and bid their brothers and sisters and servants and masters not to come there. Then look Christ in the face — whose mercy you have professed to obey — and tell Him whether you will join heart and soul and body and circumstances in the march to publish His mercy to the world.”

In Tune with God

Seek first the kingdom of God and His righteousness, and all these things shall be added to you.
—Matthew 6:33

Scripture reading: 2 Peter 1

One thing that can hinder our faith is a seared conscience. There is a conscience that is spiritless, and one that is so opened to the presence of God that the smallest thing in the world will drive it to God. What we need is a conscience that is so in tune with God that not one thing can come into and stay in our lives to hinder our fellowship with God and shatter our faith in Him. And when we can come into the presence of God with clear consciences and genuine faith, our hearts not condemning us, then we have confidence toward God (1 John 3:21), "and whatever we ask we receive from Him" (v. 22).

In Mark 11:24 we read, "Therefore I say to you, whatever things you ask when you pray, believe that you receive them, and you will have them." Verse twenty-three speaks of mountains removed and difficulties cleared away. Sugarcoating won't do. We must have reality, the real working of our God. We must know God. We must be able to go in and converse with God. We must also know the mind of God toward us, so that all our petitions are always in line with His will.

As this "like precious faith" (2 Peter 1:1) becomes a part of you, it will make you so that you will dare to do anything. And remember, God wants daring followers who will be strong in Him and dare to do exploits. How will we reach this place of faith? Let go of your own thoughts, and take the thoughts of God, the Word of God. If you build yourself on imaginations, you will go wrong. You have the Word of God, and it is enough.

A man gave this remarkable testimony concerning the Word of God: "Never compare this Book with other books. Never think or say that this Book contains the Word of God. It is the Word of God. It is supernatural in origin, eternal in duration, inexpressible in value, infinite in scope, regenerative in power, infallible in authority, universal in interest, personal in application, inspired in totality. Read it through. Write it down. Pray it in. Work it out. And then pass it on."

Truly the Word of God changes a person until he becomes "an epistle of Christ" (2 Cor. 3:3). It transforms his mind, changes his character, moves him on from grace to grace, makes him an inheritor of the very nature of God. God comes in, dwells in, walks in, talks through, and dines with him who opens his being to the Word of God and receives the Spirit who inspired it.

If you have lost your hunger for God, if you do not have a cry for more of God, you are missing the plan. A cry must come up from us that cannot be satisfied with anything but God. He wants to give us the vision of the prize ahead that is something higher than we have ever attained. If you ever stop at any point, pick up at the place where you have left off, and begin again under the refining light and power of heaven. God will meet you. And while He will bring you to a consciousness of your own frailty and to a brokenness of spirit, your faith will lay hold of Him and all the divine resources. His light and compassion will be manifested through you, and He will send the rain.

Should we not dedicate ourselves afresh to God? Some say, "I dedicated myself last night to God." Every new revelation brings a new decision. Let us seek Him.

Thought for today: Do not let one thought, one action, one thing in any way interfere with the Rapture. Ask God that every moment will be a moment of purifying.

PLAY – The Rapture – (Are We There Yet) Final

Humility in Daily Life

00- Humility by Andrew Murray – Tribulation Now

(6 minutes)

If someone says, 'I love God,' but hates a Christian brother or sister, that person is a liar; for if we don't love people we can see, how can we love God, whom we have not seen? (1 John 4:20) Here's a sobering thought:

God measures our love for Him by the love we show our brothers and sisters in every day fellowship with them. It is a serious thing to realize that our love for God just isn't genuine if it fails the test of daily life with our fellow human beings. The same thing is true with humility. It is easy to think we humble ourselves before God. But humility before people is the only real proof that our humility before God is more than just a figment of our imagination. It is the only true evidence that humility has made a home in our hearts and become our nature. How can we know that we, like Christ, have made ourselves of no reputation? By the reality check of daily life. When in God's presence humility has become more than just a feeling we have when we think about Him or pray, but instead the very Spirit of our lives, it will show itself in the way we treat our brothers and sisters.

This lesson is crucial. The only humility that really belongs to us is not what we try to show before God in prayer, but what we carry with us and live out when we get up off our knees. The insignificance of daily life is the test of eternity. It proves what Spirit really possesses us. It is in our unguarded moments when we show who we really are. To know the humble man, you have to follow him around and watch his daily life.

Isn’t that lesson exactly what Jesus taught? His great teachings about humility came when He saw the disciples arguing about who was greatest or the Pharisees competing for the place of honor at banquets and in synagogues. He taught again after He had given them an example by washing their feet. Humility before God is nothing if it isn’t proved by humility before men. Paul of course taught the same practical lesson. To the Romans, he wrote: “Love each other with genuine affection and take delight in honoring each other...Live in harmony with each other. Don’t try to act important, but enjoy the company of ordinary people. And don’t think you know it all!”(Romans 12:10,16). To the Corinthians, he said: “Love is not jealous or boastful or proud or rude. Love does not demand its own way” (1 Corinthians 13:4-5). There is no love except what grows from the root of humility! To the Galatians, Paul wrote:
“For you have been called to freedom...freedom to serve one another in love...Let us not become conceited, or irritate one another, or be jealous of one another” (Galatians 5:13,26). To the Ephesians, right after those three wonderful chapters about living in Heavenly Realms, he said, “Be humble and gentle. Be patient with each other” (Ephesians 4:2). “And further, you will submit to one another out of reverence for Christ” (Ephesians 5:21). To the Philippians, Paul wrote: “Make me truly happy by agreeing wholeheartedly with each other, loving one another, and working together with one heart and purpose. Don’t be selfish; don’t live to make a good impression on others. Be humble, thinking of others as better than yourself...Your attitude should be the same as that Christ Jesus had...He made Himself nothing; He took the humble position of a slave and appeared in human form. And in human form He obediently humbled Himself even further by dying a criminal’s death on the cross” (Philippians 2:3, 5, 7-8).

BE NICE TO EACHOTHER

Col 3:12-15

12 Therefore, as the elect of God, holy and beloved, put on tender mercies, kindness, humility, meekness, longsuffering; 13 bearing with one another, and forgiving one another, if anyone has a complaint against another; even as Christ forgave you, so you also must do. 14 But above all these things put on love, which is the bond of perfection.

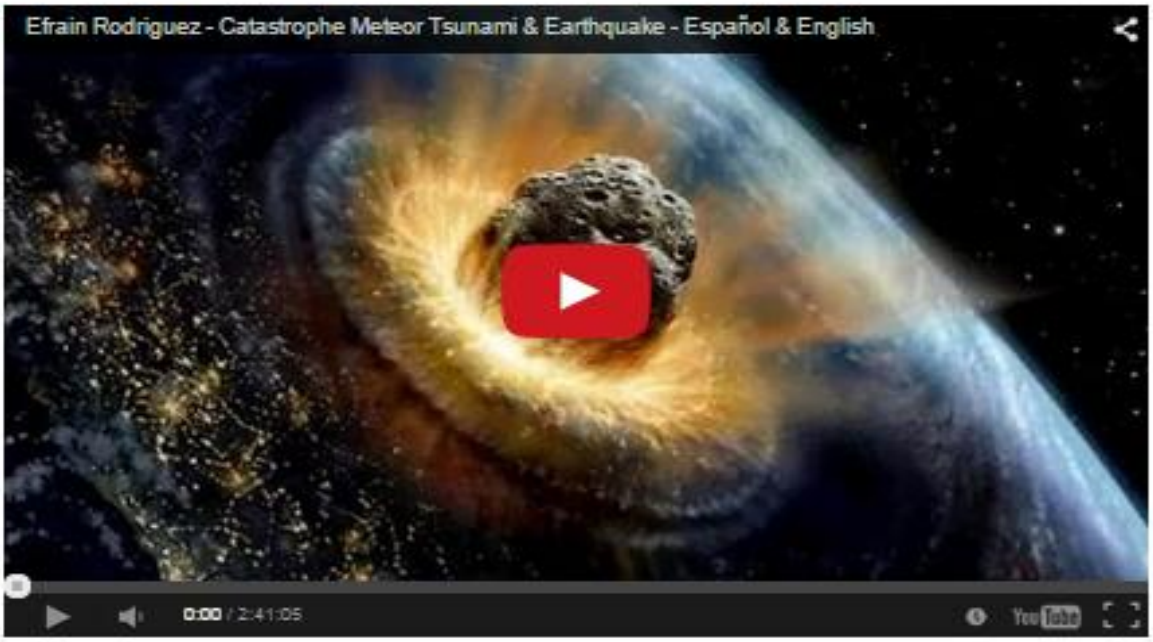
Is the Rodriguez Puerto Rico Meteor the Beginning of Sorrows?

Posted on December 31, 2014 by John Baptist



The Beginning of Sorrows

Does the Meteor Start the Calamities of Revelation 6 (The Seals)

When one correlates the prophetic data (prophecies, dreams and visions) and lines them up against the Holy Bible, the results can be eye opening. While there are no guarantees of any timeline becoming a reality, we are commanded by Jesus to "watch ye therefore" and be prepared spiritually for the inevitable.

In the above 2 hour plus video the Prophet Efraine Rodriguez tells in great detail events surrounding a meteor impact upon the earth just off the coast of Puerto Rico. Rodriguez has also stated publicly that the tidal wave will be extremely high and hit Miami, Florida at 5 am the day of impact. In later statements Rodriguez has said that this event will happen before the end of January of 2015.

Today is Dec 31st of 2014. There are powerful cosmic indicators that January 5th could be a monumental moment in time.

This Monday is January 5th.

TIMING for Northerly Drive

The meteor should enter the atmosphere from 1 am to 1:30 am Monday (e.g. bright arrow in the sky, Godshealer7) and then the tsunami hits Miami 3.5 hours later at a velocity of 500 mph (rough estimate) at 5 am. Making it about 2-4 hours (depending over land) for hitting Tampa. I am putting the travel topper on my SUV so I have a little extra storage and grabbing my daughter to head up US 19 North to Brooksville which should be out of the messy stuff. Now if it doesn't happen on Jan 5th I have asked the Lord to awaken me to the "bright light" of the entry into the atmosphere so I can boogey out.

Adulterers and adulteresses! Do you not know that friendship with the world is enmity with God? Whoever therefore wants to be a friend of the world makes himself an enemy of God.

1 John 3:7-9

7 Little children, let no one deceive you. He who practices righteousness is righteous, just as He is righteous. 8 He who sins is of the devil, for the devil has sinned from the beginning. For this purpose the Son of God was manifested, that He might destroy the works of the devil. 9 Whoever has been born of God does not sin, for His seed remains in him; and he cannot sin, because he has been born of God.

John 14:12

12 “Most assuredly, I say to you, he who believes in Me, the works that I do he will do also; and greater works than these he will do, because I go to My Father. 13 And whatever you ask in My name, that I will do, that the Father may be glorified in the Son.

1 Cor 13:1-7

Though I speak with the tongues of men and of angels, but have not love, I have become sounding brass or a clanging cymbal. 2 And though I have the gift of prophecy, and understand all mysteries and all knowledge, and though I have all faith, so that I could remove mountains, but have not love, I am nothing. 3 And though I bestow all my goods to feed the poor, and though I give my body to be burned, but have not love, it profits me nothing.

4 Love suffers long and is kind; love does not envy; love does not parade itself, is not puffed up; 5 does not behave rudely, does not seek its own, is not provoked, thinks no evil; 6 does not rejoice in iniquity, but rejoices in the truth; 7 bears all things, believes all things, hopes all things, endures all things.

Peter 3:13-17

13 And who is he who will harm you if you become followers of what is good? 14 But even if you should suffer for righteousness' sake, you are blessed. "And do not be afraid of their threats, nor be troubled." 15 But sanctify the Lord God in your hearts, and always be ready to give a defense to everyone who asks you a reason for the hope that is in you, with meekness and fear; 16 having a good conscience, that when they defame you as evildoers, those who revile your good conduct in Christ may be ashamed. 17 For it is better, if it is the will of God, to suffer for doing good than for doing evil.

“Humility is perfect quietness of heart. It is to expect nothing, to wonder at nothing that is done to me, to feel nothing done against me. It is to be at rest when nobody praises me, and when I am blamed or despised. It is to have a blessed home in the Lord, where I can go in and shut the door, and kneel to my Father in secret, and am at peace as in a deep sea of calmness, when all around and above is trouble.”

A real quick word to the wise heart, any of these prophecies and prophets could prove to be wrong or become incorrect at any time. There are also "non-prophetic" sources added to this document to add additional information for your discernment.

We All See Through the Mirror Dimly

1 Cor 13:12

For now we see in a mirror, dimly, but then face to face. Now I know in part, but then I shall know just as I also am known.

Tracking visions, dreams, and prophecies is always very challenging. Remember the devil seeks whom he may devour so we must always seek Jesus first, and trust in God alone, not "man".

If you decide to track the prophetic information from any of these sources, please watch and pray and remember that we must discern and measure all things against the Bible.

Deut 18:22
Please Commit the Verse to Memory

When a prophet speaks in the name of the Lord, if the thing does not happen or come to pass, that is the thing which the Lord has not spoken; the prophet has spoken it presumptuously; you shall not be afraid of him.

WE MUST LISTEN TO GOD'S PROPHECIES OR FACE RUIN / DESTRUCTION

THE VOICE OF THE VICTORIOUS CHRIST

by David Wilkerson
[May 19, 1931 – April 27, 2011]

When God said, "Once more I shake not the earth only, but also heaven" (Hebrews 12:26), He was saying, in essence, "I shook the earth at Mount Sinai. But when I speak in these last days, My voice will shake both the natural and spiritual worlds. The status quo will tremble; nothing will remain as it is. Whatever is called religious—all that is of Christ or the Church—will be shaken by the voice of My Son speaking from heaven."

God had warned Israel that all who refuse to listen to His prophet would be brought to account: "And it shall come to pass, that whosoever will not hearken unto my words which he shall speak in my name, I will require it of him" (Deuteronomy 18:19). He was saying, "I'm going to pursue every disobedience—and you'll account for it all."

Scripture reveals that those who ignored the words of God's prophets fell into ruin. They became withered and bitter, dying without any joy or peace. "See that ye refuse not him that speaketh. For if they escaped not who refused him that spake on earth, much more shall not we escape, if we turn away from him that speaketh from heaven" (Hebrews 12:25).

Beloved, neither will we escape God's wrath—either as a nation or as individuals. And right now Jesus' voice is shaking every nation, causing institutions, leaders and economies to tremble. He is saying to the wind and the elements, "Blow upon the earth." He is saying to the clouds, "Withhold rain." He is saying to the economies of the world, "All greed—be judged."

God is also commanding, "Prisons, shake. Governments, shake. Financial systems, shake. Schools, shake. Military forces, shake. Courts and legislatures, shake. Everything on earth, shake until there is no foundation left but the Lord."

It is not the devil who is shaking everything. The whole world is being shaken by the voice of the victorious Christ. The Man in glory has risen in power upon His throne and He is speaking a word to shake all things.

"Hear the word of the LORD, O nations, And declare in the coastlands afar off..."

Jeremiah 31:10a

The Words of the Lord through my friend Warrior Princess are found below. Heed them for He has told her to partner with me because He is calling more of the Bride in to know His Word! ~ Hope

12/29/14 - Word to WP

Before I received this word I saw the following: I saw an explosion in the sky. Not a scary one, but just an explosion which rained down sparkles or something that looked like diamonds. Whatever it was rained down softly upon the Earth and was shimmery and beautiful!

My child, thank you for making time for me. My Sparrows are discovering mysteries that have been hidden since the beginning of time. There is a path where I have laid out bread crumbs to show the way. Soon the path will shine with the brightness of diamonds and become crystal clear as my light shines the way.

Follow the path. Now is the time to change your pace from walking to running as I pour out my spirit upon you! Be ready to receive more of me as I fill my empty vessels.

We will soon march together out into the battlefield. The stakes are high my love as many souls hang between death and life. I will illuminate your path as we grow increasingly close to the start of the events that kick off the chaos. Soon you will be dressed in battle gear and you will also wear a crown of righteousness as you will be in your new bodies!
It is coming. Encourage the sickly, the weary and those with heavy burdens. You are soon to be set free! Free in me! I love you my darling! Publish this!

278pikelk – Warning to the Bride (Three Days of Darkness, Harvest, Light Bodies, Great Tribulation)

The Bride’s Glorified Bodies

Transcript:"Warning to the Bride - 278pikelk 05/14/14I'm going to be obedient and put this message up. Lord led to Revelation 22, I will not leave you blind to what comes."My daughter, share this message with those who have ears to hear. Catastrophic events warned of by many of My messengers are coming to your once great nation and world soon. Not one will be shielded from seeing the destruction. Destruction will come from the elements: fire and water primarily, but you will also experience earthquakes and volcanoes throughout your earth. Outer space will begin colliding with your once great nation and the world like nothing you've ever witnessed in the past. Things will never go back to what you perceive as normal. Once these things start, the end of the earth as you've known it will have begun. Disasters that have taken place in the past and recent past will not hold a candle to what is coming, My Children. You will only have your memories of what once was. There will be three days of darkness where My Bride will be transformed into her new, incorruptible body. During this time she will be visible to others, but they will clearly see the changes taking place in My Bride. People will look on and off as My Bride puts on the new and discards the old. She will be given a new flesh, that is not flesh as you would recognize it as flesh: an incorruptible flesh. She will be given heightened awareness into the spiritual realm. She will be one in thought with the entirety of My Bride, and they will come together to receive their garments and their duties. There are many who will remain on this earth who My Bride will be in charge of turning towards their Creator. There will be an evil and a good. There will be evil and good hearts, and the good hearts will truly know their Father and will be able to see that MY Bride is of Me and that the others are imposters. My Bride are spirit-filled believers that have emptied their flesh of this world and fully surrendered to Me. They are My warriors for this time and will be warring for the hearts and minds left on this earth. To either eventually turn to Me, or to take the mark of the beast.My Bride is very important and will lead many Home to Me. When they see the impostors - when people see the impostors - they will think that they are part of My Bride, but people with Me will quickly figure out the Truth. Warn people! The "people of light" are truly dark and they are put on this earth to be nothing but deceivers. There are very many believers who have never received My Holy Spirit or who have received My Holy Spirit but have quelled Him to where He has never been able to bring them along on their journey towards Me. There are many who believe in Me, but who have become entangled in false teachings and doctrines of men. They will not want to believe that this is the end. My Bride will have to educate them. There are millions and millions of people who know OF Me, but aren't seeking to know Me. My Bride will introduce her Groom.The job of the Bride will not be easy, but she will be equipped with her new and glorious body, filled with My supernatural Light and Love. The impostors - though children of light - will be filled with darkness sent to confuse and mislead humans, choosing Satan as their father, instead of their actual Father Creator. These impostors will be arriving on the scene soon. Most of the people of the world are completely unaware of all that is to come and will be totally taken by surprise.Just remember Children, that there is NO man good. Do not be deceived. Come to Me in prayer for all of your questions. The deceivers will try to place an impostor in front of you that is so real, if you did not know My Word you would be fooled. But many WILL be fooled. I must use My Bride to convince those that know of Me and just don't KNOW Me OR My Word not to fall for this great deception.My Children, I love you so! My Bride must know she will remain protected until she reveals herself in her new, uncorrupted body. My Bride needs to be aware of what is coming. I have chosen some very unlikely vessels to be My Bride. Do not doubt your worthiness, My Bride. Because NO one is worthy, but by the blood of the Lamb. Prepare for battle, My Bride." https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=Hpx3wp0cwqE

The Vision of the 12 Houses

(by C. Alan Martin 1971)

C. Alan Martin had a vision back in 1971 prophetically depicting 12 presidents of the United States. The "LAST" President was unknown to him even after updating the information in the late 90's. We know today that the "LAST" President would have been Barack Obama. This is what the prophecy says about this 12th House or President.

House 12 President: ?

This is the last house that I saw in this vision of the night. After this house was a dirt path that lead toward a collection of boulders arraigned in a semi circle which reminded me of a place where a trial was held and judgment rendered. In another dream which took place during the millennial age, I was standing among these rock looking at the ruins of a world rocked by the (great) tribulation. In the ruins of these boulders I found a witch doll. I knew immediately that one (sic) of the reasons that the USA was judged was because she had gone after the occult and witchcraft.

Across from the path after house #12 was a new row of houses stretching off into the distance. These I believe are the rulers of the land that Jesus will set up during the millennium.

In the vision of the night (after I saw the star fall to the earth)

[Note: Could this be the Puerto Rico Comet event?]
I heard a voice say "Look to the east". I began to turn and fully expected to see Jesus coming in the clouds. As I turned I saw the clouds part and I saw the blood moon and the dark sun.

[Note: This is the Sixth Seal Rev 6:12-17]
Both of these are symbolic of judgment being levied on a nation and the fall of a nation. I continued turning to the east and saw the ancient army approaching from the east through the yards of all the houses of the presidents.

[Note: This is Russia and China moving / conquering from the East to West and USA, Gog/Magog Ezekiel 38, 39]
It was then that I ran down to join this army in the yard of the house of Nixon. This was 1971, the year I was saved. Immediately the scene changed and I was in the middle of a city in gray ruins. I saw a man emerge from what I perceived to be a "temple fortress" who was dressed in a diplomatic suit and carrying a briefcase. A voice said "He claims to be God, but is of devil".

[Note: This is Obama, the Antichrist]
Then the dream ended.

PASTOR TD HALE DREAMS

The TD Hale Dream Locks these Events to 2016

Moreover we have the prophetic dream given to pastor TD Hale in December of 2011 showing the nuclear destruction of the United States WHILE Obama is in the Office of the President. Here is a LINK to the dreams in text format. Hale not only saw the destruction of the US (burnt from end to end, totally destroyed) but he also saw the aftermath with people hiding from the FEMA police and soldiers. He also saw the FEMA prison camps in operation and saw the "trains" (FEMA Trains) at those facilities used to transport the victims to their fate.

Here is the audio clip from the TruNews Show.

LINK HERE

Please Note: It is crucially important to note, with the exception of the Obama Presidency timeline, the TD Hale dream matches the testimony of many other Godly sources including:

- AA Alan's Vision from 1954
- Dimitru Duduman's Visitation from 1983
- Henry Gruver's Vision from the late 80's

There are others as well. To listen to these testimonies you can go to this page (Apocalyptic Signs – Prophecies and Predictions HERE.)

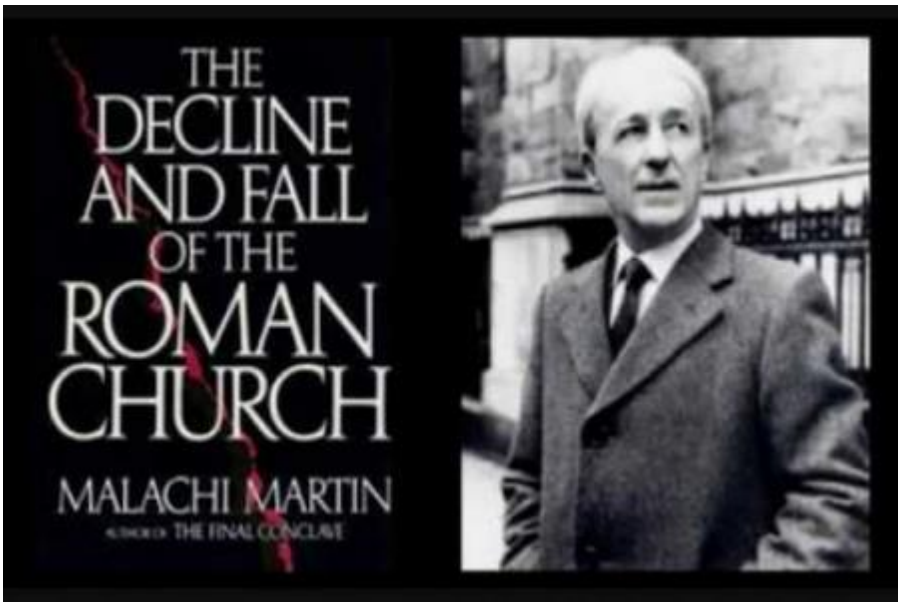
THE THIRD SECRET OF FATIMA



Evidently, according to this author (below), Father Malachi Martin reported that the Third Secret of Fatima was ultimately the Rev 6:12-14 "pole shift" and the First Trumpet CME (solar flare). The most amazing part is that this is reportedly to happen by 2017 Fatima author Father Malachi Martin has said that "the Third Secret is your worst nightmare, multiplied exponentially." (http://www.tldm.org/News10/MalachiMartinBelievedInBayside.htm) In an interview with Art Bell in 1997, he explained that "I was shown the Text of the third secret in February 1960. I cooled my heels in the corridor outside the Holy Father's apartments, while my Boss, Cardinal Bea, was inside debating with the Holy Father (Pope John XXIII), and with a other group of other bishops and priests, and two young Portuguese seminarians, who translated the letter, a single page, written in Portuguese..... on the content of the Third Secret, Sister Lucy one day replied: 'It's in the Gospel, and in the Apocalypse, read them.' We even know that one day Lucy indicated Chapters 8, 13 of the Apocalypse. (http://garabandalnews.overblog.com/2014/01/fatima-3rd-secret-and-facts.html)

Father Martin said of the fulfillment of the Third Secret that these events are "not 200 years away, it is not 50 years away, it is not 20 years away..." He expressed the view that major portions of end times events would be underway before the centennial of the Marian apparitions (before May 13, 2017.)

Multiple Blood Moon Tetrad High Holy Days

While solar and lunar eclipses are common occurrences and for the most part have no great prophetic significance, when they fall on the biblical Feast days, we should pay close attention. In Revelation 6:12, the Bible declares that the sun will become black as sackcloth of hair, and the moon as red as blood. Most scholars believe this important end-times sign is speaking of solar and lunar eclipses. The significance of a total solar eclipse or total lunar eclipse, if it happened on one of God's Feast days would be a powerful message. Knowing this, be advised there are four total blood moons coming, back to back, right in a row, all falling on Feast days. Equally incredible is how within the very same timeframe, two solar eclipses are scheduled to arrive. Read that again and let the significance of these comments sink in. Prophetically speaking, we are talking about the equivalent of six grand-slam homeruns in a row–a mathematical improbability that stands out against the randomness of natural cycles and strongly suggests a miraculous sign or "omen" of intelligent design is coming. Of significance to this book is how these "grand slams" are set to unfold between the years 2012-2016, specifically 2014 and 2015.

(NaturalNews) Could the reason that life on Mars no longer exists, at least from what we know, be that it was destroyed by an alien race using advanced nuclear weapons systems? This is the postulation of plasma physicist Dr. John Brandenburg, who recently published a study suggesting that two races of beings, the Cydonians and the Utopians, were killed off in dual nuclear explosions that left Mars in the state we currently observe it today.

At some point in the past, says Dr. Brandenburg, the climate of Mars was similar to that of Earth, with all sorts of diverse animal and plant life. As far as intelligent life, beings with knowledge roughly equivalent to the ancient Egyptians here on Earth flourished in multiple regions of the planet, which was also likely a different color from the red we see now.

Radioactive elements, Xenon-129 found on Mars surface and in atmosphere

But everything changed when alien invaders decided to launch their own large-scale versions of Hiroshima and Nagasaki by dropping nuclear bombs on the two major races, wiping them out completely. Now, traces of uranium and thorium, two radioactive elements, linger on the surface of Mars while Xenon-129 persists in the Martian atmosphere.

"The Martian surface is covered with a thin layer of radioactive substances including uranium, thorium and radioactive potassium - and this pattern radiates from a hot spot on Mars," says Dr. Brandenburg. "A nuclear explosion could have sent debris all around the planet."

A labyrinth of secret underground tunnels believed to have been used by the Nazis to develop a nuclear bomb has been uncovered.

The facility, which covers an area of up to 75 acres, was discovered near the town of St Georgen an der Gusen, Austria last week, it has been reported.

Excavations began on the site after researchers detected heightened levels of radiation in the area - supporting claims that the Nazis were developing nuclear weapons.

They wave their Bibles at passersby, screaming their condemnations of homosexuals. They fall on their knees, worshipping at the base of granite monuments to the Ten Commandments while demanding prayer in school. They appeal to God to save America from their political opponents, mostly Democrats. They gather in football stadiums by the thousands to pray for the country's salvation.

They are God's frauds, cafeteria Christians who pick and choose which Bible verses they heed with less care than they exercise in selecting side orders for lunch. They are joined by religious rationalizers—fundamentalists who, unable to find Scripture supporting their biases and beliefs, twist phrases and modify translations to prove they are honoring the Bible's words.

This is no longer a matter of personal or private faith.

AirAsia CEO Tony Fernandes dumped 944,800 shares in Tune Insurance Holdings Bhd, the organization that provides travel insurance for AirAsia passengers, just days before the disappearance of Flight QZ8501.

The day the airline disappeared, the stock fell by 7%, do you believe in coincidences?

As you will see in the video below Dabooh7 confirms these actions. This is no different than on the days prior to 911, when Airline stock options, Banks and insurance companies saw very unusual trading action before the planes flew into the World Trade Center (Twin Towers).

OBAMA: IRAN TO BE 'VERY SUCCESSFUL REGIONAL POWER'

8 Share

US President Barack Obama acknowledges that Iran would become a "very successful regional power" if a long-term nuclear agreement is reached.

"They have got a chance to get right with the world," Obama said in an interview with NPR News, which was taped at the White House on Dec. 18 and aired on Monday.

More than a year ago, Iran agreed to an interim agreement to suspend 20-percent uranium enrichment in exchange for the lifting of economic sanctions pending on a long-term deal.

Despite progress in the talks, Iran and the five permanent members of the United Nations Security Council — China, Russia, Britain, France, and the United States — plus Germany failed to clinch a final deal by a Nov. 24 deadline. The talks have now been extended until July 1, 2015.

Tehran maintains that the issue of sanctions, not the level of uranium enrichment, is the main stumbling block to reaching a comprehensive deal.

In the interview, Obama said Iran should seize the chance of a long-term deal that could lift the sanctions.

There have been more than 500 magnitude 3.0 or greater earthquakes in Oklahoma this year, up significantly from 109 in 2013 and just 35 in 2012, according to U.S. Geological Survey officials.

As of Monday, there were 549 of the higher magnitude quakes in 2014, with 19 being magnitude 4.0 or greater.

USGS officials focused on magnitude 3.0 or greater quakes because the smaller the magnitude, the more potential there is for missing an event, USGS Geophysicist Robert Williams said.

The USGS is looking into the increase in earthquakes, mostly occurring in central and north-central Oklahoma, he said.

“Starting probably in 2009, we started to notice the jump in earthquakes, even though it was small back then, relative to 2014,” Williams said.

A new scientific group focused on studying induced seismicity has been formed. There probably are six to 10 researchers working on the issue, with about four or five working full time now, according to Williams.

“This group, along with others from academia, have published a number of papers — eight or so papers in the last couple of years in peer review journals — that point toward water in disposal wells injected deep under ground as contributing to the cause of earthquakes in Oklahoma.”

A USGS statement released in May, in collaboration with the Oklahoma Geological Survey, indicated the likelihood of injection wells contributing to the seismicity and noted a higher chance of earthquakes, Williams said.

“Because, the more small earthquakes you have generally leads to the occurrence of more large earthquakes,” he said. “So the possibility of a damaging earthquake is higher in the last couple years.”

As part of its continued monitoring of the situation, the USGS has deployed a few more seismographs in the region, according to Williams.

“We’re monitoring the situation, trying to understand what’s going on,” he said. “We’ve also been funding researchers outside of the USGS to study the problem over the last three years or so.”

Unknown Deadly Virus In Kansas

Biological Hazard - North-America - USA

Description:

A brand new virus has been found in southeast Kansas. After becoming infected with it, the patient has died and researchers do not know for sure where it came from. When the patient first showed up at the doctor's office, they thought that he might have some kind of tick-borne virus. His symptoms were similar and they wanted to test his illness to verify what he had. He had a fever, fatigue, and changes in his blood count. Other symptoms included muscle aches, damage to the blood platelets, and elevated liver enzymes. One other symptom, which is not present with the similar Heartland disease, was that he also had a lack of a desire to eat anything - anorexia. They tested for ehrlichiosis and also for the new Heartland virus disease, which was discovered in 2012. The tests turned up negative, and the doctors soon realized they had not seen the disease before. The patient somehow contracted the virus during this past summer. The new disease is now called the Bourbon virus, which is named after the county the patient lived in - Bourbon County. The Department of Health and Environment in Kansas and the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC) have analyzed the virus and confirm that it is new. So far, there are no other confirmed cases of the same illness. Since the Bourbon virus is so new, there are not any vaccines or established treatments for it yet. The only patient has died. Another unknown in this case is that doctors are not sure how the patient got the virus. While it is similar to other tick-borne diseases, it is not actually known for certain if it came from a tick, or from some other kind of insect. One more unknown is that the researchers are not sure if the virus actually killed the patient, or if it led to conditions that ultimately killed the patient. More research will need to be performed - when there are more patients. The genome for the virus has been analyzed. It was concluded that there are no viruses like it in the entire Western hemisphere, but there are similar ones in the East. It has taken six weeks to identify this much about it. The doctor that performed this analysis, Dana Hawkins, said that the viruses that are similar rarely ever cause illness in people or animals. Because the Bourbon virus is a virus and not a bacteria, it means that treatment options are limited. Antibiotics cannot be used in this case, because they are ineffective against viruses. Being that there has only been one case so far, it is unknown as to whether or not this virus exists in other parts of the United States. When possible, ticks will be collected in various places and then tested for this particular illness. People are generally safe over the winter from most illnesses caused by ticks. They are not around during the cold months, and so bites are highly unlikely. In the warmer months, safeguards can be taken such as wearing long-sleeve shirts and pants when going outdoors. Other precautions that offer a good amount of protection in the warmer months are to use an insect repellant and avoid walking in high grass. It is also advised not to allow children to sleep next to dogs.

Kansas says new virus found after resident's death

By JOHN HANNA
December 22, 2014 7:15 PM

TOPEKA, Kan. (AP) — A new virus thought to be carried by ticks or other insects has been discovered following the death of a southeast Kansas resident during the summer, public health officials said Monday.

The new virus is called Bourbon virus, after Bourbon County, home of the patient who died. The Kansas Department of Health and Environment said the patient's symptoms, including fever and fatigue, were similar to symptoms from other tick-borne diseases.

The Kansas health department said testing by the federal Centers for Disease Control and Prevention confirmed that the patient had a virus not previously identified. Health department spokeswoman Aimee Rosenow said it's still not clear how much the Bourbon virus contributed to the patient's death.

"This was the first known instance and the only confirmed case," Rosenow said. "This is a new virus, and we are still learning."

The health department declined to identify the victim of the virus or provide details about the case, saying it was protecting the privacy of the patient and family members.

The department said there's no specific vaccine or treatment for the disease from the Bourbon virus but described the risk as "minimal" during the winter, given health officials' belief that it is transmitted through tick or insect bites.

The health agency also suggested the same precautions outdoors for avoiding other tick- and insect-borne illnesses. Those include using insect repellent, wearing long sleeves and pants, and avoiding wooded and busy areas with high grass or leaf litter.

CDC reports potential Ebola exposure in Atlanta lab

Researchers studying Ebola in a highly secure laboratory mistakenly allowed potentially lethal samples of the virus to be handled in a much less secure laboratory at the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention in Atlanta, agency officials said Wednesday.

One technician in the second laboratory may have been exposed to the virus and about a dozen other people have been assessed after entering the facility unaware that potentially hazardous samples of Ebola had been handled there.

China to test its Ebola vaccine on humans

BEIJING: China today said it has developed a vaccine to combat the spread of deadly Ebola virus that has killed more than 7,000 people in three West African countries, and the test of the drug on humans would begin this month.

(Scientists are racing to...)

Defence Ministry spokesman Yang Yujun told reporters that the vaccine has been developed by a research team at the Academy of Military Medical Sciences, one of the top research units of China's People's Liberation Army.

"The vaccine has recently passed appraisal by state and military authorities and will begin clinical tests in December," said Yang.

He said the China-developed Ebola vaccine was the third in the world to have been put into clinical tests in the world. It is also the world's first 2014-genetic mutation Ebola vaccine.

Yang said that since September, the Chinese military has sent some 300 medical personnel and specialists to Sierra Leone and Liberia in eastern Africa to help control the epidemic.

Scientists around the world are racing to develop Ebola vaccines after the world's worst outbreak of the virus, which has killed more than 7,000 people in the worst-hit countries of Sierra Leone, Liberia and Guinea in West Africa.

Yang said the Chinese medical teams have worked closely with the World Health Organisation, Doctors Without Borders, local governments and the UN peacekeeping mission in Liberia to jointly combat the spread of the deadly disease.

WHO: EBOLA EPIDEMIC KILLS NEARLY 8,000 IN WEST AFRICA

Virus rages throughout Africa despite media silence

The Ebola epidemic fatalities in West Africa have reached approximately 8,000, the World Health Organization (WHO) says.

The WHO said on Friday that out of 19,695 recorded cases of Ebola infection 7,693 had died in West Africa.

This is while the figures released on December 22 showed 7,518 fatalities out of 19,340 infections in Sierra Leone, Liberia and Guinea, WHO added.

The disease has taken at least 7,708 peoples' lives around the globe including eight in Nigeria, which was declared free of Ebola in October, six in Mali, and one in the United States, the organization said.

There were no deaths in Spain and Senegal, which have both been declared Ebola-free; however, one infection case was reported in each country, according to the world body.

The WHO said Sierra Leone as the country with the most infections has overtaken Liberia.

Liberia, which was known as the hardest-hit country, recorded 7,862 cases and 3,384 deaths on December 20, showing a clear decrease in transmission, the WHO said.

The outbreak started a year ago in Guinea, where the tally counted 2,630 Ebola cases and 1,654 deaths as of December 24.

Ebola is one of the deadliest viruses known to man. It is a form of hemorrhagic fever with diarrhea, vomiting, as well as internal and external bleeding as its symptoms.

The virus spreads through direct contact with the bodily fluids of an infected person. Those who care for the Ebola-infected patients or handle their bodies are particularly exposed and endangered.

According to the WHO, as of December 21, a total of 666 healthcare workers were infected by the virus, 366 of whom died.

As reported by Britain's The Telegraph newspaper, a former Russian finance minister is warning that the country faces a "full-blown economic crisis," and is now forced to take emergency economic measures. One of them includes the Russian central bank injecting billions of rubles' worth of liquidity into failing banks (bailing them out with public money, if you will).

The Telegraph went on to to describe the origins of the current crisis:

The economy has been battered by a wave of sanctions as a result of tensions over Ukraine, geopolitical uncertainty, and falling oil prices.

Alexei Kudrin, a former finance minister and once considered an ally of President Vladimir Putin, said: "Today I can say that we have entered or are currently entering a full-blown economic crisis. Next year we will feel it in full force."

After critics decried Ferguson, Missouri, police using Defense Department donated heavy artillery against rioting protesters, some law enforcement agencies are returning military-grade weaponry back to the Pentagon. (Associated Press) more >

By Stephen Dinan - The Washington Times - Tuesday, December 30, 2014

The federal government shipped nearly 4,000 more assault rifles to local law enforcement agencies in the three months following the Ferguson riots, marking a huge surge in the amount of lethal firearms being doled out to police and sheriff's offices.

The Ferguson riots drew attention and criticism to the massive firepower state and local police are now able to bring to bear on their citizens, and earned scrutiny for the Pentagon project, known as the 1033 program, that helps arm many of those agencies by making surplus military equipment available to them.

US Military Stockpiling "Massive Amounts" Of Gear Near Iraq

Since June, the U.S. military has been slowly stockpiling massive amounts of its gear coming out of Afghanistan at a depot in Kuwait adjacent to a bustling commercial port, in preparation for ultimately shipping it across the border into Iraq for an allied offensive against the Islamic State group, US News reports. Air Force Maj. Gen. Rowayne "Wayne" Schatz admitted, "from June to December, we've worked a lot on moving items into Kuwait," including 3,100 vehicles, most of them MRAPs. While the military stands by President Barack Obama's repeated pledge that he will not put U.S. combat forces on the ground, an increasing number of U.S. troops has slowly trickled back into Iraq, as the US and its allies are reportedly planning for a massive spring offensive to retake territory from ISIS.

Russian economy attacked through oil prices – Obama

Pushing down global oil prices was part of Washington's rationale to destabilize the Russian economy, US President Barack Obama said in an interview to National Public Radio, a non-profit media organization.

Oil price key to Russian economy crumbling

Answering a direct question whether it was the US that collapsed oil prices globally to create problems for Russia, Obama said that Russian economy "was already contracting and capital was fleeing even before oil collapsed."

Obama revealed that it was a "part of our rationale" that the "only thing" keeping Russian economy "afloat" was the price of oil.

Sanctions only made Russian economy more vulnerable to the "inevitable" oil price disruptions. "They'd have enormous difficulty managing it," Obama said.

The US should be "firm with the Russians" when it comes to issues like Ukraine, but also America must build its manufacturing base to make sure its economy is better than Russia's.

"Ultimately, the big advantage we have with Russia is we've got a dynamic, vital economy, and they don't. They rely on oil; we rely on oil and iPads and movies and you name it," Obama said, adding that "making sure that prosperity is broadly shared" is also important for American people to feel confident about the future.

For Russia War Is Now a Grim Reality. West a Bitter Rival

New Russia military doctrine spells out which countries are Russia's allies, partners and sources of military threats

Dmitri Trenin (Carnegie Moscow Center) OPINION 19 hours ago | 2451 63

Like 9 Tweet 18 +1 1 Share

The text below is a brief overview of new Russia military doctrine, signed into law by the Russian president on December 26th, 2014.

This is an excerpt from an article that originally appeared at Moscow Carnegie Center

No more talk of "Western partners"

Essentially, for Commander-in-Chief Putin and for his generals, admirals, and security officials, war in 2014 ceased to be a risk and turned into grim reality.

Russia has had to use its military forces in Ukraine, arguably the most important neighbor it has in Europe.

The conflict over Ukraine, in Moscow's view, reflects the fundamental reality of an "intensification of global competition" and the "rivalry of value orientations and models of development." Against the background of economic and political instability—crises and popular movements—the global balance is changing in favor of emerging power centers.

In this new environment, the doctrine highlights information warfare and outside interference in Russia's domestic politics as risks of increased importance.

The list of main external risks has not changed much, but the nuances are important.

China tests multiple warhead missle, increases nuclear threat to U.S.

by Vanessa Garcia Rodriguez | 24 December, 2014

BEIJING (Christian Examiner) -- U.S. defense officials claimed last week that China has conducted a long-range flight test of a missile that could reach anywhere in the United States.

According to Investor's Business Daily, China's Dec. 13 test marks the third time the country tested the DF-41 weapon. However, it is the first test of a multiple independently targetable re-entry vehicle (MIRV), an advanced nuclear missile with the ability to carry multiple warheads and ups the ante on China's threat to the U.S.

The IBD revealed a statement from a report produced for Congress by the U.S.-China Economic and Security Review Commission claiming "The DF-4, which could be deployed as early as 2015, may carry up to 10 MIRVs, and have a range as far as 7,456 miles, allowing it to target the entire continental United States."

"China could use MIRVs to deliver nuclear warheads on major U.S. cities and military facilities as a means of overwhelming (existing) U.S. ballistic missile defenses," the report added.

China's multiple warhead weapons were developed using both illegal transfers of technology and information given to the nation during the Clinton's administration.

The IBD detailed information from the National Air and Space Intelligence Center (NASIC) dated back to Dec. 10, 1996, calling China's MIRV technology an offshoot of a "smart dispenser" for launching multiple satellites. The report indicated the dispenser was developed by China for Motorola to launch the company's Iridium communications satellites.

Wake Up Samson, The Barber is Coming! with Terri Hill

Join Kenneth, John and Cathy in the chat room while they discuss the warning signs possibly related to January 5th, and the Efraine Rodriguez Puerto Rico comet prophecy, the related apocalyptic news, and welcome back to the program sister Terri Hill. Tonight Terri will be sharing with us a really fascinating and powerful message about the story of Samson, his behaviors and how they relate to the believers of today and what we can do about it to be right with Jesus.

God Bless You - See you there!

WAKE UP SAMSON: THE BARBER IS COMING!

SAMSON THE DELIVERER, fell asleep on the lap of the HARLOT; Judges 16:19; Rev. 17:1-5; 19:2. "For she hath cast down many wounded: yea, many strong men have been slain by her. Her house is the way to hell, going down to the chambers of death"; Proverbs 7:26-27.

1. THE HARLOT'S INFLUENCE

A. It is subtle, deceptive and seductive. The spirit of harlotry operates through individuals, groups or organizations, and has the ability to influence people, cities and nations; Proverbs 7:10; Isaiah 1:21-23; Hosea 1:2-3; Revelation 17:1-2, 15.

B. God said that His wayward people had "a whore's forehead", implying that they have an "adulterous mindset"; see Jeremiah 3:3; Revelation 14:9; 17:5 (compare with Exodus 28:36-38; Revelation 22:4). Unfaithfulness to God is spiritual adultery; James 4:4.

C. The harlot requires payment for her "services"; Ezekiel 16:33; Judges 16:5. Delilah the harlot was paid by Samson's enemies to seduce him; she was the "bait" employed by the Philistines to "wear him down". She pressed upon him daily and vexed his soul; Judges 16:16; Daniel 7:25.

D. The spirit of the harlot is revealed in Judges 16:4-19 (Delilah); the "whore" of Revelation 17-18; Jeremiah 50-52; Proverbs 7. These things describe the harlot:

1. It utilizes "fair speech", flattery; Prov. 5:3, 6:24; 7:21; Isaiah 30:10; 2 Timothy 4:3.
2. It brings spiritual error; Hosea 4:10-19, and profanes God's name; Amos 2:7.
3. It is connected with idolatry; Exodus 34:15-16.
4. Description of the HARLOT'S BED (compare with Song of Sol. 1:16; Heb. 13:4):
   a. It has the linen of Egypt; Prov. 7:16; Isaiah 19:9 (compare with Rev. 19:8)
   b. This bed offers a "false love" (carnal affections, strokes the flesh) to one who is "void of understanding" while the "goodman of the house" (Jesus) is gone away on a long journey; Proverbs 7:7, 18-20.
   c. This bed is also "perfumed"; it has a counterfeit "false anointing"; Prov. 7:16-17; (compare with Exodus 30:23-25).
5. The harlot has its own "attire" and false coverings; Prov. 7:10; Is.30:1; Rev.17:4.
6. It has false "peace offerings": religious and political counterfeits appear to be "respectable"; Proverbs 7:14; Ezekiel 13:10-16.

2. IN SCRIPTURE, HAIR IS THE COVERING PROTECTION OF THE HEAD (THE CROWN).

A. In biblical days, hair was an "outward symbol" of an "inner" dedication and consecration unto God, as with the Nazarite vow; Numbers 6:5; 1 Samuel 1:11.

B. The head and hair of the Bride is described as "regal"; Song of Solomon 7:5.

C. Absalom, the son of king David, was known for his beautiful hair. But this rebellious "head of hair" became "entangled, caught and destroyed", as a result of his disloyal behavior against his father; 2 Samuel 14:25-26; 15:4-6; 18:9.

D. A forgiven woman used her hair to wipe the feet of Jesus; Luke 7:38.

E. In biblical language, if the hair was cut, shorn or shaved by a barber, it signified, or was associated with AFFLICTION, MOURNING or the entire DESTRUCTION OF A PEOPLE; see Isaiah 3:17,24; 15:2; 22:12; Jeremiah 7:29; Amos 8:10; Isaiah 7:20.

3. WHEN SAMSON WAS ASLEEP THE BARBER CAME

A. The harlot "made him sleep". She called for a man to shave off the "7 locks" of his hair; Judges 16:19. His uncut hair had represented his consecration unto God, which was the secret of his power. Now this is "cut off". Samson is now vulnerable, lacking divine favor, anointing and protection. His intimacy with the harlot led him to the place of humiliation.

1. Blind watchmen are sleeping and slumbering; they lack understanding. They are intoxicated with the wine of a "worldly influence"; Isaiah 56:10-12; Rev. 3:16-17.
2. The "porter" is commanded to "watch"; do not be found sleeping; Mark 13:33-37.

B. Samson is a type of modern "Christendom": carnal, undisciplined and backslidden.

1. Woe to those who are "at ease" in Zion; Amos 6:1.
2. God says that His backslidden people are like an unshod, wild female donkey in heat in the wilderness: unrestrained, running after other males; Jeremiah 2:24-25.

C. Samson also portrays a "mighty nation", one who began with great military strength and economic resources, but has fallen into apostasy and is now plundered and powerless to defend itself; Jeremiah 48:14-17.

1. When the "HEAD of a nation" is corrupted, the entire nation will be afflicted; Judges 16:19; see Lamentations 5:1-17
2. Babylon the great is "fallen"; Revelation 18:2
3. When the righteous are in authority, the people rejoice, but when the wicked bear rule, the people mourn; Proverbs 29:2

D. When a man of God engages in sin and careless disobedience, as in Samson's case, and the anointed presence of God leaves him, these are the consequences; Judges 16:21:

1. The Philistines (demons) which have been hiding in the harlot's chamber, will take over; Judges 16:9
2. Blindness is the result (eyes are put out); Judges 16:21; Jeremiah 52:11; Matthew 15:14; 23:13-29; Revelation 3:17-18
3. Fetters of brass (judgment) placed on his "hands"(service, ministry) and "feet"(his walk, advancement) will bind him
4. He will "go in circles" (no spiritual progress), "grinding in the prison house"; Judges 16:21; Lamentations 5:13
5. He will become a source of "sport, entertainment, amusement" for the people; Judges 16:25
