Eyes of Faith

Jesus went about... teaching... preaching... and healing.

—Matthew 4:23

Scripture reading: Isaiah 58:8–12

One day, a young woman from a place called Ramsbottom came to be healed of an enlargement of her thyroid gland. Before she came she said, “I am going to be healed of this goiter, Mother.” After one meeting she came forward and was prayed for. The next meeting she got up and testified that she had been wonderfully healed. She said, “I will be so happy to go and tell Mother about my healing.”

She went to her home and testified to her wonderful healing. The next year when we were having the convention, she came again. From a human perspective, it looked as though the goiter was just as big as ever, but that young woman was believing God. Soon she was on her feet giving her testimony, saying, “I was here last year, and the Lord wonderfully healed me. I want to tell you that this has been the best year of my life.” She seemed to be greatly blessed in that meeting, and she went home to testify more strongly than ever that the Lord had healed her.

She believed God. The third year, she was at the meeting again, and some people who looked at her said, “How big that goiter has become!” But when the time came for testimonies, she was on her feet and testified, “Two years ago, the Lord gloriously healed me of a goiter. I had a most wonderful healing. It is grand to be healed by the power of God.” That day someone questioned her and said, “People will think there is something the matter with you. Why don’t you look in the mirror? You will see that your goiter is bigger than ever.” The young woman went to the Lord about it and said, “Lord, You so wonderfully healed me two years ago. Won’t You show all the people that You healed me?” She went to sleep peacefully that night still believing God. When she came down the next day, there was not a trace or a mark of that goiter.

Thought for today: A faint heart can never have a gift. Two things are essential: first, love; second, determination—a boldness of faith that will cause God to fulfill His Word.

GREAT QUOTES from TOZER

"Trust God in the dark until the light returns." - AW Tozer

"I am convinced that many evangelicals are not truly and soundly converted. Among the evangelicals it is entirely possible to come into membership, to ooze in by osmosis, to leak through the cells of the church and never know what it means to be born of the Spirit and washed in the blood. A great deal that passes for the deeper life is nothing more or less than basic Christianity."

- AW Tozer

"Our most pressing obligation is to do all in our power to obtain a revival that will result in a reformed, revitalized, purified church."

- AW Tozer

"Though the cross of Christ has been beautified by the poet and the artist, the avid seeker after God is likely to find it the same savage implement of destruction it was in the days of old. The way of the cross is still the pain-wracked path to spiritual power and fruitfulness. So do not seek to hide from it. Do not accept an easy way. Do not allow yourself to be patted to sleep in a comfortable church, void of power and barren of fruit. Do not paint the cross nor deck it with flowers. Take it for what it is, as it is, and you will find it the rugged way to death and life. Let it slay you utterly." - AW Tozer

"The Holy Spirit did not come to make them of one accord, He came because they were of one accord. ... It is not the music that tunes your piano, it's the tuned piano that makes your music."

- AW Tozer

"Sin is a poisonous weed that throws the whole nature out of order. The inner life disintegrates; the flesh lusts after forbidden pleasures; the moral judgment is distorted so that often good appears evil and evil good; time is chosen over eternity, earth over heaven and death over life." - AW Tozer

A CALL TO ARMS, A CALL TO ARMS

Sound the Alarm yes Sound the Alarm
A Call to Arms yes a Call to Arms
For years the Watchmen have warned of things yet far away
Now the alarm is sounding for that which is upon us today.

Destruction upon destruction for the whole land is spoiled
The people have become foolish and in evil are embroiled.
O my soul the sound of trumpet the alarm of war
What vials have been opened; what from them will be poured?

Blow the trumpet in Zion and sound an alarm in My Holy Mountain
The works of the nations have been seen and the sins of the people counted.
Let the priests and the ministers of the Lord now weep
We did not keep His statutes and now the tares are more than the wheat.

Many believe we have now won a great battle and have folded their hands to sleep
But we have not as yet even entered into battle but beware the war upon us creeps.
America has but chosen a man for office and how he leads we are yet to see
And too many deluded by their bondage believe their chains make them free.

America has awakened briefly before, only to hit the Snooze and return to our sleep
Thinking there is peace and safety when there is no safety and there is no peace.
We have ignored the promise of blessing and curse for those that divide God's land
America is leading the charge with 70 nations to implement their coveted two state-plan.

Now is the time to put on the raiment proper for the conflict
Time to put on the whole armor that Yahuah provided us with Knowing the weapons of our warfare are not carnal or hidden in the shadows
But mighty through God to the pulling down of strongholds.

Strongholds that have been built for centuries
Ruled and protected by powers and principalities
Possessing many different modalities using multiple personalities
Commonalities, nationalities and political formalities to insure their finality.

That finality being known by many different names
But ignored by many and those who exposed it are shamed.
Called conspiracy theorist if you expose the New World Order
And while we sleep the enemy marches ever forward.

Some say we have received a reprieve at this moment
I say we have an opportunity and if we squander it we will lament.
For too long we have been found wanting when in the balance we were weighed
It is time to fold our hands, not to sleep but to fervently pray.

Many terrible things are ready to be released upon mankind

How you fair will depend upon with whom you are aligned,
In the midst of the darkness will burn Revival's Fire
To seek a Great Awakening is that to which we must aspire.

The Fire will light the way for those who have called upon the Living God for sight
It will be a Refiner's Fire but those unprepared and unrepentant will face an awful plight.
Those things the Watchmen warned about haven't gone away
That is why the bells are ringing and the alarm goes out today.

This is a call to those who claim His Name for revival for repentance and to pray
The enemy hasn't given up rather they are gearing up to escalate the fray.
Sound the Alarm yes Sound the Alarm
This is a Call to Arms, a Call to Arms.

The land before us has been like Eden the beautiful garden
But behind us it will be desolate if our hearts remain hardened.
We cannot claim that our hearts are not granite and hard as stone
When the unborn babes cry out from where their discarded bodies were thrown.

We cannot claim we are not stiff necked when Truth is trampled in our streets
We cannot claim our consciences are not seared when artists and leaders hold spirit feasts.
Destruction upon destruction is cried; for spoiled is the whole land
It is time for tearing down for building up and upon our knees to take our stand.

What blessings or what cursing lie before the people today?
Has not life or death been set before us as the Scriptures say?
Choose life that both thou and thy seed may live.
No greater warning, or opportunity, could Yahuah give.

Let him who has an ear hear and answer the Spirit's call
The Principalities and Powers are inciting a terrible squall
It is time to Sound the Alarm yes Sound the Alarm
Do you hear the Call to Arms, the Call to Arms?

WHAT I KNOW (Randy Conway)

I don't know much about politics or what this administration might or might not do

I don't know much about geo-engineering or why the sky suddenly isn't quite as blue

I don't know much about Trans-Humanism or what's in their DNA stew

And I don't know for sure if someday robots will rise and the world will rule.

I don't know much about mind control or if the guy next door is manipulated

I don't know much about shadow governments or what for our future they have slated

I don't know much about the economy--will it fail, be stagnated or become hyper-inflated?

And I don't know much about medicine or how many vaccines and drugs are contaminated.

I don't know a lot about Fallen Angel technologies or those who seek its power

I don't know for sure if the Large Hadron Collider is the next generation of Nimrod's Tower

I don't know a lot of theology or eschatology; are we in the final age, the final days or final hours?

And I don't know a lot about astronomy; could the earth be the target for a destructive meteor shower?

I don't know much about electronics or if Big Brother listens to my every conversation
I don't know a lot about Antarctica, if there are secrets there or just a weather station
I can't explain dimensions, the Divine Council or the mysteries of creation
I can't unravel the Babylon Code or the abomination that brings desolation.

I haven't studied military planning or when we'll engage in World War Three
I don't know why the earth is cracking or how poisoned are the seas
I've not seen the Watchers or the giants but I don't have to see in order to believe
I haven't studied physiology but it seems to me most people are deceived.

I don't know about tomorrow, if it should be anticipated or should be feared
I never heard the strange sounds reported that other people hear
But what I know is that whatever comes, my Savior promised He is always near His promises are not confusing and His love for me is clear.

I know these things all exist, are true and they are real
I know that these are facts and not beliefs or how one feels

I know tomorrow many things will come our way and we must stand as steel

And I know no one can really stand against tomorrow, rather we must kneel.

I know that God the Father sent His Son so that I might be redeemed

And the future that He has planned for me is more than I could dream

I know that I can trust in Him no matter how life seems

And above Him is no other, He is Transcendent and Supreme.

I may not have great knowledge that is envied, lofty or grand

But there is an old song I know and its lyrics state my stand

“Many things about tomorrow I don’t seem to understand

But I know who holds tomorrow and I know He holds my hand.”

“Not called!’ did you say?

‘Not heard the call,’ I think you should say.

Put your ear down to the Bible, and hear Him bid you go and pull sinners out of the fire of sin. Put your ear down to the burdened, agonized heart of humanity, and listen to its pitiful wail for help. Go stand by the gates of hell, and hear the damned entreat you to go to their father's house and bid their brothers and sisters and servants and masters not to come there. Then look Christ in the face — whose mercy you have professed to obey — and tell Him whether you will join heart and soul and body and circumstances in the march to publish His mercy to the world.”

The chief danger that confronts the coming century will be religion without the Holy Ghost, Christianity
without Christ, forgiveness without repentance, salvation
without regeneration, politics without God, heaven
without hell.

"A Prayer for Spiritual Revival":

Disturb us, Lord, to dare more boldly, To venture on wider seas Where storms will show your mastery;
Where losing sight of land, We shall find the stars.
We ask You to push back The horizons of our hopes; And to push into the future In strength, courage, hope, and love. Because we have dreamed too little, When we arrived safely Because we sailed too close to the shore. Disturb us, Lord, when With the abundance of things we possess We have lost our thirst For the waters of life; Having fallen in love with life, We have ceased to dream of eternity And in our efforts to build a new earth, We have allowed our vision Of the new Heaven to dim.

Ex-witch Beth Eckert says one of the key ways to defeat the devil when he launches an attack is to speak and pray in tongues.

However, many Christians today do not believe these are active gifts meant for modern use.

"Recently, I've decided to explore more in-depth about what speaking in tongues is versus praying in tongues and what Scripture says about those things, because I've seen so much controversy on the topic of speaking in tongues," Eckert says.

The ex-witch says most of her research comes straight from 1 Corinthians 14, which dictates how and why these gifts should be used.

Trump suggested at a White House meeting with Israeli Prime Minister Benjamin Netanyahu last week that he was open to new ways to achieve peace that did not necessarily entail the creation of a Palestinian state.

PASTOR: 'DEMONIC ACTIVITY PALPABLE' AT TRUMP RALLY

'My daughter was shaking in fear as she clung to me'

A large crowd takes photos of President Donald Trump at a rally in Melbourne, Florida, Feb. 18, 2017
(Facebook/Joel Tooley)

Despite the event opening with the Lord's Prayer, the pastor of a Melbourne, Florida, church who attended President Trump's rally in his hometown over the weekend is claiming "demonic" activity and vitriol were palpable at the event, traumatizing his 11-year-old daughter.

"I have been in places and experiences before where demonic activity was palpable," wrote Joel Tooley, pastor of the First Church of the Nazarene in Melbourne.

"The power of the Holy Spirit of God was protecting me in those moments and was once again protecting me and my daughter in this moment."

In a lengthy Facebook post, Tooley admitted he was not a personal fan of Trump, but he was excited the president of the United States was coming to his town, and he sought to share the experience with his daughter.

As he described the event, Tooley said he was unnerved by a rendition of Lee Greenwood's song "God Bless the USA," and the "almost church-like" fashion that Trump supporters sang it.

"People were being ushered into a deeply religious experience ... and it made me completely uncomfortable. I love my country; I honor those who sacrificed their lives for our freedom and I respect our history and what we stand for, but what I experienced in that moment sent shivers down my spine. I felt like people were here to worship an ideology along with the man who was leading it. Don't get me wrong, it wasn't the song per se – it was this inexplicable movement that was happening in the room. It was a religious zeal."

Like the reporting you see here? Sign up for free news alerts from WND.com, America's independent news network.

He also remarked on first lady Melania Trump's recitation of the Lord's Prayer.

"I can't explain it, but I felt sick," Tooley said. "This wasn't a prayer beseeching the presence of Almighty God, it felt theatrical and manipulative.

"People across the room were reciting it as if it were a pep squad cheer. At the close of the prayer, the room erupted in cheering. It was so uncomfortable. I observed that Mr. Trump did not recite the prayer until the very last line, 'be the glory forever and ever, amen!'"

And once the president had commenced his address, Tooley says fans of Mr. Trump confronted protesters who were also attending:

It was then that I heard two ladies off to my left chanting, not yelling or screaming but chanting, "T-R...U-M-P; that's how you spell – bigotry!" They repeated the rhyme over and over.

Two ladies in front of them began seething and screaming in their face while shaking their Trump signs at them. Another couple standing behind them started screaming at them as well. One of the chanting ladies had her eight-year-old daughter on her back; the other had a severely disabled child in a wheelchair in front of her. As they continued chanting, the people around them became violently enraged. One angry man grabbed the lady's arm – that's when I went into action. I barged through the crowd and yelled at them to back off. My heart wasn't racing; I just instinctively became a protector.

I didn't actually want a Trump sign, but one of the volunteers had shoved it into my hands as I walked through the door earlier; "Make America Great Again!" That sign probably saved someone from getting hurt. I held the sign close to my chest as I positioned myself between the chanting protesters and the angry mob. My 11-year-old daughter was clinging to my arm, sobbing in fear.

The two angry, screaming ladies looked at me, both of them raised their middle finger at me in my face and repeatedly yelled, "F*#% YOU!" Repeatedly.

I calmly responded, "No thank you, I'm happily married." Their faces and their voices were filled with demonic anger.

I have been in places and experiences before where demonic activity was palpable. The power of the Holy Spirit of God was protecting me in those moments and was once again protecting me and my daughter in this moment.

I raised my voice and calmly said, "These ladies have the right to do what they are doing and they are harming no one; this is America and they a right to express themselves in this way. They are harming no one." A couple of other people around me stepped in and supported me in protecting them as a barrier, as well.

My daughter was shaking in fear as she clung to me. The one man behind the protesters shoved himself forward, grabbed the lady by the arm and screamed with multiple expletives, "I'm going to take you out! This is my president and nobody has the right to disrespect him and nobody has the right to keep me from hearing him!"

I wish I could have captured the expressions of that man on camera. I will never forget him.

The little girl on her mother's back was crying, completely frightened. I leaned forward and reassured her in her ear, "Your mommy is being brave and we will not let these people hurt you. You are afraid because these are angry, awful people. We will not let them hurt you or your mommy. You are being so brave and your mommy is doing something very brave."

That's when another lady screamed in my face that what I was doing was un-American. I just chuckled and responded, "What I am doing is completely American – I'm standing up for people who are being bullied – it doesn't matter if I agree with them or not. You came here to see the President, now ignore these ladies, turn around and enjoy the show." Without explanation, they calm down and turned around to hear what Trump had to say.

The two protesters then moved towards the back and left the building. I got a couple of high-fives and "thanks for stepping up for them" from bystanders. I wanted to say, "Thanks. Where were you when the demons were screaming and fists were getting ready to start swinging?"

Tooley says he realized "that we were not listening to someone presidential, we were listening to someone terribly powerful. My kid was shaken – she had just seen some of the worst of humanity."

Angels and demons are very real, and so is the ongoing battle between them. Read "Spiritual Warfare" by Dr. Karl Payne

He concluded his post by noting he had the words of the Lord's Prayer echoing in his mind.

"As we left the room, these words were echoing in my mind, "Our Father, who art in heaven, Hallowed be Thy name. Thy Kingdom come, Thy will be done ....

It is an abomination to kings to commit wickedness; for the throne is established by righteousness.” Proverbs 16:12 \(The Israel Bible™\)

Hassan Nasrallah, 2013 (Photo: Stand With Us/Facebook)

In a televised speech last Sunday, Hassan Nasrallah, the Secretary General of the political and military wings of Hezbollah in Lebanon called US President Donald Trump, “an idiot” and former President Barack Obama a hypocrite. His diatribe continued as later in the week, he threatened Israel’s with missile strikes targeting its nuclear reactor.

In a televised address on the website of the al-Manar television last Sunday, Nasrallah directly insulted President Trump.

“We are very optimistic that when an idiot settles in the White House and boasts about his idiocy, this is the beginning of relief for the oppressed around the world,” Nasrallah said. He did compliment the new president, saying Trump removed former President Obama’s “mask of hypocrisy,” revealing the “racist and blood-shedding” of America.

In another address on Thursday, Nasrallah threatened that his organization’s missiles could hit any strategic site inside of Israel, including the nuclear reactor in the southern city Dimona. He warned Israel to dismantle their nuclear reactor lest it cause massive destruction after being hit by Hezbollah missiles.

Harward says no to national security adviser role

By Jim Sciutto, Ryan Browne and Jake Tapper, CNN

Updated 9:41 AM ET, Fri February 17, 2017

Story highlights

A friend of Harward's said he was reluctant to take the job because the White House seems so chaotic.

Earlier this week, Trump fired Michael Flynn as national security adviser.

(CNN) — Ret. Vice Adm. Bob Harward turned down President Donald Trump's offer to be national security adviser Thursday, depriving the administration of a top candidate for a critical foreign policy post days after Trump fired Michael Flynn.

Trump has since named Ret. Lt. Gen. Joseph Keith Kellogg, who worked under Flynn until the latter was asked to resign, as the acting national security adviser. Asked if there was a candidate for national security adviser in sight, a White House official told CNN, "Not that I'm aware of."

"Since retiring, I have the opportunity to address financial and family issues that would have been challenging in this position," Harward said in a statement. "Like all service members understand, and live, this job requires 24 hours a day, 7 days a week focus and commitment to do it right. I currently could not make that commitment. My thoughts and prayers are with those that carry such heavy burdens and responsibility for taking care of our country's national security concerns. God bless this great country of ours."

The Senate Intelligence Committee has ordered more than a dozen individuals and agencies to preserve records related to Russian interference in the 2016 U.S. elections.

According to the Associated Press, a congressional aide confirmed that the committee had sent formal requests that all materials related to Russian meddling be preserved.

The AP notes that the letters were a bi-partisan affair with both the panel's chairmen, Richard Burr (R-N.C.), and vice chairman Mark Warner (D-Va.) signing on.

The Friday letters come on the heels of a closed door meeting with FBI Director James Comey who spent nearly three hours answering questions Friday afternoon in a secure room in the Senate basement used for classified briefings.

Pres. Donald Trump is coming under increasing scrutiny for his administration's ties to Russia and reports that his campaign staff were repeatedly in contact with Russian intelligence officials during the 2016 campaign.

There are currently three active FBI investigations involving Russia and its attempts to sway the 2016 election in Trump's favor.

Ukraine's Referendum to Join NATO: A Vote for NATO will be a Vote For War

By Christopher Black

Global Research, February 18, 2017
New Eastern Outlook 17 February 2017

Region: Europe, Russia and FSU
Theme: US NATO War Agenda

The massive artillery bombardment of the peoples of the Donbass, that has been raining down shells and fire on them since Christmas, is a war crime of horrific proportions designed to terrorise the people and bring their refusal to be subject to the NATO-installed regime in Kiev to an end. It is also becoming clear that it has a political purpose, which is to increase anti-Russian, pro-NATO propaganda among the Ukrainian people to influence them to vote to join NATO in a referendum, the consequences of which will be dramatic because a vote for NATO will be a vote for war.

On Thursday, February 9, the Frankfurter Allgemeine, of the Funke Mediengruppe newspaper chain, reported that the claimed president of Ukraine, Mr. Poroshenko, intends to hold a referendum on NATO membership. Poroshenko referred to recent opinion polls that indicate 54 per cent of Ukrainians now want to join NATO as opposed to 16 per cent before the NATO-backed coup put his puppet regime in power. This change in opinion is a direct result of the aggression of the Kiev regime against the peoples of eastern Ukraine that refuse to accept the legitimacy or anti-Russian policies of that regime and its fascist allies, which resistance is turned upside down by the western propagandists and described as Russian aggression against Ukraine.

The continuous violations of the Minsk ceasefire accords and the refusal by Kiev to adhere to the steps to be taken to grant the Donbass republics autonomy and protect the rights of their peoples as stipulated in the Minsk agreements, including the right not to be attacked, are shrugged off as irrelevant in the face of the supposed aggression from the east.

In line with this propaganda, the NATO powers lay all the blame on Russia and portray Ukraine as a helpless victim. The minds of Ukrainians are manipulated to induce them to vote to join NATO; create the circumstances of war, falsely identify the attacked as the attackers, raise fears of "aggression" from Russia, drive the people into seeking the protection of the NATO war alliance.

Poroshenko stated,

As President, I am guided by the views of my people and I will hold a referendum on the issue of NATO membership.

Moscow (CNN) — The US military has released several photos of what it says were Russian fighter jets "buzzing" the deck of a US warship in the Black Sea last week.

The images of SU-24 fighter jets off the bow of the American guided missile destroyer USS Porter emerged as the commander of the US military arrived in Baku, Azerbaijan, to meet with his Russian counterpart.

Russian provocation: Bluster or genuine peril?

By Tim Lister, CNN

Updated 7:18 PM ET, Fri February 17, 2017

(CNN) — There's a Russian spy ship off the coast of Connecticut. Crammed with eavesdropping equipment, the Viktor Leonov has loitered in these waters before, but its current visit is the latest in a string of provocations.

The last few years have seen dangerous Russian "fly-bys" of US warships, close encounters in the skies, when Russian military aircraft have flown with transponders switched off, and the occasional Russian submarine hiding in Swedish waters.

Related Video: Russian spy ship lurks off Connecticut coast 01:21

Earlier this month, according to the Pentagon, four Russian jets flew in an "unsafe and unprofessional" manner near a U.S. Navy destroyer in the Black Sea. Perhaps the Leonov's visit was a message: "If you turn up on our coast ..."

Such provocative acts could easily lead to unintended consequences at a time when, according to Russian Foreign Minister Sergei Lavrov, channels for avoiding misunderstandings are frozen.

And that risk also applies in Syria, where Russian and US bombers fly above a fluid battlefield in pursuit of very different objectives.

In recent years, Russia's military has become more assertive and more capable, directed by the Kremlin to probe for weaknesses, sow uncertainty and exploit opportunities.

Is Russia's obsession with Trump waning?

California City Erects 'Prison Camp' To Deal With Homeless

There are two major problems that come to mind, explains SHTFPlan.com's Mac Slavo; first, the level of homelessness, poverty and idle populations in California and across the country, and second, the divided world between the 1% and the struggling 99% is coming to a head.

Economically, things are very close to the brink, and there are far too many people who've given up at the individual level. This crisis has given the impetus for cities like Santa Ana to take drastic action.

The other side of the coin, is that if they can do this to homeless vagrants, and out of work families, they can do it to anyone. If civil unrest comes, perhaps in combination with mass unemployment, a crashed stock market and monetary system and great misery, those keeping society in check will feel compelled to come down with a heavy hand. People will be rounded up, some of them unfairly. Entire communities can be disrupted, or forced under an emergency to evacuate and take shelter in FEMA centers while the cities become off limits. There are a lot of things that can happen - including to hard working, employment, head-above-water American families.

When this thing starts to unravel, making do in the current atmosphere won't cut it; in the aftermath of what is coming, many people will be desperate. Tent cities and migrating Americans looking for temporary work will return; millions more will flock to government welfare programs, and be dragged into the dregs of collectivist measure to ride out bad times. They are moving to sweep up the disarray of a society that is crumbling, and a financial landscape that is no longer survivable for a wide sector of the general population.

Trump declares media 'the enemy of the American people'

US President Donald Trump has ratcheted up his verbal assault on the media, describing it as "the enemy of the American people" in a tweet.

Shortly after landing at his holiday home in Florida - where he is spending a third consecutive weekend - the president lashed out at several news organisations.

"The FAKE NEWS media (failing @nytimes, @NBCNews, @ABC, @CBS, @CNN) is not my enemy, it is the enemy of the American People!" he wrote on Friday.

Trump had posted an earlier tweet that took aim at the New York Times, CNN, NBC "and many more" media organisations - and ended it with the exclamation "SICK!"

But he swiftly deleted that before tweeting the final version, adding two more "enemies" to his list.

Sen. John McCain (R-Ariz.) on Saturday defended the free press following criticism by President Trump, warning that a suppression of an "adversarial" press can lead to a dictatorial regime.

When asked about the president's tweet from Friday that accused the media of being the "enemy of the American people," McCain took the opportunity to underscore the importance of free press in the modern era.

"A fundamental part of that new world order was a free press. I hate the press, I hate you especially, but the fact is we need you, we need a free press," McCain told Chuck Todd in an interview on NBC's "Meet the Press."

"That's how dictators get started," he added later. "They get started by suppressing free press. In other words, a consolidation of power."

"I am not saying that President Trump is trying to be a dictator. I am just saying we need to learn the lessons of history," he said, warning about any attempts to "shut down" the press.

Trump ratcheted up his attacks on media this week, referring to "fake news media" as "the enemy of the American people."

"The FAKE NEWS media (failing @nytimes, @NBCNews, @ABC, @CBS, @CNN) is not my enemy, it is the enemy of the American People!" he tweeted.

U.S. Vice President Mike Pence on Saturday brought a message of support for Europe from Donald Trump, but failed to wholly reassure allies worried about the new president's stance on Russia and the European Union.

In Pence's first major foreign policy address for the Trump administration, he told European leaders that he spoke for Trump when he promised "unwavering" commitment to the NATO alliance.

"Today, on behalf of President Trump, I bring you this assurance: the United States of America strongly supports NATO and will be unwavering in our commitment to this transatlantic alliance," Pence told the Munich Security Conference, offering "greetings" from the president.

But he also repeated U.S. calls for more defense spending in return: "As you keep faith with us, under President Trump we will always keep faith with you."

Behold, I send you forth as sheep in the midst of wolves: be ye therefore wise as serpents, and harmless as doves.

Matt. 10:16

(I realize that there are differing views on these things, but I ask that we listen to what the Holy Spirit is saying at this time, and not be swayed by our own opinions. We need to be on our guard like at no other time in history. It is so easy to be deceived. Keep your eyes open. Amen.)

Several times now the Lord has said this to me:

"Things are not as they seem. There are lies spreading everywhere. You will be left defenseless America, for you are not prepared and ready for what is coming. Everything has been set-up for show, and this man in office now, will do as he pleases. Be careful to not follow the crowd. For I have said that if possible, the very elect could be deceived.

There are things being arranged; there are adjustments being made. One can go through all of the motions to "seem right," but in the end it becomes a self-serving principle.

Pt 1 Listen! The Lion Roars! The birds take flight. You can see the beasts of the earth running.

Look at the sky-it's clear. Shhhhhh. Listen! I hear thunder. I know-How can there be thunder? the sky is clear.

I know, but it looks strange. Something's not right. I have a peculiar feeling. Look over there-it looks like it's Lightning. I think we should go inside-it's lightning and thundering to the east.

I'm going to put the news on to see if something is going on. The newsman says "the lightning and thunder can be Heard and seen all over the world. The lightning is causing fires everywhere."

What's that? It looks like airplanes. I don't know, but I can hear sirens. No, there is something else! Yes, I hear it.

It sounds like a trumpet blowing. Did you hear that???? The news says the government has ordered our planes up. They are tracking something on the radar. Let's go down the street and look at the national guard armory. I can see the trucks coming up the road. I think we Should go over to the store now. The local news just cut in and said the schools are all being let out early. All the national Guard units are on alert. I'm going to stop at the bank first. Hurry up so we can get back before the kids come home.

Pt 2

We'd better hurry! The place looks jammed already. Put the news on. I can't. The tv stations are all off the air.

I'll try the radio. There's nothing. It's off the air too. I think I know what's going on. Let's get what we need and get home.

Look! None of the street lights are working. We will have to take the back roads. See if your cell phone works. No-it's dead.

I can feel the earth shaking. Remember that earthquake we had? The doors were moving and the pictures. I think this is What the Bible calls "the end of time" when Jesus returns, or The Day of the Lord. They say it will be a regular day.

No one knows when, but the signs are all available to see for those with eyes, and those with ears can hear the warnings.

I guess God gave warnings like He did in the time of Noah, and no one listened. They all laughed at the warnings.

God (?) made fun of it until it started to rain. Guess what? I think it's raining.

Barb adds:

That's very intriguing. It's a glimpse. It's going to be a regular day. The Second Coming of Christ- no one is going to expect it,

Just like the Day of Noah. Everyone was just going about their regular business...

You know time is short when I'm getting a prophecy like this about The Day of the Lord and the Second Coming of Jesus.

Isa 13:1-16

The burden against Babylon which Isaiah the son of Amoz saw.

2 "Lift up a banner on the high mountain,
Raise your voice to them; Wave your hand,
that they may enter the gates of the nobles.

3 I have commanded My sanctified ones; I have also called My mighty ones for My anger — Those who rejoice in My exaltation."

4 The noise of a multitude in the mountains,
Like that of many people! A tumultuous noise of the kingdoms of nations gathered together! The Lord of hosts musters The army for battle. 5 They come from a far country, From the end of heaven — The Lord and His weapons of indignation, To destroy the whole land.

6 Wail, for the day of the Lord is at hand! It will come as destruction from the Almighty.

7 Therefore all hands will be limp, Every man's heart will melt, 8 And they will be afraid. Pangs and sorrows will take hold of them; They will be in pain as a woman in childbirth; They will be amazed at one another; Their faces will be like flames.

9 Behold, the day of the Lord comes, Cruel, with both wrath and fierce anger, To lay the land desolate; And He will destroy its sinners from it. 10 For the stars of heaven and their constellations Will not give their light; The sun will be darkened in its going forth, And the moon will not cause its light to shine.

11 "I will punish the world for its evil, And the wicked for their iniquity; I will halt the arrogance of the proud, And will lay low the haughtiness of the terrible. 12 I will make a mortal more rare than fine gold, A man more than the golden wedge of Ophir. 13 Therefore I will shake the heavens, And the earth will move out of her place, In the wrath of the Lord of hosts And in the day of His fierce anger. 14 It shall be as the hunted gazelle, And as a sheep that no man takes up; Every man will turn to his own people, And everyone will flee to his own land. 15 Everyone who is found will be thrust through, And everyone who is captured will fall by the sword. 16 Their children also will be dashed to pieces before their eyes; Their houses will be plundered And their wives ravished.

Yes.

The scripture says "I SAW THE BRIDE coming down as the New Jerusalem" So this is simply saying that the Bride of Jesus, also known as the "remnant", the "remnant Bride", the "Wise Virgins" (ref. Matthew 25,) the holy and righteous believers (ref. Eph 5:27) are essentially in a glorified condition and residents of the New Jerusalem.

If you go back to Terri Hill's last radio show, she does a fabulous job of explaining this dynamic which reveals a wide range of Bible mysteries including why SOME of the people are not assigned to go into the New Millennium.

That mystery is capture in these verses here:

Rev 20:4-6

The Saints Reign with Christ 1000 Years

4 And I saw thrones, and they sat on them, and judgment was committed to them. Then I saw the souls of those who had been beheaded for their witness to Jesus and for the word of God, who had not worshiped the beast or his image, and had not received his mark on their foreheads or on their hands. And they lived and reigned with Christ for a thousand years. 5 But the rest of the dead (The Saints in Heaven, e.g., the Bride) did not live again (they stayed in Heaven) until the thousand years were finished. This is the first resurrection (Note: the first resurrection is the "rapture"). NKJV

I hope this is a little helpful
God bless you

Johnny I have run into alot of pastors and some well known and others who say the bride of Christ is new Jerusalem, a place, not the remnant. Is this one of those times when scripture uses a place interchangeably with the people it represents? I mean I've looked up scriptures to show that the bride cannot just be the place. Its symbolism. He is also called the bridegroom and then there is the marriage supper of the Lamb. These people seem to know the scriptures but yet they don't see that He's not betrothed to a city but its people that will reside there. Why are they blind to that? Its right there in their faces. I mean I myself have been looking at these scriptures myself and see it. I'm no theologian Johnny. I'm not trying to be ugly about this but these are people that stop short and don't look at the whole picture.

Yes brother. Always please remember that the devil hijacks everything from our Father God. The more it belongs to God the more He hijacks and contorts it so the sheep will say "that's of the devil" and run away.

11:11 is our Father's way to signal to us. He is calling our attention to our soon departure our soon rapture our soon ascension to heaven. The new Agers don't ascend brother, they "descend". See? It's OUR signal not theirs

The ancient Chaldeans also saw 11:11 as a sign of very very bad dark times. Well that's also true. Since once we ascend, Jacobs Trouble (the Great Tribulation) pummels the earth.

So we have to see past the deception, know who really ascends and who doesn't, and then we can "take back" our Father's spiritual provisions for our use as they were originally intended.

God bless you

John,

Hope you are well brother and having a great Saturday! I just wanted to tell you something that's been happening to me all week and ask you your opinion on it.

I'm seeing 11:11 every single day now. It's really getting crazy brother it's like I'm automatically prompted to look at the clock every single time. It happens in the morning and at night if I'm awake. It's really weird. I heard you mention something about it on a show recently and wanted to know your thoughts. All my research is kind of getting into New Age.

However, to make it even more wild one time I saw it and was researching it and I prayed to God and asked what it means. I was then prompted to look at Jeremiah 11:11

Jeremiah 11:11 KJV

[11] Therefore thus saith the Lord , Behold, I will bring evil upon them, which they shall not be able to escape; and though they shall cry unto me, I will not hearken unto them.

So all the research I was doing was bringing me to New Age type responses and made it out to be something positive then I'm brought to this verse.

Any thoughts?

GOD BLESS YOU!

11:11 CONFIRMATION

It is the glory of God to conceal a matter, but the glory of kings is to search out a matter(Proverbs 25:2).

When we search out a matter that is a spiritual mystery to us, we must rely upon the Holy Spirit to unravel or untie the full message that has been sent. For years I used to see the numbers 11-11 on a continual basis, to a point where it seemed like it was being supernaturally impressed before me. Whenever I randomly happened to look at a clock it would say 11:11. Over time the Holy Spirit explained to me that He was using this particular set of numbers to confirm to me that I was walking in His plan for my life and all was well. Those numbers would pop in the most unexpected places and bring an outward confirmation to an inward leading that I felt was of the Lord. The Lord was working to give me a double witness both inwardly by His Holy Spirit and outwardly through these numbers that I was in His perfect will.

My friend Wade Taylor, who has now gone on to heaven, used to have the continual experience of finding a penny every time he was at a specific place where the Lord wanted Him to be. At times we would eat at a restaurant and talk about the goodness of God and discuss certain spiritual topics that we both enjoyed. Once finished with our meal and before getting up to leave, Wade would look on the floor and pick up a lost penny. He would smile and say, "I always find a penny when I am where the Lord wants me to be."

Ya know what's really fascinating Terri, is that in Pastor Sori Parks' visit to heaven and vision, he was shown that NASA comes forward to tell the whole world that "Aliens" too the people who were actually raptured.

I find this amazing. I wonder if this is "counter intelligence" being used by "the Devil" to trick the entire general population of the world about a program that doesn't really exist so that when they announce this after the rapture, everyone will say OHHH YEAH PROJECT BLUE BEAM

It will be quite interesting to see how this all unfolds. My "guess" is that we will be at the marriage supper by then LOL

After a huge globally publicized deliverance of a possessed woman in the Philippines, on international radio, the demons came back into the woman a day or two later:

This is a quote of what happened next:

. I ordered the demons to tell me why they had returned. They spoke in English through her lips, "She has not asked us to go. She wants us. It is only you who desires for us to leave." Again I demanded that they leave her. Clarita told me they were gone through the window. I explained to her why they returned and told her to tell them to leave and never return. She did. Then, I led her in prayer, pleading the blood of Jesus against them. It was about noon. Clarita was weak from the ordeal. I told the prison officials to let her rest and to give her food. As I was leaving, I said, "Clarita, I am sure these devils will return again. After I am gone, they will come. Then you must order them to leave without my being present to help you. You must say, 'Go, in Jesus' name,' and they will obey." With that, I left the prison compound.

Food For Thought
by George Davis

In 1949 the communist revolution marked the end of all missionary efforts in China. All foreign missionaries were expelled. After the communist takeover the Chinese government bitterly attacked the Church in China, driving it underground.

For 25 years China was closed to any outside "Christian" influences. Little information filtered through the tight-knit bamboo curtain. All remaining Christian leaders were rounded up wholesale and were either imprisoned or killed outright. Everything that was considered "Christian" was destroyed, church building, bibles, hymnals, everything. For 25 years a holocaust far exceeding that, inflicted on the Jews by Nazi Germany, ensued. It is estimated that about 27 million died during this purging.

In 1978 Deng Xiaoping came into power and China opened her borders once again. The western world stood in breathless anticipation. What would they find in the aftermath of such a horrible slaughter? Missionaries from around the world stood ready, poised in anxious intrepidity. Would there even be one surviving believer? Nothing could have possibly prepared them for what they were about to see!

After 25 years of horrendous persecution the missionaries returned to find that the church in China had not been obliterated, as many had feared, but that they had grown in number from the estimated one million believers before the 1949 revolution, to about 30 million. The contrast was amazing! What had caused such unprecedented growth? How could this be? Not only had they grown numerically but they had grown spiritually. The tales of their devotion to Christ are nothing short of inspirational. Most bewildering is the fact that this unparalleled growth occurred without the aid of any of those things that are thought to be essential in denominational churches today. Without the aid of professional pastors/priests, church buildings, bibles, Sunday-school materials, homilies, hymnals and mass gatherings, the Church in China has grown numerically and spiritually to be the most victorious expression of Christ's Church on the earth today. By all accounts, nothing like it has existed since the early Church. The very gates of hell could not prevail against her!

Makes you think doesn't it?

"The Third World War must be fomented by taking advantage of the differences caused by the "agentur" of the "Illuminati" between the political Zionists and the leaders of Islamic World. The war must be conducted in such a way that Islam (the Moslem Arabic World) and political Zionism (the State of Israel) mutually destroy each other. Meanwhile the other nations, once more divided on this issue will be constrained to fight to the point of complete physical, moral, spiritual and economical exhaustion...We shall unleash the Nihilists and the atheists, and we shall provoke a formidable social cataclysm which in all its horror will show clearly to the nations the effect of absolute atheism, origin of savagery and of the most bloody turmoil. Then everywhere, the citizens, obliged to defend themselves against the world minority of revolutionaries, will exterminate those destroyers of civilization, and the multitude, disillusioned with Christianity, whose deistic spirits will from that moment be without compass or direction, anxious for an ideal, but without knowing where to render its adoration, will receive the true light through the universal manifestation of the pure doctrine of Lucifer, brought finally out in the public view. This manifestation will result from the general reactionary movement which will follow the destruction of Christianity and atheism, both conquered and exterminated at the same time."

- A Second Century Letter to Diognetus

He writes “Christians are distinguished from other men neither by country, nor language”, living in such places “as the lot of each of them has determined, and following the customs of the natives in respect to clothing, food, and the rest of their ordinary conduct, they display to us their wonderful and confessedly striking method of life. They dwell in their own countries, but simply as sojourners. As citizens, they share in all things with others, and yet endure all things as if foreigners. Every foreign land is to them as their native country, and every land of their birth as a land of strangers.... They pass their days on earth, but they are citizens of heaven. They obey the prescribed laws, and at the same time surpass the laws by their lives... they are reviled and bless”. Then, speaking of God, he says, He, “who is almighty, the Creator of all things,... has sent from heaven, and placed among men, Him who is the truth, and the holy and incomprehensible Word, and has firmly established Him in their hearts.

I saw a very gorgeous mansion, then a certain man was coming out, I knew he had been a pastor on earth. In heaven, they told me, the reason why he had a large and beautiful mansion in heaven, was primarily his giving & helping the needy and the poor, and his praying. These provided materials for his mansion in heaven.

They also explained to me, That different works we do on earth carry different weights in heaven, what God values and esteem high is very much different from what people think, they told me, the works we do that are unnoticed, behind the scenes, that people don't know about and unappreciated are the works that God values more, the works we do out of a pure heart and selfless love, they have great reward in heaven. Then I saw it as GOD sees, what is really important to God, that we must not look for appreciating & reward from men but God, also God values what we do in private than what we do in public.

I looked over the City, the bright lights, the golden doors of mansions facing east, the majestic palace, the mansions and houses, the transparent streets of gold, the chariots travelling around, the children playing, saints talking and walking, the gardens, I said "Wow, Heaven is so wonderful". # LINK ANGELS

It was during that last visit to California that one of the incidents happened that started me on the road to accepting Christ, started me questioning Satan's claim to being more powerful than God. The high priest gathered a number of us together and told us that there was a family nearby who had been interfering with Satan. They had been converting a number of the cult members to the enemy, Jesus Christ, and were making a nuisance of themselves. Satan had given the order for them all to be killed. The high priest told us that we were all to go together in our spirit bodies (astral project), and kill them. So, we sat down in a circle with our candles in front of us and consciously left our bodies going in our spirits to the house to destroy these people. I was not at all enthusiastic about the project, but had no choice. If I had disobeyed I would have been killed.

Much to our surprise, as we arrived at the edge of this family's property, we could go no further. The whole area was surrounded by huge angels. The angels stood side by side holding hands. They were dressed in long white robes and stood so close together that their shoulders touched. They had no armor or weapons. Nobody could get through them, no matter how we tried. Any kind of weapon used merely bounced off of them doing them no harm. They laughed at us at first, daring us to come ahead and try to get through them. The other cult members got more and more furious with each passing moment. Suddenly their countenances changed and the fierce look from their eyes made all of us fall backwards onto the ground. A very humbling experience, I might add!

I will never forget — as I sat on the ground looking up at them, one of the angels looked directly into my eyes and said to me in the most loving voice I had ever heard, "Won't you please accept Jesus as your Lord? If you pursue the course you are taking you will be destroyed. Satan really hates you, but Jesus loves you so much that He died for you. Please consider turning your life over to Jesus." That was the end of the battle for me. I refused to try any longer to get through. I was very shaken. The others tried for awhile longer, but none succeeded. I doubt the family ever knew of the battle going on outside their house. They were completely protected! We called this particular type of special angels "link angels." Absolutely nothing can get through them. I was secretly thankful that we did not get through and the link angels had given me much to think about.

PRAYING THROUGH

What it means to Pray Through

Personal experiences in the availing and prevailing' intercessory ministry of Sister E. J. Dabney, as related in an interview and through letters to Sarah Foulkes Moore.

My first acquaintance with Sister Dabney was gained through letters which she sent to a friend from Norfolk, Va., describing the prayer revival which the Lord gave her in that southern city. These letters so stirred me that I made carbon copies of them and mailed them out to prayer group leaders in Los Angeles. AH who read the letters were given a new vision of what it really means to "pray through." Later, Sister Dabney came to Pastor Couche's Church at 33rd and Compton, Los Angeles, where in a prayer revival of a few weeks, God saved almost 200 souls and baptised as many with the Holy Ghost and fire.

Sister Dabney is a sister who makes prayer a business. If she sleeps at all, it is to be refreshed to resume her day and night vigils of prayer and waiting on God. She confines herself to one simple meal a day. She never indulges in any personal friendships, nor does she have light conversation with anyone. Usually she comes quietly to a meeting an hour before the time announced and begins to pray. When the meeting is over she slips quietly away to her room where her REAL ministry of travail for the deliverance of souls is carried on, far into the night.

In an interview Sister Dabney revealed how she came to enter this effective work for God and for souls. Her husband is a preacher. He was sent from a prosperous church in Philadelphia to labour in a poor one. At their first meeting no one was present but themselves. She saw it was going to be a difficult field for it was in the most wicked part of the city. She was made to know that nothing but prayer would touch the situation. She determined to give herself to prayer. She made a vow to God that if He would send sinners to that place and save them, she would give herself three days and three nights each week in the Church to prayer for three years. She vowed during two of these years to fast as well as pray. When she first told her husband of her intentions, he was unwilling to have her spend three days and nights each week in the mission alone in prayer. But the Lord made him to know it was of Him so he took her the next morning early to the river side where she knelt and made her vow unto the Lord.

As soon as this little wife of a hard-pressed minister began to pray alone in her husband's mission, God began to work. Sinners were sent in and soon their little hall was crowded out. Her husband asked her to pray for a larger place. God moved a merchant out of a nicer and larger building across the street and gave them this building. As she continued to pray day and night three days a week in her husband's new church it, too, was crowded out. Again her husband asked her to pray for a larger church. She did and God gave them a fine large church on a main boulevard in the same neighbourhood. Always the meetings were packed out and souls were delivered from sin and believers baptised in multitudes.

One morning at the church door as she was entering to keep her vow of prayer the Lord met her and said, "Go Home." But she did not want to go home. She wanted to pray. Then He asked her if she knew what day it was. She felt led to open her purse and read her vow and discovered from the date on the vow that she had exactly completed the three years she had given to God for prayer. Even though the Lord had shown her that her vow had been fulfilled, she wanted to go into the church and adore and worship Him, but He said again, "Go Home."

She obeyed, everything about her seeming to praise and worship the Lord. When she got home the Lord drew her inside. Her soul was exalting in His Presence. Then He said to her "Go to the basement." She was afraid of the dark basement and hesitated. Why should the Lord ask her to go to such a place? She said, "Lord, if you are going to take me home to glory, first let me see my husband and son." She was afraid the Lord was going to take her home in the midst of all this rejoicing. But she put on perfectly new pumps and went to the basement. Instead of darkness it was filled with a wondrous light. Then the Lord spoke to her again and said, "You have prayed through. Now I have come to bless you."

From the ceiling a fountain poured forth living water and this water rose higher and higher until it engulfed her. The joy and the presence of the Lord was so gloriously manifest to her that she began to dance. The Lord told her wherever she went and prayed He would deliver sinners from their sins, and fill believers with the Holy Spirit. She danced the heels and toes off her brand-new pumps.

This happened six years ago, and God has kept His word. Wherever Sister Dabney goes and gives herself to prayer, sinners are delivered and the saints are filled with the Holy Ghost and fire Thus the Lord mightily anointed her to pray. She does not preach but only counsels saints and sinners to seek the Lord till He is found. The following letters written in the midst of her prayer revival in Norfolk, Va., give an intimate insight into her life of prevailing prayer, Syrian refugee mothers suffering in makeshift camps across Turkey have expressed a belief that God has "forgotten" them and only cares for Americans, a Christian missionary has revealed.

A Christian leader based in Turkey whose ministry provides aid in unofficial refugee camps shared with Christian Aid Mission that often, Syrian mothers bring their children to aid workers and ask missionaries to pray over them.

"They bring their children to us for prayer," he said. "We ask, 'What would you like us to pray for your child?' They say, 'May they grow up to live a better life, and be healthy.'"

"They are more concerned about their children and ask us for milk, baby food and blankets for their little ones," the director added, explaining that while they have little hope for their own lives, the mothers hope their children will be able to live a better life someday.

The ministry director shared the story of one Syrian woman, whose husband had died fighting for Syrian government forces battling Islamist insurgents. She and her three children, a teen boy and twin 4-year-olds, had gone to Istanbul, Turkey where they begged in order to survive.

Iran Now Has One of Fastest Growing Christian Population As More Muslims Are Having Dreams and Visions of Jesus

By PRECY DUMLAO (email protected) Dec 08, 2015 06:53 PM EST 4 Comments

Despite severe persecution and acts of terror from ISIS headlining the front pages, Christianity remains strong and is, in fact, a fast growing religion in Iran - one of the most hardline Islamic countries in the world today.

In a report from CBN, wherein the interviewees - Iranians visiting Kurdistan - have requested anonymity for their protection, former Muslims are revealing that many are coming to Jesus through supernatural dreams and visions. The dreams are giving them hope amidst the desperation and hardship facing many in the Islamic Republic today.

"Dennis," one such ex-Muslim who had converted to Christianity after having a dream about Jesus, admits that desperation in Iran is driving more people to run to Christ as the answer to their predicament.

"Yes, many people are coming to Christ through a dream. You cannot imagine how Jesus is appearing to them...You know the experience that the Iranian people are passing through right now is very difficult. The only one who can change that situation is Christ Himself," Dennis said.

INTENSIFIED PREVAILING PRAYER

Intensified prevailing prayer is God's ordained law and method for implementing His redemptive plan in this age till Jesus returns. It is the highest, holiest, and mightiest effort of which a child of God is capable. It is God's chosen way to bring heaven's power, heaven's resources, and heaven's angels into action on earth.

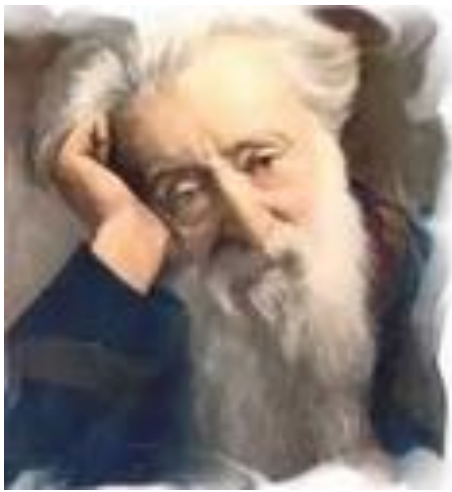

Spurgeon says, "He who knows how to overcome with God in prayer has heaven and earth at his disposal." 1 Intensified prayer is clothed with the might of God Himself.

“Not called!' did you say?

'Not heard the call,' I think you should say.

Put your ear down to the Bible, and hear Him bid you go and pull sinners out of the fire of sin. Put your ear down to the burdened, agonized heart of humanity, and listen to its pitiful wail for help. Go stand by the gates of hell, and hear the damned entreat you to go to their father's house and bid their brothers and sisters and servants and masters not to come there. Then look Christ in the face — whose mercy you have professed to obey — and tell Him whether you will join heart and soul and body and circumstances in the march to publish His mercy to the world.”

Humility in Daily Life

00- Humility by Andrew Murray – Tribulation Now

(6 minutes)

If someone says, 'I love God,' but hates a Christian brother or sister, that person is a liar; for if we don't love people we can see, how can we love God, whom we have not seen? (1 John 4:20) Here's a sobering thought:

God measures our love for Him by the love we show our brothers and sisters in every day fellowship with them. It is a serious thing to realize that our love for God just isn't genuine if it fails the test of daily life with our fellow human beings. The same thing is true with humility. It is easy to think we humble ourselves before God. But humility before people is the only real proof that our humility before God is more than just a figment of our imagination. It is the only true evidence that humility has made a home in our hearts and become our nature. How can we know that we, like Christ, have made ourselves of no reputation? By the reality check of daily life. When in God's presence humility has become more than just a feeling we have when we think about Him or pray, but instead the very Spirit of our lives, it will show itself in the way we treat our brothers and sisters.

OSWALD CHAMBERS

My Unstoppable Determination for His Holiness. “Whether it means life or death—it makes no difference!” (see 1:21). Paul was determined that nothing would stop him from doing exactly what God wanted. But before we choose to follow God’s will, a crisis must develop in our lives. This happens because we tend to be unresponsive to God’s gentler nudges. He brings us to the place where He asks us to be our utmost for Him and we begin to debate. He then providentially produces a crisis where we have to decide—for or against. That moment becomes a great crossroads in our lives. If a crisis has come to you on any front, surrender your will to Jesus absolutely and irrevocably. E

Will You Go Without Knowing?

Will You Go Out Without Knowing?

"He went out, not knowing where he was going" (Hebrews 11:8).

Have you ever "gone out" in this way? If so, there is no logical answer possible when anyone asks you what you are doing. One of the most difficult questions to answer in Christian work is, "What do you expect to do?" You don't know what you are going to do. The only thing you know is that God knows what He is doing. Continually examine your attitude toward God to see if you are willing to "go out" in every area of your life, trusting in God entirely. It is this attitude that keeps you in constant wonder, because you don't know what God is going to do next. Each morning as you wake, there is a new opportunity to "go out," building your confidence in God. ". . . do not worry about your life . . . nor about the body . . ." (Luke 12:22). In other words, don't worry about the things that concerned you before you did "go out."

Have you been asking God what He is going to do? He will never tell you. God does not tell you what He is going to do—He reveals to you who He is. Do you believe in a miracle-working God, and will you "go out" in complete surrender to Him until you are not surprised one iota by anything He does?

Believe God is always the God you know Him to be when you are nearest to Him. Then think how unnecessary and disrespectful worry is! Let the attitude of your life be a continual willingness to "go out" in dependence upon God, and your life will have a sacred and inexpressible charm about it that is very satisfying to Jesus. You must learn to "go out" through your convictions, creeds, or experiences until you come to the point in your faith where there is nothing between yourself and God.

Nation of Idolaters

Oh America, America, Nation of Idolaters – how I have longed to draw you close to Me, but you would not. You have preferred your sins to My Ways. You have preferred your entertainments to My Holy Word. You care nothing at all for the mighty God who established you, on whose foundations your nation was established.

The time approaches when you will cry out for Me and desire My help. Nations from afar shall attack you and enter your borders. Their armies will destroy your people and you shall not rise again, for you have turned back from Me and refused to repent.

Oh America, I desired a better end for you, but you would not. Your judgments are quickly approaching, and your people will cry and beg for mercy, but they have turned from Me to do only wickedness and I shall not help them. Only My own who know Me will receive My help in that time.

America will be no more.

Danger

In times to come, deceptions of a special kind shall abound. Betrayal, even by those closest to you, will become commonplace.

My people shall face much danger as the end draws nearer, as your faith in Me will be on threat of your life. The enemy of your souls seeks to remove faith in Me and My Word from the earth. One who serves him shall gain much power and attempt to do this. He shall have a measure of success.

When this happens, hold onto your faith in your hearts, and do not despair of what you see for the end does come, but all scripture must needs be fulfilled.

Ready for War

My children, prepare for the war that is coming to America. This will not be a war fought in other countries, but a war fought in your own streets. You will see many you know die before your eyes.

There is dissension brewing in the heart of America, and it will soon boil over. America, though greeted by smiles, also has many enemies. The combination of the two shall be her downfall.

My people are not ready for war, for they hesitate even at using the weapons I have left them in My Word. They are a people faint of heart, unaccustomed to seeing bloodshed, and not courageous for battle.

My people, do you not know I am a God of War? Do you not know I am coming back for the final battle against all evil? Why then do you shy away from the battle before you? Why are My churches filled with smiling imposters, who cannot even face their own sins? How do you plan to survive what is on its way to you? Do you think courage shall suddenly overtake you and you will be filled with faith?

My servant David did not learn faith and courage from doing nothing, but from battling the enemies he met on the way to where he was going. First the lion, then the bear, then the armies who came against Israel.

If you have no courage now, you will have no courage then, and you will fall to the hands of the enemy. Do not be foolish in believing otherwise.

My Remnant

My Remnant in the earth is very small. I desire I would have a great remnant, but it is not so. Those who truly walk with Me, who truly sacrifice for Me, who truly put Me first in all things, are very small in number.

Many believe they are part of My Remnant that are not part. They shall not be protected in what is coming because they do not truly know Me. They make no time for Me, they make no sacrifices to serve Me, they do not put Me first in their lives.

In what is coming, those who think they are Mine will expect many concessions that will not appear, for I do not know them.

Oh My children, be sure of your heart, be sure of your walk. Make time for Me now, for later will be too late for you if you do not.

Walk in wisdom now, and be glad later.

Matthew 24:4

Donald Trump's Presidential Term Will be Cut Short

JANUARY 25, 2017 1:05 AM BY KEVIN MIRASI 15 COMMENTS

The LORD made me know that Donald Trump's Presidential term will be cut Short; by an episode (an occurrence) of sort. That's why Barack Obama will essentially have been the last U.S.A President to have served his full term.

Donald Trump is in (has been put in), to usher in The Latter Rain of Revival in The United States of America. This (The Latter Rain of Revival) will be Short-lived though; just like the Morning Dew.

The LORD will use him (Donald Trump) to extend mercy (for a short-time) upon the U.S.A.; but eventually the judgements of The LORD will strike the U.S.A. The LORD will protect and shield His own.

It is like a "stop-gap" measure to allow for mercy upon the United States of America; for a short time. Blessed are those who embrace the mercy extended to them, at this late hour by the LORD God Almighty; and return to Him by repenting for the forgiveness of their sins through the blood of The LORD Jesus Christ, and thereby walk in righteousness, holiness, truth and complete surrender to the LORD Jesus Christ in preparing the way for the coming of the LORD Jesus Christ.

Barack Obama (together with Pope Francis) will still emerge as the global leader; as the world will look upon him to be their "Savior" in the midst of turmoil, chaos, divisions, crisis and uncertainties.

The true, real Messiah (Savior) is the LORD Jesus Christ the Messiah. Put your trust and hope ONLY in Him; AT ALL TIMES.

SHALOM!!!

Increased Attacks

The enemy seeks to wear you down in this time, and he has increased his attacks on every side. You feel the effects of these battles.

In times of war, My people must remain focused on staying on track. Do not allow the enemy to divert your focus by distracting you with old sins, My children. Do not allow him to take back ground in areas where you have overcome. Hold tight to your victories over sin!

Strengthen your spirit in My Word so you may finish the race before you as a conqueror. Cast down unwanted thoughts and desires and stand strong in My power against the enemy of your soul. Your reward in heaven awaits you.

2 Timothy 2:3-4

- 3 Thou therefore endure hardness, as a good soldier of Jesus Christ.
- 4 No man that warreth entangleth himself with the affairs of this life; that he may please him who hath chosen him to be a soldier.

Ephesians 6:13-14

- 13 Wherefore take unto you the whole armour of God, that ye may be able to withstand in the evil day, and having done all, to stand.
- 14 Stand therefore, having your loins girt about with truth, and having on the breastplate of righteousness;

Stay the Course

I have placed some of you in trying circumstances. Your faith and your devotion to Me are being tried. Will you be found faithful?

Stay the course faithfully, in patience, that you may learn endurance, for you need much endurance for what lies ahead for you.

Learn to rejoice no matter your circumstances. Learn to contemplate your eternal salvation, and your great reward in heaven, and let that sustain you when darkness surrounds you in the earth, for you live in a dark time that is quickly growing darker, My children.

Do not contemplate your circumstances, but keep your eyes on Me, and all shall be well.

Great rewards await you all.

Time has ran out for the nations of this world that has forgotten God, the manager of the universe, the infinite one, the Ruler and Maker of creation.

Brothers and sisters I was not going to share this vision Jesus showed me on the January 27 2016 but I said to myself... " if I can get one more soul in glory or wake up a sleeping Christians that's my mission".

WARNING ⚠️ TO THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA!!!

I heard in my vision a baby crying as if the child was in pain. The baby seems to be crying for hours. I then saw an angel standing over a stream with a rock tied on a string in his hands. The angel said to me "when I release this stone in the water the whole world will ripple with earthquake for the Mighty God has spoken "

I then looked in the distance and the angel was showing me snippets very briefly of things. The angel showed me Trump and his wife standing in the white house. I then heard over the news 5 cities in the USA that are in serious trouble.

The angel then showed me Trump and his wife again in the white house but this time Trump was in a panic mode because he didn't know what to do about these 5 cities that was in trouble.

I then saw U.N trucks going into these cities and what looks like foreign soldiers. The UN trucks and soldiers were coming out of the sea.

The angel showed me again Trump and his wife standing before the president desk while Barack and Michele was standing behind the president desk. I hear when Trump said to Obama I am going to call Marshall law and Obama agreed. So Trump called Martial law.

The angel then showed me the troubled cities and it felt like Obama has regain power somehow... In some of the troubled cities I saw lots and lots of rioting.... and black people rioting it was very bad (this could be black lives matter).

The cities that was in trouble were Houston-Texas, Atlanta , California, Newyork and one more which I cannot remember it might be Florida but am not sure. #TeamJesus #Prophetess

YOU ARE SECONDS FROM THE FINISH LINE

My beloved brothers and sisters, do not be deceived by the enemy of your souls. You must know, I hope by now, that Satan is the absolute master of deception, a master magician, a grand illusionist. It says in the end that even the Elect would be deceived if that were possible. I believe he has done just that to many, if not most, in the body of Christ.

Hear what the Spirit has to say : "You Are Seconds From The Finish Line, but many of you have decided to take a break along the race thinking you will still make it to the end in time. It takes focus and endurance to finish, not looking to the right or to the left. It grieves Me to know that many will be left behind because they were not willing to be filled with the Holy Spirit (keeping their lamps filled with oil) and as a result ending up injured on the sideline unable to finish the race. You need to repent, fast and seek My Face."

Now is your salvation nearer than ever before.
Our Lord is at the door. Let Him say to you, enter in thou good and faithful servant.

Hebrews 12:1-2

1 Therefore we also, since we are surrounded by so great a cloud of witnesses, let us lay aside every weight, and the sin which so easily ensnares us, and let us run with endurance the race that is set before us, 2 looking into Jesus, the author and finisher of our faith, who for the joy that was set before Him endured the cross, despising the shame, and has sat down at the right hand of the throne of God.

“My Father Wishes You to Know This Great Release is Coming and It Is Coming Quickly!”

FEBRUARY 7, 2017 2:47 PM BY JULIE WHEDBEE

I am He who is the King of kings and the Lord of lords, the Lamb that was slain, the only One worthy to open the scrolls and speak the words of My Father. I stand in all power and all authority given to Me from on High. My Father wishes to share with you His Heart; to tell you that a great and new thing is coming to the people of God, to all those who have been obedient, to all those who serve the only Lord and Master, the only Creator of all things, the Source of all.

There is a glory coming, it approaches ever so quickly, each day that passes. My Spirit searches the earth for those willing and open vessels who have surrendered all, who have been willing to give up everything in this life to gain everything in eternity; those vessels who have been selected to rule and reign with Me in My Kingdom. To those, it has been given the power and authority decreed by My Father. These ones will walk in this authority as One with Me, bringing unity and peace to all. My Heart will be seen and shared by many who have been purposed for this time.

I stand reading a scroll, which holds the design for all time, from beginning to end. I tell you My people, this is the end, the end of this story and the beginning of a new one. This is the last day, and did I not tell you My people that you would be raised on the last day with Me? (John 6:40)

There is breakthrough coming, breakthrough and deliverance and healing. Oh what a glorious time to be alive, to have been chosen to be here now. For you see, My Father wishes you to know this great release is coming and it is coming quickly! You are nearing the end of your training here for the purposes you were created for. The time is coming for you to be fully indwelt with My Spirit, so you will walk in the fullness of all you have been trained for. You have been tested and tried and many have been found worthy; worthy through Me, worthy because I have won the victory, worthy because I am the Door that has shown you the way. So I ask you this day to enter in, step forward now in this moment and be ready to receive this great outpouring and impartation that is upon you.

My angel of breakthrough awaits this command for this great release. Many gifts and many blessings are waiting to be poured out. Pray for them now. Pray that this is the time they would be released to you My people. Pray to be the empty vessels through which these gifts shall be poured and I assure you that I will pour them out to overflowing. My grace will carry you through each and every turn and pour out upon all those I bring to you. Not one shall remain unaffected by this outpouring through My people for it shall change the world!

There are many of you waiting who have already known your purposes. Many have been waiting for the timing and the command to move forward in certain areas. I tell you it is time. You know who you are. You know that which I am speaking. Release now! Step forward now! Act upon that which you have been shown now! Move forward boldly and with courage. It is time to take authority for the Kingdom is now reclaiming what rightfully belongs to it. To those whom much has been given, it is time to release. It is time to sow your seed in those places you have been shown.

There is a great transfer occurring at this time. This transfer is occurring on many levels. I am repositioning and aligning. There is a transfer of Kingdom wealth to My Kingdom people for I raise up kings and I depose them. Not one stands without My permission. It is time for My own to inherit what rightfully belongs to them. Watch what I will do! Watch how I will take it from the hands of the unrighteous and give it to the righteous and the pure of heart.

Watch as I will heal and mend and repair and fulfill all that has been torn and broken and stolen from My people. Watch as My great and mighty arm sweeps across the lands removing anything that has exalted itself above Me, bringing it low and making it to be nothing. Dare anyone oppose the Great I Am?

The armies in Heaven stand ready and waiting and will move on one command. Such light and love are pouring out upon you My people. Do not let the darkness that surrounds you overcome you. You have My promises, you have My Word, believe it is coming! I am faithful and true. I only speak what My Father speaks and do what My Father tells Me to do and this day, He has told Me to speak these words to you. Hear them! Write them on your hearts. Be ready!

The King is coming! The King is coming! The King is coming!

“They Have Stopped Their Ears!”

Saturday, February 4, 2017 posted by dpulliam
read comments (4)

On the night of January 26th, a good friend and I got together to spend time in prayer. What was received from the Lord was a grave warning, as well as a very encouraging Word.

A couple days prior to our meeting, we’d discussed the sharp discord between Christians taking place on social media websites. I was just about to make a comment on one of the sites, as there was a somewhat heated discussion going on.

The debate was concerning the return of Jesus. Several were afraid the church was falling asleep again, thinking all is well because Trump had been elected. Others were saying how sick and tired they were of hearing how bad things are, Trump was already turning things around, and the fear mongering needed to stop. All I planned to do was insert a comment, to possibly calm things down a bit. I’d already opened the comment box, and started to type, when I distinctly heard the Holy Spirit say,

“No! They have stopped their ears. They do not want the Truth!”

Right then and there, I felt the Lord calling me to back away from all the voices. I had to shut it all off, so decided to go on a news/media fast. My friend and I both decided to spend time seeking and listening exclusively to the voice of the Lord.

By the end of the fast, we both felt such peace and clarity of mind. No stress, no confusion. And then we met for prayer...

After a time of praying, my friend suddenly asked for a prayer shawl. She then covered herself and entered into a “tent of meeting” with the Lord. We continued praying in the Spirit for a few minutes, and then I fell silent as I heard a beautiful song coming from the tent.

Suddenly, I saw a vision of a large group of sheep in an open field. They were all grazing with heads low to the ground. As I watched them, I continued to hear the beautiful singing. All at once, a few of the sheep raised their heads straight up. Their ears began to twitch, and I realized they were hearing the song! Then the scene changed.

A very large group of people were gathered together in a field. There were so many that I could only see them from the shoulders up. They were milling around looking towards the ground as they walked. I again became aware of the beautiful song. A few within the group heard it too, and heads began to pop up here and there. A look of recognition came into their eyes, as they turned toward the sound and began coming out of the group. Just then, I heard the Lord say,

“My sheep hear My voice, and the voice of another they will not follow!”

The scene changed again. This time there was a much smaller group of people huddled together in a field. I saw several people coming from various directions to join the little group. Then the Lord said,

“I Am calling my people out. I Am bringing my people together.”

As I watched, the group suddenly appeared complete, as two huge arms came around, encircling them, pulling them ever closer to Himself.

Then, instead of being an observer, the Lord allowed me to see through His eyes, and it was as if our bodies became one. As He wrapped His arms tightly around the group, He leaned over them – completely covering them with Himself. I felt the immense love in His voice as He comforted the little group:

“I love you so! I Am your source and provision. You have no need of Any Thing. I LIVE inside you. I Am all you need!” End of vision.

Interpretation:

Since I was first shown the group of sheep, it's clear the large group of people represent the Church. The song is the Lord beckoning His people to come to Him.

The majority of the "church" is NOT listening to the Lord. They "have stopped their ears. They do not want the Truth!" Zechariah 7:11, "But they refused to heed, shrugged their shoulders, and stopped their ears so that they could not hear."

Those who've "stopped their ears," will not hear anything you say that's contrary to their desires.

The sleeping "church" doesn't want the Kingdom of God established on the Earth just yet. They love this world and are convinced, if given enough time they can fix it – and build the kingdom of their dreams! The judgments of God, the coming Kingdom of God, with Jesus as King of Kings, frightens them – they're just not ready for all that.

The Lord's impressed upon me that much of the church has fallen to the deceiving spirit sent out by Satan himself (see 'There is More to Come. Do Not Leave Your Station!'). It's Satan who doesn't want the message of repentance preached! It's Satan who's broadcasting peace and safety! And it's Satan who wants to build the Kingdom of his dreams. The judgments and coming Kingdom of God, with Jesus as King of Kings, frightens Satan too.

Conclusion:

Saints, the church is dividing into two groups. Only a portion, a very small portion, is hearing the voice of the Lord and moving toward Him. The Lord is saying, "I Am calling my people out. I Am bringing my people together."

It seemed the small "remnant" group was almost complete, with only a few left who were still making their way over to it. The Lord will soon be closing His arms around them. I pray to be part of this group, and I pray others quickly turn and seek the Lord with all their being, because the word spoken over this group is totally amazing:

"I love you so! I Am your source and provision. You have no need of Any Thing. I LIVE inside you. I Am all you need!"

I AM ALL YOU NEED! Jesus sent His disciples out to preach (Luke 9:1-3), heal, and cast out devils with nothing other than the clothes on their back, yet they "lacked nothing." He also sent out the 70 (Luke 10:1) under the same circumstances, and they had all they needed...(Luke 22:35).

Please take this message to the Lord in prayer.

"I AM Entrusting You With the Lives of Many."

JANUARY 20, 2017 4:33 PM BY DIANA WILLIAM 12 COMMENTS

I received the following word from the Lord in the early morning hours of January 18, 2017. Please pray for interpretation.

After spending time in prayer and study that morning, I still felt there was something more the Lord wanted to tell me. So I sat silently in His presence for a while before eventually getting up to prepare for the day. I'd just entered another room when the Lord began to speak:

"Proclaim MY Righteousness!

The birth pains will soon begin.

During the pains, I AM your focal point.

Keep your eyes focused ONLY on Me!

After each, you must draw ever closer to Me.

Seek My will in preparation for the next.

I will keep you perfectly aligned for what's coming.

Do not be concerned about anything – just look to Me.

Other people's lives will depend on your focus. I AM entrusting you with the lives of many."

I began to tremble and fell to my knees as the seriousness of what the Lord had said hit me full force.

Interpretation:

I felt a sense of urgency to post this immediately, but something within me felt hesitant, so I waited for permission. It was almost mid-day when the Lord gave the answer:

"This Word is not for the many, but the few!"

This word is for a very small group of people. Many lives will depend on their ability to focus on the Great I AM when the calamities begin. This group is being entrusted with the lives of many!

I am to say no more. Again, please pray for interpretation and further revelation.

TELL MY CHILDREN I AM HERE

Message received Jan. 23, 2017

My daughter, I am here, I am here! Do not doubt for a moment that I am with you. Tell all My children I hear every cry of their hearts and I hold every tear. Nothing escapes Me. I know all things as I am the Author of all.

You have been on a long journey, a process of skilled refining by the fiery trials and tribulations of this life. All you have experienced has led up to this moment. This season of great change. Do not doubt for a single moment that all that I have spoken shall come to pass. Soon you will have more clarity concerning My timing and My design. Trust Me. Obey. This is the most precious gift you could offer Me, your radical faith that you believe I am who I am.

The enemy cause unrest and many of My people are unsettled. This is not from Me. I give you My perfect peace, and ask you to enter into My rest. I Am will bring order out of chaos and it is My perfect love that casts out all fear.

Open your hearts fully to receive My complete indwelling. My remnant, prepare yourselves to receive the full measure of My outpouring as I fill you, My vessels, to overflowing. Your Master is completing the final refining in you, My vessels, to fully equip you for all you are about to do for Me to gather the lost and bring them home. Do not resist these last steps, they are essential to mold and shape you into all I have purposed for you in this life. You are ever so near to the finish line.

Resist the devil and he will flee. Do not believe his lies. Be so careful to not become distracted. Seek Me earnestly for I shall always be found. Continue to give Me your everything, and I will show you wonders you would not have previously believed. I am doing a new and wonderful thing. Such glory awaits those who remain faithful.

I tell you, I am coming for you, I am coming!

Be faithful, remain steadfast, have courage, and believe!

I love you My faithful ones, I love you!

“Everything Has Been Set in Motion and There is No Stopping It!”

JANUARY 17, 2017 3:01 AM BY DIANA PULLIAM 16 COMMENTS

<https://z3news.com/w/everything-set-motion-no-stopping/>

On January 12th, during an intimate prayer meeting, I received a Word from the Lord. This morning, I was shown it wasn't just for our little group. We were praying earnestly for the lost in our families, the nation, and the world in general. We prayed for “whatever it takes” to be done in their lives for an awakening to occur. Then we began to shift our prayers toward major events happening all over the world, such as the 70-nation meeting in Paris, and the presidential inauguration just ahead. But something happened, and our prayers came to an abrupt halt.

Suddenly, we could go no further in “our” petitions. The understanding rose simultaneously within our spirits; our will and wishes needed to be realigned. A deep yearning came over us. We earnestly desired ONLY HIS perfect will be done – no matter what it looked like. Since we didn’t know specifically how to pray from there, we began praying in the Spirit.

After praying in the Spirit several minutes, we all began to cry out for His Holy, Righteous Judgments to fall upon this Earth! Words of praise and thanksgiving began to pour from our lips, as we looked joyfully toward the coming harvest, which will come as a result of His judgments.

A quietness then came over the group. We each sat down, continuing to pray in soft whispers. It was then I heard the Lord speaking, so I opened my mouth, giving utterance as He spoke the following:

“Everything has been set in motion, and there is no stopping it!”

“The darkness is settling all around, but My Light will rise upon you; and will be seen upon you. Others will be drawn towards the Light – many who are now standing in darkness.”

“My Spirit will go forth, will blow across the Earth. This has already begun. I will manifest Myself with signs and mighty wonders. These manifestations will be more than you can even imagine.”

Saints, the Word I received had such a sense of finality. The reason my prayer group wasn't able to pray with our human understanding was because everything's already been set in motion, and will not be stopped. The Lord didn't want us praying against His will. After praying in the Spirit, instead of voicing our wimpy requests, all of us were crying out for His Righteous Judgments to come! We felt no fear of what's coming, only complete and total trust in the judgments of our God. Psalms 19:9-10 says, "... The judgments of the LORD are true and righteous altogether. More to be desired are they than gold..." So, why would we fear the judgments of God?

He's so loving and gentle with His people, giving us a Word that brought such comfort and peace to our hearts that night. Yes, He confirmed it's judgment time. But instead of shaking in fear, we're to focus on what HE is DOING. The Word tells us, "You will keep in perfect peace, he whose mind is stayed on You, because he trusts in You" (Isaiah 26:3).

Look at what happens as darkness settles around us. His LIGHT will RISE UPON US! Many now in darkness will be drawn towards that Light! His Spirit will blow across the Earth, and Jesus will manifest Himself through mighty signs and wonders!

Pay attention Saints! The Lord is answering our prayers!!! We knew this day was coming. Now it's night-time to rise and shine!

"A great wind will soon blow across this nation, separating wheat from tares. The narrow road, not chosen by many, will be filled with My redeemed, those who have counted the cost yet continue to follow where I lead. The wide road will be strewn with bodies of the fallen, those who chose to set their own agenda and make their own way prosperous.

Deception, great deception has come upon this nation. Judgment comes swiftly. You have been blinded; you have slept, you have not watched, waited and prayed. As with Peter, James and John you could not watch one hour.

'When he opened the fifth seal, I saw under the altar the souls of those who had been slain because of the word of God and the testimony they had maintained. They called out in a loud voice, "How long, Sovereign LORD, holy and true, until You judge the inhabitants of the earth and avenge our blood?" Revelation 6:9-10

The upcoming weeks will see much consternation as evil forces move into position. Disillusioned, defeated millions will search for answers, a quick fix to regain their balance; all the while refusing to seek Me they watch in pained silence the destruction of their dreams and plans. Hope crumbles like a house whose foundation was built on shifting sand but not on a sure foundation. They will not know nor will they recognize the time of their visitation, continuing to search for answers millions will remain disillusioned, defeated and lost.

'Hope deferred make the heart sick.' Proverbs 13:12

The evil one has planned this day since the beginning of time and now, all his plans, his schemes will begin to be manifest. Remnant, are you ready? Do have the faith to believe for what you cannot see? Do you have the strength to stand when all around you is only evil? Do you truly believe that with God all things are possible? Mark 10:27

Evil has invaded your land, your government. Man has sold his soul for fortune and fame. Neither Barack Hussein Obama nor Donald Trump know the truth. Crafty, cunning men of great prowess, both have a part in the evil being perpetrated against this country. Both have a part to play in the entrapment and enslavement of America; groomed, guided, beguiled, chosen from the foundation of the world for such a time as this. Pawns are being moved into position, the stage is set, the actors are in place and soon the greatest performance in the history of mankind will begin. Again I ask, are you ready?

'Like the noise of chariots on the tops of mountains shall they leap, like the noise of a flame of fire that devoureth the stubble, as a strong people set in battle array. Before their face the people shall be much pained: all faces shall gather blackness. Joel 2:5-6'

20

'The anger of the LORD will not turn back until He fully accomplishes the purposes of His heart. In days to come you will understand it clearly. Jeremiah 23:20''

<https://www.facebook.com/JeffreyKyleStewart/posts/10202716271904599>

The Lord Jesus says:

You are a privileged generation.

You are a generation that makes Me immensely proud.

For it is THIS generation that will walk in FAR more revelation than any previous generation.

It is THIS generation that will walk in FAR more anointing than any previous generation.

The END of a thing is better than the beginning. (Eccl 7:8)

The Days of the Church that you are about to see will far exceed its beginning days recorded in the Book of Acts.

You look in awe at the things I did in the Book of Acts.

You look in awe at the power the Church in the Book of Acts walked in.

I tell you that what My Church is about to walk in shall cause the Church in Acts to be pale in comparison.

The Church you are about to see will walk in far more love, far more unity, and far more anointing than the early church ever imagined.

My prayer for the church to be ONE, even as I and the Father are one, in John 17 will be answered in your generation, just as every prayer I pray is answered. Yes, many of you will see this and rejoice. As will I. What is impossible for man is easily possible for My Father. My People WILL BE ONE just as My Father and I are one. Just as it is in Heaven.

From this unity will flow unified prayer as you have never seen. Just as I honored such prayer with a mighty outpouring of My Spirit in Acts 2:2 and Acts 4:31, I shall honor these unified prayers with a great outpouring that will shake cities as I shook Jerusalem.

The Great Commission will be fulfilled in this generation.

You will see this and rejoice.

My people will walk in such anointing, that:

One will enter a town and every demon will flee. Even demons in people who are possessed will not be able to remain. (sorry, this is my favorite line :)

Another will walk in such anointing that he will enter a hospital, AND EVERY sick person in that hospital shall be healed.

When I turned water into wine, the master of the banquet said that he normally served the best wine first, but at that wedding, he saved the best wine for last.

I tell you, I have saved the BEST DAYS OF THE CHURCH FOR LAST.

I have saved the GREATEST MIRACLES for last, too.

The miracles you saw in the days of Moses, as great as they were, even the splitting of the Red Sea, shall pale in comparison to what you are ABOUT to see.

The miracles you saw in the Days of Joshua, as great as they were, even the stopping of the Sun and the Moon in the sky, shall look SMALL in comparison to what I am ABOUT to do.

Before I return, every person on earth WILL KNOW that the Gospel is true. They may not all accept it, but they will be WITHOUT excuse. (this is what He will show during the 3 DoD IMO)

I am IMMENSELY proud of you.

You are a HIGHLY HONORED generation.

Men from the past longed to see what you will see.

You are the final runners in the relay race.

You are My "A" Team.

Those who came before you are trusting you with the baton.

I am confident you will complete the race before you.

You will make Me proud.

You were created for this day and this time. You will see the Church be what I meant for her to be. You will see this and rejoice. As will I.

“The Bomb Will Come from the East, Not on American Soil”

JANUARY 6, 2017 12:33 AM BY SHERRY GORSLIN 1 COMMENT

I received the following word from the Lord on January 5, 2017:

“The time of preparation is not over. Do not get discouraged or live in despair, but continue this path. I need you to continue this path. Today you trust Me, and hear My voice, for tomorrow you know not what comes.”

As I was praying I kept seeing and hearing a bomb. Then I heard this:

“This will set in motion what must be. The bomb will come from the east. It will not be on American soil. It shall be set off to begin war. The angel of war is at hand, directing and guiding those that will listen. Evil is still in place, and much is being done behind closed doors.

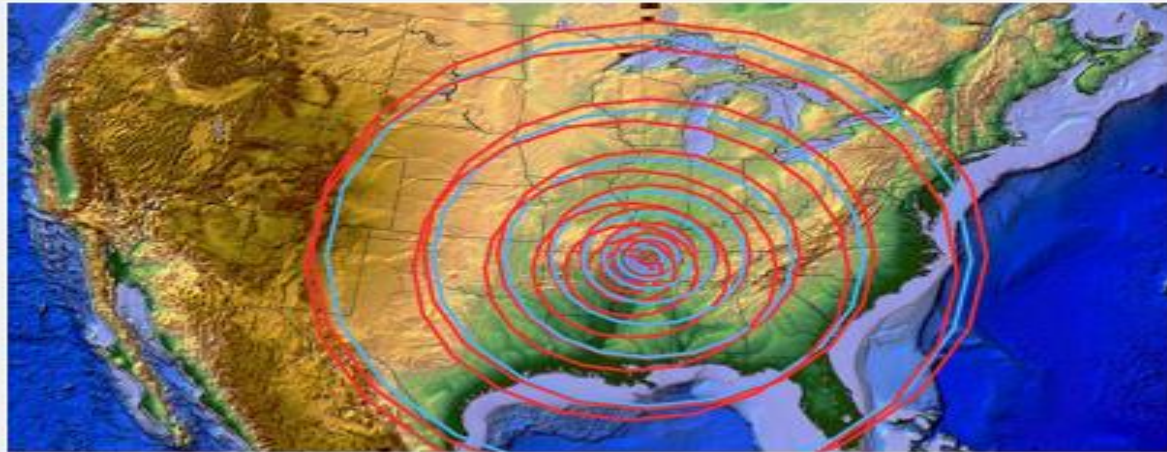

Know this, that Obama’s hand is upon this and he deliberates with those who desire this to be. Trump and all his cabinet are there to fight for you. I have set in place those that will see beyond the deception to the truth.

Watch the hour, because it is near; watch the nations as they come together and then divide. Sides are being taken and war is coming soon; war that you will feel here in the United State; war that every nation will come to know.

Keep your eyes on Israel and who sides with them. Your nation will be divided, not only on principles, but on land. States will come together, and sides will be chosen. Look for this. I have told you so.”

Prophetic Dream Warns of 9.5 Earthquake in United States

DECEMBER 9, 2016 11:52 AM BY ELIZABETH MARIE 85 COMMENTS

In November 2016, I dreamed I was with a bunch a people and somehow I knew we were in the southern part of the U.S.A. We were all standing outside, almost frozen with fear as we waited.

There had been a HUGE earthquake in the north and we were all filled with dread knowing we were about to feel its effects. It seemed like we were to be the last location that was going feel it coming. I told everyone to hang on.

Then, all of a sudden, while waiting for this earthquake to happen, I had a vision within the dream. I saw an outline map of America. I didn't see the state lines, but only the outline of the U.S. Then, the map zoomed to where the earthquake started and I saw a black dot pulsating on the epicenter. The dot was in the upper part of the middle of the country, however, I wasn't sure of which state. It seemed higher than the New Madrid fault. Then I saw '9.5' indicating the level on the Richter Scale. I was not given any dates or timing.

Interpretation:

I believe this dream has a couple of interpretations—dual meanings:

I believe this earthquake might have to do with the New Madrid fault and a massive earthquake occurring that will shake the whole country. A few days after the dream, I saw the U.N. voted for a two-state solution in Israel. The LORD then reminded me of this dream and I knew it was related. So, I believe this has something to do with the division of Israel. Whoever divides HIS land will come in harms- way according to Scripture.

I believe this is about a great divide coming (and has already begun) in the U.S., as we see the lines between good and evil become more and more distinct. This earthquake could unleash more civil unrest in our nation, our communities, as well as within our own families. JESUS said a house divided cannot stand (Mark3:25). I believe that also applies to a nation.

NOTE:

The largest earthquake ever recorded was in 1960—a 9.5 in Chile.

Scripture References:

"I will also gather all nations, and bring them down to the Valley of Jehoshaphat; and I will enter into judgment with them there on account of My people, My heritage Israel, whom they have scattered among the nations; they have also divided up My land." (Joel 3:2)

“Soon My Spirit Will Flood the Earth Like a Huge Ocean Wave”

DECEMBER 19, 2016 5:15 PM BY KEVIN BARRETT 9 COMMENTS

In my time with the Lord, He said these words to me: “Son, tell My people to seek Me like never before.”

Word from the Lord:

“My people, you are on the threshold of a new era. So many things are about to suddenly change, in both your nation and your individual lives.

For I am preparing and setting the stage for My end-time events. Some of you will be greatly used in these events and My kingdom ministries, yet many others shall only be dismayed. Yet, I tell you now; it does not have to be this way. For if you would render your hearts unto Me, and lay down your lives at My feet, then I shall do a quick work within you.

However, for those who refuse to lay everything down, I give you this warning; soon My Spirit will flood the earth like a huge ocean wave. And if you are not walking in My will, your life as you know it shall come crashing down.

Howbeit, for those walking in My will, this coming wave of My Spirit shall lift you up and carry you to the fullness of your destiny in Christ, so long as you continue walking with Me and endure to the end.

So then, listen well to Me this day when I say repent and repent quickly. For if you are walking in sin and rebellion when this wave comes, it may be your demise when it hits you. Oh, it is not I who shall do this to you, yet you will be snared by your own doings.

But for those walking in obedience when this wave comes; I say get ready to be swept off your feet and into My Spirit. For I shall carry you far above the woes of this world.

Now, this does not mean that you shall be without trials and testings. Yet, My peace which passes all understanding shall carry you. And I shall always make a way for you to fulfill My will and purposes in the earth realm.

Oh, My dearest little ones, My heart is thrilled regarding the days that are ahead. For even though there will be many calamities and woes, there shall also be the greatest move of My Spirit this world has ever experienced. And many souls shall enter into My kingdom in these last days. So then, prepare your hearts before Me and allow My Spirit to make the right adjustments in your attitudes and thinking. And if you give all to Me and allow Me to do this work in you, you shall be thrilled beyond what you have ever imagined. Oh, how I love you all with an everlasting love. And it thrills Me to thrill the hearts of My people. So then, lay everything at My feet and seek Me in your prayer closets. Surely, I will answer you, for I am waiting...”

Food For Thought
by George Davis

In 1949 the communist revolution marked the end of all missionary efforts in China. All foreign missionaries were expelled. After the communist takeover the Chinese government bitterly attacked the Church in China, driving it underground.

For 25 years China was closed to any outside "Christian" influences. Little information filtered through the tight-knit bamboo curtain. All remaining Christian leaders were rounded up wholesale and were either imprisoned or killed outright. Everything that was considered "Christian" was destroyed, church building, bibles, hymnals, everything. For 25 years a holocaust far exceeding that, inflicted on the Jews by Nazi Germany, ensued. It is estimated that about 27 million died during this purging.

In 1978 Deng Xiaoping came into power and China opened her borders once again. The western world stood in breathless anticipation. What would they find in the aftermath of such a horrible slaughter? Missionaries from around the world stood ready, poised in anxious intrepidity. Would there even be one surviving believer? Nothing could have possibly prepared them for what they were about to see!

After 25 years of horrendous persecution the missionaries returned to find that the church in China had not been obliterated, as many had feared, but that they had grown in number from the estimated one million believers before the 1949 revolution, to about 30 million. The contrast was amazing! What had caused such unprecedented growth? How could this be? Not only had they grown numerically but they had grown spiritually. The tales of their devotion to Christ are nothing short of inspirational. Most bewildering is the fact that this unparalleled growth occurred without the aid of any of those things that are thought to be essential in denominational churches today. Without the aid of professional pastors/priests, church buildings, bibles, Sunday-school materials, homilies, hymnals and mass gatherings, the Church in China has grown numerically and spiritually to be the most victorious expression of Christ's Church on the earth today. By all accounts, nothing like it has existed since the early Church. The very gates of hell could not prevail against her!

Makes you think doesn't it?

Iran Now Has One of Fastest Growing Christian Population As More Muslims Are Having Dreams and Visions of Jesus

By PRECY DUMLAO (email protected) Dec 08, 2015 06:53 PM EST 4 Comments

Despite severe persecution and acts of terror from ISIS headlining the front pages, Christianity remains strong and is, in fact, a fast growing religion in Iran - one of the most hardline Islamic countries in the world today.

In a report from CBN, wherein the interviewees - Iranians visiting Kurdistan - have requested anonymity for their protection, former Muslims are revealing that many are coming to Jesus through supernatural dreams and visions. The dreams are giving them hope amidst the desperation and hardship facing many in the Islamic Republic today.

"Dennis," one such ex-Muslim who had converted to Christianity after having a dream about Jesus, admits that desperation in Iran is driving more people to run to Christ as the answer to their predicament.

"Yes, many people are coming to Christ through a dream. You cannot imagine how Jesus is appearing to them...You know the experience that the Iranian people are passing through right now is very difficult. The only one who can change that situation is Christ Himself," Dennis said.

'Come after me': Pennsylvania pol goes off on 'gibbon' Trump in profanity-laced Facebook post

Gabby Kaufman
Staff Writer

Yahoo News February 8, 2017

Pennsylvania state Sen. Daylin Leach went after President Trump on Tuesday, branding him a "fascist, loofa-faced, s***-gibbon," and challenging him to "come after me."

Leach, a Philadelphia-area Democrat, posted a Politico report on Facebook about the president's recent White House meeting with county sheriffs from across the country. During the meeting, one sheriff brought up civil asset forfeiture, a practice allowing law enforcement to seize money and property belonging to individuals accused of committing a crime, even before a verdict is handed down.

The sheriff, from Rockwall County, Texas, griped about a Texas state senator seeking to change the law so that a conviction would be required before a suspect's assets could be seized.

The sheriff joked that "the cartel would build a monument" to the legislator.

"Who is the state senator? Do you want to give his name? We'll destroy his career," Trump responded.

MSNBC Anchor: "Our Job" Is To "Control Exactly What People Think"

During a lively discussion centered on fears that President Trump is "trying to undermine the media," MSNBC's Mika Brzezinski let slip the awesome unspoken truth that the media's "job" is to "actually control exactly what people think."

SCARBOROUGH: "Exactly. That is exactly what I hear. What Yamiche said is what I hear from all the Trump supporters that I talk to who were Trump voters and are still Trump supporters. They go, 'Yeah you guys are going crazy. He's doing -- what are you so surprised about? He is doing exactly what he said he is going to do.'"

BRZEZINSKI: "Well, I think that the dangerous, you know, edges here are that he is trying to undermine the media and trying to make up his own facts. And it could be that while unemployment and the economy worsens, he could have undermined the messaging so much that he can actually control exactly what people think. And that, that is our job."

As grabien points out, the comment failed to raise any eyebrows from her co-panelists. Instead, her co-host, Joe Scarborough, said that Trump's media antagonism puts him on par with Mussolini and Lenin...

WOMAN BELIEVING TO BE ALIEN-HYBRID CLAIMS 'ETS TAKING OVER EARTH'

Some very interesting news is on the air. A French woman named Lisa went into public in video platform Youtube in "Earth Mystery News" and claimed that she is the baby of a Human-Alien experiment and she is the hybrid result of that.

Now, normally this would spread many kinds of talk among people, specially among curious people who want to know what is going on out there. Because the government is not people anything about this mysterious things and whatever information they give people can't very much really upon that because they have their agenda and mind thoughts.

This Women can't very well speak English at all. She was telling a story to her friend in French that how she feels lonely and thinks she doesn't belong among other normal earthly people. A normal person when he hears about this story he is gonna say 'what's the proof.' Well about this matter there is always a shortage of proofs, but people can have their interpretation of things if he listens to all the theory and statement given by this woman that raise some questions surely.

She truly believes she is a hybrid of something extraterrestrial and has some hint of the quality of the aliens. It is her believe that the human side is far more controlling in nature about her being a hybrid, cause if there any hybrid they can be very much disguised as an ordinary people and other people won't know about it. They would eat sleep walk and talk like us, but there is some internal difference of her that separate her from other people. Like they believe -

Claims of Demonic Possession From Ouija App in Colombia

1 Comment | February 23, 2017 | Paul Seaburn

This is the kind of thing that happens when the study hall monitor has to go to the bathroom and there's no responsible adult to watch the door and stop demons from entering the classroom and possessing the students. A school in Colombia had to call in medical, religious and government officials as well as the police when a group of students allegedly became hysterical and possibly possessed after one played with a Ouija board app on a cell phone. What ever happened to studying in study hall?

The incident occurred in Lloró, a small town of around 2,600 residents in the Chocó Department of Colombia. Until the Ouija board incident, Lloró's main claim to fame is that it's extremely wet - it holds either first or second place on the world record list of places having the highest average annual precipitation with 12.7 meters (41.75 feet). Does all of that rain drive students to stop believing weather forecasters and instead ask a Ouija app for a prediction for spring break?

7 Earth-Size Planets Orbit Dwarf Star, NASA and European Astronomers Say

By KENNETH CHANG FEB. 22, 2017

These new Earth-size planets orbit a dwarf star named Trappist-1 about 40 light years from Earth. Some of them could have water on their surfaces. By NEETHI UPADHYE on February 22, 2017. Photo by NASA/JPL-Caltech. Watch in Times Video »

Not just one, but seven Earth-size planets that could potentially harbor life have been identified orbiting a tiny star not too far away, offering the first realistic opportunity to search for signs of alien life outside of the solar system.

The planets orbit a dwarf star named Trappist-1, about 40 light-years, or 235 trillion miles, from Earth. That is quite close in cosmic terms, and by happy accident, the orientation of the orbits of the seven planets allows them to be studied in great detail.

One or more of the exoplanets in this new system could be at the right temperature to be awash in oceans of water, astronomers said, based on the distance of the planets from the dwarf star.

Scientists could even discover compelling evidence of aliens.

“I think that we have made a crucial step toward finding if there is life out there,” said Amaury H. M. J. Triaud, an astronomer at the University of Cambridge in England and another member of the research team. “Here, if life managed to thrive and releases gases similar to that we have on Earth, then we will know.”

Cool red dwarfs are the most common type of star, so astronomers are likely to find more planetary systems like that around Trappist-1 in the coming years.

“You can just imagine how many worlds are out there that have a shot to becoming a habitable ecosystem,” Thomas Zurbuchen, associate administrator of NASA’s science mission directorate, said during a NASA news conference on Wednesday. “Are we alone out there? We’re making a step forward with this — a leap forward, in fact — towards answering that question.”

Telescopes on the ground now and the Hubble Space Telescope in orbit will be able to discern some of the molecules in the planetary atmospheres. The James Webb Space Telescope, scheduled to launch next year, will peer at the infrared wavelengths of light, ideal for studying Trappist-1.

Brazil's poorest region suffers worst drought in a century

Quixeramobim (Brazil) (AFP) - A cow's skull lies baking in the sun and nearby another dead cow rots, symbols of the desolation gripping northeastern Brazil during its worst drought in a century.

Farmer Kerginaldo Pereira, 30, walks through the dust and cactuses in dismay. There are in all about 30 skeletons of cattle, donkeys and other farm animals in a sort of open-air cemetery set aside in his settlement of Nova Canaa, in Ceara state, to avoid spread of disease.

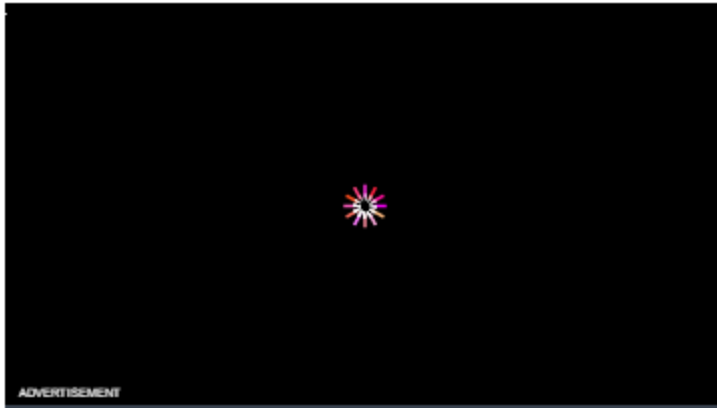

"Most are animals that died of thirst or hunger. Sadly, that's the reality. So many animals have died in these five years of drought," Pereira told AFP.

The semiarid northeast of Brazil, known as the Sertao, is used to rain shortages but no one can remember a drought like this. There has been almost no rain since 2012 and the leafless, desiccated landscape has the appearance of having been in a vast fire.

Powerful storms continue to batter Northern California amid concern about levees

Northern California was battered by another atmospheric river that produced record rainfall and wind gusts that reached 100 mph. (Feb. 21, 2017)

FEBRUARY 21, 2017, 2:40 PM | REPORTING FROM MODESTO

An "atmospheric river" continued to batter parts of Northern California on Tuesday, causing widespread flooding.

The heavy rains prompted the National Weather Service to warn of a dam failure outside Carson City, Nev., saying that it was "not a drill" and that residents should "move to higher ground now."

But less than 90 minutes after issuing the alert, the agency changed its report to say the retention basin in Dayton, Nev., had not failed. Instead, it was full and overflowing into drainage areas, the weather service said.

However, Lyon County, Nev., emergency officials warned that the situation could change in the next few hours.

Lower 48 basks in near-warmest February air in three decades

By Jason Samenow February 22 at 10:30 AM

Temperature difference from normal forecast on Wednesday from NAM model.

(This story, first published Tuesday, was updated Wednesday morning.)

The weather this February keeps getting weirder. At a time when Arctic blasts usually sweep across the nation and Northern states are covered in snow and ice, historically warm air has flooded the eastern two-thirds of the nation.

All-time February record high temperatures are falling and the air feels more like early May.

Wednesday's average high temperature over the Lower 48 was forecast to soar to a balmy 59 degrees – “the near warmest February day during the last three decades”, said Ryan Maue, a meteorologist for WeatherBell Analytics.

A stunning 2,805 record high temperatures have occurred across the nation this month compared with just 27 record lows.

CHICAGO (CBS) — Warm weather is coaxing perennials – like snowdrops – out of the ground right now. But the question is: With cold weather coming by the weekend, will they meet an untimely death?

The answer is: No. Some flowers may die but the plant should be okay, unless it gets really cold, said Tim Johnson, senior director of horticulture at Chicago Botanic Garden. WBBM's Steve Miller reports.

Rescue crews take out residents from a flooded neighborhood on Feb. 21, 2017 in San Jose, Calif.

SAN JOSE, Calif. (AP) — Rising floodwaters sent at least 14,000 residents fleeing inundated homes in San Jose, California, and forced the shutdown of a major freeway Wednesday.

U.S. 101 was closed in both directions south of San Francisco because of water across lanes and officials said there was no estimate when the key commuter artery into Silicon Valley would reopen.

Authorities went door-to-door overnight ordering thousands to seek higher ground as creeks and reservoirs overtopped their banks and sent chest-deep water into neighborhoods.

The region got a brief break from persistent downpours, but flood warnings were in place through Saturday because waterways were overtaxed.

At least 225 residents were taken to dry land Tuesday and rinsed with soap and water to prevent them from being sickened by floodwaters that had traveled through engine fuel, garbage, debris and over sewer lines, said Fire Captain Mitch Matlow. No major injuries were reported.

Death in NYC linked to rat urine

3 people have gotten sick, and one of the victims died, after coming into contact with rat urine in the Bronx.

NEW YORK (FOX5NY) - A cluster of cases of a rare bacterial infection that is spread by contact with rat urine has killed one person and sickened two others in the Bronx. The infection can develop into an illness that affects the victim's kidneys and liver.

The New York City Health Department says all of the cases are linked to one block in the Concourse area of the borough. While one person has died, the other two have recovered and are doing well, according to health officials.

Leptospirosis is a bacterial infection that is most commonly spread by contact with rat urine and is very rarely spread from person to person.

RSOE ALERT MAP Click on image to enlarge red squares indicate human cases of bird flu.

China is ordering the closure of live poultry markets in its south-central regions where the worst outbreak of bird flu in years has killed almost a 100 people.

State media reported Friday that the National Health and Family Planning Commission ordered closures anywhere that cases of the H7N7 strain had been detected.

Most reported cases have been found in the densely-populated Yangtze and Pearl river deltas that generally experience mild, wet winters that are ideal for the virus's transmission.

The death toll since the start of the year has been unmatched since at least 2013.

In addition to the market closures, the commission is training health workers in the screening, early diagnosis and treatment of the disease, while urging people to avoid contact with live birds.

Yellow fever responsible for killing thousands of monkeys in Brazil is now killing humans: Brazil issued emergency situations for 63 cities

SÃO PAULO, BRAZIL – The federal government of Brazil has issued emergency situations for 63 cities in Minas Gerais and one in Espírito Santo due to the outbreak of yellow fever.

Since the beginning of the year authorities have confirmed 44 people died of the disease and over seventy other suspected deaths are being investigated.

At least 30 people have died in the Brazilian state of Minas Germ over the past week due to yellow fever, while the total number of suspected cases has risen to 110, health authorities confirmed Thursday.

According to the state's Secretariat of Health, among the 30 dead, 10 have been proven to be caused by the disease, while all the others tested positive for yellow fever.

The outbreak seemed to be getting worse as the number of cases has risen from 48 to 110 over the last week.

Yellow fever is an acute viral disease which can kill a sufferer in less than a week if not treated timely.

It is mainly transmitted by the bite of an infected female mosquito.

Yellow fever is also commonly found in monkeys but now appears to be infecting humans as yellow fever is thought to be behind the death of thousands of rare monkeys found in the rain forests of Brazil

The outbreak started last year in South America and has now spread to humans killing nearly a hundred people this year already.

The authorities have rushed vaccines to hospitals, where long queues await inoculation.

TERROR IN SWEDEN: CHEMICAL ATTACK ON TRAIN CHOKES PASSENGERS

Masked man discharged noxious chemicals into subway car

Daily Express - FEBRUARY 22, 2017 152 Comments

Train passengers were left with breathing problems in Sweden tonight after a masked man threw liquid on them as the carriage doors slammed shut – trapping them inside.

The attack happened on a subway train at Sankt Eriksplan station in Stockholm, where emergency services rushed to the scene.

One passenger onboard said commuters were left in a state of panic, most suffering from breathing problems and others desperately rushing for the exits.

Reports initially stated the man threw a rucksack into the carriage, but Swedish police have confirmed it was a noxious liquid instead – the motives behind the incident or the identity of the man involved are not yet known.

China Opposes "Threatening And Damaging" US Carrier Patrols In South China Sea

One day after the US announced it had dispatched the USS Carl Vinson aircraft carrier group in the contested South China Sea on "routine" patrols (through a post on the aircraft carrier's Facebook page), China responded and predictably, it wasn't thrilled. In a statement by the foreign ministry, Beijing said on Tuesday that it opposed action by other countries "under the pretext of freedom of navigation" that could "threaten and damage" its sovereignty, a clear reference to US patrols in territory that China considers its own.

"China always respects the freedom of navigation and overflight all countries enjoy under international law," Chinese foreign ministry spokesman Ceng Shuang said at a daily news briefing. "But we are consistently opposed to relevant countries threatening and damaging the sovereignty and security of littoral countries under the flag of freedom of navigation and overflight," Ceng said in China's first official comment on the latest U.S. patrol since it began.

Without explicitly naming the US, Ceng said that "we hope relevant countries can do more to safeguard regional peace and stability."

For the time being, the U.S. carrier strike group has not referred to its recent operations in the South China Sea as "freedom of navigation" patrols, although it will likely have to justify its presence in the region in the coming days, especially if confronted with Chinese naval forces. As Reuters adds, U.S. ships last year conducted several such patrols to counter any efforts to limit freedom of navigation in the strategic waters.

Meanwhile, China just wrapped up its own naval exercises in the South China Sea on Friday. War games involving its own aircraft carrier have unnerved neighbors with which it has long-running territorial disputes. Beijing most recently warned Washington against challenging its sovereignty in the South China Sea last week. It claims almost all of the resource-rich waters, through which about $5 trillion worth of trade passes each year.

Norway to Ditch Tanks, Stop 'Russian Aggression' With Missiles

The ongoing overhaul of Norway's defense capabilities still has many question marks hanging over it. For instance, the Norwegian Armed Forces may relinquish its use of heavy tanks and instead rely on missiles to be fired at enemy lines from afar. In any case, Russia is still considered the most likely adversary.

While billion-investments in combat aircraft, patrol aircraft and submarines have already been earmarked in Norway's recent long-term defense plan, the shape of the Norwegian Army and the Home Guard has yet to be fully mapped out. The prospects of merging the Nordic country's land forces will be assessed by an expert committee that is also expected to put forward its military budget proposals.

The committee, which is headed by Brigadier Aril Brandvik, has already identified four key problems with the current land force and is likely to present a wholly new concept of land defense. Only one of the three options currently on the table retains the existing defense structure with tanks and armored vehicles. The other two possibilities instead rely on lighter and mobile materiel, as well as closer interaction with other branches of troops, Norwegian newspaper Klassekampen reported.

Previously, the Brandvik-led committee identified the weak points of the Norwegian defense as follows: low ability to react, low mobility of the forces, low combat strength due to infrastructure issues and low endurance that makes it virtually impossible to carry on in a lasting conflict.

"So far it has not been concluded that the current concept cannot be maintained in the future, but it has some weaknesses that must be rectified if we are about to continue with it," Aril Brandvik told Klassekampen.

According to Israel's Arutz Sheva radio station website, Daesh claimed the responsibility of the attack on Tuesday. The attack occurred a day after the terrorist group said that five members of its Sinai Peninsula branch were killed in a drone attack by Israel late on Saturday, according to the media.

On February 8, four rockets were fired from the Sinai Peninsula toward the southern Israeli town of Eilat, with three rockets being intercepted and the fourth exploding in an open area, the radio station reported. The attack was also claimed by the Daesh branch in the Sinai Peninsula, according to the radio station.

Vandals recently damaged some 100 headstones at a Jewish cemetery in Missouri, and nearly a dozen Jewish community centers (JCCs) received bomb threats Monday, amid an uptick in anti-Semitism across the U.S.

Police said Monday that they were investigating the vandalism at the Chesed Shel Emeth Society cemetery near St. Louis, Missouri.

Missouri Governor Eric Greitens said on Twitter that he was "disgusted to hear about the senseless act of desecration at the cemetery."

At the same time, 11 JCCs were targeted with bomb threats Monday. Police eventually gave the all clear at each JCC. Since January, a total of 54 JCCs in 27 U.S. states have received bomb threats, according to the JCC Association of North America.

In a statement, the FBI and the Justice Department's Civil Rights Division said they are "investigating possible civil rights violations in connections with threats to Jewish community centers across the country."

THE RUSSIAN LOVE AFFAIR WITH DONALD TRUMP SOURS AS THE U.S. AND RUSSIA MOVE TOWARD WAR

In recent months Donald Trump has been severely criticized by both Democrats and Republicans for not being sufficiently “anti-Russia”, but the truth is that the Trump administration has not been working hard enough to repair a relationship that is now souring very rapidly.

When Donald Trump won the election in November, the Russians celebrated tremendously, because they greatly preferred Trump over Hillary Clinton. But just because Trump was victorious does not mean that our relationship with Russia will automatically improve. Trump and Russian President Vladimir Putin both have huge egos, and it is quite easy to imagine a scenario in which things between them go very, very badly.

In fact, we may already be starting to see such a scenario play out. As you will see below, under President Trump U.S. troops are being deployed to a very sensitive area of Poland, and they are also being sent to key areas of Bulgaria and Romania. That is not sitting well with the Russian government, but they were much more upset when Trump insisted that Russia must give the Crimea back to Ukraine. This is something that the Russians would never do, and they were quite stunned that Trump would even suggest such a thing.

It therefore urged the Federal Government to rebuild the churches and also re-establish Nigeria Inter Religion Council (NIREC) with a view to curbing incessant religious violence in the country.

Speaking after its National Executive Council (NEC) meeting held in Gusau, Zamfara State, the youth wing Chairman, Evangelist Musa Misal, noted that demolished churches that needed to be rebuilt were spread across Gombe, Yobe, Adamawa, Borno, among others.

HYDERABAD, India (Morning Star News) – A week after a pastor fell into a coma following harassment by hard-line Hindus in southern India, a gang of Hindu extremists in the same state beat another pastor after he prayed for healing at the home of an elderly church member, family members said.

Police altered the statement of Gandham Padma Rao, 49, so that the 10 young men who assaulted him on Jan. 27 in Medipally village, Telangana state, were described only as drunken youths, not members of a Hindu nationalist group as the pastor had stated, his son told Morning Star News.

Pastor Rao fulfilled church duties the two days after the assault before seeking medical help, and doctors told family members that his blood pressure was so high that he could have suffered a hemorrhage had he waited any longer. Another pastor, 47-year-old K.A. Swamy of Hyderabad, on Jan. 21 fell into a coma after suffering high blood pressure and a brain hemorrhage hours after Hindu extremists threatened him with highly offensive language and took him to police for distributing Bibles.

Pastor Rao's son, Samuel Mark, told Morning Star News his father had left the home of the elderly church member, who had just been released from a hospital, at about 9:30 p.m. and was walking to his car when the young men blocked his way with their motorcycles.

When the pastor ignored them and began walking on the other side of the road, one of the assailants shouted, "Why are you coming to our village? Why are you praying here?" as four others began hitting him, knocking him to the ground, relatives said.

Pastor Rao and eyewitnesses said the youths were members of the Hindu nationalist Vishwa Hindu Vahini.

MOSUL, Iraq — Members of the barbaric Islamic group ISIS, which identifies itself as the Islamic State of Iraq and Syria, recently cut off the hands of two children for refusing to execute civilians.

Alsumaria News reports that the incident occurred in the ISIS-occupied territory of Mosul, being tipped off by an anonymous source.

“The Islamic State’s leaders issued orders to train a group of children on fighting in the group’s camps in Nables neighborhood, in the western side of Nineveh,” it outlined. “Meanwhile, members of the Islamic State terrorist group amputated the hands of two children for refusing to carry out the execution sentence on two civilians in front of their families.”

The children were between 10 and 12 years old.

As previously reported, just last month, a mother and her four children were reportedly burned alive in Kirkuk for leaving the jurisdiction of the caliphate.

“Members of the Islamic State burned a whole family that consisted of a mother and four children (three girls and a 9-month-old boy) in Hawija, for leaving the land of caliphate and fleeing toward Kirkuk,” Iraqi News outlined on Jan. 14, citing a source who desired to remain anonymous.

It said that the family was captured while fleeing the area, and then bound, doused with crude oil, and set ablaze.

China's Largest Megachurch Ex-Pastor Arrested by Authorities for Supporting Religious Freedom

By JULIE BROWN PATTON (email protected) Jan 13, 2017 03:13 PM EST 0 Comments

A Chinese megapastor has been arrested on charges of embezzling funds, according to persecution watchdog China Aid. The Texas-based charity reports that Gu 'Joseph' Yuese was formally arrested on Jan. 7, 2017, after being detained by police before Christmas. Christians in Pakistan

In what some people are calling the most high-profile religious persecution case since the Cultural Revolution, the former pastor of China's largest state-run megachurch was arrested on Saturday by a local public security bureau in China's coastal Zhejiang province, according to persecution watchdog China Aid. Authorities reportedly re-apprehended Gu "Joseph" Yuese sometime before Christmas; on Jan. 7, his family received an announcement he had been arrested on charges of embezzling funds.

As the former chairman of the Hangzhou Municipal China Christian Council, a local branch of the China Christian Council (CCC), which, along with the Three-Self Patriotic Movement (TSPM), comprises China's two government-run Christian organizations, Gu is the highest-profile Christian official to be targeted for quite some time, reports Christian News Wire.

A Syrian woman recently shared the heartwrenching story of the death of her 18-year-old son, who was shot and killed by ISIS-aligned militants after he refused to deny his faith in Christ.

Alice Assaf of Adra al-Ummaliya near Damascus told her story to Dr. Yvette Elbayadi Isaac of the American human rights group Roads of Success, which posted the interview online.

Over two years ago, Assaf was informed by a neighbor that the militants had entered the city and were killing Christians. She sought a way of escape, but never felt safe enough to do so, since "passersby were systematically killed."

Assaf and her children took refuge at a neighbor's house, where they began hearing of the atrocities that were being committed in the city.

"We heard that the militants grabbed six strong men working at the bakery and burned them alive in the oven," she recalled. "After that, they caught some 250 kids and kneaded them like dough in the bakery dough machine."

She said that the oldest child was four years old.

Dozens of Chinese Christians Beaten, Detained By Authorities As Persecution Rages On

By LEAH MARIEANN KLETT (NEWS@GOSPELHERALD.COM) Oct 27, 2016 10:53 AM EDT

China Aid's "Chinese Government Persecution of Christians and Churches in China" report found there has been a 4.74 increase in persecution in 2016 compared to last year. Reuters

Dozens of Christians were detained and beaten by authorities in China's central Henan province as the Communist government tightens its grip on believers in the country.

According to persecution watchdog China Aid, witnesses said police officers from the Nanle County Public Security Bureau beat a local Christian on September 25, then detained and beat 20 more believers for their beliefs and arrested them all.

Zhang Mingxuan, a pastor and president of the Chinese House Church Alliance, condemned the actions of the Nanle police and called on the international community to unite in prayer for those persecuted in China.

"It is against the national constitution and laws for house church believers to be beaten by Nanle County Public Security Bureau," he said. "A lot of problems have been caused because they [the public security bureau personnel] control, attack and persecute Christianity in Henan. I hope the international community will pray for them."

UN RESOLUTION: TEMPLE MOUNT AND KOTEL ARE MUSLIM, ISRAEL TO BLAME FOR VIOLENCE

By Adam Eliyahu Berkowitz October 14, 2016 , 11:05 am

“Woe unto them that decree unrighteous decrees, and to the writers that write iniquity.” Isaiah 10:11 \(The Israel Bible 130\)

On Thursday, the day after Yom Kippur when God judges all of creation, the United Nation Educational, Scientific and Cultural Organization (UNESCO) passed its resolution on “Occupied Palestine” in Paris, listing all of Judaism’s holiest sites as Islamic, while blaming Israel for the violence in the region.

Times of Israel published the entire text of the resolution. Some of the more egregious points are:

-It refers to the holy sites in Arabic, “Al-Aqsa Mosque/Al-Haram Al-Sharif and its surroundings”. The Temple Mount is noted to be “a Muslim holy site of worship and as an integral part of a world cultural heritage site”.

In a new set of education rules, the Chinese Communist Party is urging citizens to spy on their neighbors and report parents who raise their children in a religious faith or have them attend religious services.

In the northwestern region of Xinjiang, the government released the new education norms on Wednesday, with special emphasis on religious formation, according to the U.S.-based human rights group China Aid.

Johnnie Moore, a Christian author and humanitarian, is slamming President Barack Obama and Democratic presidential nominee Hillary Clinton for their action — or inaction — when it comes to the Christians currently facing "genocide" in the Middle East.

In an interview with Newsmax TV earlier this week, Moore told host J.D. Hayworth that members of the Obama administration have "sat on their hands" during the brutal killings and displacement of Christians in the region as the Islamic State continues to seize land.

"If you support Christians who have been the recipients of genocide in the Middle East," Moore said, "you're called 'Islamophobic,' and it's just incomprehensible."

Moore, who authored the book "Defying ISIS: Preserving Christianity in the Place of Its Birth and in Your Own Backyard," went on to tell Hayworth that both Obama and Clinton are responsible for the "systematic dismantling of religious freedom in this country, and they have sat on their hands while hundreds of thousands, if not millions and millions, of Christians have been displaced and killed."

To that end, Moore offered a new phrase to describe Obama's administration, accusing the president of "Christophobia." Moore, who said he has spent considerable amounts of time working with Muslim refugees, said he and others have been called "Islamophobic" for simply "speaking up for Christians."

ISIS TORTURES 11-YEAR-OLD IN FRONT OF HIS CHRISTIAN MISSIONARY FATHER, CRUCIFIES THEM FOR NOT CONVERTING TO ISLAM

More incredible horrors from the evil Islamist terrorists of ISIS.

From Christian Aid Mission:

“ At several steps on their path to death by beheading and crucifixion last month, 11 indigenous Christian workers near Aleppo, Syria had the option to leave the area and live. The 12-year-old son of a ministry team leader also could have spared his life by denying Christ.

The indigenous missionaries were not required to stay at their ministry base in a village near Aleppo, Syria; rather, the ministry director who trained them had entreated them to leave. As the Islamic State (ISIS), other rebel groups and Syrian government forces turned Aleppo into a war zone of carnage and destruction, ISIS took over several outlying villages. The Syrian ministry workers in those villages chose to stay in order to provide aid in the name of Christ to survivors.

“I asked them to leave, but I gave them the freedom to choose,” said the ministry director, his voice tremulous as he recalled their horrific deaths. “As their leader, I should have insisted that they leave.”

They stayed because they believed they were called to share Christ with those caught in the crossfire, he said.

From Christian Aid Mission:

At several steps on their path to death by beheading and crucifixion last month, 11 indigenous Christian workers near Aleppo, Syria had the option to leave the area and live. The 12-year-old son of a ministry team leader also could have spared his life by denying Christ.

The indigenous missionaries were not required to stay at their ministry base in a village near Aleppo, Syria; rather, the ministry director who trained them had entreated them to leave. As the Islamic State (ISIS), other rebel groups and Syrian government forces turned Aleppo into a war zone of carnage and destruction, ISIS took over several outlying villages. The Syrian ministry workers in those villages chose to stay in order to provide aid in the name of Christ to survivors.

“I asked them to leave, but I gave them the freedom to choose,” said the ministry director, his voice tremulous as he recalled their horrific deaths. “As their leader, I should have insisted that they leave.”

They stayed because they believed they were called to share Christ with those caught in the crossfire, he said.

And then they became captives of ISIS. Relatives relate what happened.

The relatives said ISIS militants on Aug. 7 captured the Christian workers in a village whose name is withheld for security reasons. On Aug. 28, the militants asked if they had renounced Islam for Christianity. When the Christians said that they had, the rebels asked if they wanted to return to Islam. The Christians said they would never renounce Christ.

The 41-year-old team leader, his young son and two ministry members in their 20s were questioned at one village site where ISIS militants had summoned a crowd. The team leader presided over nine house churches he had helped to establish. His son was two months away from his 13th birthday.

In front of the team leader and relatives in the crowd, the Islamic extremists cut off the fingertips of the boy and severely beat him, telling his father they would stop the torture only if he, the father, returned to Islam. When the team leader refused, relatives said, the ISIS militants also tortured and beat him and the two other ministry workers. The three men and the boy then met their deaths in crucifixion.

“All were badly brutalized and then crucified,” the ministry leader said. “They were left on their crosses for two days. No one was allowed to remove them.”

The martyrs died beside signs the ISIS militants had put up identifying them as “infidels.”

Somehow people want us to believe that these evil monsters would have been boy scouts if George W. Bush hadn't invaded Iraq. And of course, it has absolutely nothing to do with Islam, right?

Unfortunately, other horrors were recounted as well. These perpetrated on Christian women.

Eight other ministry team members, including two women, were taken to another site in the village that day (Aug. 28) and were asked the same questions before a crowd. The women, ages 29 and 33, tried to tell the ISIS militants they were only sharing the peace and love of Christ and asked what they had done wrong to deserve the abuse. The Islamic extremists then publicly raped the women, who continued to pray during the ordeal, leading the ISIS militants to beat them all the more furiously.

As the two women and the six men knelt before they were beheaded, they were all praying.

“Villagers said some were praying in the name of Jesus, others said some were praying the Lord's prayer, and others said some of them lifted their heads to commend their spirits to Jesus,” the ministry director said. “One of the women looked up and seemed to be almost smiling as she said, ‘Jesus!’”

After they were beheaded, their bodies were hung on crosses, the ministry director said, his voice breaking. He had trained all of the workers for their evangelistic ministry, and he had baptized the team leader and some of the others.

This is what is happening in the Middle East right now.

And instead of doing anything about it, Obama is sitting back and letting Turkey's Erdogan attack his enemies among the Kurds in Syria, and letting Putin attack the enemies of his pal Assad. We're not even leading from behind anymore, we're just ceding ground to Satanic evil every day.
