OPENING QUOTES

'If sinners be damned, at least let them leap to Hell over our dead bodies. And if they perish, let them perish with our arms wrapped about their knees, imploring them to stay. If Hell must be filled, let it be filled in the teeth of our exertions, and let not one go unwarned and unprayed for. "

...Charles Spurgeon

God Is for You

If God is for us, who can be against us?

—Romans 8:31

Scripture reading: 1 John 4:16–5:5

*I*t does not matter where you are if God is with you. He who is for you is a million times greater than all who can be against you. Oh, if by the grace of God we could only see that the blessings of God's divine power come to us with such sweetness, whispering to us, "Be still, My child. All is well." Be still and see the salvation of the Lord.

What would happen if we learned the secret to asking once and then believing? What an advantage it would be if we could come to a place where we know that everything is within reach of us. God wants us to see that every obstacle can be removed. God brings us into a place where the difficulties are, where the pressure is, where the hard corner is, where everything is so difficult that you know there are no possibilities on the human side. God must do it. All these places are in God's plan. God allows trials, difficulties, temptations, and perplexities to come along our path, but there is not a temptation or trial that can come to us without God providing a way out (1 Cor. 10:13). You do not have the way out; it is God who can bring you through.

Many believers come to me and want me to pray for their nervous systems. I guarantee there is not a person in the whole world who could be nervous if he or she understood 1 John 4. Believe that God loves you!

Every expression of love is in the heart. When you begin to pour out your heart to God in love, your very being, your whole self, desires Him. Perfect love cannot fear (1 John 4:18).

Thought for today: Perfect love means that Jesus has taken hold of your intentions, desires, and thoughts and has purified everything.

GREAT QUOTES from TOZER

"Trust God in the dark until the light returns." - AW Tozer

"I am convinced that many evangelicals are not truly and soundly converted. Among the evangelicals it is entirely possible to come into membership, to ooze in by osmosis, to leak through the cells of the church and never know what it means to be born of the Spirit and washed in the blood. A great deal that passes for the deeper life is nothing more or less than basic Christianity."

- AW Tozer

"Our most pressing obligation is to do all in our power to obtain a revival that will result in a reformed, revitalized, purified church."

- AW Tozer

"Though the cross of Christ has been beautified by the poet and the artist, the avid seeker after God is likely to find it the same savage implement of destruction it was in the days of old. The way of the cross is still the pain-wracked path to spiritual power and fruitfulness. So do not seek to hide from it. Do not accept an easy way. Do not allow yourself to be patted to sleep in a comfortable church, void of power and barren of fruit. Do not paint the cross nor deck it with flowers. Take it for what it is, as it is, and you will find it the rugged way to death and life. Let it slay you utterly." - AW Tozer

"The Holy Spirit did not come to make them of one accord, He came because they were of one accord. ... It is not the music that tunes your piano, it's the tuned piano that makes your music."

- AW Tozer

"Sin is a poisonous weed that throws the whole nature out of order. The inner life disintegrates; the flesh lusts after forbidden pleasures; the moral judgment is distorted so that often good appears evil and evil good; time is chosen over eternity, earth over heaven and death over life." - AW Tozer

A CALL TO ARMS, A CALL TO ARMS

Sound the Alarm yes Sound the Alarm
A Call to Arms yes a Call to Arms
For years the Watchmen have warned of things yet far away
Now the alarm is sounding for that which is upon us today.

Destruction upon destruction for the whole land is spoiled
The people have become foolish and in evil are embroiled.
O my soul the sound of trumpet the alarm of war
What vials have been opened; what from them will be poured?

Blow the trumpet in Zion and sound an alarm in My Holy Mountain
The works of the nations have been seen and the sins of the people counted.
Let the priests and the ministers of the Lord now weep
We did not keep His statutes and now the tares are more than the wheat.

Many believe we have now won a great battle and have folded their hands to sleep
But we have not as yet even entered into battle but beware the war upon us creeps.
America has but chosen a man for office and how he leads we are yet to see
And too many deluded by their bondage believe their chains make them free.

America has awakened briefly before, only to hit the Snooze and return to our sleep
Thinking there is peace and safety when there is no safety and there is no peace.
We have ignored the promise of blessing and curse for those that divide God's land
America is leading the charge with 70 nations to implement their coveted two state-plan.

Now is the time to put on the raiment proper for the conflict
Time to put on the whole armor that Yahuah provided us with Knowing the weapons of our warfare are not carnal or hidden in the shadows
But mighty through God to the pulling down of strongholds.

Strongholds that have been built for centuries
Ruled and protected by powers and principalities
Possessing many different modalities using multiple personalities
Commonalities, nationalities and political formalities to insure their finality.

That finality being known by many different names
But ignored by many and those who exposed it are shamed.
Called conspiracy theorist if you expose the New World Order
And while we sleep the enemy marches ever forward.

Some say we have received a reprieve at this moment
I say we have an opportunity and if we squander it we will lament.
For too long we have been found wanting when in the balance we were weighed
It is time to fold our hands, not to sleep but to fervently pray.

Many terrible things are ready to be released upon mankind

How you fair will depend upon with whom you are aligned,
In the midst of the darkness will burn Revival's Fire
To seek a Great Awakening is that to which we must aspire.

The Fire will light the way for those who have called upon the Living God for sight
It will be a Refiner's Fire but those unprepared and unrepentant will face an awful plight.
Those things the Watchmen warned about haven't gone away
That is why the bells are ringing and the alarm goes out today.

This is a call to those who claim His Name for revival for repentance and to pray
The enemy hasn't given up rather they are gearing up to escalate the fray.
Sound the Alarm yes Sound the Alarm
This is a Call to Arms, a Call to Arms.

The land before us has been like Eden the beautiful garden
But behind us it will be desolate if our hearts remain hardened.
We cannot claim that our hearts are not granite and hard as stone
When the unborn babes cry out from where their discarded bodies were thrown.

We cannot claim we are not stiff necked when Truth is trampled in our streets
We cannot claim our consciences are not seared when artists and leaders hold spirit feasts.
Destruction upon destruction is cried; for spoiled is the whole land
It is time for tearing down for building up and upon our knees to take our stand.

What blessings or what cursing lie before the people today?
Has not life or death been set before us as the Scriptures say?
Choose life that both thou and thy seed may live.
No greater warning, or opportunity, could Yahuah give.

Let him who has an ear hear and answer the Spirit's call
The Principalities and Powers are inciting a terrible squall
It is time to Sound the Alarm yes Sound the Alarm
Do you hear the Call to Arms, the Call to Arms?

WHAT I KNOW (Randy Conway)

I don't know much about politics or what this administration might or might not do

I don't know much about geo-engineering or why the sky suddenly isn't quite as blue

I don't know much about Trans-Humanism or what's in their DNA stew

And I don't know for sure if someday robots will rise and the world will rule.

I don't know much about mind control or if the guy next door is manipulated

I don't know much about shadow governments or what for our future they have slated

I don't know much about the economy--will it fail, be stagnated or become hyper-inflated?

And I don't know much about medicine or how many vaccines and drugs are contaminated.

I don't know a lot about Fallen Angel technologies or those who seek its power

I don't know for sure if the Large Hadron Collider is the next generation of Nimrod's Tower

I don't know a lot of theology or eschatology; are we in the final age, the final days or final hours?

And I don't know a lot about astronomy; could the earth be the target for a destructive meteor shower?

I don't know much about electronics or if Big Brother listens to my every conversation
I don't know a lot about Antarctica, if there are secrets there or just a weather station
I can't explain dimensions, the Divine Council or the mysteries of creation
I can't unravel the Babylon Code or the abomination that brings desolation.

I haven't studied military planning or when we'll engage in World War Three
I don't know why the earth is cracking or how poisoned are the seas
I've not seen the Watchers or the giants but I don't have to see in order to believe
I haven't studied physiology but it seems to me most people are deceived.

I don't know about tomorrow, if it should be anticipated or should be feared
I never heard the strange sounds reported that other people hear
But what I know is that whatever comes, my Savior promised He is always near His promises are not confusing and His love for me is clear.

I know these things all exist, are true and they are real
I know that these are facts and not beliefs or how one feels

I know tomorrow many things will come our way and we must stand as steel

And I know no one can really stand against tomorrow, rather we must kneel.

I know that God the Father sent His Son so that I might be redeemed

And the future that He has planned for me is more than I could dream

I know that I can trust in Him no matter how life seems

And above Him is no other, He is Transcendent and Supreme.

I may not have great knowledge that is envied, lofty or grand

But there is an old song I know and its lyrics state my stand

“Many things about tomorrow I don’t seem to understand

But I know who holds tomorrow and I know He holds my hand.”

“Not called!’ did you say?

‘Not heard the call,’ I think you should say.

Put your ear down to the Bible, and hear Him bid you go and pull sinners out of the fire of sin. Put your ear down to the burdened, agonized heart of humanity, and listen to its pitiful wail for help. Go stand by the gates of hell, and hear the damned entreat you to go to their father's house and bid their brothers and sisters and servants and masters not to come there. Then look Christ in the face — whose mercy you have professed to obey — and tell Him whether you will join heart and soul and body and circumstances in the march to publish His mercy to the world.”

will be religion without the Holy Ghost, Christianity
without Christ, forgiveness

"A Prayer for Spiritual Revival":

Disturb us, Lord, to dare more boldly, To venture on wider seas Where storms will show your mastery;
Where losing sight of land, We shall find the stars.
We ask You to push back The horizons of our hopes; And to push into the future In strength, courage, hope, and love. Because we have dreamed too little, When we arrived safely Because we sailed too close to the shore. Disturb us, Lord, when With the abundance of things we possess We have lost our thirst For the waters of life; Having fallen in love with life, We have ceased to dream of eternity And in our efforts to build a new earth, We have allowed our vision Of the new Heaven to dim.
Amen.

OBAMA IS A KING

Prophetic words to lift you up and encourage you to move forward in your walk with Christ.

WEDNESDAY, MARCH 8, 2017

Darkness Comes Quickly

I was praying in the Spirit and asking the Lord for a word for today, for an open vision, about what is to come. He had told me several days earlier that “Obama is a King,” but I did not know what He meant. I felt that He meant something about the 10 kings in Daniel, but He did not say that. I had been praying about President Trump at the time He said it. I have no revelation on Daniel, so I did not know what to do with the information, however, I feel very strongly the Lord is trying to tell us something about what is about to happen on the world’s stage.

Before He would show me these things today, He had me pray protection – I anointed myself, and prayed in the spirit for angelic protection all around my house, my body, my pets, my son, everything, and to cancel all retaliatory attacks. Never in my life has He had me do that.

I should add here that in the end of 2008, around the time the Lord gave me the famine visions, I was shown a revelation about a scripture and a vision started showing me Obama (who had just been elected at the time) had something to do with the Beast. I threw the paper down I was holding because it scared me so bad. At that point, I was still working and I did not even know we were in the end times. I never received the rest of the vision, though I repented and prayed often for it. I later learned from the Lord that He will only show these visions to those who can handle them.

As I began praying in the Spirit, I saw a shadowy Obama and a line of others – a group of maybe 8 or 10 in all, maybe less, I could not see them clearly enough to count them, but I saw such FILTH as I have never seen in any vision, and by instinct, I turned my head so as not to see it because I hate evil and wickedness.

Look and see, My Daughter.

Okay, Lord, I will look. I will see. I will receive the vision. Please show us what is about to come to the earth.

I did not receive an open vision, but a spirit vision about this. I kept sensing “Filthy Abominations.”

The dark men stood pushed together, shoulder to shoulder crowded up. They dwell in heavy darkness and filth like nothing I have ever seen. There is no light in them at all. I sensed fire nearby. And I see their evil smiles as they discuss their plans.

So I prayed more and more in the Spirit and I looked again at the group of men in darkness to see if I could see more.

They were mired in filth – they stood in it almost to their knees. Something so filthy I could not begin to identify it, and it was also on them like a muddy mire on their faces and bodies and hands. They all wore suits, like they were very rich or important men. They are joined by filth and evil and perversion. Obama is in front of them, he stands out from them, always smiling. I think he is their “front man.”

Why do they need a front man, Lord?

I sensed that the others, if they stepped forward in leadership, it would be obvious what they were up to.

Why Obama, Lord? I heard “smooth speech.”

They share their filth. I don't know what that means, but I see them “sharing filth.” It may be filthy lucre, or some type of perversion.

What do they want, Lord?

I saw a giant throne pushing up through the earth, on a globe of the world. This is no ordinary throne, it is wide enough for more than one person. It is HUGE. HUGE. I see them rejoicing as it pushes upward through the earth's dirt. It takes up most of the top of the globe (I saw it come up in the North). It is a very STRONG THRONE, I think that means it will have much earthly power. I did not see anyone on or near the throne when it pushed up.

I see Obama taking gifts or bribes from other countries, to do something evil for them. I don't know what. He is laughing with glee as he pushes them into his pockets. Then I see him resume his smooth speech face, the one he always had when he gave speeches.

I hear "world dominion."

Then the praying turned into warfare tongues, very angry, authoritative tongues. I have prayed those only very occasionally in my lifetime.

Darkness Comes Quickly

Chaos comes to your White House and to the world's scene to distract My people from what is really happening, behind the scenes – only those who seek Me on a deep level and spend much time in prayer will see what is coming before it hits.

There are filthy abominations in high places and they conspire against you, My saints. They conspire to remove Me and My Word from the world you live in. They will stop at no lengths to do this. Their desire is to issue an edict of punishment by death for all Christians, and they plan to do this.

Now they seek the power to take over all things. Their plan of destruction will make this power possible, for they will hold the keys when the destruction comes. Human life has no value to them for they live above it. And it comes quickly.

They plan to attack in ways that appear to be someone else, and bring war to the earth. It will spread quickly when it happens. Much anger and hatred abounds between peoples and they will not hesitate to strike back at these attacks.

NOTE: I saw Obama making a smooth speech, acting innocent, and concerned when this happens, but he had a second face on the back of his head and it was laughing an evil laugh, and then I saw all of the dark men laughing together in secret.

Spiritual darkness will cover the earth
when this happens, My children.
Darkness comes, and it comes quickly.

Amos 8:11-13

- 11 Behold, the days come, saith the Lord God, that I will send a famine in the land, not a famine of bread, nor a thirst for water, but of hearing the words of the Lord:
- 12 And they shall wander from sea to sea, and from the north even to the east, they shall run to and fro to seek the word of the Lord, and shall not find it.
- 13 In that day shall the fair virgins and young men faint for thirst.

Terri Taplin 3-8-17 message457 – (Obama) The Son of Perdition

The Son Of Perdition message457 Just after I was writing the last message I was led to look at the number of words at that point, it was 911, I also saw the number 911 in other things. I remember back in 2009 just after obama came into office I was thinking about how in a short time obama had done worse things than Nixon did and wondered why he was still in office, I heard the Lord say clear, "You are stuck with him." Yesterday I was listening to 2 Thessalonians being read, and as I listened I heard "obama had received the head wound when his term as President ended. He will return, just as in Revelation 17:8, all that have ears to hear and eyes to see to know him for who he is, know he has been revealed as I have told many." I asked the Lord about dreams of other people seeing Trump with a head wound, and that he survived too, and that He had said in messages given through me that none of the government leaders are good. I then heard the Lord say "Give the message." My Children, it is true obama will come back into power, and soon the U.S. will no longer be the most powerful nation in the world as all nations will fall. The world will no longer be as you know it, very soon. The head wounds represented loss of position as the head of the nation and the next wound is loss of standing as a nation. Two wounds, two different men, two different scenarios. Trump will have a head wound because the U.S. will lose its power and obama will be ruler of all nations. The world wanted a king, a new world order, and they shall have what they want, and very soon now it will happen. There were many that tried to warn the world of the UN, and the N.W.O. and were thought of as nuts, or conspiracy theorists, even paranoid. My Children it is not paranoid if someone is out to get you; it is a conspiracy if there are those that are working together to take over, out to put their agenda into action, and take from the rest. All will happen, but this will not happen before I take Mine out. People of the world listen, listen now, as soon the world will be turned upside down, and you will not know which way to go. Many will follow this leader, and they will follow him unto their death, as he is death. The evil that will overtake him, that will come through him, is not of me, but many will not see it; they will see the opposite, they will think they are hearing My voice through him. Do not deceive yourselves thinking that everything is fine, that there is now time for your nations to heal, as Trump is now in office and everything will be alright. It is not alright, and it will not be. I have told you true, everything must come to an end. I will not tolerate the evil in this world or the evil in man any more. This has been told of for many more years than any have been alive, so listen now, it is time. It is time to know My salvation, and My forgiveness. It is time to repent, It is time to let Me make your hearts ready, and it is time to rejoice for all that know Me, as your redemption draws nigh. Yeshua

Since leaving office in January, the former president has tried to emulate the example of George. W. Bush by not commenting on actions taken by the new administration. Jen Psaki, Obama’s former communications director, recently said that “Obama’s inclination would be to follow the Bush model as a person.”

That resolve was broken this weekend as Obama responded to allegations from Donald Trump that he had wiretapped Trump Tower in the run-up to the last election, with his spokesman Kevin Lewis maintaining that “neither President Obama nor any White House official ever ordered surveillance on any U.S. citizen” and that “any suggestion otherwise is simply false.”

NEW: US says prepared to use full range of capabilities against threat

(CNN) — North Korea fired four ballistic missiles early Monday morning in what Japan's leader described as "an extremely dangerous action."

A fifth missile failed to launch, a US official told CNN.

Military authorities in South Korea, Japan and the United States all confirmed the launch of four projectiles, which traveled almost 1,000 kilometers (620 miles) towards the Sea of Japan, also known as the East Sea. One US official said they were intermediate-range missiles.

Three landed inside Japan's exclusive economic zone, Prime Minister Shinzo Abe said, which extends 200 nautical miles from its coastline, according to international maritime law.

The launch underscored the rapid evolution of North Korea's weapons program, which experts say has begun moving at a faster rate to develop and deploy missiles.

"They did a launch a month ago, they're now launching (more) in 30 days. That's a third of the time they used to need," said Carl Schuster, a professor at Hawaii Pacific University.

Jeffrey Lewis, director of the US-based East Asia Nonproliferation Program, told CNN the North Koreans' recent behavior was the sort "you see from a state that is planning to deploy nuclear weapons to its military units."

North Korea preps new missile test as THAAD arrives in South Korea

SEOUL, South Korea -- As a controversial U.S. missile defense system arrives in South Korea, U.S. officials have told CBS News that North Korea appears to be preparing for another launch of a new medium-range missile it first test fired last month, and may also be testing engines for a longer-range intercontinental ballistic missile (ICBM).

U.S. defense officials told CBS News' David Martin on Tuesday that North Koreans were observed the previous day conducting a "missile ejection test" indicating likely preparations for another test launch of the Pukguksong-2, which was tested on Feb. 12.

They were also observed conducting an engine test for what could possibly be the ICBM North Korea is known to be working on.

Earlier Tuesday, the U.S. and South Korean militaries announced that missile launchers and other equipment needed to set up the American Terminal High-Altitude Area Defense system, or THAAD, had arrived in South Korea.

The long-planned deployment of the THAAD began a day after North Korea test-launched four ballistic missiles, which splashed into the Sea of Japan just 200 miles from Japan's coast. It remains unclear whether those missiles were of an older variety, or the newer Pukguksong-2.

Beijing has called on North Korea to suspend its nuclear and missile activities to avoid a "head-on collision" with the US and South Korea. In exchange, Washington and Seoul should halt drills, Chinese Foreign Minister Wang Yi said.

"To defuse the looming crisis on the (Korean) peninsula, China proposes that as a first step, the DPRK [Democratic People's Republic of Korea, or North Korea] may suspend its nuclear and missile activities in exchange for the halt of the large-scale US-ROK [Republic of Korea, or South Korea] exercises," the Chinese official said at a press conference.

North Korea fires 4 'ballistic missiles' amid Seoul's joint drills with US

"The two sides are like two accelerating trains coming towards each other with neither side willing to give way. The question is: Are the two sides really ready for a head-on collision? Our priority now is to flash the red light and apply the brakes on both trains," Wang added.

He noted that the "suspension for suspension" strategy could help break the deadlock between the states and help the negotiation process.

The official also warned South Korea about deploying the US-built THAAD missile defense system, adding that the move undermines China's security.

Beijing's proposal comes at a time of escalating tensions between the US and North Korea.

WikiLeaks says it has obtained trove of CIA hacking tools

WikiLeaks says it has a trove on the CIA's hacking secrets. Washington Post national security reporter Greg Miller explains what these documents reveal. (Dalton Bennett, Greg Miller/The Washington Post)

By Greg Miller and Ellen Nakashima March 7 at 7:01 PM

A vast portion of the CIA's computer hacking arsenal appeared to have been exposed Tuesday by the anti-secrecy organization WikiLeaks, which posted thousands of files revealing secret cyber-tools used by the agency to convert cellphones, televisions and other ordinary devices into implements of espionage.

The trove appeared to lay bare the design and capabilities of some of the U.S. intelligence community's most closely guarded cyberweapons, a breach that is likely to cause immediate damage to the CIA's efforts to gather intelligence overseas and place new strain on the U.S. government's relationship with Silicon Valley giants including Apple and Google.

WikiLeaks, which claimed to have gotten the files from a current or former CIA contractor, touted the trove as comparable in scale and significance to the collection of National Security Agency documents exposed by former U.S. intelligence contractor Edward Snowden.

But while the Snowden files revealed massive surveillance programs that gathered data on millions of Americans, the CIA documents posted so far by WikiLeaks appear mainly to unmask hacking methods that many experts already assumed the agency had developed.

U.S. intelligence officials and experts said details contained in the newly released documents suggest that they are legitimate, although that could not be independently verified, raising new worries about the U.S.

FBI prepares for new hunt for WikiLeaks' source

WikiLeaks said it obtained an alleged arsenal of hacking tools the CIA has used to spy on espionage targets. (Carolyn Kaster/AP)

By Devlin Barrett March 7 at 6:55 PM

The FBI has begun preparing for a major mole hunt to determine how anti-secrecy group WikiLeaks got an alleged arsenal of hacking tools the CIA has used to spy on espionage targets, according to people familiar with the matter.

The leak rattled government and technology industry officials, who spent Tuesday scrambling to determine the accuracy and scope of the thousands of documents released by the group. They were also trying to assess the damage the revelations may cause, and what damage may come from future releases promised by WikiLeaks, these people said.

It was all a familiar scenario for a government that has repeatedly seen sensitive information compromised in recent years.

In the wake of revelations from Army private Chelsea Manning and former National Security Agency contractor Edward Snowden, officials sought to tighten security procedures, and federal agents came under greater pressure to find and prevent secrets from spilling out of the government.

But cracks keep appearing in the system. Last year, the FBI arrested Harold T. Martin III, an NSA contractor who took home documents detailing some of the agency's most sensitive offensive cyberweapons. Some of those files later appeared online, although investigators are still trying to determine Martin's role, if any, in that part of the case.

WIKILEAKS: CIA EXPLORED CAR HACKING TO CARRY OUT “UNDETECTABLE ASSASSINATIONS”

Leak revives mystery behind strange death of Michael Hastings

Paul Joseph Watson | Infowars.com - MARCH 7, 2017 339 Comments

Newly released documents by Wikileaks reveal that the Central Intelligence Agency explored hacking the control systems of modern vehicles, potentially to carry out “undetectable assassinations”.

Thanks to a new whistleblower who some are dubbing Snowden 2.0, the whistleblower outfit has leaked 8,761 files “from an isolated, high-security network situated inside the CIA’s Center for Cyber Intelligence in Langley, Virginia.”

One of the documents released as part of the “Vault 7” dump relates to the CIA’s interest in hijacking computerized control systems that are used in modern cars and trucks.

“As of October 2014 the CIA was also looking at infecting the vehicle control systems used by modern cars and trucks. The purpose of such control is not specified, but it would permit the CIA to engage in nearly undetectable assassinations,” writes Wikileaks.

After the death of journalist Michael Hastings in 2013, who contacted Wikileaks just hours before his death to inform them that he was under FBI investigation, speculation swirled as to whether his apparent high speed car crash in the Hancock Park neighborhood of Los Angeles was actually a targeted assassination.

Attribution of cyber-intrusions and attacks is nearly impossible. A well executed attack can not be traced back to its culprit. If there are some trails that seem attributable one should be very cautious following them. They are likely faked.

Hundreds if not thousands of reports show that this lesson has not been learned. Any attack is attributed to one of a handful of declared “enemies” without any evidence that would prove their actual involvement.

All one might see in a [cyber-]breach, if anything, is some pattern of action that may seem typical for one adversary. But anyone else can imitate such a pattern as soon as it is known. That is why there is NEVER a clear attribution in such cases. Anyone claiming otherwise is lying or has no idea what s/he is speaking of.

There is now public proof that this lecture in basic IT forensic is correct.

Wikileaks acquired and published a large stash of documents from the CIA's internal hacking organization. Part of the CIA hacking organization is a subgroup named UMBRAGE:

The CIA's Remote Devices Branch's UMBRAGE group collects and maintains a substantial library of attack techniques 'stolen' from malware produced in other states including the Russian Federation.

With UMBRAGE and related projects the CIA cannot only increase its total number of attack types but also misdirect attribution by leaving behind the “fingerprints” of the groups that the attack techniques were stolen from.

UMBRAGE components cover keyloggers, password collection, webcam capture, data destruction, persistence, privilege escalation, stealth, anti-virus (PSP) avoidance and survey techniques.

11 Arrested In Sweden As Migrants Riot, Hurl Rocks At Police

As the European Union continues to threaten member states with fines for "falling short" of fulfilling their duties to help international refugees (see "EU Threatens Member States With Fines Over Failure To Accept Refugees"), the daily reminders of why a wave of nationalism is sweeping over Europe in defiance of Merkel's open border policies continue to mount.

The latest example comes from Hallsberg, Sweden where police were called in to stop a brawl at the Alléskolan school that erupted between some 30 people and ultimately resulted in 11 migrants being arrested as they hurled stones at police. Per RT:

A total of 30 people took part in the brawl, which occurred on Monday, Sveriges Radio reported, citing police. They were all wearing hoods and threw stones at the officers, who were called to the scene of the Alléskolan school after reports of a disturbance.

"We have sent a number of police patrols there, and I believe we have dispelled the large gang into smaller groups. [The rioters] disguised themselves, armed themselves with stones they threw at the police. It has been described as a riot-like situation," the news outlet said, citing Hallsberg Police spokesman Stefan Dangardt.

Meanwhile, local media in Hallsberg reported that the brawl was the result of a dispute between two immigrant groups that are new to the area and most of whom are not even students at the school.

According to police and school authorities, most of the rioters were not pupils of the school.

"There are many speculations and rumors, but what we know is that most of those who came here last Friday do not belong to the school. They are not the school's pupils, nor are those who were here [on Monday]," Marie Kilk, director of education at Alléskolan, said.

Media reports claim the rioters were migrants. Swedish SVT reported that the brawl initially broke out between two different immigrant groups, who then started attacking police after they arrived at the scene, as well as reporters from SVT.

North Korea Could Soon Launch Attack on Hawaii

Experts call for immediate upgrade in state's missile defenses

BY: Natalie Johnson

March 8, 2017 5:00 am

North Korea could soon have the capacity to launch an attack on Hawaii that would devastate America's Pacific military bases, accelerating the need for the United States to upgrade missile defenses in the area.

The United States today relies on ground-based ballistic missile interceptors deployed in California and Alaska to protect Hawaii, but these defenses would do little to guard U.S. territory in the Pacific against a North Korean intercontinental ballistic missile (ICBM), which officials believe is nearing completion.

The U.S. Missile Defense Agency in February test fired a new SM-3 Block IIA missile from Hawaii that successfully intercepted an incoming ballistic missile, but the Pentagon does not maintain a permanent missile defense installation or detection capabilities on the Hawaiian Islands.

The Pacific Missile Range Facility in Hawaii hosts an experimental, land-based ballistic missile defense system called Aegis Ashore. The facility served as a prototype for the U.S. missile defense facility in Romania, which was declared operational last year, and another in Poland that will be completed in 2018.

Ariel Cohen, director of the Center for Energy, Natural Resources, and Geopolitics at the Institute for the Analysis of Global Security, told the Washington Free Beacon on Tuesday that the Defense Department needs to immediately upgrade the Aegis Ashore facility in Hawaii from experimental to operational to guard against North Korean aggression.

Trump's new travel ban: One thing to know 01:25

Story highlights

The new executive order does not go into effect until March 16

Lawyers for the challengers say the new travel ban suffers from the same "constitutional and statutory defects" as the original one

(CNN) — Hawaii is not wasting any time challenging President Donald Trump's new travel ban.

Attorneys for the state filed a new 40-page request just before midnight on Tuesday, asking a federal judge to issue a temporary restraining order blocking implementation of the new executive order.

Trump signed a new executive order Monday banning foreign nationals from six Muslim-majority countries from entering the US for 90 days and banning all refugees for 120 days.

"The new executive order is resulting in the establishment of religion in the state of Hawaii contrary to its state constitution; it is inflicting immediate damage to Hawaii's economy, educational institutions, and tourism industry; and it is subjecting a portion of the state's citizens to second-class treatment and discrimination, while denying all Hawaii residents the benefits of an inclusive and pluralistic society," attorneys for the state argued in court filings.

JUDGE: INVESTIGATION INTO OBAMA SPYING ON TRUMP WOULD REVEAL MASS SURVEILLANCE OF ALL AMERICANS

Deep state petrified of pervasive spying being exposed

Paul Joseph Watson | Infowars.com - MARCH 7, 2017 624 Comments

According to Judge Andrew Napolitano, the intelligence community is petrified of a Congressional investigation into claims that Barack Obama spied on Donald Trump because it would expose the fact that every American is under mass surveillance and that their conversations are all being digitally recorded by the NSA.

Appearing on Fox & Friends this morning, Napolitano pointed out that Obama would not have needed FISA court approval to conduct surveillance of Trump and that he could have simply ordered his Attorney General to set it in motion.

"The idea that it was illegal to listen to the phone calls and in person conversations of Donald Trump is wrong," said Napolitano, adding that although it was immoral and unconstitutional, such power has resided in the hands of the president since Jimmy Carter.

He added that it would then be easy for Obama to ask the NSA, which is a part of the military, to turn over any conversation that Trump had with anyone in Trump Tower.

The status of Jerusalem is one of the thorniest issues in the decades-long Israeli-Palestinian conflict.

Israel captured the West Bank and East Jerusalem in 1967, later annexing East Jerusalem in a move never recognized by the international community.

The League "considers setting up any diplomatic mission in Jerusalem or moving it to the city an explicit attack on the rights of the Palestinian people and all Muslims and Christians," Tuesday's resolution read.

Immigration Courts Paralyzed By Case Volume As 300 Judges Face 530,000 Pending Cases

As the President gets ready to sign a new immigration executive order today (see our note here: "Trump To Sign New Executive Order On Travel Bans Today: Will Exclude Iraq, Green Card Holders"), a group of overly burdened federal immigration judges are wondering whether they'll get additional support to tackle their already massive caseload which is sure to only balloon further under Trump's new rules.

As the Associated Press points out, there are 58 immigration courts in 27 states around the country with a total of 301 judges. The problem, of course, is that those 301 judges already face a mountain of 534,000 pending immigration cases which is likely to balloon even higher under Trump's administration.

Of 374 authorized immigration judge positions, 301 are filled. Fifty more candidates are in various stages of the hiring process, which typically takes about a year, said Kathryn Mattingly, a spokeswoman for the Executive Office for Immigration Review.

In all, more than 534,000 cases were pending before immigration courts nationwide in February, according to a recent memo from Kelly.

The massive backlog means that processing errors are a common occurrence and ultimately just result in illegal immigrants getting a free pass to reside in the country even longer.

The backlog and insufficient resources are problems stretching back at least a decade, said San Francisco Immigration Judge Dana Marks, speaking as the president of the National Association of Immigration Judges.

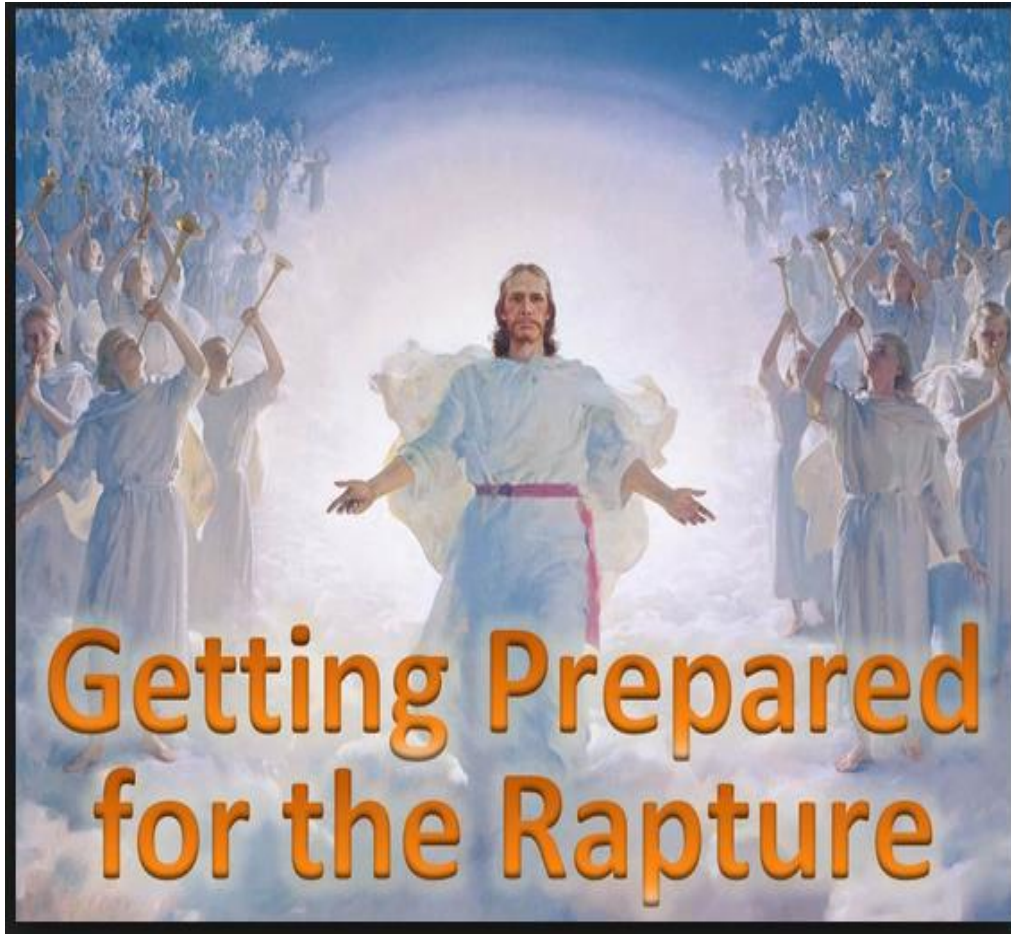

"It would be a shame if the mistakes of the past continue to be repeated," Marks said, citing previous attempts to ramp up enforcement without providing adequate resources to the courts.

When asked if adding more cases to the backlog could threaten the due-process rights of noncitizens, Marks said it is the job of immigration judges to make sure that doesn't happen.

"But the pressures on the system certainly do allow more opportunities for errors to be made," she said. "You try to do your best to hear things fairly but also quickly, and there is always a tension between how you strike that balance."

Pt 1 Listen! The Lion Roars! The birds take flight. You can see the beasts of the earth running.

Look at the sky-it's clear. Shhhhhh. Listen! I hear thunder. I know-How can there be thunder? the sky is clear.

I know, but it looks strange. Something's not right. I have a peculiar feeling. Look over there-it looks like it's Lightning. I think we should go inside-it's lightning and thundering to the east.

I'm going to put the news on to see if something is going on. The newsman says "the lightning and thunder can be Heard and seen all over the world. The lightning is causing fires everywhere."

What's that? It looks like airplanes. I don't know, but I can hear sirens. No, there is something else! Yes, I hear it.

It sounds like a trumpet blowing. Did you hear that???? The news says the government has ordered our planes up. They are tracking something on the radar. Let's go down the street and look at the national guard armory. I can see the trucks coming up the road. I think we Should go over to the store now. The local news just cut in and said the schools are all being let out early. All the national Guard units are on alert. I'm going to stop at the bank first. Hurry up so we can get back before the kids come home.

Pt 2

We'd better hurry! The place looks jammed already. Put the news on. I can't. The tv stations are all off the air.

I'll try the radio. There's nothing. It's off the air too. I think I know what's going on. Let's get what we need and get home.

Look! None of the street lights are working. We will have to take the back roads. See if your cell phone works. No-it's dead.

I can feel the earth shaking. Remember that earthquake we had? The doors were moving and the pictures. I think this is What the Bible calls "the end of time" when Jesus returns, or The Day of the Lord. They say it will be a regular day.

No one knows when, but the signs are all available to see for those with eyes, and those with ears can hear the warnings.

I guess God gave warnings like He did in the time of Noah, and no one listened. They all laughed at the warnings.

God (?) made fun of it until it started to rain. Guess what? I think it's raining.

Barb adds:

That's very intriguing. It's a glimpse. It's going to be a regular day. The Second Coming of Christ- no one is going to expect it,

Just like the Day of Noah. Everyone was just going about their regular business...

You know time is short when I'm getting a prophecy like this about The Day of the Lord and the Second Coming of Jesus.

The Seven Thunders Revealed

Posted on December 21, 2011 by John Baptist

They Fly Like the Wind And Come From Afar

The Seven Thunders of Revelation have been revealed. I am satisfied what these saints have been shown in the truth. It matches everything I have uncovered in my research over the years. Glory to Jesus and our Heavenly Father for revealing these things in the “latter times”. Indeed we live in the “latter times”.

Praise the Holy Lord Jesus Christ and our awesome Heavenly Father God. Since many people cannot access You Tube videos, I have manually transcribed (as best as possible) the prophecy shared in the video below.

The DAY OF THE LORD

Isa 13:1-16

The burden against Babylon which Isaiah the son of Amoz saw.

2 "Lift up a banner on the high mountain,
Raise your voice to them; Wave your hand,
that they may enter the gates of the nobles.

3 I have commanded My sanctified ones; I have also called My mighty ones for My anger — Those who rejoice in My exaltation."

4 The noise of a multitude in the mountains,
Like that of many people! A tumultuous noise of the kingdoms of nations gathered together! The Lord of hosts musters The army for battle. 5 They come from a far country, From the end of heaven — The Lord and His weapons of indignation, To destroy the whole land.

6 Wail, for the day of the Lord is at hand! It will come as destruction from the Almighty.

7 Therefore all hands will be limp, Every man's heart will melt, 8 And they will be afraid. Pangs and sorrows will take hold of them; They will be in pain as a woman in childbirth; They will be amazed at one another; Their faces will be like flames.

9 Behold, the day of the Lord comes, Cruel, with both wrath and fierce anger, To lay the land desolate; And He will destroy its sinners from it. 10 For the stars of heaven and their constellations Will not give their light; The sun will be darkened in its going forth, And the moon will not cause its light to shine.

11 "I will punish the world for its evil, And the wicked for their iniquity; I will halt the arrogance of the proud, And will lay low the haughtiness of the terrible. 12 I will make a mortal more rare than fine gold, A man more than the golden wedge of Ophir. 13 Therefore I will shake the heavens, And the earth will move out of her place, In the wrath of the Lord of hosts And in the day of His fierce anger. 14 It shall be as the hunted gazelle, And as a sheep that no man takes up; Every man will turn to his own people, And everyone will flee to his own land. 15 Everyone who is found will be thrust through, And everyone who is captured will fall by the sword. 16 Their children also will be dashed to pieces before their eyes; Their houses will be plundered And their wives ravished.

LOVE YOUR ENEMIES

32 'If you love those who love you, what benefit is that to you? For even sinners love those who love them.

33 And if you do good to those who do good to you, what benefit is that to you? For even sinners do the same.

34 And if you lend to those from whom you expect to receive, what credit is that to you? Even sinners lend to sinners, to get back the same amount.

35 But love your enemies, and do good, and lend, expecting nothing in return, and your reward will be great, and you will be sons of the Most High, for he is kind to the ungrateful and the evil.

36 Be merciful, even as your Father is merciful. (Luke 6 : 32-36 - ESV)

Yes.

The scripture says "I SAW THE BRIDE coming down as the New Jerusalem" So this is simply saying that the Bride of Jesus, also known as the "remnant", the "remnant Bride", the "Wise Virgins" (ref. Matthew 25,) the holy and righteous believers (ref. Eph 5:27) are essentially in a glorified condition and residents of the New Jerusalem.

If you go back to Terri Hill's last radio show, she does a fabulous job of explaining this dynamic which reveals a wide range of Bible mysteries including why SOME of the people are not assigned to go into the New Millennium.

That mystery is capture in these verses here:

Rev 20:4-6

The Saints Reign with Christ 1000 Years

4 And I saw thrones, and they sat on them, and judgment was committed to them. Then I saw the souls of those who had been beheaded for their witness to Jesus and for the word of God, who had not worshiped the beast or his image, and had not received his mark on their foreheads or on their hands. And they lived and reigned with Christ for a thousand years. 5 But the rest of the dead (The Saints in Heaven, e.g., the Bride) did not live again (they stayed in Heaven) until the thousand years were finished. This is the first resurrection (Note: the first resurrection is the "rapture"). NKJV

I hope this is a little helpful
God bless you

Johnny I have run into alot of pastors and some well known and others who say the bride of Christ is new Jerusalem, a place, not the remnant. Is this one of those times when scripture uses a place interchangeably with the people it represents? I mean I've looked up scriptures to show that the bride cannot just be the place. Its symbolism. He is also called the bridegroom and then there is the marriage supper of the Lamb. These people seem to know the scriptures but yet they don't see that He's not betrothed to a city but its people that will reside there. Why are they blind to that? Its right there in their faces. I mean I myself have been looking at these scriptures myself and see it. I'm no theologian Johnny. I'm not trying to be ugly about this but these are people that stop short and don't look at the whole picture.

Yes brother. Always please remember that the devil hijacks everything from our Father God. The more it belongs to God the more He hijacks and contorts it so the sheep will say "that's of the devil" and run away.

11:11 is our Father's way to signal to us. He is calling our attention to our soon departure our soon rapture our soon ascension to heaven. The new Agers don't ascend brother, they "descend". See? It's OUR signal not theirs

The ancient Chaldeans also saw 11:11 as a sign of very very bad dark times. Well that's also true. Since once we ascend, Jacobs Trouble (the Great Tribulation) pummels the earth.

So we have to see past the deception, know who really ascends and who doesn't, and then we can "take back" our Father's spiritual provisions for our use as they were originally intended.

God bless you

John,

Hope you are well brother and having a great Saturday! I just wanted to tell you something that's been happening to me all week and ask you your opinion on it.

I'm seeing 11:11 every single day now. It's really getting crazy brother it's like I'm automatically prompted to look at the clock every single time. It happens in the morning and at night if I'm awake. It's really weird. I heard you mention something about it on a show recently and wanted to know your thoughts. All my research is kind of getting into New Age.

However, to make it even more wild one time I saw it and was researching it and I prayed to God and asked what it means. I was then prompted to look at Jeremiah 11:11

Jeremiah 11:11 KJV

[11] Therefore thus saith the Lord , Behold, I will bring evil upon them, which they shall not be able to escape; and though they shall cry unto me, I will not hearken unto them.

So all the research I was doing was bringing me to New Age type responses and made it out to be something positive then I'm brought to this verse.

Any thoughts?

GOD BLESS YOU!

11:11 CONFIRMATION

It is the glory of God to conceal a matter, but the glory of kings is to search out a matter(Proverbs 25:2).

When we search out a matter that is a spiritual mystery to us, we must rely upon the Holy Spirit to unravel or untie the full message that has been sent. For years I used to see the numbers 11-11 on a continual basis, to a point where it seemed like it was being supernaturally impressed before me. Whenever I randomly happened to look at a clock it would say 11:11. Over time the Holy Spirit explained to me that He was using this particular set of numbers to confirm to me that I was walking in His plan for my life and all was well. Those numbers would pop in the most unexpected places and bring an outward confirmation to an inward leading that I felt was of the Lord. The Lord was working to give me a double witness both inwardly by His Holy Spirit and outwardly through these numbers that I was in His perfect will.

My friend Wade Taylor, who has now gone on to heaven, used to have the continual experience of finding a penny every time he was at a specific place where the Lord wanted Him to be. At times we would eat at a restaurant and talk about the goodness of God and discuss certain spiritual topics that we both enjoyed. Once finished with our meal and before getting up to leave, Wade would look on the floor and pick up a lost penny. He would smile and say, "I always find a penny when I am where the Lord wants me to be."

Ya know what's really fascinating Terri, is that in Pastor Sori Parks' visit to heaven and vision, he was shown that NASA comes forward to tell the whole world that "Aliens" too the people who were actually raptured.

I find this amazing. I wonder if this is "counter intelligence" being used by "the Devil" to trick the entire general population of the world about a program that doesn't really exist so that when they announce this after the rapture, everyone will say OHHH YEAH PROJECT BLUE BEAM

It will be quite interesting to see how this all unfolds. My "guess" is that we will be at the marriage supper by then LOL

After a huge globally publicized deliverance of a possessed woman in the Philippines, on international radio, the demons came back into the woman a day or two later:

This is a quote of what happened next:

. I ordered the demons to tell me why they had returned. They spoke in English through her lips, "She has not asked us to go. She wants us. It is only you who desires for us to leave." Again I demanded that they leave her. Clarita told me they were gone through the window. I explained to her why they returned and told her to tell them to leave and never return. She did. Then, I led her in prayer, pleading the blood of Jesus against them. It was about noon. Clarita was weak from the ordeal. I told the prison officials to let her rest and to give her food. As I was leaving, I said, "Clarita, I am sure these devils will return again. After I am gone, they will come. Then you must order them to leave without my being present to help you. You must say, 'Go, in Jesus' name,' and they will obey." With that, I left the prison compound.

Food For Thought
by George Davis

In 1949 the communist revolution marked the end of all missionary efforts in China. All foreign missionaries were expelled. After the communist takeover the Chinese government bitterly attacked the Church in China, driving it underground.

For 25 years China was closed to any outside "Christian" influences. Little information filtered through the tight-knit bamboo curtain. All remaining Christian leaders were rounded up wholesale and were either imprisoned or killed outright. Everything that was considered "Christian" was destroyed, church building, bibles, hymnals, everything. For 25 years a holocaust far exceeding that, inflicted on the Jews by Nazi Germany, ensued. It is estimated that about 27 million died during this purging.

In 1978 Deng Xiaoping came into power and China opened her borders once again. The western world stood in breathless anticipation. What would they find in the aftermath of such a horrible slaughter? Missionaries from around the world stood ready, poised in anxious intrepidity. Would there even be one surviving believer? Nothing could have possibly prepared them for what they were about to see!

After 25 years of horrendous persecution the missionaries returned to find that the church in China had not been obliterated, as many had feared, but that they had grown in number from the estimated one million believers before the 1949 revolution, to about 30 million. The contrast was amazing! What had caused such unprecedented growth? How could this be? Not only had they grown numerically but they had grown spiritually. The tales of their devotion to Christ are nothing short of inspirational. Most bewildering is the fact that this unparalleled growth occurred without the aid of any of those things that are thought to be essential in denominational churches today. Without the aid of professional pastors/priests, church buildings, bibles, Sunday-school materials, homilies, hymnals and mass gatherings, the Church in China has grown numerically and spiritually to be the most victorious expression of Christ's Church on the earth today. By all accounts, nothing like it has existed since the early Church. The very gates of hell could not prevail against her!

Makes you think doesn't it?

ALBERT PIKE WORLD WAR THREE

"The Third World War must be fomented by taking advantage of the differences caused by the "agentur" of the "Illuminati" between the political Zionists and the leaders of Islamic World. The war must be conducted in such a way that Islam (the Moslem Arabic World) and political Zionism (the State of Israel) mutually destroy each other. Meanwhile the other nations, once more divided on this issue will be constrained to fight to the point of complete physical, moral, spiritual and economical exhaustion...We shall unleash the Nihilists and the atheists, and we shall provoke a formidable social cataclysm which in all its horror will show clearly to the nations the effect of absolute atheism, origin of savagery and of the most bloody turmoil. Then everywhere, the citizens, obliged to defend themselves against the world minority of revolutionaries, will exterminate those destroyers of civilization, and the multitude, disillusioned with Christianity, whose deistic spirits will from that moment be without compass or direction, anxious for an ideal, but without knowing where to render its adoration, will receive the true light through the universal manifestation of the pure doctrine of Lucifer, brought finally out in the public view. This manifestation will result from the general reactionary movement which will follow the destruction of Christianity and atheism, both conquered and exterminated at the same time."

THE PILGRIM CHURCH

The Pilgrim Church:

- A Second Century Letter to Diognetus

He writes “Christians are distinguished from other men neither by country, nor language”, living in such places “as the lot of each of them has determined, and following the customs of the natives in respect to clothing, food, and the rest of their ordinary conduct, they display to us their wonderful and confessedly striking method of life. They dwell in their own countries, but simply as sojourners. As citizens, they share in all things with others, and yet endure all things as if foreigners. Every foreign land is to them as their native country, and every land of their birth as a land of strangers.... They pass their days on earth, but they are citizens of heaven. They obey the prescribed laws, and at the same time surpass the laws by their lives... they are reviled and bless”. Then, speaking of God, he says, He, “who is almighty, the Creator of all things,... has sent from heaven, and placed among men, Him who is the truth, and the holy and incomprehensible Word, and has firmly established Him in their hearts.

A Pastor's Mansion

I saw a very gorgeous mansion, then a certain man was coming out, I knew he had been a pastor on earth. In heaven, they told me, the reason why he had a large and beautiful mansion in heaven, was primarily his giving & helping the needy and the poor, and his praying. These provided materials for his mansion in heaven.

They also explained to me, That different works we do on earth carry different weights in heaven, what God values and esteem high is very much different from what people think, they told me, the works we do that are unnoticed, behind the scenes, that people don't know about and unappreciated are the works that God values more, the works we do out of a pure heart and selfless love, they have great reward in heaven. Then I saw it as GOD sees, what is really important to God, that we must not look for appreciating & reward from men but God, also God values what we do in private than what we do in public.

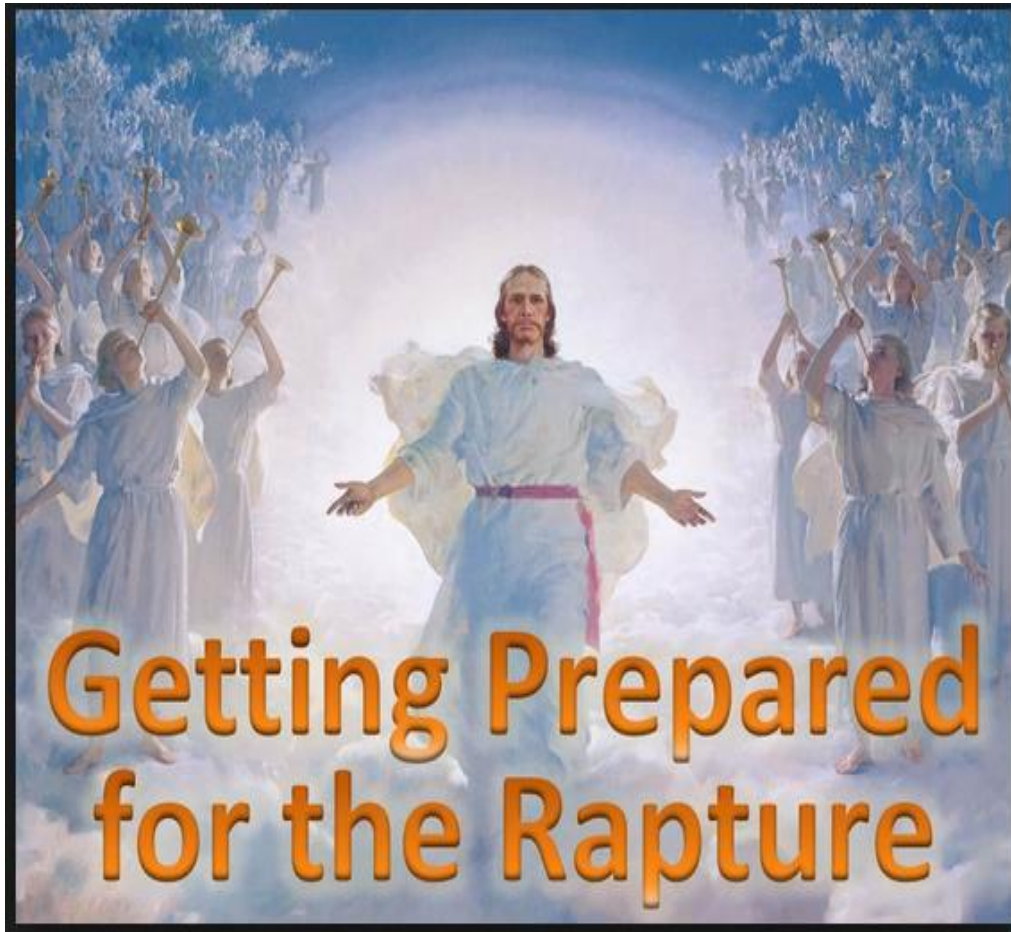

I looked over the City, the bright lights, the golden doors of mansions facing east, the majestic palace, the mansions and houses, the transparent streets of gold, the chariots travelling around, the children playing, saints talking and walking, the gardens, I said "Wow, Heaven is so wonderful". I didn't want to come back but I knew it was my time to go.

LINK ANGELS

It was during that last visit to California that one of the incidents happened that started me on the road to accepting Christ, started me questioning Satan's claim to being more powerful than God. The high priest gathered a number of us together and told us that there was a family nearby who had been interfering with Satan. They had been converting a number of the cult members to the enemy, Jesus Christ, and were making a nuisance of themselves. Satan had given the order for them all to be killed. The high priest told us that we were all to go together in our spirit bodies (astral project), and kill them. So, we sat down in a circle with our candles in front of us and consciously left our bodies going in our spirits to the house to destroy these people. I was not at all enthusiastic about the project, but had no choice. If I had disobeyed I would have been killed.

Much to our surprise, as we arrived at the edge of this family's property, we could go no further. The whole area was surrounded by huge angels. The angels stood side by side holding hands. They were dressed in long white robes and stood so close together that their shoulders touched. They had no armor or weapons. Nobody could get through them, no matter how we tried. Any kind of weapon used merely bounced off of them doing them no harm. They laughed at us at first, daring us to come ahead and try to get through them. The other cult members got more and more furious with each passing moment. Suddenly their countenances changed and the fierce look from their eyes made all of us fall backwards onto the ground. A very humbling experience, I might add!

I will never forget — as I sat on the ground looking up at them, one of the angels looked directly into my eyes and said to me in the most loving voice I had ever heard, "Won't you please accept Jesus as your Lord? If you pursue the course you are taking you will be destroyed. Satan really hates you, but Jesus loves you so much that He died for you. Please consider turning your life over to Jesus." That was the end of the battle for me. I refused to try any longer to get through. I was very shaken. The others tried for awhile longer, but none succeeded. I doubt the family ever knew of the battle going on outside their house. They were completely protected! We called this particular type of special angels "link angels." Absolutely nothing can get through them. I was secretly thankful that we did not get through and the link angels had given me much to think about.

Milton William "Bill" Cooper was an American conspiracy theorist, radio broadcaster, and author best known for his 1991 book Behold a Pale Horse, in which he warned of multiple global conspiracies, some involving extraterrestrial aliens. Wikipedia

Amazingly Bill Cooper, the author of Behold a Pale Horse, made the following statement on page 177 of the book. *“Can you imagine what will happen if Los Angeles is hit with a 9.0 quake, New York City is destroyed by a terrorist-planted atomic bomb, World War III breaks out in the Middle East, the banks and stock markets collapse, Extraterrestrials land on the White House lawn, food disappears from the markets, some people disappear, the Messiah presents himself to the world, and all in a very short period of time? "A Prayer for Spiritual Revival":

Disturb us, Lord, to dare more boldly, To venture on wider seas Where storms will show your mastery; Where losing sight of land, We shall find the stars. We ask You to push back The horizons of our hopes; And to push into the future In strength, courage, hope, and love. Because we have dreamed too little, When we arrived safely Because we sailed too close to the shore. Disturb us, Lord, when With the abundance of things we possess We have lost our thirst For the waters of life; Having fallen in love with life, We have ceased to dream of eternity And in our efforts to build a new earth, We have allowed our vision Of the new Heaven to dim. PREACHERS AND QUOTES

PRAYING THROUGH

What it means to Pray Through Personal experiences in the availing and prevailing' intercessory ministry of Sister E. J. Dabney, as related in an interview and through letters to Sarah Foulkes Moore.

My first acquaintance with Sister Dabney was gained through letters which she sent to a friend from Norfolk, Va., describing the prayer revival which the Lord gave her in that southern city. These letters so stirred me that I made carbon copies of them and mailed them out to prayer group leaders in Los Angeles. AH who read the letters were given a new vision of what it really means to "pray through." Later, Sister Dabney came to Pastor Couche's Church at 33rd and Compton, Los Angeles, where in a prayer revival of a few weeks, God saved almost 200 souls and baptised as many with the Holy Ghost and fire.

Sister Dabney is a sister who makes prayer a business. If she sleeps at all, it is to be refreshed to resume her day and night vigils of prayer and waiting on God. She confines herself to one simple meal a day. She never indulges in any personal friendships, nor does she have light conversation with anyone. Usually she comes quietly to a meeting an hour before the time announced and begins to pray. When the meeting is over she slips quietly away to her room where her REAL ministry of travail for the deliverance of souls is carried on, far into the night.

In an interview Sister Dabney revealed how she came to enter this effective work for God and for souls. Her husband is a preacher. He was sent from a prosperous church in Philadelphia to labour in a poor one. At their first meeting no one was present but themselves. She saw it was going to be a difficult field for it was in the most wicked part of the city. She was made to know that nothing but prayer would touch the situation. She determined to give herself to prayer. She made a vow to God that if He would send sinners to that place and save them, she would give herself three days and three nights each week in the Church to prayer for three years. She vowed during two of these years to fast as well as pray. When she first told her husband of her intentions, he was unwilling to have her spend three days and nights each week in the mission alone in prayer. But the Lord made him to know it was of Him so he took her the next morning early to the river side where she knelt and made her vow unto the Lord.

As soon as this little wife of a hard-pressed minister began to pray alone in her husband's mission, God began to work. Sinners were sent in and soon their little hall was crowded out. Her husband asked her to pray for a larger place. God moved a merchant out of a nicer and larger building across the street and gave them this building. As she continued to pray day and night three days a week in her husband's new church it, too, was crowded out. Again her husband asked her to pray for a larger church. She did and God gave them a fine large church on a main boulevard in the same neighbourhood. Always the meetings were packed out and souls were delivered from sin and believers baptised in multitudes.

One morning at the church door as she was entering to keep her vow of prayer the Lord met her and said, "Go Home." But she did not want to go home. She wanted to pray. Then He asked her if she knew what day it was. She felt led to open her purse and read her vow and discovered from the date on the vow that she had exactly completed the three years she had given to God for prayer. Even though the Lord had shown her that her vow had been fulfilled, she wanted to go into the church and adore and worship Him, but He said again, "Go Home."

She obeyed, everything about her seeming to praise and worship the Lord. When she got home the Lord drew her inside. Her soul was exalting in His Presence. Then He said to her "Go to the basement." She was afraid of the dark basement and hesitated. Why should the Lord ask her to go to such a place? She said, "Lord, if you are going to take me home to glory, first let me see my husband and son." She was afraid the Lord was going to take her home in the midst of all this rejoicing. But she put on perfectly new pumps and went to the basement. Instead of darkness it was filled with a wondrous light. Then the Lord spoke to her again and said, "You have prayed through. Now I have come to bless you."

From the ceiling a fountain poured forth living water and this water rose higher and higher until it engulfed her. The joy and the presence of the Lord was so gloriously manifest to her that she began to dance. The Lord told her wherever she went and prayed He would deliver sinners from their sins, and fill believers with the Holy Spirit. She danced the heels and toes off her brand-new pumps.

This happened six years ago, and God has kept His word. Wherever Sister Dabney goes and gives herself to prayer, sinners are delivered and the saints are filled with the Holy Ghost and fire Thus the Lord mightily anointed her to pray. She does not preach but only counsels saints and sinners to seek the Lord till He is found. The following letters written in the midst of her prayer revival in Norfolk, Va., give an intimate insight into her life of prevailing prayer,

Eyes of Faith (Goiter Lady)

Eyes of Faith

Jesus went about... teaching... preaching... and healing.

—Matthew 4:23

Scripture reading: Isaiah 58:8–12

One day, a young woman from a place called Ramsbottom came to be healed of an enlargement of her thyroid gland. Before she came she said, “I am going to be healed of this goiter, Mother.” After one meeting she came forward and was prayed for. The next meeting she got up and testified that she had been wonderfully healed. She said, “I will be so happy to go and tell Mother about my healing.”

She went to her home and testified to her wonderful healing. The next year when we were having the convention, she came again. From a human perspective, it looked as though the goiter was just as big as ever, but that young woman was believing God. Soon she was on her feet giving her testimony, saying, “I was here last year, and the Lord wonderfully healed me. I want to tell you that this has been the best year of my life.” She seemed to be greatly blessed in that meeting, and she went home to testify more strongly than ever that the Lord had healed her.

She believed God. The third year, she was at the meeting again, and some people who looked at her said, “How big that goiter has become!” But when the time came for testimonies, she was on her feet and testified, “Two years ago, the Lord gloriously healed me of a goiter. I had a most wonderful healing. It is grand to be healed by the power of God.” That day someone questioned her and said, “People will think there is something the matter with you. Why don’t you look in the mirror? You will see that your goiter is bigger than ever.” The young woman went to the Lord about it and said, “Lord, You so wonderfully healed me two years ago. Won’t You show all the people that You healed me?” She went to sleep peacefully that night still believing God. When she came down the next day, there was not a trace or a mark of that goiter.

Thought for today: A faint heart can never have a gift. Two things are essential: first, love; second, determination—a boldness of faith that will cause God to fulfill His Word.

Syrian Refugee Mother Tells Christian Worker, 'God Doesn't Love Us - He Only Loves Americans'

Syrian refugee mothers suffering in makeshift camps across Turkey have expressed a belief that God has "forgotten" them and only cares for Americans, a Christian missionary has revealed.

A Christian leader based in Turkey whose ministry provides aid in unofficial refugee camps shared with Christian Aid Mission that often, Syrian mothers bring their children to aid workers and ask missionaries to pray over them.

"They bring their children to us for prayer," he said. "We ask, 'What would you like us to pray for your child?' They say, 'May they grow up to live a better life, and be healthy.'"

"They are more concerned about their children and ask us for milk, baby food and blankets for their little ones," the director added, explaining that while they have little hope for their own lives, the mothers hope their children will be able to live a better life someday.

The ministry director shared the story of one Syrian woman, whose husband had died fighting for Syrian government forces battling Islamist insurgents. She and her three children, a teen boy and twin 4-year-olds, had gone to Istanbul, Turkey where they begged in order to survive.

Iran Now Has One of Fastest Growing Christian Population As More Muslims Are Having Dreams and Visions of Jesus

By PRECY DUMLAO (email protected) Dec 08, 2015 06:53 PM EST 4 Comments

Despite severe persecution and acts of terror from ISIS headlining the front pages, Christianity remains strong and is, in fact, a fast growing religion in Iran - one of the most hardline Islamic countries in the world today.

In a report from CBN, wherein the interviewees - Iranians visiting Kurdistan - have requested anonymity for their protection, former Muslims are revealing that many are coming to Jesus through supernatural dreams and visions. The dreams are giving them hope amidst the desperation and hardship facing many in the Islamic Republic today.

"Dennis," one such ex-Muslim who had converted to Christianity after having a dream about Jesus, admits that desperation in Iran is driving more people to run to Christ as the answer to their predicament.

"Yes, many people are coming to Christ through a dream. You cannot imagine how Jesus is appearing to them...You know the experience that the Iranian people are passing through right now is very difficult. The only one who can change that situation is Christ Himself," Dennis said.

INTENSIFIED PREVAILING PRAYER

Intensified prevailing prayer is God's ordained law and method for implementing His redemptive plan in this age till Jesus returns. It is the highest, holiest, and mightiest effort of which a child of God is capable. It is God's chosen way to bring heaven's power, heaven's resources, and heaven's angels into action on earth.

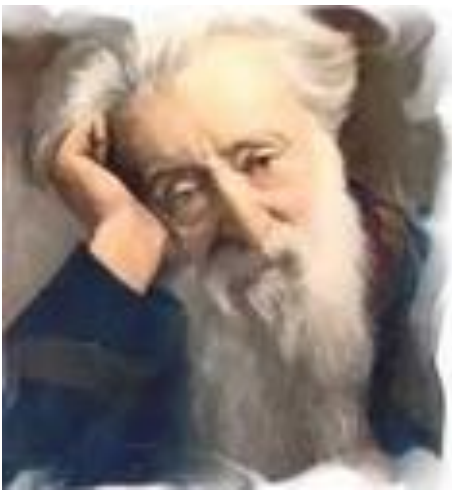

Spurgeon says, "He who knows how to overcome with God in prayer has heaven and earth at his disposal." 1 Intensified prayer is clothed with the might of God Himself.

“Not called!' did you say?

'Not heard the call,' I think you should say.

Put your ear down to the Bible, and hear Him bid you go and pull sinners out of the fire of sin. Put your ear down to the burdened, agonized heart of humanity, and listen to its pitiful wail for help. Go stand by the gates of hell, and hear the damned entreat you to go to their father's house and bid their brothers and sisters and servants and masters not to come there. Then look Christ in the face — whose mercy you have professed to obey — and tell Him whether you will join heart and soul and body and circumstances in the march to publish His mercy to the world.”

Humility in Daily Life

00- Humility by Andrew Murray – Tribulation Now

(6 minutes)

If someone says, 'I love God,' but hates a Christian brother or sister, that person is a liar; for if we don't love people we can see, how can we love God, whom we have not seen? (1 John 4:20) Here's a sobering thought:

God measures our love for Him by the love we show our brothers and sisters in every day fellowship with them. It is a serious thing to realize that our love for God just isn't genuine if it fails the test of daily life with our fellow human beings. The same thing is true with humility. It is easy to think we humble ourselves before God. But humility before people is the only real proof that our humility before God is more than just a figment of our imagination. It is the only true evidence that humility has made a home in our hearts and become our nature. How can we know that we, like Christ, have made ourselves of no reputation? By the reality check of daily life. When in God's presence humility has become more than just a feeling we have when we think about Him or pray, but instead the very Spirit of our lives, it will show itself in the way we treat our brothers and sisters.

OSWALD CHAMBERS

My Unstoppable Determination for His Holiness. “Whether it means life or death—it makes no difference!” (see 1:21). Paul was determined that nothing would stop him from doing exactly what God wanted. But before we choose to follow God’s will, a crisis must develop in our lives. This happens because we tend to be unresponsive to God’s gentler nudges. He brings us to the place where He asks us to be our utmost for Him and we begin to debate. He then providentially produces a crisis where we have to decide—for or against. That moment becomes a great crossroads in our lives. If a crisis has come to you on any front, surrender your will to Jesus absolutely and irrevocably. E

Will You Go Without Knowing?

Will You Go Out Without Knowing?

"He went out, not knowing where he was going" (Hebrews 11:8).

Have you ever "gone out" in this way? If so, there is no logical answer possible when anyone asks you what you are doing. One of the most difficult questions to answer in Christian work is, "What do you expect to do?" You don't know what you are going to do. The only thing you know is that God knows what He is doing. Continually examine your attitude toward God to see if you are willing to "go out" in every area of your life, trusting in God entirely. It is this attitude that keeps you in constant wonder, because you don't know what God is going to do next. Each morning as you wake, there is a new opportunity to "go out," building your confidence in God. ". . . do not worry about your life . . . nor about the body . . ." (Luke 12:22). In other words, don't worry about the things that concerned you before you did "go out."

Have you been asking God what He is going to do? He will never tell you. God does not tell you what He is going to do—He reveals to you who He is. Do you believe in a miracle-working God, and will you "go out" in complete surrender to Him until you are not surprised one iota by anything He does?

Believe God is always the God you know Him to be when you are nearest to Him. Then think how unnecessary and disrespectful worry is! Let the attitude of your life be a continual willingness to "go out" in dependence upon God, and your life will have a sacred and inexpressible charm about it that is very satisfying to Jesus. You must learn to "go out" through your convictions, creeds, or experiences until you come to the point in your faith where there is nothing between yourself and God.

A TERRIBLE WAR

A Terrible War

By Glynda Lomax on Mar 04, 2017 05:09 am

You have felt Me drawing you nearer. You have felt My call to come into My Presence, to spend time in My Word.

Now is the time to strengthen your spirit, to build your faith. The more time you spend with Me, the more you understand how to believe, the more you understand how My Kingdom works.

I explained to My disciples how faith works, and they understood as they spent time with Me each day. It is the same with you, who are also My disciples.

Oh My children, do not wait until it is too late to learn what you must know for these times.

Around you now all seems well, but it is not well. Underneath what you see, war is brewing and will soon break out. A terrible war is coming, such as you have never known. Men will spew hatred through bombs and blasts and the damage cannot be undone. You cannot face famine and loss like what is in your future without faith in Me.

Get understanding, build your faith while there is yet time. Those who do not know Me in this way will perish quickly in that time.

Godshealer7 – The Beast Will Be Knocking on the Door

The son of perdition, the lawless one, is positioning himself. He has made friends of many enemies. He had granted favors, in turn expecting favors, he will once again be placed in power over the multitude, where he will be able to carry out the deeds hidden in his heart. He has been careful to keep his secrets hidden. Only a few can discern the nature of this Beast, for eyes and ears can't see or hear; only the Spirit reveals his name and his number. He has gained the trust of many, yet they are deceived, and will follow him like sheep to the slaughter. My sheep will not follow for they know my voice. My children, the Beast will be knocking on your door-do not open it, for death and suffering accompany him! Trust your spirit and flee, for danger waits in the darkness!!!! Lock your door!!! Do not look upon it!!!

Firewall Protection

In this time of many horrors, those of My Remnant shall have a protection like none other. Those who have not hesitated to sacrifice for My Glory, those who have not hesitated when I said "Give," those who have not gone with the ways of the world, but who follow My Word and obey Me in all things, will have no need to fear.

When the enemy strikes at these, he shall be met with My Firewall Protection. A wall of fire from My Spirit shall consume the enemy where they stand, and leave My Chosen Ones untouched. This protection is not for all, it is only for those who are truly of My Remnant, those who have not hesitated to answer My Call. Those who have laid down their lives and taken up the life I have called them to. Those who rely on Me.

My Firewall shall surround them as the chariots of fire surrounded My Servant Elijah. To the enemy, you will look vulnerable, and in their pridefulness, they believe they will see you fall, but I will defeat them before your very eyes. They shall be caught in their own snares.

My Remnant shall be about My Kingdom business in this time and shall witness of Me boldly. Through them shall I perform many signs and wonders. Many shall be saved from the Kingdom of Darkness where the flames never die, and many jewels shall be in their crowns who consider not their own lives in this time to being Me Glory.

Fear not, My precious ones, for I have a plan. I will surround those who are truly Mine with my Firewall Protection.

Chaos

My children, I have told you this is the Age of Chaos. Chaos will indeed enter into everything in this time. You have seen its effect in your political systems. You have seen its effect in your streets, but it is only started, it shall become far worse.

As chaos continues to spread, it shall enter into your houses. It shall enter into workplaces and schools and churches. If you allow it to, this chaos will steal away your peace and your joy and make you fearful, but I desire this would not be so. I desire My people would stand boldly against all acts of the enemy.

When chaos abounds, draw on My peace that is within you. Refuse to give place to it in your souls. Reject it at every turn, and maintain an even keel. I have left you My peace.

Matthew 24:6

- 6 And ye shall hear of wars and rumours of wars: see that ye be not troubled: for all these things must come to pass, but the end is not yet.

Prepare Your Houses

Much strife and confusion is coming to the earth. There will be eruptions of violence, murder, strife and infighting in various places.

Much tension shall abound, and brother shall strike out at brother. The line is being drawn tight.

(NOTE: In the spirit here, I saw a line, like a tightrope wire, being tightened and tightened, until it looked like it would just snap from the tension.)

When I speak to the angels, what is holding back the war will be released, and battles will break out in many places. War will break out. Fighting and killing will seem to be everywhere at once. This is the beginning of the end. Prepare your houses. Prepare your hearts, for the end is upon you. The end of all things quickly approaches.

My children in the earth, My true children, will shine like a beacon in this dark time. Miracles will abound, My Word will go forth with great boldness and authority as it did in the time My Son Jesus walked the earth, and many souls will be added unto My Kingdom. The end is very near now as these souls enter just before the door is shut.

Prepare your houses. Prepare your hearts, for the end is upon you.

Matthew 24:6-8

- 6 And ye shall hear of wars and rumours of wars: see that ye be not troubled: for all these things must come to pass, but the end is not yet.
- 7 For nation shall rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom: and there shall be famines, and pestilences, and earthquakes, in divers places.
- 8 All these are the beginning of sorrows.

Stay the Course

I have placed some of you in trying circumstances. Your faith and your devotion to Me are being tried. Will you be found faithful?

Stay the course faithfully, in patience, that you may learn endurance, for you need much endurance for what lies ahead for you.

Learn to rejoice no matter your circumstances. Learn to contemplate your eternal salvation, and your great reward in heaven, and let that sustain you when darkness surrounds you in the earth, for you live in a dark time that is quickly growing darker, My children.

Do not contemplate your circumstances, but keep your eyes on Me, and all shall be well.

Great rewards await you all.

THE DEAD WILL LIVE AGAIN

message received February 23, 2017.

Prophesy daughter of Zion, prophesy to My holy, sanctified people. Proclaim the Day of the Lord is at hand! Prophesy to these dry and weary bones that they shall live! Speak into every heart the words of the One True King, arise dead bones and walk! Arise and proclaim the King is coming! Announce to the ends of the earth, the King is coming for His people!

I see your weariness My cherished ones, as I know your hearts better than you know them. You experience much and the heartache runs deeply, but I am come to give you My Living Water to drink. I alone will satisfy. That which you feed most is that which grows. Is it your spirit or is it your flesh and soul's desires? So many of you are reliving past hurts and failures, or holding unforgiveness or bitterness. I tell you, let it go immediately! This is crucial to our intimacy. I cannot inhabit a vessel that will not heed My counsel or follow in My ways.

As I continue to speak to you, I am coming to overfill My Spirit into those who are obedient, who seek Me first in everything and who live according to all I have taught you. Do not fall back into past mindsets and behaviors. I have told you it is always darkest before the dawn, but if I am your Light, if I am all you need, then lay your burdens down.

My holy anointing Spirit of Fire and Love is coming to you to equip you for the remaining tasks here. Have I not brought you this far? When did I ever leave or forsake you? If you do not feel Me here with you, it is you who have moved away from Me.

My words to you are as urgent as always. Do not let your guards down. Do not fall into complacency. Events are coming to pass more quickly every day. There is no mistaking that My words are being fulfilled. Man's reasoning and science cannot explain things away. Your weather patterns are increasingly drastic and alarming. The earth is moving and shaking. All is shifting in the physical as the battle in the spiritual rages on.

Do not be fooled into believing things are well, or that there will be peace. You have been warned to watch for the signs in the season of My return. Can you not hear the swords rattling and feel My nearness?

I urge you yet again.

Be vigilant, be sober and diligent in watching for Me. Know how to receive My wisdom and guidance as this will be your only hope when sudden darkness confronts the earth.

Out of My great love for you, I will ask again, are you ready??

Surely, these words are faithful and they are true..

Ready for War

My children, prepare for the war that is coming to America. This will not be a war fought in other countries, but a war fought in your own streets. You will see many you know die before your eyes.

There is dissension brewing in the heart of America, and it will soon boil over. America, though greeted by smiles, also has many enemies. The combination of the two shall be her downfall.

My people are not ready for war, for they hesitate even at using the weapons I have left them in My Word. They are a people faint of heart, unaccustomed to seeing bloodshed, and not courageous for battle.

My people, do you not know I am a God of War? Do you not know I am coming back for the final battle against all evil? Why then do you shy away from the battle before you? Why are My churches filled with smiling imposters, who cannot even face their own sins? How do you plan to survive what is on its way to you? Do you think courage shall suddenly overtake you and you will be filled with faith?

My servant David did not learn faith and courage from doing nothing, but from battling the enemies he met on the way to where he was going. First the lion, then the bear, then the armies who came against Israel.

If you have no courage now, you will have no courage then, and you will fall to the hands of the enemy. Do not be foolish in believing otherwise.

My Remnant

My Remnant in the earth is very small. I desire I would have a great remnant, but it is not so. Those who truly walk with Me, who truly sacrifice for Me, who truly put Me first in all things, are very small in number.

Many believe they are part of My Remnant that are not part. They shall not be protected in what is coming because they do not truly know Me. They make no time for Me, they make no sacrifices to serve Me, they do not put Me first in their lives.

In what is coming, those who think they are Mine will expect many concessions that will not appear, for I do not know them.

Oh My children, be sure of your heart, be sure of your walk. Make time for Me now, for later will be too late for you if you do not.

Walk in wisdom now, and be glad later.

Matthew 24:4

- 4 And Jesus answered and said unto them, Take heed that no man deceive you.

“Everything Has Been Set in Motion and There is No Stopping It!”

JANUARY 17, 2017 3:01 AM BY DIANA PULLIAM 16 COMMENTS

<https://z3news.com/w/everything-set-motion-no-stopping/>

On January 12th, during an intimate prayer meeting, I received a Word from the Lord. This morning, I was shown it wasn't just for our little group. We were praying earnestly for the lost in our families, the nation, and the world in general. We prayed for “whatever it takes” to be done in their lives for an awakening to occur. Then we began to shift our prayers toward major events happening all over the world, such as the 70-nation meeting in Paris, and the presidential inauguration just ahead. But something happened, and our prayers came to an abrupt halt.

Suddenly, we could go no further in “our” petitions. The understanding rose simultaneously within our spirits; our will and wishes needed to be realigned. A deep yearning came over us. We earnestly desired ONLY HIS perfect will be done – no matter what it looked like. Since we didn’t know specifically how to pray from there, we began praying in the Spirit.

After praying in the Spirit several minutes, we all began to cry out for His Holy, Righteous Judgments to fall upon this Earth! Words of praise and thanksgiving began to pour from our lips, as we looked joyfully toward the coming harvest, which will come as a result of His judgments.

A quietness then came over the group. We each sat down, continuing to pray in soft whispers. It was then I heard the Lord speaking, so I opened my mouth, giving utterance as He spoke the following:

“Everything has been set in motion, and there is no stopping it!”

“The darkness is settling all around, but My Light will rise upon you; and will be seen upon you. Others will be drawn towards the Light – many who are now standing in darkness.”

“My Spirit will go forth, will blow across the Earth. This has already begun. I will manifest Myself with signs and mighty wonders. These manifestations will be more than you can even imagine.”

Saints, the Word I received had such a sense of finality. The reason my prayer group wasn’t able to pray with our human understanding was because everything's already been set in motion, and will not be stopped. The Lord didn't want us praying against His will. After praying in the Spirit, instead of voicing our wimpy requests, all of us were crying out for His Righteous Judgments to come! We felt no fear of what's coming, only complete and total trust in the judgments of our God. Psalms 19:9-10 says, "...The judgments of the LORD are true and righteous altogether. More to be desired are they than gold..." So, why would we fear the judgments of God?

He's so loving and gentle with His people, giving us a Word that brought such comfort and peace to our hearts that night. Yes, He confirmed it's judgment time. But instead of shaking in fear, we're to focus on what HE is DOING. The Word tells us, "You will keep in perfect peace, he whose mind is stayed on You, because he trusts in You" (Isaiah 26:3).

Look at what happens as darkness settles around us. His LIGHT will RISE UPON US! Many now in darkness will be drawn towards that Light! His Spirit will blow across the Earth, and Jesus will manifest Himself through mighty signs and wonders!

Pay attention Saints! The Lord is answering our prayers!!! We knew this day was coming. Now it's night-time to rise and shine!

"A great wind will soon blow across this nation, separating wheat from tares. The narrow road, not chosen by many, will be filled with My redeemed, those who have counted the cost yet continue to follow where I lead. The wide road will be strewn with bodies of the fallen, those who chose to set their own agenda and make their own way prosperous.

Deception, great deception has come upon this nation. Judgment comes swiftly. You have been blinded; you have slept, you have not watched, waited and prayed. As with Peter, James and John you could not watch one hour.

'When he opened the fifth seal, I saw under the altar the souls of those who had been slain because of the word of God and the testimony they had maintained. They called out in a loud voice, "How long, Sovereign LORD, holy and true, until You judge the inhabitants of the earth and avenge our blood?" Revelation 6:9-10

The upcoming weeks will see much consternation as evil forces move into position. Disillusioned, defeated millions will search for answers, a quick fix to regain their balance; all the while refusing to seek Me they watch in pained silence the destruction of their dreams and plans. Hope crumbles like a house whose foundation was built on shifting sand but not on a sure foundation. They will not know nor will they recognize the time of their visitation, continuing to search for answers millions will remain disillusioned, defeated and lost.

'Hope deferred make the heart sick.' Proverbs 13:12

The evil one has planned this day since the beginning of time and now, all his plans, his schemes will begin to be manifest. Remnant, are you ready? Do have the faith to believe for what you cannot see? Do you have the strength to stand when all around you is only evil? Do you truly believe that with God all things are possible? Mark 10:27

Evil has invaded your land, your government. Man has sold his soul for fortune and fame. Neither Barack Hussein Obama nor Donald Trump know the truth. Crafty, cunning men of great prowess, both have a part in the evil being perpetrated against this country. Both have a part to play in the entrapment and enslavement of America; groomed, guided, beguiled, chosen from the foundation of the world for such a time as this. Pawns are being moved into position, the stage is set, the actors are in place and soon the greatest performance in the history of mankind will begin. Again I ask, are you ready?

'Like the noise of chariots on the tops of mountains shall they leap, like the noise of a flame of fire that devoureth the stubble, as a strong people set in battle array. Before their face the people shall be much pained: all faces shall gather blackness. Joel 2:5-6'

'The anger of the LORD will not turn back until He fully accomplishes the purposes of His heart. In days to come you will understand it clearly. Jeremiah 23:20''

Sue sent me this...she rarely emails me and even more rarely sends Words from someone else, but she sent me and a few others this Word. This gentleman is a missionary in Kenya...found that on his FB page. Here is the Word: (my highlights bolded)

<https://www.facebook.com/JeffreyKyleStewart/posts/10202716271904599>

The Lord Jesus says:

You are a privileged generation.

You are a generation that makes Me immensely proud.

For it is THIS generation that will walk in FAR more revelation than any previous generation.

It is THIS generation that will walk in FAR more anointing than any previous generation.

The END of a thing is better than the beginning. (Eccl 7:8)

The Days of the Church that you are about to see will far exceed its beginning days recorded in the Book of Acts.

You look in awe at the things I did in the Book of Acts.

You look in awe at the power the Church in the Book of Acts walked in.

I tell you that what My Church is about to walk in shall cause the Church in Acts to be pale in comparison.

The Church you are about to see will walk in far more love, far more unity, and far more anointing than the early church ever imagined.

My prayer for the church to be ONE, even as I and the Father are one, in John 17 will be answered in your generation, just as every prayer I pray is answered. Yes, many of you will see this and rejoice. As will I. What is impossible for man is easily possible for My Father. My People WILL BE ONE just as My Father and I are one. Just as it is in Heaven.

From this unity will flow unified prayer as you have never seen. Just as I honored such prayer with a mighty outpouring of My Spirit in Acts 2:2 and Acts 4:31, I shall honor these unified prayers with a great outpouring that will shake cities as I shook Jerusalem.

The Great Commission will be fulfilled in this generation.

You will see this and rejoice.

My people will walk in such anointing, that:

One will enter a town and every demon will flee. Even demons in people who are possessed will not be able to remain. (sorry, this is my favorite line :)

Another will walk in such anointing that he will enter a hospital, AND EVERY sick person in that hospital shall be healed.

When I turned water into wine, the master of the banquet said that he normally served the best wine first, but at that wedding, he saved the best wine for last.

I tell you, I have saved the BEST DAYS OF THE CHURCH FOR LAST.

I have saved the GREATEST MIRACLES for last, too.

The miracles you saw in the days of Moses, as great as they were, even the splitting of the Red Sea, shall pale in comparison to what you are ABOUT to see.

The miracles you saw in the Days of Joshua, as great as they were, even the stopping of the Sun and the Moon in the sky, shall look SMALL in comparison to what I am ABOUT to do.

Before I return, every person on earth WILL KNOW that the Gospel is true. They may not all accept it, but they will be WITHOUT excuse. (this is what He will show during the 3 DoD IMO)

I am IMMENSELY proud of you.

You are a HIGHLY HONORED generation.

Men from the past longed to see what you will see.

You are the final runners in the relay race.

You are My "A" Team.

Those who came before you are trusting you with the baton.

I am confident you will complete the race before you.

You will make Me proud.

You were created for this day and this time. You will see the Church be what I meant for her to be. You will see this and rejoice. As will I.

“The Bomb Will Come from the East, Not on American Soil”

JANUARY 6, 2017 12:33 AM BY SHERRY GORSLIN 1 COMMENT

I received the following word from the Lord on January 5, 2017:

“The time of preparation is not over. Do not get discouraged or live in despair, but continue this path. I need you to continue this path. Today you trust Me, and hear My voice, for tomorrow you know not what comes.”

As I was praying I kept seeing and hearing a bomb. Then I heard this:

“This will set in motion what must be. The bomb will come from the east. It will not be on American soil. It shall be set off to begin war. The angel of war is at hand, directing and guiding those that will listen. Evil is still in place, and much is being done behind closed doors.

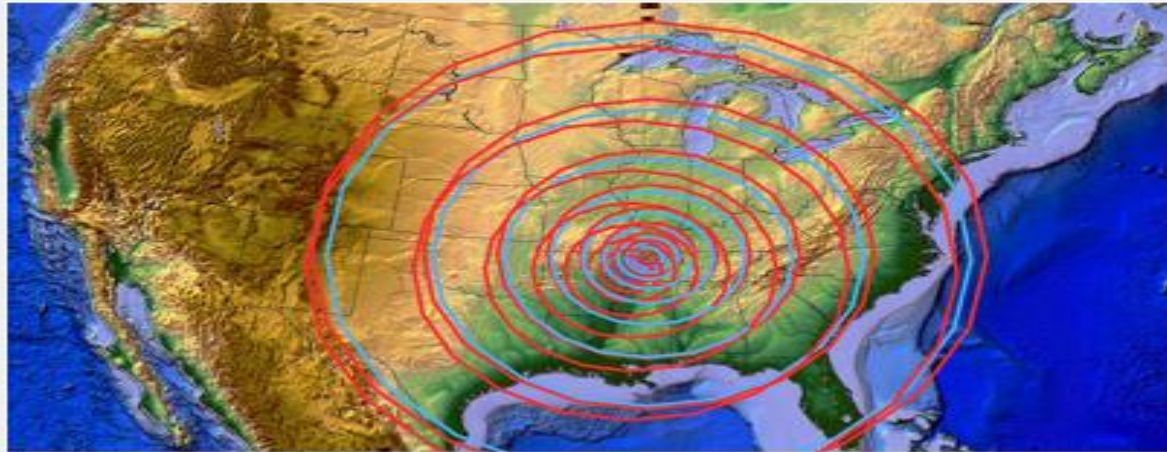

Know this, that Obama’s hand is upon this and he deliberates with those who desire this to be. Trump and all his cabinet are there to fight for you. I have set in place those that will see beyond the deception to the truth.

Watch the hour, because it is near; watch the nations as they come together and then divide. Sides are being taken and war is coming soon; war that you will feel here in the United State; war that every nation will come to know.

Keep your eyes on Israel and who sides with them. Your nation will be divided, not only on principles, but on land. States will come together, and sides will be chosen. Look for this. I have told you so.”

Prophetic Dream Warns of 9.5 Earthquake in United States

DECEMBER 9, 2016 11:52 AM BY ELIZABETH MARIE 85 COMMENTS

In November 2016, I dreamed I was with a bunch a people and somehow I knew we were in the southern part of the U.S.A. We were all standing outside, almost frozen with fear as we waited.

There had been a HUGE earthquake in the north and we were all filled with dread knowing we were about to feel its effects. It seemed like we were to be the last location that was going feel it coming. I told everyone to hang on.

Then, all of a sudden, while waiting for this earthquake to happen, I had a vision within the dream. I saw an outline map of America. I didn't see the state lines, but only the outline of the U.S. Then, the map zoomed to where the earthquake started and I saw a black dot pulsating on the epicenter. The dot was in the upper part of the middle of the country, however, I wasn't sure of which state. It seemed higher than the New Madrid fault. Then I saw '9.5' indicating the level on the Richter Scale. I was not given any dates or timing.

Interpretation:

I believe this dream has a couple of interpretations—dual meanings:

I believe this earthquake might have to do with the New Madrid fault and a massive earthquake occurring that will shake the whole country. A few days after the dream, I saw the U.N. voted for a two-state solution in Israel. The LORD then reminded me of this dream and I knew it was related. So, I believe this has something to do with the division of Israel. Whoever divides HIS land will come in harms- way according to Scripture.

I believe this is about a great divide coming (and has already begun) in the U.S., as we see the lines between good and evil become more and more distinct. This earthquake could unleash more civil unrest in our nation, our communities, as well as within our own families. JESUS said a house divided cannot stand (Mark3:25). I believe that also applies to a nation.

NOTE:

The largest earthquake ever recorded was in 1960—a 9.5 in Chile.

Scripture References:

"I will also gather all nations, and bring them down to the Valley of Jehoshaphat; and I will enter into judgment with them there on account of My people, My heritage Israel, whom they have scattered among the nations; they have also divided up My land." (Joel 3:2)

“Soon My Spirit Will Flood the Earth Like a Huge Ocean Wave”

📅 DECEMBER 19, 2016 🕒 5:15 PM BY KEVIN BARRETT 🗨️ 9 COMMENTS

In my time with the Lord, He said these words to me: “Son, tell My people to seek Me like never before.”

Word from the Lord:

“My people, you are on the threshold of a new era. So many things are about to suddenly change, in both your nation and your individual lives.

For I am preparing and setting the stage for My end-time events. Some of you will be greatly used in these events and My kingdom ministries, yet many others shall only be dismayed. Yet, I tell you now; it does not have to be this way. For if you would render your hearts unto Me, and lay down your lives at My feet, then I shall do a quick work within you.

However, for those who refuse to lay everything down, I give you this warning; soon My Spirit will flood the earth like a huge ocean wave. And if you are not walking in My will, your life as you know it shall come crashing down.

Howbeit, for those walking in My will, this coming wave of My Spirit shall lift you up and carry you to the fullness of your destiny in Christ, so long as you continue walking with Me and endure to the end.

So then, listen well to Me this day when I say repent and repent quickly. For if you are walking in sin and rebellion when this wave comes, it may be your demise when it hits you. Oh, it is not I who shall do this to you, yet you will be snared by your own doings.

But for those walking in obedience when this wave comes; I say get ready to be swept off your feet and into My Spirit. For I shall carry you far above the woes of this world.

Now, this does not mean that you shall be without trials and testings. Yet, My peace which passes all understanding shall carry you. And I shall always make a way for you to fulfill My will and purposes in the earth realm.

Oh, My dearest little ones, My heart is thrilled regarding the days that are ahead. For even though there will be many calamities and woes, there shall also be the greatest move of My Spirit this world has ever experienced. And many souls shall enter into My kingdom in these last days. So then, prepare your hearts before Me and allow My Spirit to make the right adjustments in your attitudes and thinking. And if you give all to Me and allow Me to do this work in you, you shall be thrilled beyond what you have ever imagined. Oh, how I love you all with an everlasting love. And it thrills Me to thrill the hearts of My people. So then, lay everything at My feet and seek Me in your prayer closets. Surely, I will answer you, for I am waiting..."

Food For Thought
by George Davis

In 1949 the communist revolution marked the end of all missionary efforts in China. All foreign missionaries were expelled. After the communist takeover the Chinese government bitterly attacked the Church in China, driving it underground.

For 25 years China was closed to any outside "Christian" influences. Little information filtered through the tight-knit bamboo curtain. All remaining Christian leaders were rounded up wholesale and were either imprisoned or killed outright. Everything that was considered "Christian" was destroyed, church building, bibles, hymnals, everything. For 25 years a holocaust far exceeding that, inflicted on the Jews by Nazi Germany, ensued. It is estimated that about 27 million died during this purging.

In 1978 Deng Xiaoping came into power and China opened her borders once again. The western world stood in breathless anticipation. What would they find in the aftermath of such a horrible slaughter? Missionaries from around the world stood ready, poised in anxious intrepidity. Would there even be one surviving believer? Nothing could have possibly prepared them for what they were about to see!

After 25 years of horrendous persecution the missionaries returned to find that the church in China had not been obliterated, as many had feared, but that they had grown in number from the estimated one million believers before the 1949 revolution, to about 30 million. The contrast was amazing! What had caused such unprecedented growth? How could this be? Not only had they grown numerically but they had grown spiritually. The tales of their devotion to Christ are nothing short of inspirational. Most bewildering is the fact that this unparalleled growth occurred without the aid of any of those things that are thought to be essential in denominational churches today. Without the aid of professional pastors/priests, church buildings, bibles, Sunday-school materials, homilies, hymnals and mass gatherings, the Church in China has grown numerically and spiritually to be the most victorious expression of Christ's Church on the earth today. By all accounts, nothing like it has existed since the early Church. The very gates of hell could not prevail against her!

Makes you think doesn't it?

Iran Now Has One of Fastest Growing Christian Population As More Muslims Are Having Dreams and Visions of Jesus

By PRECY DUMLAO (email protected) Dec 08, 2015 06:53 PM EST 4 Comments

Despite severe persecution and acts of terror from ISIS headlining the front pages, Christianity remains strong and is, in fact, a fast growing religion in Iran - one of the most hardline Islamic countries in the world today.

In a report from CBN, wherein the interviewees - Iranians visiting Kurdistan - have requested anonymity for their protection, former Muslims are revealing that many are coming to Jesus through supernatural dreams and visions. The dreams are giving them hope amidst the desperation and hardship facing many in the Islamic Republic today.

"Dennis," one such ex-Muslim who had converted to Christianity after having a dream about Jesus, admits that desperation in Iran is driving more people to run to Christ as the answer to their predicament.

"Yes, many people are coming to Christ through a dream. You cannot imagine how Jesus is appearing to them...You know the experience that the Iranian people are passing through right now is very difficult. The only one who can change that situation is Christ Himself," Dennis said.

'Come after me': Pennsylvania pol goes off on 'gibbon' Trump in profanity-laced Facebook post

Pennsylvania state Sen. Daylin Leach went after President Trump on Tuesday, branding him a "fascist, loofa-faced, s-gibbon," and challenging him to "come after me."

Leach, a Philadelphia-area Democrat, posted a Politico report on Facebook about the president's recent White House meeting with county sheriffs from across the country. During the meeting, one sheriff brought up civil asset forfeiture, a practice allowing law enforcement to seize money and property belonging to individuals accused of committing a crime, even before a verdict is handed down.

The sheriff, from Rockwall County, Texas, griped about a Texas state senator seeking to change the law so that a conviction would be required before a suspect's assets could be seized.

The sheriff joked that "the cartel would build a monument" to the legislator.

"Who is the state senator? Do you want to give his name? We'll destroy his career," Trump responded.

I found this white alien base on the planet Mercury in NASA photos today. Its oval in shape and raised up several hundred meters high. On its top are several more dark buildings. Also below in one crater was a dark black long structures. The full photo is at the bottom of this post. The crater is about 10 miles across, making this one very large structure. Just something NASA doesn't want you to know.

Former U.S. President George W. Bush Answers About Alien Disclosure Files

Claims of a major cover-up plan have sprung up after former U.S. President George W. Bush refused to divulge his knowledge about alleged classified government UFO files while he was in office. The former Republican President appeared on the Jimmy Kimmel talk show where he was asked about the top secret UFO files of the White House.

Alien disclosure activists have been saying that the White House has evidence of extraterrestrial visitations in Earth, but keep it secret because of fear of the potential impact of the rule of law and religion.

Kimmel asked Bush about his knowledge of the secret UFO documents or if he had gone through them while still a president. However, the 43rd President of the United States showed reluctance to make a definite or committing statement.

When asked if he had gone through such documents, he just answered "maybe." Bush, who was the American President for two terms from 2000 to 2008, then said he was providing nothing away even when he reached 90. It appeared that he would take the truth about aliens and UFOs to the grave.

Black-Eyed Children – And An Adult Too

2 Comments |  March 7, 2017 |  Nick Redfern

As someone who writes extensively on the issue of the Men in Black, I often get asked if I ever receive reports of Black-Eyed Children. Well, yes, I do. Certainly not a large number at all, but still enough to make me believe the phenomenon is utterly real, but completely mind-bending. One of the reasons why I get asked about BEC cases is because of the similarities between the BEC and the MIB. Both dress in black (suits for the MIB and hoodies for the BEC). Both groups are very often described as having extremely pale skin. And, both the MIB and the BEC will do all they can to try and find a way into the homes of the people they target. Also, both categories of “things” are more active at night. With that said, here are a few BEC cases from my files.

Christina George is the founder of the Psychic Paranormal Research Society, and someone who had a disturbing encounter in 2012 that blended the worlds of UFOs and the supernatural into one terrifying cocktail. It's a story that is focused on a strange and disturbing woman, and her equally odd children. And with that said, I will hand over the reins to Christina, who told me the following:

“Back in the summer of 2012 myself and a few members of my paranormal group, here in Sacramento, went up to see a client about a report of being abducted. He was claiming he had an [alien] implant and was experiencing paranormal activity; this was in Redding, California. We finished up our investigation and headed back home. When I got home, it was early in the afternoon and we decided – my roommate and I – we were going to go to the grocery store real quick and then come back. And the subdivision that we lived in had just one entrance; a cul-de-sac; it wrapped around and there was a little street that branched off the cul-de-sac area. It ended up at a dead-end at a green belt. That is where my home was. So, we went to the store, and I was talking to my roommate about all the weird things that had happened in the case and as we pull back to our home, we saw three people standing on our property.”

Snow arriving late this week will be the first of three disruptive snowstorms to parade through the midwestern and eastern United States in mid-March.

Over much of the next 10 days or so, cold weather will be more persistent than it has been during the past 10 weeks, relative to average. The pattern will pave the way for opportunities for snow.

"The first storm will spread snow from part of the lower Great Lakes region to the central Appalachians, the upper part of the mid-Atlantic and southern New England, prior to the end of the week," according to AccuWeather Chief Meteorologist Elliot Abrams.

River in Spain turns a bright shade of green

Residents were left perplexed this week when the waters of Spain's Valira River turned a strange color.

The river, which flows down the Pyrennes Mountains and empties in to the Segre River near Seu d'Urgell, looked like it had been subjected to a toxic spill, prompting concern from locals.

As it turns out however, the disconcerting green coloration of the water was actually the result of a special dye that had been deliberately added to the river as part of an investigation at a nearby water bottling plant.

According to Albert Batalla, the mayor of Seu d'Urgell, the dye was "entirely harmless, non-toxic and biodegradable." Andorra's Ministry of Health also stepped in to reassure those living nearby by stating that the dye was "safe for both people and the environment."

A M4.6 earthquake hit central Switzerland on Monday night, March 6, 2017. This is the strongest quake to hit the country within the last 12 years.

While no damage was reported, police in the cantons of Bern, Aargau, Zurich and Graubünden received dozens of calls from worried residents who felt the quake.

Switzerland was shaken by its biggest earthquake for 12 years on March 6, 2017. via SED

The quake struck at 9.12pm at a depth of 5km under the summit of the Ortstock mountain in the canton of Glarus, around 6km west of the town of Linthal.

So many people visited the SED's website after the earthquake that it crashed.

Statistically earthquakes of this size happen once every few years in Switzerland.

About a dozen aftershocks were detected after the main event, with more to be expected in the coming days. It is however unlikely that there will be an earthquake with a similar or even larger magnitude than the main shock but this cannot be excluded.

The last quake of a similar magnitude occurred just over the French border in Vallorcine in 2005 but was felt widely in the Swiss canton of Valais. Last year's biggest quake was a M4.1 near Leukerbad in the Valais in October.

'No getting out of this': Major earthquake 'certain' to hit Southern California, study says

It is simply a matter of time before a major earthquake hits Southern California, according to a new study by the US Geological Survey (USGS), which examined patterns of historic quakes. The only question is how long it will be before the 'Big One' strikes.

The study – the most extensive of its kind – examined a section of the San Andreas fault that runs along Interstate 5, near Frazier Mountain in northeast Kern County.

"One of the reasons why this location is of importance is because in Southern California, the Big Bend, Carrizo, and Mojave sections of the San Andreas Fault accommodate 50-70% of plate motion. This means that the seismic hazard is high," according to Temblor.

Mass Death and Extinction of the Bees! Could be catastrophic to mankind within four years as many species have dropped by up to 90%

In just three years' time the World will have lost two-thirds of all wild animals. This amazing statistic from The Living Planet Index goes on: The number of wild animals living on Earth is set to fall by two-thirds by 2020, according to a new report, part of a mass extinction that is destroying the natural world upon which humanity depends.

However what I would like to focus on today is the plight of bees of which Albert Einstein was credited with this quote; "If the bee disappeared off the face of the Earth, man would only have four years left to live!" (There is no proof he actually said this.)

Perhaps the biggest foreboding danger of all facing humans is the loss of the global honeybee population. The consequence of a dying bee population impacts man at the highest levels on our food chain, posing an enormously grave threat to human survival. Since no other single animal species plays a more significant role in producing the fruits and vegetables that we humans commonly take for granted yet require near daily to stay alive, the greatest modern scientist Albert Einstein once prophetically remarked, "Mankind will not survive the honeybees' disappearance for more than five years."

(Daily Post) — The youth wing of the Christian Association of Nigeria (CAN), 19 Northern states, yesterday said over 900 churches have been lost to Boko haram terrorism in the North east.

It therefore urged the Federal Government to rebuild the churches and also re-establish Nigeria Inter Religion Council (NIREC) with a view to curbing incessant religious violence in the country.

Speaking after its National Executive Council (NEC) meeting held in Gusau, Zamfara State, the youth wing Chairman, Evangelist Musa Misal, noted that demolished churches that needed to be rebuilt were spread across Gombe, Yobe, Adamawa, Borno, among others.

HYDERABAD, India (Morning Star News) – A week after a pastor fell into a coma following harassment by hard-line Hindus in southern India, a gang of Hindu extremists in the same state beat another pastor after he prayed for healing at the home of an elderly church member, family members said.

Police altered the statement of Gandham Padma Rao, 49, so that the 10 young men who assaulted him on Jan. 27 in Medipally village, Telangana state, were described only as drunken youths, not members of a Hindu nationalist group as the pastor had stated, his son told Morning Star News.

Pastor Rao fulfilled church duties the two days after the assault before seeking medical help, and doctors told family members that his blood pressure was so high that he could have suffered a hemorrhage had he waited any longer. Another pastor, 47-year-old K.A. Swamy of Hyderabad, on Jan. 21 fell into a coma after suffering high blood pressure and a brain hemorrhage hours after Hindu extremists threatened him with highly offensive language and took him to police for distributing Bibles.

Pastor Rao's son, Samuel Mark, told Morning Star News his father had left the home of the elderly church member, who had just been released from a hospital, at about 9:30 p.m. and was walking to his car when the young men blocked his way with their motorcycles.

When the pastor ignored them and began walking on the other side of the road, one of the assailants shouted, "Why are you coming to our village? Why are you praying here?" as four others began hitting him, knocking him to the ground, relatives said.

Pastor Rao and eyewitnesses said the youths were members of the Hindu nationalist Vishwa Hindu Vahini.

MOSUL, Iraq — Members of the barbaric Islamic group ISIS, which identifies itself as the Islamic State of Iraq and Syria, recently cut off the hands of two children for refusing to execute civilians.

Alsumaria News reports that the incident occurred in the ISIS-occupied territory of Mosul, being tipped off by an anonymous source.

“The Islamic State’s leaders issued orders to train a group of children on fighting in the group’s camps in Nables neighborhood, in the western side of Nineveh,” it outlined. “Meanwhile, members of the Islamic State terrorist group amputated the hands of two children for refusing to carry out the execution sentence on two civilians in front of their families.”

The children were between 10 and 12 years old.

As previously reported, just last month, a mother and her four children were reportedly burned alive in Kirkuk for leaving the jurisdiction of the caliphate.

“Members of the Islamic State burned a whole family that consisted of a mother and four children (three girls and a 9-month-old boy) in Hawija, for leaving the land of caliphate and fleeing toward Kirkuk,” Iraqi News outlined on Jan. 14, citing a source who desired to remain anonymous.

It said that the family was captured while fleeing the area, and then bound, doused with crude oil, and set ablaze.

A Chinese megapastor has been arrested on charges of embezzling funds, according to persecution watchdog China Aid. The Texas-based charity reports that Gu 'Joseph' Yuese was formally arrested on Jan. 7, 2017, after being detained by police before Christmas. Christians in Pakistan

In what some people are calling the most high-profile religious persecution case since the Cultural Revolution, the former pastor of China's largest state-run megachurch was arrested on Saturday by a local public security bureau in China's coastal Zhejiang province, according to persecution watchdog China Aid. Authorities reportedly re-apprehended Gu "Joseph" Yuese sometime before Christmas; on Jan. 7, his family received an announcement he had been arrested on charges of embezzling funds.

As the former chairman of the Hangzhou Municipal China Christian Council, a local branch of the China Christian Council (CCC), which, along with the Three-Self Patriotic Movement (TSPM), comprises China's two government-run Christian organizations, Gu is the highest-profile Christian official to be targeted for quite some time, reports Christian News Wire.

The report, which is produced annually by Open Doors USA, found that persecution of Christians rose globally for the third year in a row, reaching “unprecedented levels” in countries located in South and Southeast Asia, among other locations.

“Christians throughout the world continue to risk imprisonment, loss of home and assets, torture, beheadings, rape and even death as a result of their faith,” the report stated.

The World Watch List (WWL) ranks the 50 countries across the globe where persecution of Christians is most severe.

In 25 years of chronicling and ranking the political and societal restrictions on religious freedom experienced by Christians worldwide, Open Doors researchers identified 2016 as the “worst year yet.”

The report corroborated an earlier study from the Turin-based Center for Studies on New Religions (CESNUR), which found that during the year 2016, some 90,000 Christians were killed for their faith around the world.

Thirty Chinese Police Surround House Church, Order Congregants to Stop Worshiping

New religious rules scheduled to be adopted in China on Oct. 7, 2016, will negatively affect the church's open community there, warn Catholics. In addition, the rules will place hefty financial fines on unapproved religious activities and severely hamper local residents' interaction with foreign supporters, say opponents. CNS photo/Wu Hong Chinese authorities surrounded a house church in Beijing before raiding the building and ordering congregants to stop meeting - or face legal action.

According to China Aid, an international non-profit Christian human rights organization committed to promoting religious freedom and rule of law in China, the Shengai Fellowship Family Church in Beijing had organized a gathering on Oct. 7 in the home of Xu Yonghai, an elder in the church.

After receiving word of the gathering, police raided and terminated the meeting. More than thirty police officers guarded the building and demanded the gathering be cancelled.

'He Died a True Christian': Syrian Woman Tells Story of Son Who Died Refusing to Deny Faith in Christ

A Syrian woman recently shared the heartwrenching story of the death of her 18-year-old son, who was shot and killed by ISIS-aligned militants after he refused to deny his faith in Christ.

Alice Assaf of Adra al-Ummaliya near Damascus told her story to Dr. Yvette Elbayadi Isaac of the American human rights group Roads of Success, which posted the interview online.

Over two years ago, Assaf was informed by a neighbor that the militants had entered the city and were killing Christians. She sought a way of escape, but never felt safe enough to do so, since "passersby were systematically killed."

Assaf and her children took refuge at a neighbor's house, where they began hearing of the atrocities that were being committed in the city.

"We heard that the militants grabbed six strong men working at the bakery and burned them alive in the oven," she recalled. "After that, they caught some 250 kids and kneaded them like dough in the bakery dough machine."

She said that the oldest child was four years old.

Dozens of Chinese Christians Beaten, Detained By Authorities As Persecution Rages On

By LEAH MARIEANN KLETT (NEWS@GOSPELHERALD.COM) Oct 27, 2016 10:53 AM EDT

China Aid's "Chinese Government Persecution of Christians and Churches in China" report found there has been a 4.74 increase in persecution in 2016 compared to last year. Reuters

Dozens of Christians were detained and beaten by authorities in China's central Henan province as the Communist government tightens its grip on believers in the country.

According to persecution watchdog China Aid, witnesses said police officers from the Nanle County Public Security Bureau beat a local Christian on September 25, then detained and beat 20 more believers for their beliefs and arrested them all.

Zhang Mingxuan, a pastor and president of the Chinese House Church Alliance, condemned the actions of the Nanle police and called on the international community to unite in prayer for those persecuted in China.

"It is against the national constitution and laws for house church believers to be beaten by Nanle County Public Security Bureau," he said. "A lot of problems have been caused because they [the public security bureau personnel] control, attack and persecute Christianity in Henan. I hope the international community will pray for them."

On Thursday, the day after Yom Kippur when God judges all of creation, the United Nation Educational, Scientific and Cultural Organization (UNESCO) passed its resolution on “Occupied Palestine” in Paris, listing all of Judaism’s holiest sites as Islamic, while blaming Israel for the violence in the region.

Times of Israel published the entire text of the resolution. Some of the more egregious points are:

-It refers to the holy sites in Arabic, “Al-Aqsa Mosque/Al-Haram Al-Sharif and its surroundings”. The Temple Mount is noted to be “a Muslim holy site of worship and as an integral part of a world cultural heritage site”.

Johnnie Moore, a Christian author and humanitarian, is slamming President Barack Obama and Democratic presidential nominee Hillary Clinton for their action — or inaction — when it comes to the Christians currently facing "genocide" in the Middle East.

In an interview with Newsmax TV earlier this week, Moore told host J.D. Hayworth that members of the Obama administration have "sat on their hands" during the brutal killings and displacement of Christians in the region as the Islamic State continues to seize land.

"If you support Christians who have been the recipients of genocide in the Middle East," Moore said, "you're called 'Islamophobic,' and it's just incomprehensible."

Moore, who authored the book "Defying ISIS: Preserving Christianity in the Place of Its Birth and in Your Own Backyard," went on to tell Hayworth that both Obama and Clinton are responsible for the "systematic dismantling of religious freedom in this country, and they have sat on their hands while hundreds of thousands, if not millions and millions, of Christians have been displaced and killed."

To that end, Moore offered a new phrase to describe Obama's administration, accusing the president of "Christophobia." Moore, who said he has spent considerable amounts of time working with Muslim refugees, said he and others have been called "Islamophobic" for simply "speaking up for Christians."

ISIS TORTURES 11-YEAR-OLD IN FRONT OF HIS CHRISTIAN MISSIONARY FATHER, CRUCIFIES THEM FOR NOT CONVERTING TO ISLAM

More incredible horrors from the evil Islamist terrorists of ISIS.

From Christian Aid Mission:

“ At several steps on their path to death by beheading and crucifixion last month, 11 indigenous Christian workers near Aleppo, Syria had the option to leave the area and live. The 12-year-old son of a ministry team leader also could have spared his life by denying Christ.

The indigenous missionaries were not required to stay at their ministry base in a village near Aleppo, Syria; rather, the ministry director who trained them had entreated them to leave. As the Islamic State (ISIS), other rebel groups and Syrian government forces turned Aleppo into a war zone of carnage and destruction, ISIS took over several outlying villages. The Syrian ministry workers in those villages chose to stay in order to provide aid in the name of Christ to survivors.

“I asked them to leave, but I gave them the freedom to choose,” said the ministry director, his voice tremulous as he recalled their horrific deaths. “As their leader, I should have insisted that they leave.”

They stayed because they believed they were called to share Christ with those caught in the crossfire, he said.

From Christian Aid Mission:

At several steps on their path to death by beheading and crucifixion last month, 11 indigenous Christian workers near Aleppo, Syria had the option to leave the area and live. The 12-year-old son of a ministry team leader also could have spared his life by denying Christ.

The indigenous missionaries were not required to stay at their ministry base in a village near Aleppo, Syria; rather, the ministry director who trained them had entreated them to leave. As the Islamic State (ISIS), other rebel groups and Syrian government forces turned Aleppo into a war zone of carnage and destruction, ISIS took over several outlying villages. The Syrian ministry workers in those villages chose to stay in order to provide aid in the name of Christ to survivors.

“I asked them to leave, but I gave them the freedom to choose,” said the ministry director, his voice tremulous as he recalled their horrific deaths. “As their leader, I should have insisted that they leave.”

They stayed because they believed they were called to share Christ with those caught in the crossfire, he said.

And then they became captives of ISIS. Relatives relate what happened.

The relatives said ISIS militants on Aug. 7 captured the Christian workers in a village whose name is withheld for security reasons. On Aug. 28, the militants asked if they had renounced Islam for Christianity. When the Christians said that they had, the rebels asked if they wanted to return to Islam. The Christians said they would never renounce Christ.

The 41-year-old team leader, his young son and two ministry members in their 20s were questioned at one village site where ISIS militants had summoned a crowd. The team leader presided over nine house churches he had helped to establish. His son was two months away from his 13th birthday.

In front of the team leader and relatives in the crowd, the Islamic extremists cut off the fingertips of the boy and severely beat him, telling his father they would stop the torture only if he, the father, returned to Islam. When the team leader refused, relatives said, the ISIS militants also tortured and beat him and the two other ministry workers. The three men and the boy then met their deaths in crucifixion.

“All were badly brutalized and then crucified,” the ministry leader said. “They were left on their crosses for two days. No one was allowed to remove them.”

The martyrs died beside signs the ISIS militants had put up identifying them as “infidels.”

Somehow people want us to believe that these evil monsters would have been boy scouts if George W. Bush hadn't invaded Iraq. And of course, it has absolutely nothing to do with Islam, right?

Unfortunately, other horrors were recounted as well. These perpetrated on Christian women.

Eight other ministry team members, including two women, were taken to another site in the village that day (Aug. 28) and were asked the same questions before a crowd. The women, ages 29 and 33, tried to tell the ISIS militants they were only sharing the peace and love of Christ and asked what they had done wrong to deserve the abuse. The Islamic extremists then publicly raped the women, who continued to pray during the ordeal, leading the ISIS militants to beat them all the more furiously.

As the two women and the six men knelt before they were beheaded, they were all praying.

“Villagers said some were praying in the name of Jesus, others said some were praying the Lord's prayer, and others said some of them lifted their heads to commend their spirits to Jesus,” the ministry director said. “One of the women looked up and seemed to be almost smiling as she said, ‘Jesus!’”

After they were beheaded, their bodies were hung on crosses, the ministry director said, his voice breaking. He had trained all of the workers for their evangelistic ministry, and he had baptized the team leader and some of the others.

This is what is happening in the Middle East right now.

And instead of doing anything about it, Obama is sitting back and letting Turkey's Erdogan attack his enemies among the Kurds in Syria, and letting Putin attack the enemies of his pal Assad. We're not even leading from behind anymore, we're just ceding ground to Satanic evil every day.

NEW YORK (FOX5NY) - A cluster of cases of a rare bacterial infection that is spread by contact with rat urine has killed one person and sickened two others in the Bronx. The infection can develop into an illness that affects the victim's kidneys and liver.

The New York City Health Department says all of the cases are linked to one block in the Concourse area of the borough. While one person has died, the other two have recovered and are doing well, according to health officials.

Leptospirosis is a bacterial infection that is most commonly spread by contact with rat urine and is very rarely spread from person to person.

The worst outbreak of bird flu in years has killed almost a 100 people in China! The death toll since the start of the year has been unmatched in years

RSOE ALERT MAP Click on image to enlarge red squares indicate human cases of bird flu.

China is ordering the closure of live poultry markets in its south-central regions where the worst outbreak of bird flu in years has killed almost a 100 people.

State media reported Friday that the National Health and Family Planning Commission ordered closures anywhere that cases of the H7N7 strain had been detected.

Most reported cases have been found in the densely-populated Yangtze and Pearl river deltas that generally experience mild, wet winters that are ideal for the virus's transmission.

The death toll since the start of the year has been unmatched since at least 2013.

In addition to the market closures, the commission is training health workers in the screening, early diagnosis and treatment of the disease, while urging people to avoid contact with live birds.

Yellow fever responsible for killing thousands of monkeys in Brazil is now killing humans: Brazil issued emergency situations for 63 cities

- Officials declared emergency situation in 64 cities in Minas Gerais and are sending millions of extra doses of vaccines to three states days before Carnival.

SÃO PAULO, BRAZIL – The federal government of Brazil has issued emergency situations for 63 cities in Minas Gerais and one in Espírito Santo due to the outbreak of yellow fever.

Since the beginning of the year authorities have confirmed 44 people died of the disease and over seventy other suspected deaths are being investigated.

At least 30 people have died in the Brazilian state of Minas Germ over the past week due to yellow fever, while the total number of suspected cases has risen to 110, health authorities confirmed Thursday.

According to the state's Secretariat of Health, among the 30 dead, 10 have been proven to be caused by the disease, while all the others tested positive for yellow fever.

The outbreak seemed to be getting worse as the number of cases has risen from 48 to 110 over the last week.

Yellow fever is an acute viral disease which can kill a sufferer in less than a week if not treated timely.

It is mainly transmitted by the bite of an infected female mosquito.

Yellow fever is also commonly found in monkeys but now appears to be infecting humans as yellow fever is thought to be behind the death of thousands of rare monkeys found in the rain forests of Brazil

The outbreak started last year in South America and has now spread to humans killing nearly a hundred people this year already.

The authorities have rushed vaccines to hospitals, where long queues await inoculation.

The US State Department issued a warning for the Americans, saying they are under threat "wherever they are."

WASHINGTON (Sputnik) — US citizens are targets for terror groups that can use traditional and non-conventional weapons to carry out attacks, the US Department of State said in a worldwide caution alert on Monday.

"Terrorist groups including ISIS [Daesh], al-Qa'ida, their associates and those inspired by such organizations, are intent on attacking US citizens wherever they are," the warning stated.

"Extremists may use conventional or non-conventional weapons to target US government and private interests."

The State Department noted that terrorists seek to attack so-called soft targets, such as hotels, parks and public transportation systems, using edged weapons, pistols and vehicles as weapons.

The warning also said US government facilities worldwide remain at a heightened alert.

"These facilities may temporarily close or periodically suspend public services to assess their security posture," the State Department added.

Terror groups continue to plot attacks in the European Union as fighters return to the region from Syria and Iraq, the warning added.

Ex-CIA Chief Warns of Increased Terror Threat in US Amid Trump's Travel Ban

Stockman: "After March 15 Everything Will Grind To A Halt"

by Tyler Durden

Two weeks after David Stockman warned that "the market is apparently pricing in a huge Trump stimulus. But if you just look at the real world out there, the only thing that's going to happen is a fiscal bloodbath and a White House train wreck like never before in U.S. history" and exclaimed that, when looking at markets, "what's going on today is complete insanity" he is back with another interview, this time with Greg Hunter of USAWatchdog in which he, once again warns, that a giant fiscal bloodbath is coming soon, and urges listeners to pay especially close attention to the March 15, 2017 debt ceiling deadline, at which point everything could "grind to a halt."

As Greg Hunter writes, former Reagan Administration White House Budget Director David Stockman says financial pain is a mathematical certainty. Stockman explains, "I think we are likely to have more of a fiscal bloodbath rather than fiscal stimulus. Unfortunately for Donald Trump, not only did the public vote the establishment out, they left on his doorstep the inheritance of 30 years of debt build-up and a fiscal policy that's been really reckless in the extreme. People would like to think he's the second coming of Ronald Reagan and we are going to have morning in America. Unfortunately, I don't think it looks that promising because Trump is inheriting a mess that pales into insignificance what we had to deal with in January of 1981 when I joined the Reagan White House as Budget Director."

So, can the Trump bump in the stock market keep going? Stockman, who wrote a book titled "Trumped" predicting a Trump victory in 2016, says, "I don't think there is a snowball's chance in the hot place that's going to happen. This is delusional. This is the greatest suckers' rally of all time. It is based on pure hopium and not any analysis at all as what it will take to push through a big tax cut. Donald Trump is in a trap. Today the debt is $20 trillion. It's 106% of GDP. . . . Trump is inheriting a built-in deficit of $10 trillion over the next decade under current policies that are built in. Yet, he wants more defense spending, not less. He wants drastic sweeping tax cuts for corporations and individuals. He wants to spend more money on border security and law enforcement. He's going to do more for the veterans. He wants this big trillion dollar infrastructure program. You put all that together and it's madness. It doesn't even begin to add up, and it won't happen when you are struggling with the $10 trillion of debt that's coming down the pike and the $20 trillion that's already on the books."

Then, Stockman drops this bomb and says:

"I think what people are missing is this date, March 15th 2017. That's the day that this debt ceiling holiday that Obama and Boehner put together right before the last election in October of 2015. That holiday expires. The debt ceiling will freeze in at $20 trillion. It will then be law. It will be a hard stop. The Treasury will have roughly $200 billion in cash. We are burning cash at a $75 billion a month rate. By summer, they will be out of cash. Then we will be in the mother of all debt ceiling crises. Everything will grind to a halt. I think we will have a government shutdown. There will not be Obama Care repeal and replace. There will be no tax cut. There will be no infrastructure stimulus. There will be just one giant fiscal bloodbath over a debt ceiling that has to be increased and no one wants to vote for."

Stockman also predicts very positive price moves for gold and silver as a result of the coming budget calamity.

There is much more in the video interview below in which Greg Hunter goes One-on-One with David Stockman.

As North Korea missile threat grows, Japan lawmakers argue for first strike options

By Tim Kelly and Nobuhiro Kubo

TOKYO (Reuters) - Rattled by North Korean military advances, influential Japanese lawmakers are pushing harder for Japan to develop the ability to strike preemptively at the missile facilities of its nuclear-armed neighbor.

Japan has so far avoided taking the controversial and costly step of acquiring bombers or weapons such as cruise missiles with enough range to strike other countries, relying instead on its U.S. ally to take the fight to its enemies.

But the growing threat posed by Pyongyang, including Monday's simultaneous launch of four rockets, is adding weight to an argument that aiming for the archer rather than his arrows is a more effective defense.

"If bombers attacked us or warships bombarded us, we would fire back. Striking a country lobbing missiles at us is no different," said Itsunori Onodera, a former defense minister who heads a ruling Liberal Democratic Party committee looking at how Japan can defend against the North Korean missile threat. "Technology has advanced and the nature of conflict has changed."

Mexico has canceled existing sugar export permits to the United States in a dispute over the pace of shipments, according to a letter seen by Reuters, in a flare-up industry sources said could temporarily disrupt supplies.

The letter sent by Mexico's sugar chamber to mills on Monday partly blamed the situation on unfilled positions at the U.S. Department of Commerce, which it said has led to a "legalistic" interpretation of rules with no U.S. counterparts in place in Washington for Mexican officials to negotiate with.

The cancellations are the latest dispute of a years-long trade row between Mexico - the United States' top foreign supplier of sugar - and its neighbor at a time when cane refiners are struggling with prices and tight supplies, U.S. industry sources said.
