The Prophetic Words of Holy Spirit Wind with brother Jeff Byerly

Join Johnny Baptist while he discusses the empirical events across the world leading up to World War III, the trickery and deceit of the New World Order, and the bizarre weirdness of the fallen angelic UFO phenomenon as we plunge head first into the forthcoming apocalypse and the Seven Seals of Revelation (chapter 6). Join us tonight for a fascinating program with brother Jeff Byerly from the web site holyspiritwind.blogspot.com. Brother Jeff will share with us a number of powerful, and relevant prophecies given through him by the Lord. The Lord has used brother Jeff to speak words that cover a wide range of topics from the deception of the American elections, to the more elusive mysteries of the fallen angels. This will prove to be an interesting show.

where we will seek Him to uncover the answer. This process releases within us the true kingly and prophetic anointing that He desires for us to walk in. Consider the following Scripture:

It is the glory of God to conceal a matter, but the glory of kings is to search out a matter (Proverbs 25:2).

When we search out a matter that is a spiritual mystery to us, we must rely upon the Holy Spirit to unravel or untie the full message that has been sent. For years I used to see the numbers 11-11 on a continual basis, to a point where it seemed like it was being supernaturally impressed before me. Whenever I randomly happened to look at a clock it would say 11:11. Over time the Holy Spirit explained to me that He was using this particular set of numbers to confirm to me that I was walking in His plan for my life and all was well. Those numbers would pop in the most unexpected places and bring an outward confirmation to an inward leading that I felt was of the Lord. The Lord was working to give me a double witness both inwardly by His Holy Spirit and outwardly through these numbers that I was in His perfect will.

My friend Wade Taylor, who has now gone on to heaven, used to have the continual ex-

'If sinners be damned, at least let them leap to Hell over our dead bodies. And if they perish, let them perish with our arms wrapped about their knees, imploring them to stay. If Hell must be filled, let it be filled in the teeth of our exertions, and let not one go unwarned and unprayed for. '

FIRST - FEAR OF THE LORD

Matt 7:13

13 "Enter by the narrow gate; for wide is the gate and broad is the way that leads to destruction, and there are many who go in by it.

NKJV

Matt 5:29-30

29 If your right eye causes you to sin, pluck it out and cast it from you; for it is more profitable for you that one of your members perish, than for your whole body to be cast into hell.

NKJV

1 Peter 4:17-18

17 For the time has come for judgment to begin at the house of God; and if it begins with us first, what will be the end of those who do not obey the gospel of God? 18 Now

"If the righteous one is scarcely saved,
Where will the ungodly and the sinner appear?"

NKJV

Heb 10:26-28

26 For if we sin willfully after we have received the knowledge of the truth, there no longer remains a sacrifice for sins, 27 but a certain fearful expectation of judgment, and fiery indignation which will devour the adversaries.

NKJV

1 Peter 1:17

17 And if you call on the Father, who without partiality judges according to each one's work, conduct yourselves throughout the time of your stay here in fear;

Rev 3:1-6

3 "And to the angel of the church in Sardis write,

'These things says He who has the seven Spirits of God and the seven stars: "I know your works, that you have a name that you are alive, but you are dead. 2 Be watchful, and strengthen the things which remain, that are ready to die, for I have not found your works perfect before God. 3 Remember therefore how you have received and heard; hold fast and repent. Therefore if you will not watch, I will come upon you as a thief, and you will not know what hour I will come upon you. 4 You have a few names even in Sardis who have not defiled their garments; and they shall walk with Me in white, for they are worthy. 5 He who overcomes shall be clothed in white garments, and I will not blot out his name from the Book of Life; but I will confess his name before My Father and before His angels.

PRACTICE RIGHTEOUSNESS IN FEAR OF GOD

1 John 3:7-8

7 Little children, let no one deceive you. He who practices righteousness is righteous, just as He is righteous. 8 He who sins is of the devil, NKJV

1 John 5:18

18 We know that whoever is born of God does not sin; but he who has been born of God keeps himself, and the wicked one does not touch him. NKJV

1 Cor 11:28-32

But let a man examine himself, (...) 30 For this reason many are weak and sick among you, and many sleep. 31 For if we would judge ourselves, we would not be judged. 32 But when we are judged, we are chastened by the Lord, that we may not be condemned with the world.

NKJV

2 Cor 7:1

7 Therefore, having these promises, beloved, let us cleanse ourselves from all filthiness of the flesh and spirit, perfecting holiness in the fear of God.

Ps 33:18-19

Behold, the eye of the Lord is on those who fear Him,

NKJV

Ps 34:15

The eyes of the Lord are on the righteous, and His ears are open to their cry.

NKJV

Ps 34:9

Oh, fear the Lord, you His saints!
There is no want to those who fear Him.
NKJV

Ps 34:17-18

17 The righteous cry out, and the Lord hears,
And delivers them out of all their troubles.
18 The Lord is near to those who have a broken heart,
And saves such as have a contrite spirit

Mal 3:16-17

A Book of Remembrance

16 Then those who feared the Lord spoke to one another,
And the Lord listened and heard them;
So a book of remembrance was written before
Him
For those who fear the Lord
And who meditate on His name.

17 "They shall be Mine," says the Lord of hosts,
"On the day that I make them My jewels.
And I will spare them
As a man spares his own son who serves him."

A Spirit of Hunger and Thirst

Blessed are those who hunger and thirst for righteousness, for they shall be filled.

—Matthew 5:6

Scripture reading: Hebrews 1:8–9; 2:1–18

*T*he Beatitudes of the Spirit are truly lovely. We must emphasize that God will not fail to fill us. No man can “hunger and thirst after righteousness” unless God has put the desire in him. This righteousness is the righteousness of Jesus.

In 1 John 5:4–5, we find these verses: “This is the victory that has overcome the world; our faith. Who is he who overcomes the world, but he who believes that Jesus is the Son of God?” Righteousness is more than paying our way. We hear someone say, “Oh, I never do anything wrong to anybody. I always pay my way.” This is simply life in the flesh, but there is a higher “law of the Spirit of life in Christ Jesus” (Rom. 8:2). I must see that Jesus is my perfect righteousness. He came by the power of God:

For what the law could not do in that it was weak through the flesh, God did by sending His own Son in the likeness of sinful flesh, on account of sin: He condemned sin in the flesh.
(Rom. 8:3)

But the divine touches of heaven never leave you stationary but rather increase your thirst and appetite for greater things. Something within makes you press on until you are empty of everything else so that you may be filled with what God is pressing in. This righteousness is a walk with God and a divine inheritance. It is seeking the face of Jesus until you cannot be satisfied without drinking of His Spirit and being overflowed continually with His blessings. I cannot be satisfied without Christ's righteousness. He gives us thirst for the immensity of God's power. It is a divine problem that is solved in only one way: having Him.

Thought for today: Having Him, we have all things.

WHO IS MY MOTHER, BROTHER, AND FATHER?

Matt 12:46-50

Jesus' Mother and Brothers Send for Him (Mark 3:31-35; Luke 8:19-21)

46 While He was still talking to the multitudes, behold, His mother and brothers stood outside, seeking to speak with Him. 47 Then one said to Him, "Look, Your mother and Your brothers are standing outside, seeking to speak with You."

48 But He answered and said to the one who told Him, "Who is My mother and who are My brothers?" 49 And He stretched out His hand toward His disciples and said, "Here are My mother and My brothers! 50 For whoever does the will of My Father in heaven is My brother and sister and mother."

INTENSIFIED PREVAILING PRAYER

Intensified prevailing prayer is God's ordained law and method for implementing His redemptive plan in this age till Jesus returns. It is the highest, holiest, and mightiest effort of which a child of God is capable. It is God's chosen way to bring heaven's power, heaven's resources, and heaven's angels into action on earth.

Spurgeon says, "He who knows how to overcome with God in prayer has heaven and earth at his disposal." 1 Intensified prayer is clothed with the might of God Himself.

Duewel, Wesley L. (2013-08-20). Mighty Prevailing Prayer:

A Pastor's Mansion

I saw a very gorgeous mansion, then a certain man was coming out, I knew he had been a pastor on earth. In heaven, they told me, the reason why he had a large and beautiful mansion in heaven, was primarily his giving & helping the needy and the poor, and his praying. These provided materials for his mansion in heaven.

They also explained to me, That different works we do on earth carry different weights in heaven, what God values and esteem high is very much different from what people think, they told me, the works we do that are unnoticed, behind the scenes, that people don't know about and unappreciated are the works that God values more, the works we do out of a pure heart and selfless love, they have great reward in heaven. Then I saw it as GOD sees, what is really important to God, that we must not look for appreciating & reward from men but God, also God values what we do in private than what we do in public.

--Matthew:6:1: "Take heed that ye do not your alms before men, to be seen of them: otherwise ye have no reward of your Father which is in heaven.2: Therefore when thou doest thine alms, do not sound a trumpet before thee, as the hypocrites do in the synagogues and in the streets, that they may have glory of men. Verily I say unto you, They have their reward.3: But when thou doest alms, let not thy left hand know what thy right hand doeth:4: That thine alms may be in secret: and thy Father which seeth in secret himself shall reward thee openly.5: And when thou prayest, thou shalt not be as the hypocrites are: for they love to pray standing in the synagogues and in the corners of the streets, that they may be seen of men. Verily I say unto you, They have their reward.⁶ But thou, when thou prayest, enter into thy closet, and when thou hast shut thy door, pray to thy Father which is in secret; and thy Father which seeth in secret shall reward thee openly.

I looked over the City, the bright lights, the golden doors of mansions facing east, the majestic palace, the mansions and houses, the transparent streets of gold, the chariots travelling around, the children playing, saints talking and walking, the gardens, I said “Wow, Heaven is so wonderful”. I didn’t want to come back but I knew it was my time to go.

Disturb us, Lord, to dare more boldly, To venture on Where losing sight of land, We shall find the stars.

We ask You to push back The horizons of our hopes; And to push into the future In strength, courage, hope, and love. Because we have dreamed too little, When we arrived safely Because we sailed too close to the shore. Disturb us, Lord, when With the abundance of things we possess We have lost

You are absolutely correct I do not agree with this in the slightest. But then again I really do not think there is anyone on earth that agrees with me. LOL LOL

I simply follow God's prophecies. Godshealer7 said their ministry will end in April of 2019. Dr. Patricia Green said the Lord told her 5 more passovers and that was in 2014 which = April of 2019. Ken Peters prophesied in Sept. of 2015 saying "three more years" (although specifically for what was not mentioned but it aligns). When I spoke with Johnson of the Prophecy Club he told me that 2019 was when the prophets said the USA would be "utterly destroyed" which is also when the rapture happens. I could go on and on but I guess what I am trying to propose is that listening to the Lord's prophets has certain major advantages to it that other people and methods simply do not have. So a lot of people think I have theories or ideas but its really not me. I am only repeating what God's "prophetic voice" is saying amid his children. And the really cool thing is it's not ONE prophet but many that are all saying the same thing.

I hope this is a little helpful

I like to think of this as "listening to God" and not to "men". At least its a little closer to that.

God bless you so much

[REDACTED] was interviewed recently - very interesting, as usual - but he was asked for his opinion on timing. He said 2035-40, which seems outrageous to me - but he also said he believes the 2nd coming will be fulfilled at the fall feasts, with the rapture at the last trump of the feast of trumpets, then the 10 day marriage supper in heaven (He says marriage suppers lasted 10 days), corresponding to the 10 days of awe, and then the day of atonement at the battle of armageddon, when the bride returns with Christ. This lines up with what I have always believed, except I didn't know the marriage supper was the 10 days - how cool! I think the remnant of the bride will be on earth thru all but the very last days of total destruction. However, I would like to know how he comes up with 19 to 24 years left. I know you don't agree with this, but I also know you have the gummy crows in reserve, just in case! Because you have amazing humility and open mindedness! Yes .. these are paid mercenaries and military operations that have mind controlled patsies to persuade the public they are lone shooters. From Charlie Hebdo, to San Bernardino, its all a setup up or orchestrated collapse of the American republic, with military precision that aligns to the Albert Pike letters from 1871

From now until January 20th we will watch the collapse of America and martial law get instituted. Nuclear bombs in cities, chemical and biological war, and ultimately global thermonuclear war.

This is precisely what the purveyors of the New World Order have planned for thousands of years. The master plan came from the fallen angels.

ALBERT PKE WORLD WAR THREE

"The Third World War must be fomented by taking advantage of the differences caused by the "agentur" of the "Illuminati" between the political Zionists and the leaders of Islamic World. The war must be conducted in such a way that Islam (the Moslem Arabic World) and political Zionism (the State of Israel) mutually destroy each other. Meanwhile the other nations, once more divided on this issue will be constrained to fight to the point of complete physical, moral, spiritual and economical exhaustion...We shall unleash the Nihilists and the atheists, and we shall provoke a formidable social cataclysm which in all its horror will show clearly to the nations the effect of absolute atheism, origin of savagery and of the most bloody turmoil. Then everywhere, the citizens, obliged to defend themselves against the world minority of revolutionaries, will exterminate those destroyers of civilization, and the multitude, disillusioned with Christianity, whose deistic spirits will from that moment be without compass or direction, anxious for an ideal, but without knowing where to render its adoration, will receive the true light through the universal manifestation of the pure doctrine of Lucifer, brought finally out in the public view. This manifestation will result from the general reactionary movement which will follow the destruction of Christianity and atheism, both conquered and exterminated at the same time."

Amen brother Amen. Proverbs 21:1 "the King's heart is in the hand of the Lord, like the rivers of water He turns it wherever he wishes". God ultimately controls the good and the bad for the purposes of the Kingdom and the greater good.

1 Kings 22:19-23

19 Then Micaiah said, "Therefore hear the word of the Lord: I saw the Lord sitting on His throne, and all the host of heaven standing by, on His right hand and on His left. 20 And the Lord said, 'Who will persuade Ahab to go up, that he may fall at Ramoth Gilead?' So one spoke in this manner, and another spoke in that manner. 21 Then a spirit came forward and stood before the Lord, and said, 'I will persuade him.' 22 The Lord said to him, 'In what way?' So he said, 'I will go out and be a lying spirit in the mouth of all his prophets.' And the Lord said, 'You shall persuade him, and also prevail. Go out and do so.' 23 Therefore look! The Lord has put a lying spirit in the mouth of all these prophets of yours, and the Lord has declared disaster against you."

Our "flesh" (e.g. that is the human part of our existence) is that which Jesus and our God command us to extricate from our existence. Anything and everything that has to do with our human nature to "save ourselves" from harm is part of "the flesh" that God is (essentially) repulsed by. When we fail at any time to "walk in the spirit" (e.g. believe 100% in the miracles of God and trust the POWER of the Holy Spirit) we are essentially living in "sin" (we are living carnally and in our flesh nature). We are to become beings of love and light and transform into everything that Jesus Christ was in all our thoughts, beliefs and actions.

If you feel a twinge of "fear" when a person threatens your family, that fear is "flesh fear" and it comes from Satan. God expects us to us the supernatural power of His divine protection, the Holy Angels, and the Holy Spirit to take control of ALL situations. To command tornadoes to change their path, to command lions and serpents to GO NOW and LIKEWISE to take full control of the demons that control the unsaved people who would threaten us and do us harm. This is who we are in the earth. Jesus would never kill someone. Every time in his 33 years of life on the earth of which we have a record of, Jesus responded to every threat with "love" and the supernatural power of God. That is who we are. (well some of us). If you feel in your heart a need to protect your family with an earthly weapon you are in sin. It really is that simple. You do not trust God and you do not understand the power of Jesus Christ which lives inside your soul/spirit body matrix. You are also not putting it into practice. Practice makes perfect oh ye of little faith.

No matter how you think it through, how you imagine a "would be attacker" coming toward you or one of your family members, the moment you consider using a weapon, you have given the Devil full authority to kill your family. You have lost all your power through Christ because you are entered into sin and fear. However if you stand with the authority of Christ IN YOU and you say 'In the name of the Lord Jesus Christ, I COMMAND YOU to LEAVE and drop your weapon NOW IN JESUS NAME' you will successfully save your family's lives, your own life, but you will also save the life of the attackers and probably lead them to Jesus in tears. Always saying as Jesus did, "Father forgive them for they know not what they do".

If the Father knows this is how you will respond to such threats. It is extremely unlikely any danger would approach your family. For the Lord God tests the righteous. However if the Father believes that you still have carnal earthly fear inside of you and you do not trust Him or the power of Christ in you, then you are FAR more likely to have your family attacked.

We need to transform now. First pray for overwhelming love inside of you for every person including the evil people. The pray that our Father will teach you about HIS power that lives inside of you and learn to TRUST HIM.

God Bless You

Lol hey John I'm trying to remember a story you read once because I want to reference it. So here goes what I remember. I believe it had to do with the crusades and the story goes they had a strange traditions and receiving the Holy Ghost and it talked like they were practicing something gnostic and the people referred to them as the "Good Christians" haha that's about all I can remember. If you don't know what I'm talking about its all good.

Here you go. This is about the so-called "Cathars" but they are known by many other names including the Bogomils, and locally as "the Good Christians"

This illustrates how our Roman Catholic influenced history books lie about the original apostolic church.

General beliefs

Cathars, in general, formed an anti-sacerdotal party in opposition to the Catholic Church, protesting against what they perceived to be the moral, spiritual and political corruption of the Church. They claimed an Apostolic succession from the founders of Christianity, and saw Rome as having betrayed and corrupted the original purity of the message, particularly since Pope Sylvester I accepted the Donation of Constantine (which at the time was believed to be genuine).

Human condition

The Cathars believed there existed within mankind a spark of divine light. This light, or spirit, had fallen into captivity within a realm of corruption identified with the physical body and world. This was a distinct feature of classical Gnosticism, of Manichaeism and of the theology of the Bogomils. This concept of the human condition within Catharism was most probably due to direct and indirect historical influences from these older Gnostic movements. According to the Cathars, the world had been created by a lesser deity, much like the figure known in classical Gnostic myth as the Demiurge. This creative force was identified with Satan. Most forms of classical Gnosticism had not made this explicit link between the Demiurge and Satan. Spirit, the vital essence of humanity, was thus trapped in a polluted world created by a usurper god and ruled by his corrupt minions.

An individual entered into the community of Perfecti through a ritual known as the consolamentum, a rite that was both sacramental and sacerdotal in nature: sacramental in that it granted redemption and liberation from this world; sacerdotal in that those who had received this rite functioned in some ways as the Cathar clergy—though the idea of priesthood was explicitly rejected. The consolamentum was the baptism of the Holy Spirit, baptismal regeneration, absolution, and ordination all in one. The ritual consisted of the laying on of hands (and the transfer of the spirit) in a manner believed to have been passed down in unbroken succession from Jesus Christ. Upon reception of the consolamentum, the new Perfectus surrendered his or her worldly goods to the community, vested himself in a simple black or blue robe with cord belt, and sought to undertake a life dedicated to following the example of Christ and his Apostles — an often peripatetic life devoted to purity, prayer, preaching and charitable work. Above all, the Perfecti were dedicated to enabling others to find the road that led from the dark land ruled by the dark lord, to the realm of light which they believed to be humankind's first source and ultimate end.

Quote:

After a huge globally publicized deliverance of a possessed woman in the Philippines, on international radio, the demons came back into the woman a day or two later:

This is a quote of what happened next:

. I ordered the demons to tell me why they had returned. They spoke in English through her lips, "She has not asked us to go. She wants us. It is only you who desires for us to leave." Again I demanded that they leave her. Clarita told me they were gone through the window. I explained to her why they returned and told her to tell them to leave and never return. She did. Then, I led her in prayer, pleading the blood of Jesus against them. It was about noon. Clarita was weak from the ordeal. I told the prison officials to let her rest and to give her food. As I was leaving, I said, "Clarita, I am sure these devils will return again. After I am gone, they will come. Then you must order them to leave without my being present to help you. You must say, 'Go, in Jesus' name,' and they will obey." With that, I left the prison compound.

LINK ANGELS

It was during that last visit to California that one of the incidents happened that started me on the road to accepting Christ, started me questioning Satan's claim to being more powerful than God. The high priest gathered a number of us together and told us that there was a family nearby who had been interfering with Satan. They had been converting a number of the cult members to the enemy, Jesus Christ, and were making a nuisance of themselves. Satan had given the order for them all to be killed. The high priest told us that we were all to go together in our spirit bodies (astral project), and kill them. So, we sat down in a circle with our candles in front of us and consciously left our bodies going in our spirits to the house to destroy these people. I was not at all enthusiastic about the project, but had no choice. If I had disobeyed I would have been killed.

Much to our surprise, as we arrived at the edge of this family's property, we could go no further. The whole area was surrounded by huge angels. The angels stood side by side holding hands. They were dressed in long white robes and stood so close together that their shoulders touched. They had no armor or weapons. Nobody could get through them, no matter how we tried. Any kind of weapon used merely bounced off of them doing them no harm. They laughed at us at first, daring us to come ahead and try to get through them. The other cult members got more and more furious with each passing moment. Suddenly their countenances changed and the fierce look from their eyes made all of us fall backwards onto the ground. A very humbling experience, I might add!

I will never forget — as I sat on the ground looking up at them, one of the angels looked directly into my eyes and said to me in the most loving voice I had ever heard, "Won't you please accept Jesus as your Lord? If you pursue the course you are taking you will be destroyed. Satan really hates you, but Jesus loves you so much that He died for you. Please consider turning your life over to Jesus." That was the end of the battle for me. I refused to try any longer to get through. I was very shaken. The others tried for awhile longer, but none succeeded. I doubt the family ever knew of the battle going on outside their house. They were completely protected! We called this particular type of special angels "link angels." Absolutely nothing can get through them. I was secretly thankful that we did not get through and the link angels had given me much to think about.

The Pilgrim Church:

- A Second Century Letter to Diognetus

He writes “Christians are distinguished from other men neither by country, nor language”, living in such places “as the lot of each of them has determined, and following the customs of the natives in respect to clothing, food, and the rest of their ordinary conduct, they display to us their wonderful and confessedly striking method of life. They dwell in their own countries, but simply as sojourners. As citizens, they share in all things with others, and yet endure all things as if foreigners. Every foreign land is to them as their native country, and every land of their birth as a land of strangers.... They pass their days on earth, but they are citizens of heaven. They obey the prescribed laws, and at the same time surpass the laws by their lives... they are reviled and blessed”. Then, speaking of God, he says, He, “who is almighty, the Creator of all things,... has sent from heaven, and placed among men, Him who is the truth, and the holy and incomprehensible Word, and has firmly established Him in their hearts.

Humility in Daily Life

00- Humility by Andrew Murray –
Tribulation Now

(6 minutes)

If someone says, 'I love God,' but hates a Christian brother or sister, that person is a liar; for if we don't love people we can see, how can we love God, whom we have not seen? (1 John 4:20) Here's a sobering thought:

God measures our love for Him by the love we show our brothers and sisters in every day fellowship with them. It is a serious thing to realize that our love for God just isn't genuine if it fails the test of daily life with our fellow human beings. The same thing is true with humility. It is easy to think we humble ourselves before God. But humility before people is the only real proof that our humility before God is more than just a figment of our imagination. It is the only true evidence that humility has made a home in our hearts and become our nature. How can we know that we, like Christ, have made ourselves of no reputation? By the reality check of daily life. When in God's presence humility has become more than just a feeling we have when we think about Him or pray, but instead the very Spirit of our lives, it will show itself in the way we treat our brothers and sisters.

HUMILITY

“Humility is perfect quietness of heart. It is to expect nothing, to wonder at nothing that is done to me, to feel nothing done against me. It is to be at rest when nobody praises me, and when I am blamed or despised. It is to have a blessed home in the Lord, where I can go in and shut the door, and kneel to my Father in secret, and am at peace as in a deep sea of calmness, when all around and above is trouble.”

We Must Not Miss the Message!

WE MUST NOT MISS THE MESSAGE

by David Wilkerson | July 9, 2015

[May 19, 1931 – April 27, 2011]

Ministers and theologians everywhere are saying, "God has nothing to do with disasters. He wouldn't allow awful things to happen." Yet, nothing could be further from the truth. This kind of thinking is causing our nation to rapidly miss the message God wants to speak to us through tragedy.

The fact is, we have to have a word from God. Like many pastors, I've wept and grieved over awful calamities. I've sought the Lord in prayer and through His Word. And I want to tell you, I've experienced a grief that's even deeper than the mourning for innocent people dying. It's a grief that says if we miss God's message, if we turn a deaf ear to what He is loudly proclaiming, then much worse is in store for us.

The prophet Isaiah speaks directly to what we've experienced. If you object to using the Old Testament for examples, consider Paul's words on the subject: "All these things happened unto them for ensamples: and they are written for our admonition, upon whom the ends of the world are come" (1 Corinthians 10:11). Paul makes it clear that the examples of the Old Testament reveal just how God moves in times like ours.

At the time that Isaiah prophesied, God had been dealing patiently with Israel for about 250 years. The Lord had sent "light afflictions" upon His people, calling them to repentance. He was trying to woo them out of their brazen idolatry and back into His blessing and favor.

All the prophets throughout the years had spoken to Israel the same essential word: "Humble yourselves." Scripture says, "They served idols . . . yet the Lord testified against Israel, and against Judah, by all the prophets, and by all the seers, saying, Turn ye from your evil ways, and keep my commandments and my statutes" (2 Kings 17:12-13).

But God's chosen nation rejected His call to repentance. "They would not hear, but hardened their necks" (17:14). These people mocked the prophets who called them to humility. And, instead, they "followed vanity, and became vain . . . and they left all the commandments of the Lord their God . . . and sold themselves to do evil in the sight of the Lord. . . . Therefore the Lord was very angry with Israel" (2 Kings 17:15-18).

INTENSIFIED PREVAILING PRAYER

Intensified prevailing prayer is God's ordained law and method for implementing His redemptive plan in this age till Jesus returns. It is the highest, holiest, and mightiest effort of which a child of God is capable. It is God's chosen way to bring heaven's power, heaven's resources, and heaven's angels into action on earth.

Who is the One Whom Many of You Think I Have Chosen?

AUGUST 2, 2016 2:44 PM BY STEPHEN HANSON 30 COMMENTS

"For my thoughts are not your thoughts, neither are your ways my ways, saith the LORD. For as the heavens are higher than the earth, so are my ways higher than your ways, and my thoughts than your thoughts," (Isaiah 55:8-9).

"Dear people of the Most High God,

You must get ready for the coming elections. For the wind will sweep over this nation [America]. Who is the one whom many of you think that I have chosen?

Soon you will find out, because of the outcome. Many have speculated and a few have prophesied, but very few have heard correctly from My throne.

For in the past, true men led a nation, and they had the strength and character to show it. But now in these last days a nation and a world has fallen into ruins.

Some pray that I would lead you forward into a new glory. Some pray that I will choose someone like Saul who appeared to be strong and resilient. And yet, you know that his ending was that of ruin.

There is not a young shepherd boy to lead you. There is not an Eisenhower or a Lincoln for this hour. Gone are the days of Kennedy. Gone are the days of your founding fathers.

No, I will give you what you deserve. For you are a divided nation. You are a nation of hatred and violence. What leader could bring you back to an earlier time?

Time moves forward and it waits for no man. You stand upon the brink of civil war. And yet, I still love you with an everlasting love.

But a father does what is best for his children. After everything is done and the dust settles, a new year will dawn. And with it, the old will be done away with it. But rocky days are in store for you.

Civil unrest will ensue, and false prophets will emerge.

The world's stage is set for a showdown. The players will assemble, and the events leading up to the very last days will come."

WE MUST NOT MISS THE MESSAGE

by David Wilkerson | July 9, 2015

[May 19, 1931 – April 27, 2011]

Ministers and theologians everywhere are saying, "God has nothing to do with disasters. He wouldn't allow awful things to happen." Yet, nothing could be further from the truth. This kind of thinking is causing our nation to rapidly miss the message God wants to speak to us through tragedy.

The fact is, we have to have a word from God. Like many pastors, I've wept and grieved over awful calamities. I've sought the Lord in prayer and through His Word. And I want to tell you, I've experienced a grief that's even deeper than the mourning for innocent people dying. It's a grief that says if we miss God's message, if we turn a deaf ear to what He is loudly proclaiming, then much worse is in store for us.

The prophet Isaiah speaks directly to what we've experienced. If you object to using the Old Testament for examples, consider Paul's words on the subject: "All these things happened unto them for ensamples: and they are written for our admonition, upon whom the ends of the world are come" (1 Corinthians 10:11). Paul makes it clear that the examples of the Old Testament reveal just how God moves in times like ours.

At the time that Isaiah prophesied, God had been dealing patiently with Israel for about 250 years. The Lord had sent "light afflictions" upon His people, calling them to repentance. He was trying to woo them out of their brazen idolatry and back into His blessing and favor.

All the prophets throughout the years had spoken to Israel the same essential word: "Humble yourselves." Scripture says, "They served idols . . . yet the Lord testified against Israel, and against Judah, by all the prophets, and by all the seers, saying, Turn ye from your evil ways, and keep my commandments and my statutes" (2 Kings 17:12-13).

But God's chosen nation rejected His call to repentance. "They would not hear, but hardened their necks" (17:14). These people mocked the prophets who called them to humility. And, instead, they "followed vanity, and became vain . . . and they left all the commandments of the Lord their God . . . and sold themselves to do evil in the sight of the Lord. . . . Therefore the Lord was very angry with Israel" (2 Kings 17:15-18).

OBAMA, HILARY AND NO TRUMP

This prophetic word covers and agrees with all the trustworthy prophetic words out there with a harmonizing series of events.

Key Points:

There are no trustworthy prophecies of Trump being elected

There are some potentially trustworthy prophecies of "a female" tyrant being placed over the people of America

There's a huge collection of Obama, martial law, Antichrist, dictator and destruction of America while in office prophecies

This prophecy covers them all.

Fascinating. If true this substantiates the thoroughness of Amos 3:7

Praise Him

The current prophetic "intel" indicates

- 1) Trump may get shot
- 2) Trump will NOT get elected
- 3) Hillary will get elected
- 4) Chaos ensues between election and inauguration
- 5) Martial Law established
- 6) Obama maintains Presidency

America, This Is Our Last Breath

 MAY 25, 2016  1:38 AM BY PASTOR BENJAMIN FAIRCLOTH  31 COMMENTS

     23

This morning May 24, 2016 around 3:00 am I was awakened by these words; “America’s last breath, Isaiah 51”.

As I struggled to awake, I heard the Father repeat this phrase, along with more details. I got out of bed and proceeded to write the following words:

“Hillary will win the election by default. Obama will stay in due to the chaos. It will be a two-headed serpent, which you cannot kill until I come. This will be what America wants and deserves!”

As I questioned the Father about this strong word, He proceeded to give me understanding. Hillary Clinton will become President because of the chaos that will envelope this nation. I believe as other watchmen do, martial law will arrive because of the chaos (caused by terrorism, financial crisis, disasters, etc). Even if Trump wins the general election or the popular vote, it will be taken from him by default.

Somehow Obama and Hillary will operate together. How long? I do not know, but the Father said we will not be able to stop or destroy this entity (Beast System) until He returns (Revelation 13:7, Daniel 7:21-22).

The true heart of America wants this beast system. They want gay marriage; they want the insanity that we are allowing to flow from the sewage pipes of hell! Our lack of fight is proof! The Babylonian church is in bed with the world and has played the harlot to give birth to this bastard system we call church in America. If that offends you, then that is proof of what system you are in.

Listen, I’m not claiming this is the end of world, nor am I peddling fear, but we are at the end of the current world system. The old system is being destroyed before our eyes. No candidate, no movement, no church will be able to stop this slide into Babylon.

The Father went on to say, “Business will not be normal again. Life will not be normal again. This will not be business and life as usual!”

In the coming months, our world is going to change. Our money, our freedoms, our democracy, our churches, everything is going to change. We need to stop listening to church leaders who are asleep, lethargic, apostate, and political leeches!

William Branham's 1933 vision.

Rev. Branham received the vision on a Sunday morning as he was preparing his sermon. He said that God showed him seven things that would happen:

1. The Italian Fascist dictator Benito Mussolini would invade Ethiopia. He will later come to a shameful demise and suffer a horrible death. His people would spit on him.
2. Adolf Hitler would start the Second World War. America would be drawn into the war. Hitler would come to a "mysterious end." Rev. Branham was shown the Siegfried line where there would be a great loss of American lives.
3. Three "isms" would spread across the world. Fascism, Nazism, and Communism. The voice in the vision told him to "Watch Russia, she will become a great world power."
4. After the Second World War, technology and science would advance rapidly. People would ride in driver-less egg-shaped cars with bubble roofs and no steering wheels. The passengers would be amused by games while riding in the driver-less vehicles.
5. America's morality would decline significantly and rapidly. Moreover, women would begin wearing skimpy clothing, and would adopt the clothing of men. In the vision, he saw a woman who was all but naked as she clothed herself with a tiny apron the size of a fig leaf. The moral degradation of women permitted sexual perversion to flourish.
6. A cruel woman will seize power in the United States. She possessed a hardness that defied description. She was cruel, wicked, and cunning. She dominated the United States with authority, and she had complete power over the population. The voice did not tell him the identity of the wicked woman. He wasn't sure if it would be an actual human being or a spiritual entity.

7. The voice in the vision told him to look again at America after the cruel woman seized power. He saw great explosions rip the country to pieces. He saw America turned into a land of smoking ruins. As far as his eye could see there was nothing remaining except smoldering piles of debris and craters. He saw no human life.

I don't know if Hillary Clinton will be the fulfillment of the Sixth scene in William Branham's 1933 vision. If she is that person, the last scene won't be far behind her. God have mercy on us.

Scientists grow mini human brains

POSTED ON AUGUST 1, 2016 IN SCIENCE | 199 VIEWS | LEAVE A RESPONSE

Scientists in Singapore have made a big leap on research on the 'mini-brain'. These advanced mini versions of the human midbrain will help researchers develop treatments and conduct other studies into Parkinson's Disease (PD) and aging-related brain diseases.

These mini midbrain versions are three-dimensional miniature tissues that are grown in the laboratory and they have certain properties of specific parts of the human brains. This is the first time that the black pigment neuromelanin has been detected in an organoid model. The study also revealed functionally active dopaminergic neurons.

The human midbrain, which is the information superhighway, controls auditory, eye movements, vision and body movements. It contains special dopaminergic neurons that produce dopamine — which carries out significant roles in executive functions, motor control, motivation, reinforcement, and reward. High levels of dopamine elevate motor activity and impulsive behaviour, whereas low levels of dopamine lead to slowed reactions and disorders like PD, which is characterised by stiffness and difficulties in initiating movements.

Also causing PD is the dramatic reduction in neuromelanin production, leading to the degenerative condition of patients, which includes tremors and impaired motor skills. This creation is a key breakthrough for studies in PD, which affects an estimated seven to 10 million people worldwide. Furthermore, there are people who are affected by other causes of parkinsonism. Researchers now have access to the material that is affected in the disease itself, and different types of studies can be conducted in the laboratory instead of through simulations or on animals. Using stem cells, scientists have grown pieces of tissue, known as brain organoids, measuring about 2 to 3 mm long. These organoids contain the necessary hallmarks of the human midbrain, which are dopaminergic neurons and neuromelanin.

Mysterious Vanishings at the Nevada Triangle

POSTED ON JULY 30, 2016 IN EARTH CHANGES | 950 VIEWS | LEAVE A RESPONSE

Throughout the world there are places that seem to be destined to forever be linked to mysterious, inexplicable vanishings. From the Bermuda Triangle to the Bennington Triangle, we have triangles galore, often triangles, that reach out to make people simply disappear from the face of the earth. These places are in a sense hungry, drawing in people who would dare to reach forth into their wilds, only to keep what they have gained to never return them. One probably lesser known such place lies out across a large expanse of dusty desert and mountain in the state of Nevada, and it is a location that seems to be every bit as enigmatic and ominous as any of its brethren.

Sprawled out over a vast expanse of 25,000 square miles of a desolate landscape of desert, mountains, and scrub near the Sierra Nevada mountains and Great Basin Desert in the U.S. state of Nevada, looking as if it is the surface of another planet, is an area that has over the years accrued for itself a rather sinister reputation. Besides being in the vicinity of the notorious, top-secret Area 51 and a range of strange UFO sightings, the region has also become a mysterious place where hundreds, perhaps even thousands of planes have flown into, never to return, earning it the ominous nickname of "The Nevada Triangle," after its more famous Bermuda cousin.

Former Astronauts Dying From Mysterious Deep Space Exposure

1 Comment | August 2, 2016 | Brett Tingley

Florida State University researchers have published some disquieting results of a long-term study of former Apollo Astronauts. According to their research published in Scientific Reports, these astronauts are dying of cardiovascular ailments at a much higher rate than the general population.

The FSU researchers compiled health data of 42 former astronauts, seven of which were former Apollo crew members. The rates of cardiovascular disease-related deaths among the Apollo astronauts were statistically significant enough for the researchers to theorize that exposure to deep space, such as in the Apollo missions, is behind the increased mortality.

“Results show there were no differences in CVD [(cardiovascular disease)] mortality rate between non-flight (9%) and LEO [(low-Earth orbit)] (11%) astronauts. However, the CVD mortality rate among Apollo lunar astronauts (43%) was 4–5 times higher than in non-flight and LEO astronauts.”

Strong Popocatepetl eruption covers Mexico city in a layer of ash

Another strong eruption of the Popocatepetl volcano on August 1, 2016 covered streets, houses and cars in Mexico City in ash.

This massive eruption started at around 6pm and lasted up to 3am in the night. Long, really long!

Popocatepetl volcano spews ash and rocks over Mexico City – Rinjani volcano erupts in Indonesia

Posted on August 2, 2016

August 2016 – MEXICO – The Popocatepetl volcano in Mexico, known as 'El Popo,' has spewed ash and rocks over the capital Mexico City and neighboring areas. The volcano, which is 34 miles away from the city, left a thin coat of dust on streets and cars.

Authorities urged residents to remove ash from roofs and streets, and put the dust in rubbish bags to keep it from clogging drains. Officials also advised people in the affected areas to close their windows and stay home as long as possible.

The volcano is considered one of the world's most dangerous due to its proximity to the city with more than nine million inhabitants. Around 25 million people live within 62 miles of the crater of the 5,426-meter magma mount, who could also be affected. There are fears the peak is building towards a major disastrous eruption after activity increased over the past few years, although, it has been periodically erupting since 1994. The Mexican Disaster Agency's monitoring cameras showed glowing rocks from the volcano's crater blowing out and landing more than half a mile down its slope.

Meanwhile, the Rinjani volcano, on Lombok Island, Indonesia, saw an explosive eruption at noon yesterday local time, sending a monster 10km-high ash plume into the sky. The eruption caused the closure of Lombok's Praya Airport from 5pm and it was not expected to reopen until this morning. The volcano erupted several times last year between October to December. Several flights between Australia and Bali were grounded as a result of yesterday's ash cloud. –BBC, Express

Heat wave sparks anthrax outbreak in Russia's northern Yamalo-Nenets region

by The Extinction Protocol

August 2016 – RUSSIA - Thirteen members of a nomadic Siberian community have been hospitalized after a heat wave thawed the carcass of an anthrax-infected reindeer and sparked an outbreak of the disease. Around 1,500 of the animals have died from the highly infectious disease since Sunday, the government of Russia's Yamalo-Nenets autonomous district announced on its website Tuesday.

A state of emergency has been imposed throughout the region in western Siberia due to the incident — the first of its kind since 1941. The carcass of a reindeer thought to have died from anthrax decades ago thawed and released the bacteria, sending the disease rippling through a population of animals already weakened by unusually high temperatures, according to local officials. Temperatures in the Yamal tundra above the Arctic Circle have hit highs of 95 degrees this summer, compared to an average of 77 degrees. At least 63 members of the Nenets community have been relocated as a result of the outbreak, their tents disinfected and children sent to a boarding school, the government said. The Nenets are traditional deer-herders and their livelihoods are linked to the animals. A mass vaccination of reindeer is underway in the region, local officials said.

It may be too late for many of the animals because anthrax can kill deer within three days of infecting them, Vladimir Bogdanov, a biology professor with the Russian Academy of Sciences, told the RBC news website. Local authorities said they were considering the best way to dispose of dead reindeer. The usual method — burning — has severe risks in the tundra, as much of Siberia is already engulfed in wildfires. Anthrax has a mortality rate of 25 to 80 percent, depending on a strain.

One month's rain in two hours destroys Ellicott City main street in Maryland killing two

Two people were swept away to their deaths and more than 100 others had to be rescued after heavy rains caused severe damage in Maryland over the weekend.

Almost 6 inches of rain fell in Ellicott City from 7 p.m. to 9 p.m., the equivalent of a full month's normal rainfall, Howard County Executive Allan Kittleman said Sunday afternoon.

The Patapsco River, which runs through the area, rose more than 13 feet Saturday night, according to the National Weather Service.

Kittleman called it "a terrible, terrible, horrific incident," adding: "It looks like a war zone."

The bodies of Joseph Anthony Blevins, 38, and Jessica Watsula, 35, were recovered after they were killed in separate incidents when they were carried off by the rushing water, Kittleman said later. Photos showed damaged buildings - some stripped of windows and doors - and collapsed roadways in Ellicott City, a community of 65,000 in Howard County about 12 miles west of Baltimore.

At least four homes were destroyed, and 20 to 30 others sustained substantial damage, the county said. Joyce Healy said she was driving home along Main Street when she saw a Mercedes-Benz "floating back down the road."

"I've never seen anything like this, ever," Healy told NBC station WBAL of Baltimore.

"The devastation down here - I'm just really concerned about them being able to rebuild."

Maryland Gov. Larry Hogan surveyed the damage Sunday morning and declared a state of emergency in the county.

"We're going to bring in whatever equipment, whatever manpower they need from every single department," he said.

The United States, the European Union and other Western countries lose an average of $8.6 billion every year from loss of market access following the introduction of a food embargo by Russia, the Russian Economic Development Ministry said Tuesday.

MOSCOW (Sputnik) – Russian President Vladimir Putin signed a decree on August 6, 2014, banning for one year agricultural and food product imports from countries that imposed sanctions on Russia, including Canada, Norway and Australia in addition to the US and the EU.

The ministry's analysis on the eve of the extended food embargo's anniversary indicated an annual decline in imports to Russia from the countries amounting to 96.5 percent from 2013, or $8.6 billion.

"It can be stated that there was a loss of Russian market in the amount equivalent to the agricultural product import declines from these countries," the ministry told RIA Novosti.

In real terms, it said Western product imports declined by 98.9 percent from 4.331 million tonnes (4.7 million US tons) to 465,000 tonnes (512,500 US tons).

Siberian anthrax outbreak turns deadly killing a child as disease breaks out in Sweden

A total of 86 people, including 51 children, in the Yamalo-Nenets District area affected by the anthrax outbreak known as the 'Siberian plague' are under observation in hospital, spokeswoman for the district's governor Nadezda Noskova said on Tuesday.

On Monday, a 12-year old child died after being diagnosed with anthrax in Russia's northwest Siberian Yamal Peninsula.

According to the Yamalo-Nenets Autonomous District's authorities, the child was among nine people who were tested positive for anthrax.

There are 86 patients from the quarantined area and nearby localities currently in the Salekhard's infectious department.

51 of them are children, since it was decided to first admit the children to the hospital.

There are also 4 patients including 2 children in the infectious department in the Yar-Sale [village], Noskova told RIA Novosti.

According to Noskova, the treatment and observation of all the people affected by the disease continues.

Last week, the massive death of reindeer, nearly 2,000 in Yamal peninsula was reported due to the unusually hot summer for this area, which could have triggered the long-dormant bacteria to become active, according to scientists.

Anthrax is an infection caused by the Bacillus anthracis bacterium and most of its forms can be lethal if inhaled.

Some forms of the disease respond well to antibiotic treatment and effective vaccines against anthrax exist. Meanwhile, in Sweden...

Swedish authorities are investigating an anthrax outbreak at farms in central Sweden.

Eight cattle and a horse on separate farms near Örebro in the Östergötland region have died from splenic fever, as it is also called, after the first case of anthrax was confirmed by agricultural experts last month.

They are located a couple of kilometres apart, and officials from Sweden's National Veterinary Institute are currently working on vaccinating livestock and tracing the source of the infection.

"It is of course a loss to the owner of the animals and a concern for the surrounding area.

We know that there is an increased risk that each case could spread locally," Karl Stahl told the Swedish newswire TT.

The number of cases of very dangerous, multi-drug resistant (MDR) tuberculosis (TB) reported in Massachusetts spiked 75 percent in 2015, to seven cases, up from four in 2014, according to the Massachusetts Department of Public Health.

In 2015, 87 percent of the 192 cases of active TB diagnosed in Massachusetts (167 out of 192) were foreign-born, a rate significantly higher than the foreign-born rate across the country that year, which was 66 percent.

The Massachusetts Department of Public Health provided no information on how many of the seven cases of MDR TB in 2015 and four cases in 2014 were foreign-born. However, of the 9,421 cases of active diagnosed in the United States in 2014, 91 were classified as MDR. 88 percent of those cases (80 out of 91) were foreign-born. The CDC did not report how many of those foreign-born cases of MDR TB were resettled refugees.

Active TB can be successfully treated at a cost of $17,000 per patient over the course of six to nine months with a four drug regimen that has been the standard medical protocol for over fifty years.

'Socialist experiment' Venezuela in ruins as soldiers delete videos of 12-hour food queues

VENEZUELANs face 12-hour queues for food as the Latin American nation's economic and political crisis has lead to a severe shortage of essential resources.

By JOE BARNES

PUBLISHED: 00:01, Wed, Aug 3, 2016 | UPDATED: 08:03, Wed, Aug 3, 2016

A BBC journalist, who attempted to film the crisis, was stopped and forced by soldiers to delete footage of a protest outside a supermarket as desperate Venezuelans waited for food.

Baying crowds shouted "We want to buy stuff!" as they grouped outside the store in the country's capital, Caracas.

BBC journalist Vladimir Hernandez reports that many people approached him to say they had queued for 12 hours without being able to buy what they wanted.

Venezuela: Where flour, pasta and milk can cost a month's pay

By Flora Charner and Rachel Clarke, CNN
 Updated 5:46 PM ET, Tue August 2, 2016

Caracas, Venezuela (CNN) — Flour. Pasta. Milk.

Three basics people all around the world have in their kitchens.

Three staples always in stock in groceries and supermarkets for any home cook looking to rustle up a family meal, pancakes or a quick, nutritious drink.

But in Venezuela, you can get these products only if you're lucky or have the connections and the cash. A lot of cash.

ISIS TORTURES 11-YEAR-OLD IN FRONT OF HIS CHRISTIAN MISSIONARY FATHER, CRUCIFIES THEM FOR NOT CONVERTING TO ISLAM

More incredible horrors from the evil Islamist terrorists of ISIS.

From Christian Aid Mission:

“ At several steps on their path to death by beheading and crucifixion last month, 11 indigenous Christian workers near Aleppo, Syria had the option to leave the area and live. The 12-year-old son of a ministry team leader also could have spared his life by denying Christ.

The indigenous missionaries were not required to stay at their ministry base in a village near Aleppo, Syria; rather, the ministry director who trained them had entreated them to leave. As the Islamic State (ISIS), other rebel groups and Syrian government forces turned Aleppo into a war zone of carnage and destruction, ISIS took over several outlying villages. The Syrian ministry workers in those villages chose to stay in order to provide aid in the name of Christ to survivors.

“I asked them to leave, but I gave them the freedom to choose,” said the ministry director, his voice tremulous as he recalled their horrific deaths. “As their leader, I should have insisted that they leave.”

They stayed because they believed they were called to share Christ with those caught in the crossfire, he said.

At several steps on their path to death by beheading and crucifixion last month, 11 indigenous Christian workers near Aleppo, Syria had the option to leave the area and live. The 12-year-old son of a ministry team leader also could have spared his life by denying Christ.

The indigenous missionaries were not required to stay at their ministry base in a village near Aleppo, Syria; rather, the ministry director who trained them had entreated them to leave. As the Islamic State (ISIS), other rebel groups and Syrian government forces turned Aleppo into a war zone of carnage and destruction, ISIS took over several outlying villages. The Syrian ministry workers in those villages chose to stay in order to provide aid in the name of Christ to survivors.

“I asked them to leave, but I gave them the freedom to choose,” said the ministry director, his voice tremulous as he recalled their horrific deaths. “As their leader, I should have insisted that they leave.”

They stayed because they believed they were called to share Christ with those caught in the crossfire, he said.

And then they became captives of ISIS. Relatives relate what happened.

The relatives said ISIS militants on Aug. 7 captured the Christian workers in a village whose name is withheld for security reasons. On Aug. 28, the militants asked if they had renounced Islam for Christianity. When the Christians said that they had, the rebels asked if they wanted to return to Islam. The Christians said they would never renounce Christ.

The 41-year-old team leader, his young son and two ministry members in their 20s were questioned at one village site where ISIS militants had summoned a crowd. The team leader presided over nine house churches he had helped to establish. His son was two months away from his 13th birthday.

In front of the team leader and relatives in the crowd, the Islamic extremists cut off the fingertips of the boy and severely beat him, telling his father they would stop the torture only if he, the father, returned to Islam. When the team leader refused, relatives said, the ISIS militants also tortured and beat him and the two other ministry workers. The three men and the boy then met their deaths in crucifixion.

“All were badly brutalized and then crucified,” the ministry leader said. “They were left on their crosses for two days. No one was allowed to remove them.”

The martyrs died beside signs the ISIS militants had put up identifying them as “infidels.”

Somehow people want us to believe that these evil monsters would have been boy scouts if George W. Bush hadn't invaded Iraq. And of course, it has absolutely nothing to do with Islam, right?

Unfortunately, other horrors were recounted as well. These perpetrated on Christian women.

Eight other ministry team members, including two women, were taken to another site in the village that day (Aug. 28) and were asked the same questions before a crowd. The women, ages 29 and 33, tried to tell the ISIS militants they were only sharing the peace and love of Christ and asked what they had done wrong to deserve the abuse. The Islamic extremists then publicly raped the women, who continued to pray during the ordeal, leading the ISIS militants to beat them all the more furiously.

As the two women and the six men knelt before they were beheaded, they were all praying.

"Villagers said some were praying in the name of Jesus, others said some were praying the Lord's prayer, and others said some of them lifted their heads to commend their spirits to Jesus," the ministry director said. "One of the women looked up and seemed to be almost smiling as she said, 'Jesus!'"

After they were beheaded, their bodies were hung on crosses, the ministry director said, his voice breaking. He had trained all of the workers for their evangelistic ministry, and he had baptized the team leader and some of the others.

This is what is happening in the Middle East right now.

And instead of doing anything about it, Obama is sitting back and letting Turkey's Erdogan attack his enemies among the Kurds in Syria, and letting Putin attack the enemies of his pal Assad. We're not even leading from behind anymore, we're just ceding ground to Satanic evil every day.

US fighter jets target ISIL in Libya for first time

Washington says air raids aimed at backing Libyan forces seeking to retake city of Sirte from the group.

US fighter jets have carried out air raids on positions of the Islamic State of Iraq and the Levant (ISIL) in the Libyan city of Sirte for the first time, according to the country's unity government.

"The first American air strikes on precise positions of the Daesh (ISIL) organisation were carried out today, causing heavy losses ... in Sirte," Prime Minister Fayez al-Sarraj said in a speech on television on Monday.

The Pentagon said the raids were launched in response to a request from the unity government, known as the Government of National Accord (GNA).

Syrian government says five dead in Aleppo gas attack

Activists say 30 people have breathing difficulties in alleged Idlib attack

(CNN) — Two chemical gas attacks have been reported in northern Syria, one in the region where a Russian helicopter was downed a day earlier, killing all five people on board.

In the first alleged attack, cylinders suspected of containing chlorine gas were dropped in residential areas in the city of Saraqeb in Idlib province, the anti-regime, voluntary search-and-rescue group Idlib Civil Defence said in a post on its Facebook page.

Russia, Syria's key military backer, has vehemently denied that a chemical attack took place. In a news release carried by Russian and Syrian state news agencies, Kremlin spokesman Dmitry Peskov said the claims of chlorine usage were fabricated by the media.

The United States is not ready to officially call the incident in Saraqeb a chemical attack, but there is growing confidence that is what happened, a senior U.S. official told CNN on Tuesday evening. U.S. officials think chlorine was likely used, the source said. Evidence points to the Assad regime because the attack came from the sky and the opposition doesn't have any aircraft, the source added.

North Korea missile lands near Japanese waters

A medium-range ballistic missile fired from North Korea has landed near Japanese territorial waters, according to South Korean and Japanese officials, the latest in a series of such launches.

A suspected Rodong missile was fired on Wednesday from the North's western Hwanghae province, the governments said.

Japan's defence ministry said the missile landed inside Japan's exclusive economic zone, a 200-nautical-mile offshore area where Tokyo has sovereign rights for exploring and exploiting resources.

"It imposes a serious threat to Japan's security and is an unforgivable act of violence toward Japan's security," Prime Minister Shinzo Abe said.

The US Strategic Command said North Korea had fired two presumed Rodong missiles simultaneously.

Erdogan says Turkey's coup script was 'written abroad'

President Tayyip Erdogan accused the West of supporting terrorism and standing by coups on Tuesday, questioning Turkey's relationship with the United States and saying the "script" for an abortive putsch last month was "written abroad".

In a combative speech at his palace in Ankara, Erdogan said charter schools in the United States were the main source of income for the network of U.S.-based cleric Fethullah Gulen, who he says masterminded the bloody July 15 putsch.

"I'm calling on the United States: what kind of strategic partners are we, that you can still host someone whose extradition I have asked for?" Erdogan said in a speech to local representatives of multinational firms operating in Turkey.

"This coup attempt has actors inside Turkey, but its script was written outside. Unfortunately the West is supporting terrorism and stands by coup plotters," he said in comments which were met with applause, and broadcast live.

ARMED MEN IN BODY ARMOR AT WALMART TELL POLICE THEY WERE PREPARING FOR DOOMSDAY

Witness noticed car full of men in body armor holding semi-automatic weapons

Linda Blackford | Lexington Herald Leader - AUGUST 1, 2016 20 Comments

Police were called to the Walmart on Richmond Road on Saturday night after a witness noticed a car full of men in body armor holding semi-automatic weapons. A six-month old baby was in the car.

Lt Jackie Newman said that when Lexington police officers got the three men out of the car about 11:15 p.m., they said were preparing for doomsday and needed supplies. The men were armed with pistols and semi-automatic rifles, police said. A license is not required to have semi-automatic weapons in a car, police said.

Police also found some marijuana in the car.

All three men voluntarily came to police headquarters for questioning that night, said Lt. Richard Willoby of the Lexington Police Department. They were cooperative with police and no charges were filed.

ATF: GUN PRODUCTION MORE THAN DOUBLED SINCE OBAMA TOOK OFFICE

Nine million firearms were built and sold in 2014

The production of guns has more than doubled since President Barack Obama's inauguration in 2009, amid his frequent demands for more gun-control and fewer guns.

The Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco, Firearms, and Explosives (ATF) has released its annual Firearms Manufacturing and Export Report, which shows that nine million firearms were built and sold in 2014, that's up from 4.3 million firearms in 2008.

The March 7 report covers production figures from 2014, and shows that 3,633,454 pistols, 744,047 revolvers, 3,379,549 rifles, 935,411 shotguns, and 358,165 miscellaneous firearms were manufactured that year. That adds up to a total of 9,050,626 firearms.
