'If sinners be damned, at least let them leap to Hell over our dead bodies. And if they perish, let them perish with our arms wrapped about their knees, imploring them to stay. If Hell must be filled, let it be filled in the teeth of our exertions, and let not one go unwarned and unprayed for. "

SMITH WIGGLESWORTH

Kept by God's Power

While I was with them in the world, I kept them in Your name. Those whom You gave Me I have kept.

—John 17:12

Scripture reading: John 17

*T*here are evil powers, but Jesus is greater than all evil powers. There are tremendous diseases, but Jesus is the Healer. No case is too hard for Him. The Lion of Judah will break every chain. He came to relieve the oppressed and to set the captive free (Luke 4:18). He came to bring redemption, to make us as perfect as man was before the Fall.

People want to know how to be kept by the power of God. He will contend for your body. When you are saved, Satan will come around and say, "See, you are not saved." The Devil is a liar.

I remember the story of the man whose life was swept and put in order. The evil power had been swept out of him. But the man was not filled with the Holy Spirit. If the Lord heals you, you dare not remain unresponsive to His Spirit. The evil spirit came back to that man, found his house swept, and took seven others worse than himself and dwelt there. The last stage of that man was worse than the first. (See Matthew 12:43–45.) Be sure to get filled with God. Get an Occupier. Be filled with the Spirit.

God's power cannot come out of you unless it is within you. We must have all inward confidence and knowledge that we are God's property, bought and paid for by the precious blood of Jesus. God wants you to know how to claim the victory and shout in the face of the Devil and say, "Lord, it is done." (See Revelation 21:6.)

God has a million ways of undertaking for those who go to Him for help. He has deliverance for every captive. He loves you so much that He even says, "Before they call, I will answer" (Isa. 65:24). Don't turn Him away.

"A Prayer for Spiritual Revival":

Disturb us, Lord, to dare more boldly, To venture on wider seas Where storms will show your mastery;
Where losing sight of land, We shall find the stars.
We ask You to push back The horizons of our hopes; And to push into the future In strength, courage, hope, and love. Because we have dreamed too little, When we arrived safely Because we sailed too close to the shore. Disturb us, Lord, when With the abundance of things we possess We have lost our thirst For the waters of life; Having fallen in love with life, We have ceased to dream of eternity And in our efforts to build a new earth, We have allowed our vision Of the new Heaven to dim.
Amen.

“Not called!’ did you say?

‘Not heard the call,’ I think you should say.

Put your ear down to the Bible, and hear Him bid you go and pull sinners out of the fire of sin. Put your ear down to the burdened, agonized heart of humanity, and listen to its pitiful wail for help. Go stand by the gates of hell, and hear the damned entreat you to go to their father's house and bid their brothers and sisters and servants and masters not to come there. Then look Christ in the face — whose mercy you have professed to obey — and tell Him whether you will join heart and soul and body and circumstances in the march to publish His mercy to the world.”

— William Booth

The chief danger that confronts the coming century will be religion without the Holy Ghost, Christianity without Christ, forgiveness without repentance, salvation without regeneration, politics without God, heaven
without hell.

General William Booth TRY TEARS -

On April 9, 1865, Lee met Grant in the parlor of a private home at Appomattox Court House. He surrendered his army and brought an end to four long years of death and devastation called the Civil War. In the same year a 36 year old Englishman by the name of William Booth declared war on the powers of darkness by founding the Salvation Army.

One of the most effective weapons in General Booth's arsenal was fervent prayer. It was not unusual for Booth to hold "an all night of prayer" when he came to preach the Word of God. People would flood the altars every where he went. "The power of God was wonderfully manifest in the meetings . . . people were frequently, struck down, overwhelmed with a sense of the presence and power of God."

The Salvation Army's success at freeing the captives was uncanny, especially when one considers those who it strived to reach. General Booth's battle cry was "Go for souls and go for the worst." The worst of sinners were saved, saloons were closed and entire cities were shaken.

Booth's success attracted not only supporters but also enemies. Those who served in the Army were pelted with hot coals, sprayed with tar and burning sulphur, beat, stoned and even kicked to death in the streets. The Salvation Army resisted their enemies with a cheerful "God bless you", and a prayer. General Booth, himself was often in the thick of it. When spit on during the Midlands tour, Booth encouraged his fellow soldiers, "Don't rub it off - it's a medal!"

Night after night Booth would come home bleeding and bruised after being attacked for preaching in the slums of England. After such nights of testing he would take his wife's hand and say, "Kate, let me pray with you." After praying with Catherine he would rise from his knees armed with fresh courage and hope. Booth needed all the valor his wife Catherine could inspire in him. She encouraged him, "if we get tired we had better go and be done with, anything is better than a dead church." Despite the grinding pressures of the ministry the Booths had a happily united family. The General had nine children and loved to play and romp with them, especially in their favorite game of "Fox and Geese."

Once while traveling, General Booth's car was detained. He took advantage of the opportunity and exhorted some idle factory workers. He said, "some of you men never pray, you gave up praying long ago. But I'm going to say to you, won't you pray for your children that they may be different?" Within minutes 700 men knelt in silent prayer.

At another time, two Salvation Army officers set out to found a new work, only to meet with failure and opposition. Frustrated and tired they appealed to the General to close the rescue mission. General Booth sent back a telegram with two words on it, "TRY TEARS." They followed his advice and they witnessed a mighty revival.

During the course of William Booth's ministry he traveled 5,000,000 miles and preached 60,000 sermons. God help us in this desperate and distracted day in which we live to heed the General's advice. "Work as if everything depended upon your work, and pray as if everything depended upon your prayer."

Luke 18:1-8 (The Persistent Widow)

Then He spoke a parable to them, that men always ought to pray and not lose heart, 2 saying: "There was in a certain city a judge who did not fear God nor regard man. 3 Now there was a widow in that city; and she came to him, saying, 'Get justice for me from my adversary.' 4 And he would not for a while; but afterward he said within himself, 'Though I do not fear God nor regard man, 5 yet because this widow troubles me I will avenge her, lest by her continual coming she weary me.'"

6 Then the Lord said, "Hear what the unjust judge said. 7 And shall God not avenge His own elect who cry out day and night to Him, though He bears long with them? 8 I tell you that He will avenge them speedily. Nevertheless, when the Son of Man comes, will He really find faith on the earth?"

Accustom yourself to do everything for the love of God, with prayer upon all occasions for His grace to do His work well, and you will find that the work you naturally have a great aversion to will be easy. **

 By doing even little things for the love of God, you will find yourself pleasing yourself and enjoying the task! **

 When your greatest business does not divert you from God, then times you have reserved for prayer will not be much different from other times. You will be conscious of a close relationship with God at all times.

ATTACK OF THE CLONES I am convinced that religion is the father of genetic cloning. Religion invented cloning long before the world ever thought of it. Religion has a way of sucking the most powerful people on the planet into a spiritual look-a-like contest and calling it discipleship. True discipleship is meant to empower people to be transformed into the image of their Creator, but religion redefines the terms, conforming people into replicas of their leaders. Religion takes God's mighty men and makes them artifacts in a museum. Religious people, like the Pharisees of old, have the hardest time reaching out to folks who think "outside of the box" and don't behave inside their hopeless shackles. Part of the struggle comes from what they have done to the Savior of the world. They have sterilized the Gospel. Jesus took water and turned it to wine, but

2,000 years later today's Pharisees have diluted it to grape juice. Religion has reduced the supernatural power of God to a history lesson about serving the dead body of a helpless Christ who, still nailed to the Cross, is incapable of rocking their sacred boat. They emphasize the drowning of baptism, arguing over how people should get wet and what should be said over them during their dipping. Religious people have lost touch with the fact that the bold print of baptism is not on the descent but on the ascension. The death of Christ paid for our sins, but it was His resurrection that gave life to our mortal bodies.

BETRAYAL IS COMING TO THIS VERY NATION
(BETTE STEVENS)

“War is at your gates and the sound of war is at your door step.”

MAY 22, 2018 4:07 PM BY MONIQUE BIZET

I received the following prophetic warning on May 21, 2018.

Vengeance is Mine. God is NOT mocked.

America you are extremely rebellious and proud. You seek your help from men and not from the Almighty.

Thus saith the LORD; Cursed be the man that trusteth in man, and maketh flesh his arm, and whose heart departeth from the LORD. (Jeremiah 17:5 – KJV)

You think I don't see what you do behind closed doors. You think I don't see the blood on your hands. You think I'm looking away on all your sins. Your abominations have reached My nostrils.

Ye have plowed wickedness, ye have reaped iniquity; ye have eaten the fruit of lies: because thou didst trust in thy way, in the multitude of thy mighty men. (Hosea 10:13 – KJV)

Your nation is filled with idols, harlotry, and whoredoms. My sanctuary you have profaned and you have defiled My Holy Name.

My remnant, remain faithful unto death, and I will give you the crown of life. I love you. I will never leave you nor forsake you. Know that the hour is now to remain under the shadow of the Most High. Great deception surrounds you and is even within the Church. The hour is now to remain steadfast in the faith, and hold on to the truth of My Word.

War is at your gates and the sound of war is at your door step. War and lamentations will strike this nation.

Repent America, I plead with you, yet not many listen, you won't turn. Repent America, for the hour is now, to turn back to the only One who died for you to give you everlasting life. Repent America, for the hour is so late, I love you.

Be faithful unto death My Remnant, be faithful and endure until the end.

PILLOW PROPHETS – David Wilkerson

<http://www.tscpulpitseries.org/english/undated/tspillow.html>

*By David Wilkerson
undated*

Ezekiel stood alone against all the false prophets of Israel. These prophets would have nothing to do with the message of righteousness and impending judgment. Instead, they prophesied an era of peace, ease and prosperity.

Ezekiel 13 is the very word of Jehovah against preachers and prophets who accommodate people with flesh pleasing words they said were from the Lord. Their words were designed to make God's people comfortable in the face of impending judgment.

In fact, they were not satisfied to prophesy good times ahead from their great houses and ivory beds of ease -- they sought to provide a pillow for every elbow (Ezekiel 13:18). "Woe to those who apply pillows unto all elbows..." (Original Hebrew by Spurrell) "...Behold, I am against your pillows wherewith ye entice souls..." (Ezekiel 13:20).

Ezekiel was horrified at the sight of prophets who had developed an art of making God's people comfortable. The Lord had said, "My people have set up idols in their hearts; they are brazenly setting up stumbling blocks in iniquity; they are all estranged from me because of their idols" (Ezekiel 14:1-5).

The true word of the Lord was, "Jehovah says -- eat your bread with trembling, and drink thy water with grieving and fainting -- and say unto the people, her land shall be emptied of its fullness, because of the violence -- cities will be laid waste, the land made desolate -- there shall be no more vain visions or flattering prophecies" (Ezekiel 12:17-24).

While Ezekiel went about calling the people to humility and repentance, trying to prepare God's people for the soon coming judgments, these pillow prophets went about prophesying the dreams and imaginations of their own hearts. God had not spoken to them, even though they prefaced their predictions with, "Hear the Word of the Lord." God said, "I did not send them: they do not speak for Me.

They carried with them fancy pillows to place under every elbow for all who flocked to hear their false prophecies. They placed handkerchiefs on the heads of every one of their disciples, a statement to others that meant, "Nothing but good times ahead. I see nothing ahead but peace and luxury." They walked among the poor and sick, with a lace kerchief on the head, as a sign of their confidence in the message of the prophets of self indulgence and comfort.

Ezekiel thundered the Word of God at them, as the masses congregated to hear their pleasant words.

"You see for God's people a vision of prosperity, when there is no prosperity, saith the Lord Jehovah" (Ezekiel 13:16, Spurrell).

"You follow after your own imagination - when actually you have seen nothing." (Ezekiel 13:3).

The pillow prophets are still with us! They talk about the Word of God, about prophecy, and they salt their soothing messages with a lot of Scripture. But there is a falseness in what they preach. They are not preaching the Cross or holiness and separation. They make no demands on their followers. They seldom speak of sin and judgment. They abhor the very mention of suffering and pain. To them, the heroes of Hebrews were faithless cowards and penniless losers who were afraid to claim their rights.

Like the pillow prophets of Israel, their one supreme desire is to promote luxurious lifestyles and make people comfortable in their pursuit of the good life. They are not speaking for God. All they are doing is passing out pillows. One for every elbow of every follower. No wonder the crowds flock to sit under their message -- it's painless. There is not the call of Christ to deny self and take up a cross.

What is the difference between pillow prophets and Jehovah's true prophets? The preacher or parishioner who doesn't know the difference is on dangerous ground. With so many going about gathering huge followings, it is imperative to have Holy Ghost discernment. The confused prophets must be exposed by truth. Most of them and sound like sincere, Bible loving men of God. But the Lord has given His people infallible tests to prove what is true and what is false. We are to test every man and every message -- by the whole Word of God.

“Atlanta will be the first to fall, followed shortly by Houston.”

MAY 11, 2018 8:15 PM BY KRISTA WEST

Prior to this word, I had a vision of Atlanta, where I used to live for a while. I felt strongly the new stadium is going to be completely destroyed.

I received the following word on May 10:

“Little one, you know what I have shown you to be true. Atlanta will be the first to fall, followed shortly by Houston.

A dirty bomb will come to a city and the inhabitants shall have no chance to flee. All these things must happen to atone for the sins of this nation. Come out of her, those who are righteous! Those who have ears to hear and eyes to see must heed the warnings of the prophets!! War is coming!

This nation shall no longer believe she has been blessed by Me. There will no longer be a greatest nation in the world. In My eyes, there are only My children and those who have turned against Me. All those who call upon My name will be sheltered underneath the shadow of My wing. Those who call on Me will neither thirst nor hunger. Those who look to their riches alone will come to ruin! The time is short. I will no longer delay this judgement, America, land of the sinners!”

Immediately afterwards, I saw an image of Houston and felt complete despair at the devastation that will occur there. More cities were included in the vision, but the Lord did not tell me to share them at this time.

"Much travail is coming on the face on the whole earth. Those who hear My voice must get prepared."

ELIZABETH MARIE

NOVEMBER 29, 2017

"Much travail is coming on the whole face on the earth. Those who hear My voice must get prepared. It is unlike anything you have ever seen. It is a catastrophe. It is huge. It is coming. No words to describe it. Many will faint just at its' sound.

All eyes will be on the skies. Many will turn to Me at this time. This is a hard word, but true.

I AM the Great I AM, GOD ALMIGHTY, and there is no one above Me. When I speak, the heavens roar. I will shake the earth once again to wake up My people. I call this the `GREAT SHAKING.'

It has to come. It will purify all that is Mine. It will set the captives free. Chains will be broken. Suffering will be abandoned. Truth will reign once again in My land. This will be a glorious day. Much sorrow brings much joy.

Set your face toward Zion, MY Holy Mountain. Lift up your eyes to the hills. Know that I AM God and there is no other like ME! I will set you free! I AM your Redeemer! I am your salvation!

Cry out to ME before it is too late! The hour of salvation is even closer than before. Truly I will give to you if your will open your arms to Me. I knock at the door of your heart, but it is you that must let Me in. I do the work, you do the choosing.

My ways are not yours. Hear Me through My prophets. My mouth and ears are they, and they will speak forth the judgments as well as the blessings. Hear their voices! They are crying out in the wilderness, 'PREPARE THE WAY OF THE LORD.' They hearken My coming. They sound the alarm. They sound the trumpet.

Only those who have ears can hear. It is only a selected few.. My dear remnant that I have preserved around the earth. These are they that don't sleep, but stay awake in My SPIRIT. They walk around in fine garments of heavenly righteousness. They sing to Me new songs. They love Me with an everlasting love. These are My beloveds. They are mine and cannot be snatched out of My hands. They are safe with Me.

I will pour out My love upon them, let them see in the SPIRIT what this love looks like. It is not in the physical. It is not about what you see or what you get. It is in My relationship with you. That is the hidden pearl - our relationship - this is where all brilliance of life dwells. This is where I want you to reside.

You are My treasured ones. Soon I will bring you to My glory. No more suffering, My Beloved, no more pain. Hold on, because that time is coming soon! Spread the WORD now. Keep walking in the SPIRIT and you will see great things!"

Interpretation:

As with anything prophetic, please use discernment and seek your own confirmation on this message I received on November 26th, 2017.

There is warning of an 'event' that is going to come that affects the whole earth. I was not given what this might be or when. We must remember that the LORD's timeline is very different than ours. A day can be like a thousand!

The part of the message that the LORD focused my attention on was the first sentence: "Much travail is coming upon the whole earth."

I looked up the word `travail' and found that it can mean `agony, torment, labor, birth.' The words `labor' and `birth' really stood out to me. Whatever is coming is going to bring `birth.' At this point, I asked the LORD, what is going to be `birthed?' I then heard very clearly,

"SALVATION!"

Then the LORD led to me to three scripture passages:

1) Romans 8:22-25: For we know that the whole creation groans and labors with birth pangs together until now. Not only that, but we also who have the firstfruits of the Spirit, even we ourselves groan within ourselves, eagerly waiting for the adoption, the redemption of our body. For we were saved in this hope, but hope that is seen is not hope; for why does one still hope for what he sees? But if we hope for what we do not see, we eagerly wait for it with perseverance.

2) Revelation 12:2: Then being with child, she cried out in labor and in pain to give birth.

3) Galatians 4:19: "My little children, for whom I labor in birth again until Christ is formed in you."

What is being birthed is our `salvation.' JESUS is our salvation!!! The very word `JESUS' actually means `JEHOVAH IS OUR SALVATION!" Brother and sisters, this is our great hope! HALLELUJAH!

Demands Put Forward by US Clearly Unacceptable for Iran – Moscow

07:32 23.05.2018 (updated 12:40 23.05.2018)

Demands voiced by the US administration are clearly unacceptable for Tehran, Russian Foreign Ministry's spokeswoman Maria Zakharova said on Wednesday.

"We are concerned about the fact that the anti-Iranian campaign is on the rise in Washington. It seems that the United States has made a final decision to use the tactics of ultimatums and threats in respect to Iran. It contradicts the spirit of the JCPOA and does not fall within the normal inter-state relations ... Not only did the US administration withdraw from the agreement in violation of international norms, it is putting forward demands that are a priori unacceptable for Tehran," Zakharova told a briefing.

On Monday, US Secretary of State Mike Pompeo gave a keynote speech on US policy toward Iran, voicing 12 demands for Tehran to fulfill following Washington's unilateral withdrawal from the Iran nuclear deal, formally known as the Joint Comprehensive Plan of Action (JCPOA).

Moscow hopes that US President Donald Trump's decision to withdraw from the Joint Comprehensive Plan of Action (JCPOA) on Iran is not connected with US plans to attack Tehran or change the regime there, Russian Foreign Minister Sergey Lavrov said.

"It is difficult to judge how the events will develop. I would like to hope that the US withdrawal from the agreement is not connected with plans to attack Tehran or change the regime there," Lavrov told the Argentine newspaper Clarin.

Russia is open for cooperation on the Joint Comprehensive Plan of Action (JCPOA) and seeks the development of mutually beneficial relations with Iran, according to Russian Foreign Minister Sergey Lavrov.

"We are open for cooperation in the interests of the JCPOA and aim for the development of mutually beneficial cooperation with Tehran," Lavrov said.

The minister expressed hope that the JCPOA will be retained despite the US withdrawal from the deal.

"We believe that it is crucial that Iran has not chosen escalation and continues to fully meet its obligations to the international community. That was once again confirmed by the International Atomic Energy Agency. Other parties, including Russia, also remain committed to the agreement," Lavrov said.

Netanyahu moves security meetings to underground bunker

Israeli Prime Minister Benjamin Netanyahu has decided to move all security cabinet meetings from the prime minister's office to a high-tech underground secure bunker in Jerusalem which hosts the national crisis management center, Israeli officials tell me.

Why it matters: The decision comes as the threat of escalation with Iran is growing. The cold war between Israel and Iran turned hot in the last three months amid the struggle for influence in Syria. Israel increased its airstrikes against Iranian and pro-Iranian forces in Syria as part of an attempt to block and roll back Iranian military entrenchment in the war-torn country.

The United States has imposed new sanctions against officials of Iran's Revolutionary Guard for allegedly providing ballistic missile-related expertise to armed Houthi rebels in Yemen.

The actions of five Iranians have enabled the Houthis to launch missiles at cities and oil infrastructure in Saudi Arabia, the US Department of Treasury said in a statement on Tuesday.

"The United States will not tolerate Iranian support for Houthi rebels who are attacking our close partner, Saudi Arabia," Treasury Secretary Steven Mnuchin said.

(CNN) — It's hard to predict when war will break out, but Sweden wants to make sure that it's populace is always prepared for the worst.

The Swedish government is reissuing an instructional war pamphlet to all 4.8 million households in the country, informing them for the first time in more than 30 years on the perils of war.

The brochure, titled "Om krisen eller kriget kommer (If crisis or war comes)," was compiled by the Swedish Civil Contingencies Agency (MSB) and instructs civilians on what to do if "their everyday life was turned upside down."

Turkish President Recep Tayyip Erdogan has recalled the country's ambassadors to the US and Israel, accusing them of "state terror" and "genocide," referring to the situation in the Gaza Strip.

"We will evaluate our relations, especially economic and trade relations [with Israel] again. We will take steps in this direction after the elections [on June 24]," Erdogan told journalists on the presidential plane while returning from a visit to Bosnia and Herzegovina.

According to Haaretz, Turkey will be the first hit by the sanctions, as its economy is having a tough time and the punitive measures could expand Turkey's trade deficit by nearly $2 billion.

Trump Blames China's Xi Jinping for Sabotaging the Kim Jong Un Summit

After that surprise second meeting with Xi this month, the North Korean leader suddenly moved back to the dark side in his dealings with the United States.

GORDON G. CHANG 05.23.18 5:52 AM ET

President Donald Trump met his South Korean counterpart in the White House on Tuesday, publicly acknowledged his planned summit with Kim Jong Un may never take place, and called out China's ruler for sabotaging the denuclearization process.

It was about time the American leader recognized his North Korea policy was hitting roadblocks.

Former and current South Korean government officials are blaming White House National Security Advisor John Bolton for endangering next month's planned summit between the U.S. and North Korea.

Bolton is being accused of eroding efforts at diplomacy with maximalist and unrealistic expectations for Pyongyang.

Speaking to YTN Radio, Chung Dong-young, a South Korean lawmaker and former unification minister, described Bolton as one of several "land mines" on the path to U.S. President Donald Trump and North Korean leader Kim Jong Un's meeting in Singapore on June 12.

"There are several land mines on the way to the summit between North Korea and the U.S.," Chung said. "One of those land mines just exploded: John Bolton."

Earlier US President Trump threatened on his Twitter page to strike Syria with “nice and new and smart” missiles over the alleged use of chemical weapons in Douma. Russia has already warned Washington against such a move.

The CivMilAir Twitter account, which monitors airplane movements, posted information that the Boeing E-4B Nightwatch, commonly known as the “Doomsday plane,” took off from the Wright-Patterson airbase near Dayton on April 11 in 14:09 and flew towards Springfield, Illinois. What is curious about it is the fact that it left the airbase minutes after US President Donald Trump made his threat to launch a missile attack on Syria.

Food For Thought
by George Davis

In 1949 the communist revolution marked the end of all missionary efforts in China. All foreign missionaries were expelled. After the communist takeover the Chinese government bitterly attacked the Church in China, driving it underground.

For 25 years China was closed to any outside "Christian" influences. Little information filtered through the tight-knit bamboo curtain. All remaining Christian leaders were rounded up wholesale and were either imprisoned or killed outright. Everything that was considered "Christian" was destroyed, church building, bibles, hymnals, everything. For 25 years a holocaust far exceeding that, inflicted on the Jews by Nazi Germany, ensued. It is estimated that about 27 million died during this purging.

In 1978 Deng Xiaoping came into power and China opened her borders once again. The western world stood in breathless anticipation. What would they find in the aftermath of such a horrible slaughter? Missionaries from around the world stood ready, poised in anxious intrepidity. Would there even be one surviving believer? Nothing could have possibly prepared them for what they were about to see!

After 25 years of horrendous persecution the missionaries returned to find that the church in China had not been obliterated, as many had feared, but that they had grown in number from the estimated one million believers before the 1949 revolution, to about 30 million. The contrast was amazing! What had caused such unprecedented growth? How could this be? Not only had they grown numerically but they had grown spiritually. The tales of their devotion to Christ are nothing short of inspirational. Most bewildering is the fact that this unparalleled growth occurred without the aid of any of those things that are thought to be essential in denominational churches today. Without the aid of professional pastors/priests, church buildings, bibles, Sunday-school materials, homilies, hymnals and mass gatherings, the Church in China has grown numerically and spiritually to be the most victorious expression of Christ's Church on the earth today. By all accounts, nothing like it has existed since the early Church. The very gates of hell could not prevail against her!

Makes you think doesn't it?

Ya know what's really fascinating Terri, is that in Pastor Sori Parks' visit to heaven and vision, he was shown that NASA comes forward to tell the whole world that "Aliens" too the people who were actually raptured.

I find this amazing. I wonder if this is "counter intelligence" being used by "the Devil" to trick the entire general population of the world about a program that doesn't really exist so that when they announce this after the rapture, everyone will say OHHH YEAH PROJECT BLUE BEAM

It will be quite interesting to see how this all unfolds. My "guess" is that we will be at the marriage supper by then LOL

Quote:

After a huge globally publicized deliverance of a possessed woman in the Philippines, on international radio, the demons came back into the woman a day or two later:

This is a quote of what happened next:

. I ordered the demons to tell me why they had returned. They spoke in English through her lips, "She has not asked us to go. She wants us. It is only you who desires for us to leave." Again I demanded that they leave her. Clarita told me they were gone through the window. I explained to her why they returned and told her to tell them to leave and never return. She did. Then, I led her in prayer, pleading the blood of Jesus against them. It was about noon. Clarita was weak from the ordeal. I told the prison officials to let her rest and to give her food. As I was leaving, I said, "Clarita, I am sure these devils will return again. After I am gone, they will come. Then you must order them to leave without my being present to help you. You must say, 'Go, in Jesus' name,' and they will obey." With that, I left the prison compound.

ALBERT PIKE WORLD WAR THREE

"The Third World War must be fomented by taking advantage of the differences caused by the "agentur" of the "Illuminati" between the political Zionists and the leaders of Islamic World. The war must be conducted in such a way that Islam (the Moslem Arabic World) and political Zionism (the State of Israel) mutually destroy each other. Meanwhile the other nations, once more divided on this issue will be constrained to fight to the point of complete physical, moral, spiritual and economical exhaustion...We shall unleash the Nihilists and the atheists, and we shall provoke a formidable social cataclysm which in all its horror will show clearly to the nations the effect of absolute atheism, origin of savagery and of the most bloody turmoil. Then everywhere, the citizens, obliged to defend themselves against the world minority of revolutionaries, will exterminate those destroyers of civilization, and the multitude, disillusioned with Christianity, whose deistic spirits will from that moment be without compass or direction, anxious for an ideal, but without knowing where to render its adoration, will receive the true light through the universal manifestation of the pure doctrine of Lucifer, brought finally out in the public view. This manifestation will result from the general reactionary movement which will follow the destruction of Christianity and atheism, both conquered and exterminated at the same time."

THE PILGRIM CHURCH

The Pilgrim Church:

- A Second Century Letter to Diognetus

He writes “Christians are distinguished from other men neither by country, nor language”, living in such places “as the lot of each of them has determined, and following the customs of the natives in respect to clothing, food, and the rest of their ordinary conduct, they display to us their wonderful and confessedly striking method of life. They dwell in their own countries, but simply as sojourners. As citizens, they share in all things with others, and yet endure all things as if foreigners. Every foreign land is to them as their native country, and every land of their birth as a land of strangers.... They pass their days on earth, but they are citizens of heaven. They obey the prescribed laws, and at the same time surpass the laws by their lives... they are reviled and bless”. Then, speaking of God, he says, He, “who is almighty, the Creator of all things,... has sent from heaven, and placed among men, Him who is the truth, and the holy and incomprehensible Word, and has firmly established Him in their hearts.

- The Pilgrim Church

A Pastor's Mansion

I saw a very gorgeous mansion, then a certain man was coming out, I knew he had been a pastor on earth. In heaven, they told me, the reason why he had a large and beautiful mansion in heaven, was primarily his giving & helping the needy and the poor, and his praying. These provided materials for his mansion in heaven.

They also explained to me, That different works we do on earth carry different weights in heaven, what God values and esteem high is very much different from what people think, they told me, the works we do that are unnoticed, behind the scenes, that people don't know about and unappreciated are the works that God values more, the works we do out of a pure heart and selfless love, they have great reward in heaven. Then I saw it as GOD sees, what is really important to God, that we must not look for appreciating & reward from men but God, also God values what we do in private than what we do in public.

I looked over the City, the bright lights, the golden doors of mansions facing east, the majestic palace, the mansions and houses, the transparent streets of gold, the chariots travelling around, the children playing, saints talking and walking, the gardens, I said "Wow, Heaven is so wonderful". I didn't want to come back but I knew it was my time to go.

Subject: Barb God's Healer7 12-6-16 Preview of the Day of the Lord A foreshadowing Matt 24:27 Joel 1:15

Pt 1 Listen! The Lion Roars! The birds take flight. You can see the beasts of the earth running.

Look at the sky-it's clear. Shhhhhh. Listen! I hear thunder. I know-How can there be thunder? the sky is clear.

I know, but it looks strange. Something's not right. I have a peculiar feeling. Look over there-it looks like it's Lightning. I think we should go inside-it's lightning and thundering to the east.

I'm going to put the news on to see if something is going on. The newsman says "the lightning and thunder can be Heard and seen all over the world. The lightning is causing fires everywhere.”

What’s that? It looks like airplanes. I don’t know, but I can hear sirens. No, there is something else! Yes, I hear it.

It sounds like a trumpet blowing. Did you hear that???? The news says the government has ordered our planes up.

They are tracking something on the radar.

Let’s go down the street and look at the national guard armory. I can see the trucks coming up the road. I think we Should go over to the store now. The local news just cut in and said the schools are all being let out early. All the national Guard units are on alert. I’m going to stop at the bank first. Hurry up so we can get back before the kids come home.

Pt 2

We’d better hurry! The place looks jammed already. Put the news on. I can’t. The tv stations are all off the air.

I'll try the radio. There's nothing. It's off the air too. I think I know what's going on. Let's get what we need and get home.

Look! None of the street lights are working. We will have to take the back roads. See if your cell phone works. No-it's dead.

I can feel the earth shaking. Remember that earthquake we had? The doors were moving and the pictures. I think this is What the Bible calls "the end of time" when Jesus returns, or The Day of the Lord. They say it will be a regular day.

No one knows when, but the signs are all available to see for those with eyes, and those with ears can hear the warnings.

I guess God gave warnings like He did in the time of Noah, and no one listened. They all laughed at the warnings.

God (?) made fun of it until it started to rain. Guess what? I think it's raining.

Barb adds:

That's very intriguing. It's a glimpse. It's going to be a regular day. The Second Coming of Christ- no one is going to expect it,

Just like the Day of Noah. Everyone was just going about their regular business...

You know time is short when I'm getting a prophecy like this about The Day of the Lord and the Second Coming of Jesus.

The Seven Thunders Revealed

Posted on December 21, 2011 by John Baptist

They Fly Like the Wind

And Come From Afar

The Seven Thunders of Revelation have been revealed. I am satisfied what these saints have been shown in the truth. It matches everything I have uncovered in my research over the years. Glory to Jesus and our Heavenly Father for revealing these things in the “latter times”. Indeed we live in the “latter times”.

Praise the Holy Lord Jesus Christ and our awesome Heavenly Father God. Since many people cannot access You Tube videos, I have manually transcribed (as best as possible) the prophecy shared in the video below.

The DAY OF THE LORD

Isa 13:1-16

The burden against Babylon which Isaiah the son of Amoz saw.

2 "Lift up a banner on the high mountain, Raise your voice to them; Wave your hand, that they may enter the gates of the nobles.

3 I have commanded My sanctified ones; I have also called My mighty ones for My anger — Those who rejoice in My exaltation."

4 The noise of a multitude in the mountains, Like that of many people! A tumultuous noise of the kingdoms of nations gathered together! The Lord of hosts musters The army for battle. 5 They come from a far country, From the end of heaven — The Lord and His weapons of indignation, To destroy the whole land.

6 Wail, for the day of the Lord is at hand! It will come as destruction from the Almighty.

7 Therefore all hands will be limp, Every man's heart will melt, 8 And they will be afraid. Pangs and sorrows will take hold of them; They will be in pain as a woman in childbirth; They will be amazed at one another; Their faces will be like flames.

9 Behold, the day of the Lord comes, Cruel, with both wrath and fierce anger, To lay the land desolate; And He will destroy its sinners from it. 10 For the stars of heaven and their constellations Will not give their light; The sun will be darkened in its going forth, And the moon will not cause its light to shine.

11 "I will punish the world for its evil, And the wicked for their iniquity; I will halt the arrogance of the proud, And will lay low the haughtiness of the terrible. 12 I will make a mortal more rare than fine gold, A man more than the golden wedge of Ophir. 13 Therefore I will shake the heavens, And the earth will move out of her place, In the wrath of the Lord of hosts And in the day of His fierce anger. 14 It shall be as the hunted gazelle, And as a sheep that no man takes up; Every man will turn to his own people, And everyone will flee to his own land. 15 Everyone who is found will be thrust through, And everyone who is captured will fall by the sword. 16 Their children also will be dashed to pieces before their eyes; Their houses will be plundered And their wives ravished.

Destruction Unleashed

My children, as the destruction falls, you will see terrible things in your atmosphere. I desire to warn you of this so you will understand.

Destruction unleashed is something you have only glimpsed in make-believe. You have never truly seen destruction unleashed in your world and it shall be a terrifying sight. With destruction come many demonic entities that have heretofore been in another realm where you could not see them. These were not meant to dwell on the earth, but will be loosed for a season upon the wicked. You cannot kill these with weapons, and this, too, shall make you afraid, but you, My children, have the true weapons to keep them away from you – My Word, My Blood, and My Name.

This is part of why it is imperative you learn about Me now. You need these weapons and the knowledge of how to use each one stored up on your heart for that time, for it is not far into the future for you.

I forewarn you in My Mercy.

LOVE YOUR ENEMIES

32 'If you love those who love you, what benefit is that to you? For even sinners love those who love them.

33 And if you do good to those who do good to you, what benefit is that to you? For even sinners do the same.

34 And if you lend to those from whom you expect to receive, what credit is that to you? Even sinners lend to sinners, to get back the same amount.

35 But love your enemies, and do good, and lend, expecting nothing in return, and your reward will be great, and you will be sons of the Most High, for he is kind to the ungrateful and the evil.

36 Be merciful, even as your Father is merciful. (Luke 6 : 32-36 - ESV)

LINK ANGELS

It was during that last visit to California that one of the incidents happened that started me on the road to accepting Christ, started me questioning Satan's claim to being more powerful than God. The high priest gathered a number of us together and told us that there was a family nearby who had been interfering with Satan. They had been converting a number of the cult members to the enemy, Jesus Christ, and were making a nuisance of themselves. Satan had given the order for them all to be killed. The high priest told us that we were all to go together in our spirit bodies (astral project), and kill them. So, we sat down in a circle with our candles in front of us and consciously left our bodies going in our spirits to the house to destroy these people. I was not at all enthusiastic about the project, but had no choice. If I had disobeyed I would have been killed.

Much to our surprise, as we arrived at the edge of this family's property, we could go no further. The whole area was surrounded by huge angels. The angels stood side by side holding hands. They were dressed in long white robes and stood so close together that their shoulders touched. They had no armor or weapons. Nobody could get through them, no matter how we tried. Any kind of weapon used merely bounced off of them doing them no harm. They laughed at us at first, daring us to come ahead and try to get through them. The other cult members got more and more furious with each passing moment. Suddenly their countenances changed and the fierce look from their eyes made all of us fall backwards onto the ground. A very humbling experience, I might add!

I will never forget — as I sat on the ground looking up at them, one of the angels looked directly into my eyes and said to me in the most loving voice I had ever heard, "Won't you please accept Jesus as your Lord? If you pursue the course you are taking you will be destroyed. Satan really hates you, but Jesus loves you so much that He died for you. Please consider turning your life over to Jesus." That was the end of the battle for me. I refused to try any longer to get through. I was very shaken. The others tried for awhile longer, but none succeeded. I doubt the family ever knew of the battle going on outside their house. They were completely protected! We called this particular type of special angels "link angels." Absolutely nothing can get through them. I was secretly thankful that we did not get through and the link angels had given me much to think about.

Milton William "Bill" Cooper was an American conspiracy theorist, radio broadcaster, and author best known for his 1991 book Behold a Pale Horse, in which he warned of multiple global conspiracies, some involving extraterrestrial aliens. Wikipedia

Amazingly Bill Cooper, the author of Behold a Pale Horse, made the following statement on page 177 of the book. “Can you imagine what will happen if Los Angeles is hit with a 9.0 quake, New York City is destroyed by a terrorist-planted atomic bomb, World War III breaks out in the Middle East, the banks and stock markets collapse, Extraterrestrials land on the White House lawn, food disappears from the markets, some people disappear, the Messiah presents himself to the world, and all in a very short period of time? Can you imagine? The world power structure can, and will if necessary, make some or all of these things happen to bring about the New World Order.” [Behold A Pale Horse“, p. 177-8]

"A Prayer for Spiritual Revival":

Disturb us, Lord, to dare more boldly, To venture on wider seas Where storms will show your mastery; Where losing sight of land, We shall find the stars. We ask You to push back The horizons of our hopes; And to push into the future In strength, courage, hope, and love. Because we have dreamed too little, When we arrived safely Because we sailed too close to the shore. Disturb us, Lord, when With the abundance of things we possess We have lost our thirst For the waters of life; Having fallen in love with life, We have ceased to dream of eternity And in our efforts to build a new earth, We have allowed our vision Of the new Heaven to dim. PRAYING THROUGH

What it means to Pray Through Personal experiences in the availing and prevailing' intercessory ministry of Sister E. J. Dabney, as related in an interview and through letters to Sarah Foulkes Moore.

My first acquaintance with Sister Dabney was gained through letters which she sent to a friend from Norfolk, Va., describing the prayer revival which the Lord gave her in that southern city. These letters so stirred me that I made carbon copies of them and mailed them out to prayer group leaders in Los Angeles. All who read the letters were given a new vision of what it really means to "pray through." Later, Sister Dabney came to Pastor Couche's Church at 33rd and Compton, Los Angeles, where in a prayer revival of a few weeks, God saved almost 200 souls and baptised as many with the Holy Ghost and fire.

Sister Dabney is a sister who makes prayer a business. If she sleeps at all, it is to be refreshed to resume her day and night vigils of prayer and waiting on God. She confines herself to one simple meal a day. She never indulges in any personal friendships, nor does she have light conversation with anyone. Usually she comes quietly to a meeting an hour before the time announced and begins to pray. When the meeting is over she slips quietly away to her room where her REAL ministry of travail for the deliverance of souls is carried on, far into the night.

In an interview Sister Dabney revealed how she came to enter this effective work for God and for souls. Her husband is a preacher. He was sent from a prosperous church in Philadelphia to labour in a poor one. At their first meeting no one was present but themselves. She saw it was going to be a difficult field for it was in the most wicked part of the city. She was made to know that nothing but prayer would touch the situation. She determined to give herself to prayer. She made a vow to God that if He would send sinners to that place and save them, she would give herself three days and three nights each week in the Church to prayer for three years. She vowed during two of these years to fast as well as pray. When she first told her husband of her intentions, he was unwilling to have her spend three days and nights each week in the mission alone in prayer. But the Lord made him to know it was of Him so he took her the next morning early to the river side where she knelt and made her vow unto the Lord.

As soon as this little wife of a hard-pressed minister began to pray alone in her husband's mission, God began to work. Sinners were sent in and soon their little hall was crowded out. Her husband asked her to pray for a larger place. God moved a merchant out of a nicer and larger building across the street and gave them this building. As she continued to pray day and night three days a week in her husband's new church it, too, was crowded out. Again her husband asked her to pray for a larger church. She did and God gave them a fine large church on a main boulevard in the same neighbourhood. Always the meetings were packed out and souls were delivered from sin and believers baptised in multitudes.

One morning at the church door as she was entering to keep her vow of prayer the Lord met her and said, "Go Home." But she did not want to go home. She wanted to pray. Then He asked her if she knew what day it was. She felt led to open her purse and read her vow and discovered from the date on the vow that she had exactly completed the three years she had given to God for prayer. Even though the Lord had shown her that her vow had been fulfilled, she wanted to go into the church and adore and worship Him, but He said again, "Go Home."

She obeyed, everything about her seeming to praise and worship the Lord. When she got home the Lord drew her inside. Her soul was exalting in His Presence. Then He said to her "Go to the basement." She was afraid of the dark basement and hesitated. Why should the Lord ask her to go to such a place? She said, "Lord, if you are going to take me home to glory, first let me see my husband and son." She was afraid the Lord was going to take her home in the midst of all this rejoicing. But she put on perfectly new pumps and went to the basement. Instead of darkness it was filled with a wondrous light. Then the Lord spoke to her again and said, "You have prayed through. Now I have come to bless you."

From the ceiling a fountain poured forth living water and this water rose higher and higher until it engulfed her. The joy and the presence of the Lord was so gloriously manifest to her that she began to dance. The Lord told her wherever she went and prayed He would deliver sinners from their sins, and fill believers with the Holy Spirit. She danced the heels and toes off her brand-new pumps.

This happened six years ago, and God has kept His word. Wherever Sister Dabney goes and gives herself to prayer, sinners are delivered and the saints are filled with the Holy Ghost and fire Thus the Lord mightily anointed her to pray. She does not preach but only counsels saints and sinners to seek the Lord till He is found. The following letters written in the midst of her prayer revival in Norfolk, Va., give an intimate insight into her life of prevailing prayer,

[12] AE vol. 7, no. 6, May 1941

The yearning to know what cannot be known, to comprehend the incomprehensible, to touch and taste the unapproachable, arises from the image of God in the nature of man. Deep calleth unto deep, and though polluted and landlocked by the mighty disaster theologians call the Fall, the soul senses its origin and longs to return to its source

Eyes of Faith (Goiter Lady)

Eyes of Faith

Jesus went about... teaching... preaching... and healing.

—Matthew 4:23

Scripture reading: Isaiah 58:8–12

One day, a young woman from a place called Ramsbottom came to be healed of an enlargement of her thyroid gland. Before she came she said, “I am going to be healed of this goiter, Mother.” After one meeting she came forward and was prayed for. The next meeting she got up and testified that she had been wonderfully healed. She said, “I will be so happy to go and tell Mother about my healing.”

She went to her home and testified to her wonderful healing. The next year when we were having the convention, she came again. From a human perspective, it looked as though the goiter was just as big as ever, but that young woman was believing God. Soon she was on her feet giving her testimony, saying, “I was here last year, and the Lord wonderfully healed me. I want to tell you that this has been the best year of my life.” She seemed to be greatly blessed in that meeting, and she went home to testify more strongly than ever that the Lord had healed her.

She believed God. The third year, she was at the meeting again, and some people who looked at her said, “How big that goiter has become!” But when the time came for testimonies, she was on her feet and testified, “Two years ago, the Lord gloriously healed me of a goiter. I had a most wonderful healing. It is grand to be healed by the power of God.” That day someone questioned her and said, “People will think there is something the matter with you. Why don’t you look in the mirror? You will see that your goiter is bigger than ever.” The young woman went to the Lord about it and said, “Lord, You so wonderfully healed me two years ago. Won’t You show all the people that You healed me?” She went to sleep peacefully that night still believing God. When she came down the next day, there was not a trace or a mark of that goiter.

Thought for today: A faint heart can never have a gift. Two things are essential: first, love; second, determination—a boldness of faith that will cause God to fulfill His Word.

Syrian Refugee Mother Tells Christian Worker, 'God Doesn't Love Us - He Only Loves Americans'

Syrian refugee mothers suffering in makeshift camps across Turkey have expressed a belief that God has "forgotten" them and only cares for Americans, a Christian missionary has revealed.

A Christian leader based in Turkey whose ministry provides aid in unofficial refugee camps shared with Christian Aid Mission that often, Syrian mothers bring their children to aid workers and ask missionaries to pray over them.

"They bring their children to us for prayer," he said. "We ask, 'What would you like us to pray for your child?' They say, 'May they grow up to live a better life, and be healthy.'"

"They are more concerned about their children and ask us for milk, baby food and blankets for their little ones," the director added, explaining that while they have little hope for their own lives, the mothers hope their children will be able to live a better life someday.

The ministry director shared the story of one Syrian woman, whose husband had died fighting for Syrian government forces battling Islamist insurgents. She and her three children, a teen boy and twin 4-year-olds, had gone to Istanbul, Turkey where they begged in order to survive.

Iran Now Has One of Fastest Growing Christian Population As More Muslims Are Having Dreams and Visions of Jesus

By PRECY DUMLAO (email protected) Dec 08, 2015 06:53 PM EST 4 Comments

Despite severe persecution and acts of terror from ISIS headlining the front pages, Christianity remains strong and is, in fact, a fast growing religion in Iran - one of the most hardline Islamic countries in the world today.

In a report from CBN, wherein the interviewees - Iranians visiting Kurdistan - have requested anonymity for their protection, former Muslims are revealing that many are coming to Jesus through supernatural dreams and visions. The dreams are giving them hope amidst the desperation and hardship facing many in the Islamic Republic today.

"Dennis," one such ex-Muslim who had converted to Christianity after having a dream about Jesus, admits that desperation in Iran is driving more people to run to Christ as the answer to their predicament.

"Yes, many people are coming to Christ through a dream. You cannot imagine how Jesus is appearing to them...You know the experience that the Iranian people are passing through right now is very difficult. The only one who can change that situation is Christ Himself," Dennis said.

INTENSIFIED PREVAILING PRAYER

Intensified prevailing prayer is God's ordained law and method for implementing His redemptive plan in this age till Jesus returns. It is the highest, holiest, and mightiest effort of which a child of God is capable. It is God's chosen way to bring heaven's power, heaven's resources, and heaven's angels into action on earth.

Spurgeon says, "He who knows how to overcome with God in prayer has heaven and earth at his disposal." 1 Intensified prayer is clothed with the might of God Himself.

Duewel, Wesley L. (2013-08-20). Mighty Prevailing Prayer:

“Not called!' did you say?

'Not heard the call,' I think you should say.

Put your ear down to the Bible, and hear Him bid you go and pull sinners out of the fire of sin. Put your ear down to the burdened, agonized heart of humanity, and listen to its pitiful wail for help. Go stand by the gates of hell, and hear the damned entreat you to go to their father's house and bid their brothers and sisters and servants and masters not to come there. Then look Christ in the face — whose mercy you have professed to obey — and tell Him whether you will join heart and soul and body and circumstances in the march to publish His mercy to the world.”

Humility in Daily Life

00- Humility by Andrew Murray – Tribulation Now

(6 minutes)

If someone says, 'I love God,' but hates a Christian brother or sister, that person is a liar; for if we don't love people we can see, how can we love God, whom we have not seen? (1 John 4:20) Here's a sobering thought:

God measures our love for Him by the love we show our brothers and sisters in every day fellowship with them. It is a serious thing to realize that our love for God just isn't genuine if it fails the test of daily life with our fellow human beings. The same thing is true with humility. It is easy to think we humble ourselves before God. But humility before people is the only real proof that our humility before God is more than just a figment of our imagination. It is the only true evidence that humility has made a home in our hearts and become our nature. How can we know that we, like Christ, have made ourselves of no reputation? By the reality check of daily life. When in God's presence humility has become more than just a feeling we have when we think about Him or pray, but instead the very Spirit of our lives, it will show itself in the way we treat our brothers and sisters.

OSWALD CHAMBERS

My Unstoppable Determination for His Holiness. "Whether it means life or death—it makes no difference!" (see 1:21). Paul was determined that nothing would stop him from doing exactly what God wanted. But before we choose to follow God's will, a crisis must develop in our lives. This happens because we tend to be unresponsive to God's gentler nudges. He brings us to the place where He asks us to be our utmost for Him and we begin to debate. He then providentially produces a crisis where we have to decide—for or against. That moment becomes a great crossroads in our lives. If a crisis has come to you on any front, surrender your will to Jesus absolutely and irrevocably. E

OSWALD CHAMBERS

Will You Go Without Knowing?

Will You Go Out Without Knowing?

"He went out, not knowing where he was going" (Hebrews 11:8).

Have you ever "gone out" in this way? If so, there is no logical answer possible when anyone asks you what you are doing. One of the most difficult questions to answer in Christian work is, "What do you expect to do?" You don't know what you are going to do. The only thing you know is that God knows what He is doing. Continually examine your attitude toward God to see if you are willing to "go out" in every area of your life, trusting in God entirely. It is this attitude that keeps you in constant wonder, because you don't know what God is going to do next. Each morning as you wake, there is a new opportunity to "go out," building your confidence in God. ". . . do not worry about your life . . . nor about the body . . ." (Luke 12:22). In other words, don't worry about the things that concerned you before you did "go out."

Have you been asking God what He is going to do? He will never tell you. God does not tell you what He is going to do—He reveals to you who He is. Do you believe in a miracle-working God, and will you "go out" in complete surrender to Him until you are not surprised one iota by anything He does?

Believe God is always the God you know Him to be when you are nearest to Him. Then think how unnecessary and disrespectful worry is! Let the attitude of your life be a continual willingness to "go out" in dependence upon God, and your life will have a sacred and inexpressible charm about it that is very satisfying to Jesus. You must learn to "go out" through your convictions, creeds, or experiences until you come to the point in your faith where there is nothing between yourself and God.

Godshealer7 - The Man of Sin will be Revealed for Who He Is (Obama)

Part 1 Daughter: speak this warning and tell the people what I have shown you. The restrainer will be taken away.

The man of sin will be revealed for who he really is-The Beast. Mr. Obama will return in his new position as ruler.

The streets will be filled with violence, civil unrest and war. The weak will be murdered, unable to defend themselves.

Children will murder parents for what they have and take it from them. Your militia will be unable to keep order or gain control.

There will be riots and fires. There will be no safe place. The unbelievers will rise to power. Behold, I come quickly.

Part 2 (after Barb prayed about the initial prophecy)

Abbara, you have seen well and have understood. This is The Tribulation coming upon the whole earth. Many will be killed

For My Names sake.

Barb then said she saw a glimpse of the “deep part” of the tribulation where children were killing their parents while she was receiving this prophecy.

Then Dan said this video might get GH7 taken off youtube, so this might be the last video from them.

Dan said he has received a portion of a Word in recent days: we are on the brink of “the time of trials”.

Dan then said they are criticized by some who say GH7 is just trying to stir up drama. Dan said they are just trying to prepare

People and get sinners to repent. Dan said he thinks we are right on the edge of something major.

SARAH MENET PROPHECY 1979

(Biological, Chemical, Nuke, Comets, a Year of Horror)

SARAH MENET PROPHECY

(Biological, Chemical, Nuke, Comets, a Year of Horror)

INTRODUCTION

As I tried to look away from my black surroundings, a small light started to shine in front of me, and the darkness, sounds and feelings that had so completely oppressed me started to fade into the background. The light grew bigger, and a window opened up much the same as when I had witnessed my life's review. This time however, a panoramic view of the entire earth lay before me. It came closer and closer as if I had been out in space and was flying toward it. I knew what was happening was intended to help me make my decision about going back to the earth and my terrible life. A part of me wanted to go back to the beautiful spirit world, or paradise, that I had seen, and another part of me felt the need to be reunited with my body so I could change my life. It was a tug-of-war, and what I was about to see was to help me understand what I would be going through if I chose to go back to my 'body of clay.' Again the view before me played out like a videotape in fast forward motion, and yet I could see the scene in perfect clarity and was able to comprehend everything that transpired.

IRAN (LYBIA) NUKES ISRAEL

As the earth zoomed up into my view, I first saw the whole world, and then various countries. It was made clear to me that in the future there would be wars and troubles, including nuclear attacks in various places of the world, and a view of how it would start was given. I am not familiar with the geography of the world, but as I looked at the various lands before my view I instinctively knew what countries they were. Looking at the Middle East, I watched as a missile flew from Libya and hit Israel. The mushroom cloud that resulted from the blast was visible, and I knew that the missile contained a nuclear bomb. I was aware that those responsible for the missile were Iranian, but the missile had been hidden and fired from within the borders of Libya.

OTHER NUCLEAR MISSILES FIRED

Almost immediately after this, other missiles began flying from one country to another, quickly spreading war around the world. I also saw that many nuclear explosions did not come from missiles but from bombs of some kind on the ground.

THE PRECURSOR EVENTS

EVENTS LEADING UP TO NUCLEAR WAR

My focus then changed from the Middle East to the United States, and I understood that I was about to see some of the things that would lead up to the nuclear holocaust that I had just witnessed.

SHE SEES 911 NYC

As I looked upon the continent of North America, I zeroed in on the eastern coast and then on New York specifically. I saw New York City with all of its people and buildings. I then saw some tall buildings crashing to the earth surrounded by tremendous amounts of smoke, dust, and debris. I zoomed in closer into the smoke and dust, and I saw a woman holding a little girl's hand and running from the crashing buildings. The woman had long dark hair, hanging past her shoulders and curled inward slightly. She wore a beige business suit, heels of a slightly darker color, perhaps tan, and she was not wearing glasses. The little girl appeared to be about 6 or 7 years old with short brown hair reaching below the chin and cut in a type of pageboy look. They ran together, holding hands and trying to escape from the falling buildings. As they ran through the heavy smoke and dust, they were forced to let go of their hands and became separated. The child was terrified, and I could hear her screaming, "Mommy, mommy!" over and over again. I don't know their outcome, if they lived or died, but I can still see the face of the woman clearly and could easily identify her from a photo or describe her to a sketch artist. I asked if an earthquake had caused the buildings to fall and felt impressed that the answer was no. However, I was not given any indication as to the cause of the destruction. (Incidentally, I told this story many, many times before September 11, 2001. When I did see on television the World Trade Center towers collapsing, I knew that this was what I had seen.

THIRD SEAL - FINANCIAL COLLAPSE

The next thing that came to me was more felt than seen. It was the understanding that shortly after the crashing of the buildings in New York City, commerce ceased. Shopping and buying seemed to stop, and the economy failed throughout the world. Few had any money at all, and those who did have it could not buy anything of worth with it. Gold and silver and other commodities had value and could be traded.

CHEMICAL ATTACKS

I then saw a man walk into a middle of a crowd of people and drop what seemed like a quart jar full of liquid. The jar broke and the liquid spread. I understood that people nearby had become infected with a disease from the liquid, and they didn't even know it.

A day or two later the people became sick and started dying. I saw that this would happen in four particular cities: New York, Los Angeles, San Francisco and Salt Lake City.

The disease started with white blisters, some the size of a dime, appearing the hands, arms and face of the victims. The blisters quickly developed into white puffy sores. Those with the disease would stumble around and fall over dead. Many died within a short time, perhaps 24 hours.

EBOLA

I also saw other people with a flu-like virus that spread more quickly than the first disease. The victims had blood coming from their nose, mouth, eyes, and ears. These people died even faster of this disease than the ones who had the first sickness.

DISEASE SPREADS MURDER MAYHEM

These diseases became wide-spread across the United States with hundreds of thousands infected. As the people were fleeing the cities in the hope of saving their lives, gangs were attacking them and killing them.

In the towns that were struck with disease there was chaos, with looting, rioting and murders involved in a complete breakdown of society. Many people seemed to go crazy.

EMP NO ELECTRICITY (US & ISRAEL)

I sensed that the electricity had failed everywhere and that nothing was running throughout the country, including any of the communication systems. I watched people throw rocks through windows to steal TV's that would not work and thought it was very strange.

While I watched all this happening in the United States, my view instantly jumped back to the Middle East, and I saw the same thing taking place in Israel. The same sores and the same types of sickness and disease that were plaguing the U.S. had also been unleashed in Israel. The switch in view only lasted an instant, and I was back in the United States.

HORRIBLE WINTER

There was a tremendously long winter that caught everyone by surprise following the siege of sickness. It started early and lasted into the summer months. A famine had begun over the few years leading up to the long winter because of storms, droughts, floods and other plagues that had taken place; and the abnormally long cold period seemed to cause the famine to suddenly increase to its full measure.

In the period of time following the disease, which was quickly followed by the long winter, things started going down hill very quickly. Events piled up one on top of another without any breaks.

(SENSE OF TIMING OFF)

My sense of timing was not very clear at this moment; however because I was seeing several things happening all at the same time or very close together.

CHAOS, STARVATION, MAYHEM, CONTINUES

During and after the long winter, the disease spread everywhere and increased in severity. The economy and the electricity were completely gone. Chaos and anarchy reigned over the entire United States. Without any government there was a total breakdown, and I saw people panicking everywhere. They were trying in vain to find food. There was none. I saw people even digging in the ground for worms to eat because they were so hungry from the lack of food. Also, during this time I became aware that there was very little drinking water, and the remaining water had become contaminated, so that if a person drank it they would contract the disease and die. Because of their great thirst many people drank the water in spite of the danger of poisoning and died. I mentioned earlier the gangs that killed people trying to escape the cities. It seemed that some of the people had lost their minds and went around in these gangs killing people just for the sake of killing; others killed for food or to gain some material possessions from their victims. Those that were killing for no reason were like beasts: animals completely out of control, as they raped, looted, burned and butchered people. I saw these gangs go into the homes of those who were hiding. They would drag them out of their hiding places, rape and dismember them. For many there was an unnatural fear and hatred that came over the people. Family ties that once existed between husbands and wives, parents and children no longer mattered. The only thing that mattered was individual survival. Men would kill their wives and children for food or water. Mothers would kill their children. For me, the events that then lay before me were horrible beyond description and almost unbearable to watch. The air everywhere was filled with smoke as many buildings and cities burned with no attempt to control the fires.

HOMES/CITIES OF LIGHT & REFUGE

(ISAIAH 60:1-3)

(Glory Light)

As I looked upon this scene of chaos, smoke and destruction I noticed that there were small pockets of light scattered over the United States. There were, I would guess, about twenty or thirty of them that I saw. I noticed that most of the locations of light were in the western part of the United States, with only three or four of them being in the east. These places of light seemed to shine brightly through the darkness and were such a contrast to the rest of the scene that they caught my attention.

I focused on them for a moment and asked, 'What are these things?'

I was then able to see that these points of light were people who had gathered together and were kneeling in prayer. The light was actually coming from the people, and I understood that the light was showing forth their goodness and love.

I further understood that they gathered together for safety and that, contrary to what I had witnessed everywhere, they cared more for each other than for themselves. Some of the groups were small with only a hundred people or so, but other groups consisted of what seemed to be thousands. I realized that many, if not all, of these places of light, or cities of light as I began to think of them, had somehow been established just before the biological attack, and that they were very organized. It was as if they had known what was coming and had prepared for it. I did not see who or what had organized them, but I did see many people struggling to reach them with nothing but what they could carry.

The cities of light had food that others outside of those groups did not have, and within the cities of light food was readily shared with those who joined their groups. In these places there was peace and safety. The inhabitants were living in tents of all kinds, many of which were no more than blankets held up by poles. I noticed that the gangs made no threats on these groups and left them completely alone, choosing to pick on other targets and unprotected people, as many of the people in those cities had guns that they would use for self-defense. The gangs also preyed upon the people who were traveling, trying to reach the cities of light.

CITIES OF LIGHT MOVED OFTEN

As I looked upon them, I realized that these cities of light were temporary and that in a short time the people living within them would go to another place. I do not know where they were to go but seemed to think that they gathered in the mountains, to higher places.

BABYLON THE GREAT DESTROYED

FINAL NUCLEAR DESTRUCTION

As I was viewing the cities of light, my focus changed, and I became aware of missiles being launched and hitting U.S. cities. I watched as mushroom clouds started forming over many areas of the United States. Some of the clouds came from missiles that I knew were fired from Russia, and others were not from missiles at all, but from bombs that were already in the United States. These latter bombs had been hidden in trucks and in cars driven to certain locations and then detonated. I specifically saw Los Angeles, Los Vegas, and New York City hit with bombs. New York City was hit with a missile, but I think that Los Angeles was hit by at least one truck bomb, if not several, because I didn't see any missile. I also saw a mushroom cloud from north of Salt Lake City, but without the aid of a missile.

SIXTH SEAL - FIRE BALLS & COMETS START FIRES

In the darkness I also saw little fireballs. I'm not sure if this happened just before or during the mushroom clouds. The balls fell from the sky, were of different sizes – most being the size of golf balls – and were very hot. There were millions of them. As they fell from the sky they left streaks of flame and smoke behind them. Everything they touched started on fire: people, buildings, trees, or grass. Everything burned. I didn't ask what they were or where they had come from because by this time I was sick because of the scene before me, and so I observed without asking many questions.

RUSSIAN CHINESE INVADE

(part of nuclear war)

At almost the same time and in the same locations as the mushroom clouds, I saw Russian and Chinese troops invading the United States. The Russians were parachuting at many spots along the Eastern Coast; I also saw them parachuting in Utah. Chinese troops were invading from the West Coast near Los Angeles. They were met with resistance from those who had survived the disease and bombs. I did not see any United States military there at that time. The invasion was part of the nuclear war that I had seen earlier, and I knew that similar events were taking place all over the world as I had seen previously.

RUSSIAN CHINESE INVASION SHORT DURATION

I did not see much of this war, but was impressed that it was short in duration and the Russian and Chinese armies lost and left. No explanation regarding how or why was received. Now the smoke became very heavy, dark and thick.

GLOBAL MEGAQUAKES TSUNAMIS VOLCANOS, US SPLITS, MAYHEM

Just as things appeared to be as bad as they could get, the earth began to quake. This occurred during a winter, seemingly the winter that followed the very long one I had seen earlier. The chaos had existed for almost a full year by this time.

The earthquakes began in the west, around Idaho and Wyoming, and then quickly spread in every direction. I saw a huge earthquake hit Utah, and then California. There were earthquakes all over California, but they were especially devastating in the Los Angeles and San Francisco areas. San Francisco appeared to turn upside down.

The multiple earthquakes triggered volcanoes all over the west, and they started spewing a tremendous amount of ash and smoke into the air, causing it to become very dark and dirty and blocking much of what was left of the sunlight. There were also huge waves of water that swept over the west coast, and as I saw them I realized that this same thing was happening to coastal cities all over the world. The waves were so huge that Los Angeles was nearly swept away. I saw a wall of water taller than some of the buildings, perhaps as high as fifteen or twenty feet, sweep through Salt Lake City. I thought this was strange because of its location so far from the ocean, and wondered how a wave could travel all the way to Salt Lake City. I was impressed that the wave had not originated at the ocean, but was from under ground. I quickly noticed great cracks in the earth around Salt Lake City opened up and saw water shooting up out of the ground. I felt that deep under the ground was a huge amount of water and that the earthquakes had forced it up to the surface. Most of the buildings were swept away or destroyed when the water swept over the city. In fact there had been tremendous destruction, with only a few buildings left standing. The water coming from underground stretched from Idaho down to near Cedar City, Utah, and was very destructive. As I looked, I could see that cities all over the country had been devastated, and there was rubble everywhere. Most of the buildings were destroyed.

However, I realized that even though there was tremendous destruction from earthquakes, disease, floods, volcanoes, and tidal waves, the majority of the deaths were caused by the gangs of roving marauders that killed for pleasure. As I studied the scene for a moment, the thought occurred to me that the earth itself had become sickened at the terrible acts of cruelty that were happening upon it and was finally reacting through these natural disasters. The earth was attempting to cleanse itself of the chaos and evil that had engulfed the people.

The ash and smoke from the volcanoes had increased, and there was now almost complete darkness everywhere upon the earth. The diseases also increased in devastation, and I saw people literally dying on their feet. I saw another particular disease that started with red blotches, and then the victims would start to bleed from every opening in their bodies. Then the people literally disintegrated, or melted into unrecognizable masses of flesh and bone. The sight was horrendous, as death and the dead were everywhere. After this second terrible winter, I saw the survivors pile up the dead into huge piles to burn them. The stench was sickening. Some of the bodies had been burned during the time of chaos, but because people were more concerned with their survival they had mostly ignored the dead around them.

A huge earthquake occurred in the middle of the United States. It was tremendous and seemed to split the United States in half about where the Mississippi River is. The crack in the earth that resulted was huge, miles wide, and as it opened up the earth seemed to swallow everything. Water flowed in from the Gulf of Mexico all the way up to the Great Lakes. The Great Lakes did not exist any longer, however, as they became part of a large inland sea.

MEGAQUAKES WORLDWIDE

Then I saw another series of tremendous earthquakes all over the world. But they were not many, separate earthquakes, rather it was all part of one gigantic earthquake that shook the entire earth. Because of this earthquake waters overflowed their boundaries onto land all over the world. There were again huge walls of water along all of the coastal regions. This earthquake and the walls of water made the earlier ones seem small by comparison. I am not sure if the earthquake that split the United States in two was a part of this worldwide quake or not.

PLANET X, HUGE WHIRLWIND, PEOPLE HIDING IN ROCKS

(More Sixth Seal)

Next I saw a mighty wind come upon wind come upon the earth. As the wind hit, I saw people go into caves and into the cracks of rocks to try to escape its fury. It appeared to be stronger than any hurricane or tornado. It seemed that everything that had been left was now blown away. I understood, without asking, that the great worldwide earthquake and the mighty wind were somehow caused by a huge planet-like object, that had come very close to the earth and had disrupted everything. It was also made clear to me that it was very near the “end” when this happened.

FIRST TRUMPET (BURNING)

Now my perspective changed: I once again viewed the entire earth from a distance. I then saw a huge fireball, much larger than the earth, approaching our planet. It was extremely bright red and gold in color, and it engulfed the whole earth. When I witnessed this event I could not help but feel the difference between it and everything else that had occurred, and so I asked what this was that I saw. I was impressed that it was the burning of the earth that is described in the Bible.

RAPTURE JUST PRIOR TO FIRST TRUMPET (pre-wrath)

I understood that just before the fireball's appearance Jesus had appeared, and the good people I had seen earlier had left with Him and were no longer on the earth. The few people left behind were those wicked who had survived the earlier devastations. The picture of the earth engulfed by this huge ball of red and gold fire slowly faded away into blackness.

VISION ENDS

I was thinking that I have to go down and take care of my children so that they could be protected from the terrible things that were going to happen and then I don't remember any more until I woke up in the hospital."Thanks for taking a gander at all the news I have compiled here as always Stay Safe!

(NOTE – I have posted a few reader comments at the bottom of this page.)

I am sending out this prophetic alert because God's people need to pray. If you have followed this ministry for any length of time, you may know that it has a history of prophetic glimpses that have been shared over the years. Some have come to pass, some are in motion, and some are still in the delay of God's mercy.

A few nights ago, I had another prophetic dream. It happened on December 5, 2015. I shared it that day with Doug Hagmann because I wanted to find insight on the meaning. After several days of holding onto it, I now feel prompted to share it with the brethren. Please take it under prayerful consideration. If anyone has insight on this information please let me know.

The Dream Begins

I was in the sky looking down and saw three aircraft carriers next to one another. I heard the words, "inland." It could have been in a shipyard, but I am not certain.

As I watched the ships from above, one of them began to rotate counter-clockwise towards the left. The ground under the turning ship was very shallow. It scraped the earth under it while it rotated. I am not certain where the ship was located. It might have been at a port. (The ship could have been in a dry dock getting repaired, serviced, or it could have even been a brand new ship.)

After it rotated, the carrier left the port traveling south to southwest. When it reached "deeper water" (I heard the words – deeper water,) it began to sink.

It did not sink entirely, but it tilted which caused the end of the ship to begin submerging causing part of its platform to go underwater.

Treacherous Times

Treacherous times are upon you, My children, and what is coming will be far worse. The darkness and evil that await those who are not saved now will be worse than Hollywood's darkest horror film, for Satan's wrath shall be upon them.

The Door to heaven is soon to be closed and the grace upon My people shall be reduced. Everyday life will be more difficult and you will strive to keep your faith alive as everything in the earth changes. Much treachery will be revealed, but much will be kept hidden.

Know in this time that what you see is not what is. Darkness lurks behind the governments you trust. Much evil is planned and will soon be released. Snares will be set for My people as the enemy's plans are unleashed. Many who are Mine will die in this time and come home to Me, but this is My mercy on them. Those who are lukewarm will be left on the earth that their faith may be refined.

Guard your hearts, My children, for evil abounds as never before. Be careful when you think you stand, lest you fall and lose your faith.

GODSHEALER7 – I have already opened the 1st Seal, those with Understanding Know this Truth

Daughter, speak this message. Prophecy to the multitude, for I see many asleep. This is not the time to slumber. These are dangerous, perilous times. As was written, the foolish virgins are busy spreading lies and false stories to the sheep. Not called, they in turn repeat these stories, and pass along false information, lies, to anyone seeking a sign or word of knowledge. This will remove all hope and faith. Children, you must endure many trials. You will see tribulation. Do not be deceived by liars and sorcerers. Test all spirits. My Word is Truth. The time is later than worldly men and scholars believe. I have heard and seen their lies with My own ears and eyes! You now must discern the truth. The seals as opened will create great quakes on your earth. This is the truth. I have already opened the first seal. Those having wisdom, knowledge and understanding know this truth.

REJOICING IN JUDGMENT

Rejoicing in Judgment

Posted on 12 March 2017 by Stephen Hanson

"For the judgment is merciless to one who has not shown mercy; mercy triumphs over judgment," James 2:13.

"For you see, people rejoice in a promise that is given. Most do not rejoice when judgment is coming.

Why would some rejoice in these things and others would not?

It is because very few know why I do these things. For My intention is to bring man to a place of repentance.

But man only sees the outcome from his point of view. Very few of my own long for Me to bring judgment upon the earth.

When I come back will I find faith upon the earth?

Many of you believe, but very few truly know Me in my judgment. For judgment is not a wreaking ball, but rather, it is done in mercy. And mercy triumphs over judgment.

Why would I destroy a land never giving people a chance to repent?

Why would I destroy a people who have rebelled against Me constantly, and yet, their heart is still searching for the truth?

I extend My arm to all who would listen to Me; My gift is freely given. It is a land that is founded by your fathers and yet, you have strayed far from My purposes.

The smoke and the stench of it, has long been reaching my throne. I have grown weary and tired of waiting upon you to turn from your evil ways. The safety net has been lifted."

Selah,

Two End time Open Visions

(By Ken Roman)

In the summer of 1956-57 I was walking along the sidewalk of my house and all of a sudden the entire atmosphere to my right became a blinding brilliant white. I was in New Jersey about 12 miles from NYC which was to my right. The intensity of this light was so all encompassing that it totally filled the entire eastern sky. Today I can say it was at least from the George Washington Bridge to the Statue of Liberty. I was young then and really did not know what I was seeing but I kept it to myself. Only several years later when I was participating in a US Navy NBC warfare class did I realize a brilliant white sky is what results after a hydrogen bomb.

In 1983 I was in a church service being held on the ORU campus and then while standing during the worship I saw a city like any major US City but it was such that there were no cars or any vehicles and there was no activity on the street or in the buildings that were there at all. What I saw was a line of people along the curb and they were missing legs, arms, eyes, feet, hands, and more. The next thing I saw was someone going down the line and praying for them and instantly there were now legs, arms, eyes, feet, hands, and other body deformities that were no more. What amazed me was the speed of this. I could not detect anything but a touch by the person and it was literally like Bing, Bing, Bing, that quickly! Then as the vision ended the Word of the Lord came to me and He said : "The Church started in the street and will end in the street"

To God Be the Glory.

The arrest of a couple suspected of killing and eating dozens of victims in Krasnodar is but the latest in a string of cannibalism cases in Russia. Fueled by mental illness, desperation and perverse fantasy, their oddness doesn't detract from the shocking cruelty.

On January 19, 2009 she thought everything could change when Maksim, described as charismatic and sociable, invited her to his apartment where he was partying with friends. The Syrian civil war has displaced thousands of Christians and Muslims, many who have fled to Lebanon. Open Doors

A Syrian pastor who has shared the gospel in the war-torn country over the past six years despite continued dangers has said he's witnessed a staggering number of Muslims, disillusioned by the atrocities committed in the name of Islam, come to Christ.

"God is moving and doing great things around us," Pastor Simon, who ministers in war-torn regions of Syria, shared with persecution watchdog Open Doors USA. "What the Lord did in the past six years, he saved hundreds of thousands of Muslims in different countries. Before the war, we only saw some believers from a Muslim background. God is moving and doing great things around us, many are being saved."

The pastor revealed that that since the start of the Syrian civil war in 2011, hundreds of thousands of Christians have fled the country. In the city where he ministers, there were some 900 Christian families in the city when the crisis began. Now, only 310 Christian families stayed, including three evangelical families.

A devout Muslim woman who harbored a deep hatred of Christians converted to Christianity after Jesus appeared to her in a dream and told her to visit a local church.

According to Christian Aid Mission, the young woman, whose name was not disclosed for security reasons, lived in Turkey's Black Sea coast along with her strict Muslim family. One Sunday, she showed up at the church of Pastor Matta, the leader of an indigenous ministry reaching Turkey's 96-percent Muslim population.

Through tears, she told the pastor she had seen him preach on weekly Web posts of the church's services.

"I did not know you, and I hated the Christians, and for this reason I was intending to make fun of you when I started watching your videos in the Internet," she said. "But the things I was hearing from you spoke to me of the love I was always looking for, and the words of faith and courage were doing away with my fears."

Her heart transformed by the truth of the Gospel, the young woman converted to Christianity. However, fearing for her life, she was hesitant to attend a worship service. That is, until Jesus appeared to her in a dream.

Muslim Who Tried to Kill Pastor Embraces Christianity After Dreaming of Man with 'Nail Scarred Hands'

By LEAH MARIEANN KLETT (email protected) Mar 27, 2017 12:54 AM EDT 0 Comments

Central African Republic is ranked 34th on the World Watch List of 50 countries where it is most difficult to be a Christian, according to Open Doors AP Photo

A Muslim extremist who dedicated his life to persecuting Christians embraced the religion he once despised after a man with nail-scarred hands appeared in his dreams.

As the dedicated leader of a mosque in a central African country, Ibn Yakoobi routinely targeted Christians, and even attempted to kill the pastor of a local church, according to a report from Bibles for Mideast, an underground Christian ministry that distributes Bibles and conducts evangelism in Asia, South Africa and the Middle East.

However, after witnessing an angel thwart his attempts to kill the pastor, Yakoobi was shaken and became increasingly curious about the Christian faith.

During Friday's Day of Assembly at the mosque, another religious leader warned Muslims not to believe the Christians nor attend their prayer meetings. The Imam shared how, during the time of the prophet Moses in Egypt, many black magicians performed miracles before King Pharaoh. But with power given to him from God, Moses destroyed such miracles.

"So don't believe and follow the black magic done by Christian followers," the Imam cautioned them. "Be on the alert"

Powerful Shaman Embraces Christianity on Deathbed After Dreaming of Man in 'Brilliant White Robe'

By LEAH MARIEANN KLETT () Jul 10, 2017 09:46 AM EDT 1 Comment

A powerful Shaman embraced Christianity in China after dreaming of a man in brilliant white robes. Open Doors USA

The Shaman of a village in northwest China has shared how she embraced Christianity after dreaming of a man dressed in a "brilliant white robe" while on her deathbed.

Persecution watchdog Open Doors USA shares the story of Ting, a Shaman widely respected for her ability to connect with demons of the spiritual world. Villagers in the surrounding area would seek her out for her wisdom, asking her questions like, "Who should I marry? What must I do to be successful? What does my future hold? Have I offended the spirits?"

However, Ting's talents and involvement with dark spirits came with a price. Her health began to rapidly deteriorate, and in just a few days, she was bedridden and completely paralyzed.

Doctors were unable to diagnose Ting or explain her mysterious illness. Aware that every moment could be her last, the elderly woman felt terrified, unsure of what faced her after death.

Mysterious Object Beyond Pluto Gives Clues to Existence of Planet Nine

LIFE 23:27 19.05.2018 (updated 23:34 19.05.2018) Get short URL

6 43 1

A recent discovery has added evidence that Planet Nine - orbiting in the Oort Cloud far beyond Pluto - exists.

Astronomers looking for evidence of a large planet lurking at the fringes of our solar system have instead located an odd dwarf world that, while not precisely what they seek, nonetheless provides additional evidence of the mysterious Planet Nine.

Astronomical observers have identified a small celestial body technically within the Solar System that exhibits a strange orbit that — according to researchers — can only be explained by assuming that another much larger as-yet-undetected object is also describing a similar orbit around the sun.

For a handful of years astronomers have asserted the existence of a ninth planet well beyond the orbit of Pluto circling our sun and have been resolutely searching the heavens for proof.

The hunt became serious after skywatchers in 2016 noticed that several distant solar system objects were behaving strangely. The far-orbit solar system bodies — much farther away than Pluto — all orbited the sun at a pronounced angle from that of the inner planets.

Hindu Extremists' Level Spurious Accusation of 'Conversion Racket' in India

By MORNING STAR NEWS (email protected) May 05, 2018 05:01 PM EDT

India ranked 15th on Christian support organization Open Doors' 2017 World Watch List of the countries where Christians experience the most persecution. Catholic Online

Christians in eastern India were worshipping on April 29 when Hindu extremists attacked and had them arrested on baseless accusations of operating a "conversion racket," sources said.

Three of seven Christians arrested have been in jail since then, and yesterday a judge in Danapur, Bihar state, rejected their plea for bail.

Some 60 Hindu extremists stormed into the house church service where 50 Christians had gathered to worship, 19-year-old Angel Pariyar told Morning Star News.

ON-THE-SCENE LIVE COVERAGE: IMAGE OF SATANIST EMERGES FROM SANTA FE SHOOTING

10 also injured, including officer

Kit Daniels | Intowars.com - MAY 18, 2018 965 Comments

Update: Explosives were found at the high school and the surrounding area, according to Chief Walter Braun of Santa Fe Independent School District Police.

Update #2: Multiple media outlets identified the suspect as 17-year-old Dimitrios Pagourtzis, citing police sources. Witnesses said the suspect was known to wear trench coats every day, which included neo-Nazi, communist hammer & sickle and Baphomet pins. Pagourtzis claimed to be an "atheist" on Facebook, yet he also predominantly featured a pentagram on his profile page.

Update #3: An earlier version of this report stated that 12 were reported dead and 12 injured, but Texas Gov. Greg Abbott has so far confirmed 10 dead and 10 injured. This article has been modified to reflect that revised figure.

At least 10 people are dead after a gunman opened fired at a high school in Santa Fe, Texas:

The suspect, who apparently fired into an early morning art class, was later apprehended by police – and another person has been detained, according to media.

GAY AND BISEXUAL MEN IN ISRAEL CAN NOW DONATE BLOOD WITHOUT DELAY, BUT NOT IN THE U.S.

Israel announced Monday that it would be lifting a ban on gay and bisexual male blood donors, a change that has not been made in the United States.

Israel's national emergency service Magen David Adom devised a "double testing" system that allows blood banks to screen donations twice, allowing gay and bisexual men to make immediate donations, according to the The Times of Israel. Prior to the Wednesday announcement, Israel shared the same policy seen in the United States, in which gay and bisexual men can only donate blood after a 12-month period of no sexual contact with another man.

Israel's Ministry of Health is allowing the new system on a two-year trial basis. The blood will be tested a second time after a four-month interim period when it will be frozen, according to the Times. In December of last year, the U.K. also adopted the waiting period in effect in the U.S., but LGBT activists said that the required year of abstinence still acts as a ban.

"These new rules are a welcome and significant step forward. We remain concerned, however, that for too many low risk gay and bisexual men these new rules are, in effect, a continued ban," said Development Manager Scott Cuthbertson of Scottish LGBTQ advocacy group Equality Network in December, according to NBC News.

Five invasive species of hammer-headed worms, some of them reaching 40 centimeters in length, have been discovered in France and overseas; remarkably enough, two of them were previously not known. Researcher Jean-Lou Justine says that his team was shocked to find that these bright-colored worms hadn't come into the spotlight for such a long while.

France has seen a new species of flat worms emerge; and its length may equal that of an arm, French scientists have remarked in dismay.

In an article titled "Giant Worm at My Place" (from French "Giant worms chez moi!") professor of parasitology Jean-Lou Justine from the National Museum of Natural Science and his colleagues wrote:

"We, the scientists, were shocked to learn that such bright worms escaped for so long the attention of the authorities and scientists in such a well-developed European country."

"To our knowledge no one has faced this before." Puna Geothermal Venture Plant compromised Monday exposing toxic and flammable gas Hawaii

Authorities were scrambling to firm up contingency plans Tuesday as lava pouring from Hawaii's erupting Kilauea volcano slowly encroached on a power plant on the Big Island. The lava flow entered the 800-acre property of the Puna Geothermal Venture Plant on Monday and had stalled at a swale about 300 yards from the nearest underground well.

On Tuesday, the lava was advancing.

"Fissure 6 reactivated last night and has been erupting since around midnight," Hawaii County civil defence officials said in a statement.

"The flows from Fissure 6 are slowly flowing closer to PGV property."

If lava breaches wells, authorities fear it could release hydrogen sulfide, a toxic and flammable gas. Most of the wells have been capped with thick steel plates.

Thomas Travis, an administrator of the Hawaii Emergency Management Agency, has warned that the intense heat could weaken the metal.

"That's why having lava flow across the well causes some uncertainties that have to be dealt with," he said.

"To our knowledge, no one has faced this before."

For residents in the area, uncertainty is the name of the game.

"It's different from a hurricane because a hurricane comes and goes," says Smiley Burrows, a Kapoho resident and caretaker of Green Mountain, a well-known Kapoho landmark encompassing 256 acres at the bottom of the lower East Rift Zone.

"Right now we're feeling safe and people are working together.

But it's an uncertainty we are dealing with on a daily basis and no one knows what's going to happen."

Kapoho residents like Smiley are keeping a wary eye on lava as it approaches the geothermal plant about five miles away.

But their main concern is water.

17 killed, 23 injured after new wave of severe flooding hits Afghanistan

Follow @TheWatchers_

Heavy rainfall and deadly floods continue affecting Afghanistan after unusually dry winter. Just days after floods took away lives of at least 34 people and 600 animals, a new wave of heavy torrential rains, flash flooding and landslides claimed lives another 17 people, authorities said May 19, 2018.

The worst affected over the past 48 hours were Balkh and Takhar province in the country's north.

8 people including women and children were killed in Balkh's Charhar Kint, Chimtai, Shulgara and Khulm districts. Hundreds of acres of lands have been washed out and several villages have been seriously affected by the flooding in the province. Sayyed Sarwar Housaini, spokesman of 707 Pamir Police Zone told Xinhua.

In neighboring Takhar province, rain, strong winds and floodwaters continue to plague residents in Rustaq, Chal Farkhar and Worsaj districts, killing nine people and injuring 21 others, according to Abdul Khalil Asir, provincial police spokesman.

At least 1 person was killed and 13 were injured after a mount collapsed in the Qarlaq Sali area of Rustaq district on Friday morning, May 18. The slide destroyed 50 houses, Sunnatullah Taimouri, spokesman of Takhar governor, said.

The flooding also washed away up to 80 ha (200 acres) of farmlands in the province and closed highway extending to the neighboring Kunduz province.

According to Afghanistan National Disaster Management Department, the recent rain and floods killed more than 60 people and damaged hundreds of houses.

World's Largest Geyser is Mysteriously Erupting a Lot Lately

While the world's eyes are gazing warily at the erupting Kilauea volcano in Hawaii, someone needs to be watching the Steamboat Geyser in Yellowstone National Park. After being dormant since 2014, the world's largest active geyser has suddenly spewed steam skyward (your tongue-twister for today) for the fifth time in less than two months ... and researchers can't explain why.

Old Faithful gets all of the attention, but Steamboat is in the record books for its 300-foot (91 meter) eruptions that can last up to 40 minutes. To give you some idea how much water nature's biggest super-shooter fire in one blast, the nearby Cistern Spring is drained completely and takes a few days to refill. Experts estimate that's about 70,000 gallons. Unlike Old Faithful, Steamboat Geyser is completely unreliable. Until this two-month burst with just days between eruptions, Steamboat has gone from 32 days to 50 years between eruptions.

Big Island residents feared "the big one" after Kilauea shot anvil-sized "ballistic blocks" and was rocked by earthquakes damaging buildings

Hawaii's Kilauea volcano spewed ash nearly six miles (9 km) into the sky on Thursday and scientists warned this could be the first in a string of more violent explosive eruptions with the next possibly occurring within hours.

"This has relieved pressure temporarily," U.S. Geological Survey geologist Michelle Coombs told a news conference in Hilo.

"We may have additional larger, powerful events."

Residents of the Big Island were warned to take shelter from the ash as toxic gas levels spiked in a small southeast area where lava has burst from the ground during the two-week eruption.

The wind could carry Kilauea's ash plume as far as Hilo, the Big Island's largest city and a major tourism centre, the County of Hawaii Civil Defense warned in an alert.

"Protect yourself from ash fallout," it said.

Some Big Island residents had feared "the big one" after Kilauea shot anvil-sized "ballistic blocks" into the visitors' car park on Wednesday and was rocked by earthquakes that damaged buildings and cracked roads in the park that was closed last week.

"The activity is such that they can occur at any time, separated by a number of hours," Hawaiian National Volcano Observatory Deputy Scientist-In-Charge Steve Brantley told reporters on a conference call.

Geologists said it was extremely unlikely Kilauea would have a massive eruption like that of 1790 which killed dozens of people in the deadliest eruption to occur in what is now the United States.

Hawaii volcano eruption is once in a lifetime event as Nibiru approaches says David Mead Mount Kilauea on Big Island has been erupting nearly continuously for more than three decades.

During the last 14 days, eruptions have become more frequent and violent, with an explosive eruption on Thursday firing a huge ash cloud 30,000 feet into the air.

Conspiracy theorist David Meade claims the recent volcanic activity has been triggered by the alleged Planet X or Nibiru system approaching Earth.

Nibiru is an alleged planetary object that is supposedly heading towards our solar system and will cause the apocalypse on Earth which will wipe out most of the population.

Sad reports of birds falling from the sky due to heat-related illnesses as heatwave shows no sign of relenting in parts of India

Map Earthwindmap

With over a 100 people dead from the extreme weather in India this week, spare a thought for the plight of the wildlife who also are suffering from the weather hell in the country.

At a time when many of us fall prey to dizziness and dehydration merely after spending a couple of hours in the scorching sun, the plight of stray animals and birds is much worse.

Of late, there has been a significant spike in the number of cases of birds falling prey to dehydration and heatstroke.

The situation has worsened so much that birds tend to fall and suffer head injuries, as they get dehydrated while flying.

Nearly 800 cases of birds falling prey to heat-related illnesses were reported at Jivdaya Charitable Trust (JCT) in Ahmedabad in the first fortnight of this month.

These include some 148 infant birds, 619 adult birds and 27 others."

This is the season for babies of birds such as Parakeets, Kites and Pigeons being born.

Of late, there has been a significant spike in the number of cases of birds falling prey to dehydration and heatstroke.

The infant birds are often ready for their first flight around this time of the year, but they get dehydrated and fall.

This is really sad, as the green cover is shrinking and birds have no natural shelter left," said Gira Shah, managing trustee, JCT.

Shah added, "It is high time citizens get sensitive to these aspects and act.

Heavy rainfall that hit parts of Burundi on May 4, 2018 led to significant flooding in Gatumba, approximately 12 km (7 miles) from the city of Bujumbura.

A joint assessment conducted on May 9 by Burundi Red Cross Society, the government of Burundi, OCHA, WFP, UNICEF, IOM, NRC, Millions for One and PACT in 6 sites in Gatumba indicated that flooding was caused by overflow of rivers Rusizi 1 and 2, tributaries of Lake Tanganyika crossing Gatumba area from Kivu.

The flooding had severe consequences with 12 956 people (2 143 men, 2 258 women and 8 555 children) and 2 133 houses affected in 9 locations.

Damage to infrastructure, including bridges and roads is also reported, hampering access to the affected population. With the assessed needs, urgent support is required for 12 956 people in Gatumba in the following sectors: Shelter, WASH, livelihoods and basic needs, health and protection, gender and inclusion (PGI).

Tropical Cyclone "Sagar" made landfall in northwestern Somaliland and Djibouti on May 19, 2018 with maximum sustained winds of 93 km/h (58 mph), dropping heavy rain and causing severe flash floods. At least 19 people were killed in Somalia, Djibouti and Yemen.

Sagar formed in the Gulf of Aden between Yemen and northern Somalia on May 16 as a first tropical cyclone of the 2018 North Indian Ocean cyclone season.

The cyclone caused heavy rains along the coast of Puntland on May 17. Flash floods, not limited to seasonal riverbeds, were reported in the Bari region.

The tarmac road that connects Bossaso and Garowe, among others, was inundated, leaving major centers, as well as many rural areas in the region and into Sanaag inaccessible.

There are also reports of some fishing boats having been washed away by waves off the coast of Sanaag region, which along with Sool are disputed between Somaliland and Puntland.

The two authorities have been engaged in an armed standoff in Sool that had displaced almost 10 000 people prior to the storms arrival, further complicating an already complex humanitarian picture.

Just 10 days after a powerful explosion at Mount Merapi in Magelang, Central Java, Indonesia, another phreatic eruption took place at the volcano at 01:25 local time on May 21, 2018 (18:25 UTC, May 20).

The explosion lasted 19 minutes and ejected ash up to 4.3 km (14 000 feet) above sea level. Volcanic ash was not identified on satellite imagery due to the meteorological cloud.

Ashfall was reported in several villages, the disaster mitigation agency spokesman Sutopo Purwo Nugroho said. The alert level of the volcano was not raised.

Heatwave kills 65 people in Pakistan's southern city of Karachi as temperatures hit 45 degrees Celsius (113 Fahrenheit) during Ramadan

People escape the heat / Reuters
A heatwave has killed 65 people in Pakistan's southern city of Karachi over the past three days, a social welfare organization said on Tuesday, amid fears the death toll could climb as the high temperatures persist.

The heatwave has coincided with power outages and the holy month of Ramadan when most Muslims do not eat or drink during daylight hours. Temperatures hit 45 degrees Celsius (113 Fahrenheit) on Monday, local media reported. Faisal Edhi, who runs the Edhi Foundation that operates morgues and an ambulance service in Pakistan's biggest city, said the deaths occurred mostly in the poor areas of Karachi.

"Sixty-five people have died over the last three days," Edhi told Reuters.

"We have the bodies in our cold storage facilities and their neighbourhood doctors have said they died of heat-stroke."

A government spokesperson could not be reached for comment.

But Sindh province's Health Secretary Fazlullah Pechuho told the English-language Dawn newspaper that no one has died from heat-stroke.

New outbreak of Ebola kills 17 in northwest DR Congo

AFP - May 8, 2018

Ebola is one of the world's most notorious diseases, being both highly infectious and extremely lethal (AFP Photo/CARL DE SOUZA)

Kinshasa (AFP) - Seventeen people in northwest Democratic Republic of Congo (DRC) have died from Ebola, the health ministry said on Tuesday, describing the fresh outbreak as a "public health emergency with international impact."

"Twenty-one cases of fever with haemorrhagic indications and 17 deaths" have been recorded in Equateur province, it said, citing a notification to the ministry as of May 3.

It is the DRC's ninth known outbreak of Ebola since 1976, when the deadly viral disease was first identified in then-Zaire by a Belgian-led team.

In Geneva, the World Health Organization (WHO) said lab tests in the DRC confirmed the presence of Ebola virus in two out of five samples collected from patients.

Doctors raise alarm about ancient virus 01:11

Story highlights

Rates of HTLV-1 infection are exceeding 40% in remote areas of central Australia

"Nobody ... has done anything about trying to treat this disease before," says doctor who discovered the virus

(CNN) — An ancient virus infecting residents across Australia's Northern Territory is leaving death and despair in its path, and doctors are now calling for greater efforts to stop the spread of infections.

The rates of human T-cell leukemia virus type 1, or HTLV-1, infection are exceeding 40% among adults in remote regions of central Australia, with indigenous communities being the hardest hit, especially in the town of Alice Springs.

Yellow fever threatens South Florida after Zika scare

By Larry Barszewski Sun Sentinel (TNS) May 6, 2018 3

The Zika scare of 2016 could lead to a yellow fever panic this year if South Florida residents let down their guard when it comes to protecting themselves from disease-carrying mosquitoes.

There hasn't been a yellow fever outbreak in the United States in more than 100 years, but state health officials are concerned that a large outbreak in Brazil and others in South and Central America could lead to infected travelers bringing the disease to South Florida, which has the right mosquitoes and climate for it to spread.

The disease is deadlier than the Zika virus. Zika raised alarms because many infected pregnant women gave birth to infants having microcephaly, a condition that causes abnormally small heads and developmental defects. Yellow fever can kill. Brazil reported 1,131 cases and 338 deaths attributable to yellow fever from July to March.

Most people infected with yellow fever will get symptoms so minor they won't realize they have been infected. Even for those who do notice, the symptoms such as fever, chills and headaches don't make it stand out from many other illnesses.

Christians and other minorities in Pakistan are bolting away from the predominantly Muslim nation by the “thousands” as Islamabad ignores harassment at the hands of Islamic extremists, reports Asia Times.

“Thousands of Christians, Ahmadis, and Hindus are fleeing as the government turns a blind eye to Islamic groups’ harassment of other faiths and beliefs; even atheists have now gone quiet,” notes the news outlet, adding “A closer look at the situation reveals that religious minorities and atheists are at a higher risk than ever.”

The report comes soon after U.S. President Donald Trump’s administration placed Pakistan on a U.S. watchlist for countries of “particular concern” over “severe violations of religious freedom” after the commander-in-chief blasted Islamabad for harboring jihadists.

“This is only going to get worse,” Ibn Abdur Rehman, secretary-general of the Human Rights Commission of Pakistan, told Asia Times, referring to the persecution of religious minorities. “The state has surrendered to the radical Islamists and plans on gradually taking away every last bit of freedom from its citizens.”

Chile's Catholic churches attacked ahead of papal visit

Protesters have vandalised several Catholic churches in Chile in the face of Pope Francis' visit to the country next week, and warned they will target the Catholic leader with a "bomb".

Demonstrators used firebombs to attack four churches in the capital Santiago on Friday, leaving behind a note warning the pope: "The next bomb will be in your robe," according to Latin American broadcaster Telesur.

Authorities have said they are investigating the incidents, which caused no injuries, though they have yet to make any arrests.

Chilean President Michelle Bachelet described the attacks as "very strange" and said authorities had been unable to tie the incidents to a "particular group" so far, Telesur reported.

ISIS TORTURES 11-YEAR-OLD IN FRONT OF HIS CHRISTIAN MISSIONARY FATHER, CRUCIFIES THEM FOR NOT CONVERTING TO ISLAM

More incredible horrors from the evil Islamist terrorists of ISIS.

From Christian Aid Mission:

“ At several steps on their path to death by beheading and crucifixion last month, 11 indigenous Christian workers near Aleppo, Syria had the option to leave the area and live. The 12-year-old son of a ministry team leader also could have spared his life by denying Christ.

The indigenous missionaries were not required to stay at their ministry base in a village near Aleppo, Syria; rather, the ministry director who trained them had entreated them to leave. As the Islamic State (ISIS), other rebel groups and Syrian government forces turned Aleppo into a war zone of carnage and destruction, ISIS took over several outlying villages. The Syrian ministry workers in those villages chose to stay in order to provide aid in the name of Christ to survivors.

“I asked them to leave, but I gave them the freedom to choose,” said the ministry director, his voice tremulous as he recalled their horrific deaths. “As their leader, I should have insisted that they leave.”

They stayed because they believed they were called to share Christ with those caught in the crossfire, he said.

At several steps on their path to death by beheading and crucifixion last month, 11 indigenous Christian workers near Aleppo, Syria had the option to leave the area and live. The 12-year-old son of a ministry team leader also could have spared his life by denying Christ.

The indigenous missionaries were not required to stay at their ministry base in a village near Aleppo, Syria; rather, the ministry director who trained them had entreated them to leave. As the Islamic State (ISIS), other rebel groups and Syrian government forces turned Aleppo into a war zone of carnage and destruction, ISIS took over several outlying villages. The Syrian ministry workers in those villages chose to stay in order to provide aid in the name of Christ to survivors.

“I asked them to leave, but I gave them the freedom to choose,” said the ministry director, his voice tremulous as he recalled their horrific deaths. “As their leader, I should have insisted that they leave.”

They stayed because they believed they were called to share Christ with those caught in the crossfire, he said.

And then they became captives of ISIS. Relatives relate what happened.

The relatives said ISIS militants on Aug. 7 captured the Christian workers in a village whose name is withheld for security reasons. On Aug. 28, the militants asked if they had renounced Islam for Christianity. When the Christians said that they had, the rebels asked if they wanted to return to Islam. The Christians said they would never renounce Christ.

The 41-year-old team leader, his young son and two ministry members in their 20s were questioned at one village site where ISIS militants had summoned a crowd. The team leader presided over nine house churches he had helped to establish. His son was two months away from his 13th birthday.

In front of the team leader and relatives in the crowd, the Islamic extremists cut off the fingertips of the boy and severely beat him, telling his father they would stop the torture only if he, the father, returned to Islam. When the team leader refused, relatives said, the ISIS militants also tortured and beat him and the two other ministry workers. The three men and the boy then met their deaths in crucifixion.

“All were badly brutalized and then crucified,” the ministry leader said. “They were left on their crosses for two days. No one was allowed to remove them.”

The martyrs died beside signs the ISIS militants had put up identifying them as “infidels.”

Somehow people want us to believe that these evil monsters would have been boy scouts if George W. Bush hadn't invaded Iraq. And of course, it has absolutely nothing to do with Islam, right?

Unfortunately, other horrors were recounted as well. These perpetrated on Christian women.

Eight other ministry team members, including two women, were taken to another site in the village that day (Aug. 28) and were asked the same questions before a crowd. The women, ages 29 and 33, tried to tell the ISIS militants they were only sharing the peace and love of Christ and asked what they had done wrong to deserve the abuse. The Islamic extremists then publicly raped the women, who continued to pray during the ordeal, leading the ISIS militants to beat them all the more furiously.

As the two women and the six men knelt before they were beheaded, they were all praying.

“Villagers said some were praying in the name of Jesus, others said some were praying the Lord’s prayer, and others said some of them lifted their heads to commend their spirits to Jesus,” the ministry director said. “One of the women looked up and seemed to be almost smiling as she said, ‘Jesus!’”

After they were beheaded, their bodies were hung on crosses, the ministry director said, his voice breaking. He had trained all of the workers for their evangelistic ministry, and he had baptized the team leader and some of the others.

This is what is happening in the Middle East right now.

And instead of doing anything about it, Obama is sitting back and letting Turkey’s Erdogan attack his enemies among the Kurds in Syria, and letting Putin attack the enemies of his pal Assad. We’re not even leading from behind anymore, we’re just ceding ground to Satanic evil every day.

Indonesia church bombings: police say one family and their children behind attacks

Husband, wife and four children aged nine to 18 believed to be responsible for worst attack in more than a decade

▲ Three churches in Indonesia hit by suicide bombers - video report

At least 11 people have been killed and dozens injured in multiple suicide bombings at three churches in Surabaya, Indonesia's second-largest city, in a coordinated attack police said was carried out by one family and their children.

The Indonesian police chief, Tito Karniawan, told reporters that investigators believed one family - a husband and wife, and their four children aged between nine and 18 - were the perpetrators of the worst attack the country has seen in more than a decade.

The first explosion at the Santa Maria Catholic church, which killed four people, was followed by attacks at the Surabaya Centre Pentecostal church and GKI Diponegoro church minutes later on Sunday.

The Islamic State terrorist who arrived in France as a refugee from war-torn Chechnya then launched a nine-minute lethal knife rampage in Paris has been pictured for the first time.

The 20-year-old, named Khamzat Asimov, murdered one man and severely wounded four others - including a Chinese and Luxembourg citizen - in the attacks close to the historic Opera Garnier, in the centre of the city.

Hours afterwards, his parents were both arrested at the family home in Paris, where they have lived since fleeing Chechnya in the early 2000s.

He was on an anti-terror watchlist of suspected extremists, sources close said today.

Police said they had arrested and held for questioning a friend of the attacker in Strasbourg.

WAIKIKI (HawaiiNewsNow) - The FBI and Honolulu police are investigating after finding a large cache of loaded weapons during a raid of a Waikiki hotel room that sources say was prompted by disturbing posts on social media.

The arsenal included a high-powered rifle, hundreds of rounds of ammunition, and an assortment of other weapons.

But the man staying in the room wasn't arrested.

The FBI notified Honolulu police Thursday about a guest in room 803 at the Equus Hotel, saying he was claiming to be a federal agent in disturbing posts on social media.

The 38-year old claimed his mission was to hunt terrorist cells.

When police arrived at the Equus on Ala Moana Boulevard, sources say, they found an arsenal:

- An AR-15, and 15 high-capacity magazines — all loaded.
- A shotgun and two handguns.
- A total of more than 800 rounds of ammunition, plus 18 military styles knives and body armor.
